

DAISY GIRL SCOUT

FIRST SIX MEETINGS

Welcome to the World of Girl Scouting. You have chosen to be a leader for a group of young girls who will impact our world. You are touching the future. Congratulations!

This is a guide to help you plan the first six meetings of your troop. It is not designed to take the place of training. Use these suggestions as they are, delete what won't work, or add things of your own design consistent with Girl Scout program. In partnership with the girls, you have the opportunity to use your own talents and skills to create a fun, safe, and nurturing environment.

Materials needed for all meetings are troop copies of girl and adult registration forms, health forms, attendance roster, a small U.S. Flag, and a First Aid Kit. You might also have basic art supplies on hand, such as paper, scissors, yarn, glue sticks, and crayons.

PARTS OF A MEETING

A Daisy Girl Scout troop meets for 60 – 90 minutes. The order of the meeting components is flexible to meet the needs of the girls, but should include:

- Start-Up A simple activity to be done as girls arrive.
- Opening Girl Scout Promise, flag ceremony, and a simple song.
- Business Decision-making and information to be shared with the girls.
- Activities One or more program activities, followed by a healthy snack.
- Clean Up A Girl Scout leaves a place cleaner than she found it.
- Closing Song and sharing to say Good Bye until next time.

Introduce the girls to each other as they make the petals. Have jobs for parents who stay.
OPENING	When it is time to start, raise your hand in the Quiet Sign. Explain when your hand goes up, everyone's hand goes up, and everyone is quiet. Use this throughout the meeting. Gather in a circle and introduce the leaders. Teach the girls the song "Make New Friends." Make new friends, but keep the old, One is silver and the other gold. ~From the Ditty Bag by Janet E. Tobitt, by permission of GSUSA
	Introduce the Girl Scout Promise using Pictograph * and recite together.
BUSINESS	Sit in a circle and explain that the Daisy Circle is a time when we discuss the business of the troop. Illustrate this concept by having each girl glue her petal hand around the paper plate, making a daisy. Explain that everyone here is very special and together make this troop of Daisy Girl Scouts. Share any rules such as bathroom permission and staying in the room. The buddy system is always used.

- ACTIVITIES Continue sitting in a circle, and begin the sharing activity. Start the activity by using the "It & Other" bags. Pull a name from the "IT bag. The girl will start the sharing. (Put the name in the "OTHER" bag. When the "IT" bag is empty, put all the names back in the "IT" bag and start over.) Each girl introduces herself and her stuffed animal.
- ACTIVITIES (cont.) When sharing time is done, gather the girls at the table and sing "Gracias Señor" (Thank you, God)

Gracias Señor, Allelulia,
Gracias Señor, Allelulia,
Gracias Señor, Allelulia,
Gracias, Señor.

Use "It & Other" bag to draw names of helpers to pass out animal crackers and drinks. When you are finished eating, each girl throws away her trash. Draw another name and that person can wipe off the table.

Sit in a circle on the floor, read the Story of Juliette Low *, and talk about things she liked to do. Go back to the table and have girls color pictures of themselves and what they like to do. Make sure that each picture has a name. Put them aside to be returned at the end of the meeting.

- CLEAN UP Everyone helps.

- CLOSING When your meeting place is tidy, have girls gather in a circle. Explain that in Girl Scouts we do what the girls like to do. Remind them that many of those things are the same things Juliette liked to do. The special part of this is that Juliette's nickname was Daisy. Form a Daisy Friendship Circle by joining hands. Explain that we will passing the friendship squeeze which you will begin by gently squeezing the hand of the girl on your left who will then squeeze the hand of the girl on her left until it gets back to you. Sing "Make New Friends" and then everyone says together: "Goodnight Daisies."

Be sure to tell each girl that you look forward to seeing her at the next meeting and release the girl directly to her parent.

You made it! Relax and think about the uniqueness of each Daisy Girl Scout in the troop. Be sure to turn in troop registration forms to the Service Unit Registrar.

THE STORY OF JULIETTE LOW

Divide into seven groups; these will be Little Girls, Juliette Low, Georgia, London, Lord Baden-Powell, Boy Scouts, and Girl Scouts.

Sound effects:	Little Girls	Stand and Giggle
	Juliette Low	Curtsy and say "Glad to meet you"
	Georgia (State of)	Say "Hey, y'all"
	Lord Baden-Powell	Bow formally and say "How do you do"
	London	Sing "London Bridge is falling down"
	Boy Scouts	Make Scout sign, say "Prepared"
	Girl Scouts	Sing one line "Girl Scouts Together"

Once upon a time, there was a little girl named Juliette Low who lived in Georgia and loved to ride horses. After she grew up she went to London where she met Lord Baden-Powell who founded Boy Scouts. She was fascinated by the work he was doing. She studied with him awhile and decided to found a troop of Girl Scouts for her little friends in Georgia. So Juliette Low said goodbye to the Boy Scouts in London and came home with the idea that Lord Baden-Powell gave her. She formed a group of little girls, who liked to be together, into a troop of Girl Scouts. And they loved it so much that the idea spread and now there are troops all over the world.

Aren't we glad that a (speed up here)
Little girl named
Juliette Low from
Georgia who liked
Horses went to
London and met
Lord Baden-Powell, founder of the Boy Scouts, and came home to start the Girl Scouts.
