ENTERED ACCORDING TO ACT OF CONGRESS, IN THE YEAR 1888, BY THE

"GENERAL CONFERENCE ASSOCIATION OF THE SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTISTS;"

IN THE OFFICE OF THE LIBRARIAN OF CONGRESS, AT WASHINGTON.

P R E F A C E .

THE importance of sacred song, as a part of the worship of God, has been recognized from the very beginning of the denomination in whose behalf the present work is issued. Among their earliest publications was a small collection of hymns, expressive of their faith, and breathing a spirit of consecration and devotion to God and his work. This was revised and republished from time to time, till some four different editions had been issued, accompanied by other smaller works.

But notwithstanding the good service done by these, it came to be generally felt that a larger work, more varied in its contents, and of broader scope—a work, in short, better suited to the present progress and development of our cause—was demanded. Accordingly at the session of the General Conference of October, 1884, a committee of five was appointed to draw up a plan of action by which the new hymn book should be prepared.

The plan suggested by this committee was that a large committee of twenty-five, located in different States, be appointed to gather material in the form of hymns and tunes, for the book, taking care to secure those which had been found to be useful, or had become favorites in any locality. The work of this committee was to pass under the supervision of a central committee of seven, who should recommend definitely what selections should be used.

This latter committee devoted considerable time to the work till the Conference session of 1885, to which they reported accordingly. Their report being approved, a committee of five was appointed to carry into effect the plan proposed, and issue the book.

This committee was composed of GEO. I. BUTLER, URIAH SMITH, J. H. WAGGONER, A. R. HENRY, and EDWIN BARNES, who took immediate steps to perform the duty assigned them. They employed F. E. BELDEN and EDWIN BARNES as musical editors of the work, the former devoting all his time while in the employ of the committee, and the latter a large portion of his time, to the discharge of the duties to which they were appointed. Their work has given eminent satisfaction to the committee, as we trust it will to the Church at large.

The setting of the type, both of the music and the words, was allotted to the "J. E. White Publishing Company;" the electrotyping, printing, and binding, to the "S. D. Adventist Publishing Association." To the efficiency of the work, in all departments, the appearance of these pages will bear witness.

The plan of the book provides for one or more pieces of music for each page; and generally every hymn on the page can be sung to the tune which there appears; but as others may in some instances be preferred, two or three appropriate tunes are referred to by numbers at the head of each hymn; and whenever a hymn is set to a new tune, the first reference is always to an old and familiar tune. All references are to the number of the hymn, not to the page. Whenever a hymn is given that cannot be sung to the tune given on the same page, the tune in which it can be sung, together with its number, is given at the head of the hymn. Due attention to these facts will enable all to avoid mistakes. A few favorite tunes which have become inseparably connected with a number of hymns, are for this reason repeated.

The theology of the present day is still largely tinged, in some particulars, with pagan and papal errors. To eliminate these, it has been necessary to change the phraseology of some hymns. This has been done only so far as it has been conscientiously felt to be a necessity. Some hymns found to have been unnecessarily changed from their originals have been changed back. Other changes which have been so long used that but few know them in any other form, have been for this reason suffered to remain. The hymns will be found generally of a high order of literary merit, and strictly in harmony with the teachings of the Scriptures.

A special effort has been made to gather up and preserve some old melodies which were favorites in the great Advent movement of 1840-44, but which have for some reason fallen into disuse. The older members of the household of faith, at least, will be pleased to meet with these again, in this book.

That all will be pleased with everything in this collection, would be, of course, too much to expect; but that all will find enough in it to make it a treasure to them, we confidently hope. It is printed on an all-linen paper, and bound in a manner to make it substantial and durable. No pains nor expense have been spared to make it first-class in every respect,—a worthy representative of the cause to which it belongs.

For the use of those who do not care for the music, a book of words only, is issued, containing all the hymns of the large book, and numbered in exactly the same manner, so that both books can be used simultaneously without any confusion. But in order to promote congregational singing, and uniformity in the rendering of the hymns, the committee recommend all to procure the large book, and all to join in the singing. All the profits arising from the sale of the book are to be appropriated to the missionary work.

Parties wishing to republish any of the pieces marked “copyrighted” or “by permission,” must obtain the privilege from those who own the copyrights.

