

‘Your excellency, I only said she was reading’ books sir, and they come and take her out my house for-”	86	This quote show the mount of fear, and hysteria that was present in Salem during this time. I was very surprised to know that someone would automatically be linked to witchcraft for simply reading a book. This also shows how credulous, and irrational they were in their accusations.
“Such a Christian that will not come to church but once in a month!” Paris to proctor.	90	In Salem religion played a big part of their everyday lifestyle. It was more of a law or routine to worship God and attend church, but this quote shows how they people can be insensitive to the circumstances other people are living under.
“Is every defense an attack upon the church?” Hale to Paris	94	When the church lacks sufficient evidence or feels like they're being challenged, they automatically categorized it as an attempt to go against the church. What makes it ironic or strange is that this scene takes place in a courtroom. In a courtroom, one