We now commend this work to the charitable acceptance of that people who are waiting for the coming and kingdom of CHRIST, humbly hoping that it may prove a means of increasing their love to GOD and his worship, and aid them in the preparation necessary to associate with the redeemed, and join in singing the new song on MOUNT ZION.

HYMNS AND TUNES.

WORSHIP.

OLD HUNDRED. L. M.

GUILLAUME FRANC.

1. O Thou who dwellest up on high, To whom our prayers and prais-es fly,

Once more our voic-es all u-nite In song to thee, O God of light!

54, 3, 19.

- 2 Our humble gratitude we speak,
For all the blessings of the week,
As at thy throne of grace we bow
And ask thee for a blessing now.
- 3 O bless us as we meet to-day,
While unto thee we sing and pray;
O bless the word of truth we hear,
And to each heart be very near.
- 4 'T is vain within these walls to kneel
Unless our need of thee we feel;
'T is vain to lift the voice in praise
Unless devotion tunes our lays.
- 5 Help us to worship thee aright;
Let self be banished from our sight,
Unless thy Spirit prompts the view
To search our motives through and through.

47, 64, 168.

- 1 FATHER supreme, whose wondrous love
Our utmost thought so far exceeds,
We seek thy blessing from above,
A rich supply for all our needs.
- 2 On thee alone our hopes we rest,
To thee alone we lift our eyes;
Regard our prayer, though unexpressed,
Accept our spirit's sacrifice.
- 3 'T is not for present power or wealth,
Or worldly fame, we look to thee;
We ask thy gift of heavenly health,
The gift of immortality.
- 4 Fulfill in us thy faithful word,
Through Him who died to make it sure,—
Our Mercy-seat, our Righteousness,
Who lives again to die no more.

Anon.

WORSHIP—OPENING HYMNS.

BURTON, L. M.

ISAAC B. WOODBURY.

1. How pleas-ant, how di-vine-ly fair, O Lord of hosts, thy dwell-ings are!

With long de-sire my spir-it faints To meet th'as-sem-bles of thy saints.

136, 101, 104.

- 2 I long to rest in thine abode,
My panting heart cries out for God;
My God, my King, why should I be
So far from all my joys and thee?
- 3 Blest are the souls that find a place
Within the temple of thy grace;
There they behold thy gentle rays,
And seek thy face and learn thy praise.
- 4 Blest are the men whose hearts are set
To find the way to Zion's gate:
God is their strength; and through the road
They lean upon their helper, God.
- 5 Cheerful they walk, with growing strength,
Till all shall meet in heaven at length;
Till all before thy face appear,
And join in nobler worship there.

Isaac Watts.

47, 64, 58.

- 1 LORD, grant thy blessing here to-day;
O give thy people joy and peace!
The tokens of thy love display,
And favor that shall never cease.
- 2 We seek the truth which Jesus brought;
His path of light we long to tread;
May here his holy word be taught,
And here its purest influence shed.
- 3 May faith and hope and love abound,
Our sins and errors be forgiven;
And we, from day to day, be found
Children of God and heirs of heaven.

Anon.

316, 104, 23.

- 1 How sweet to leave the world awhile,
And seek the presence of our Lord!
Dear Saviour, on thy people smile,
And come according to thy word.
- 2 From busy scenes we now retreat,
That we may here converse with thee:
Dear Lord, behold us at thy feet!
Let this the gate of heaven be.
- 3 Chief of ten thousand, now appear,
That we by faith may see thy face;
O speak, that we thy voice may hear!
And let thy presence fill this place.

Thomas Kelly.

58, 51, 336.

- 1 THY presence, gracious God, afford;
Prepare us to receive thy word;
Now let thy voice engage our ear,
And faith be mixed with what we hear.
- 2 Distracting thoughts and cares remove,
And fix our hearts on things above;
With food divine may we be fed,
And satisfied with living bread.
- 3 To each thy sacred word apply
With sovereign power and energy,
And may we in thy faith and fear
Reduce to practice what we hear.
- 4 Father, in us thy Son reveal;
Teach us to know and do thy will:
Thy saving power and love display,
And guide us to the realms of day.

John Fawcett.

1. A - gain our earth-ly cares we leave, And to Thy courts re - pair;

A - gain with joy - ful feet we haste, To meet our Sav - iour there.

201, 204, 183.

2 Great Shepherd of thy people, here
Thy presence now display:
We bow within thy house of prayer;
O give us hearts to pray!

3 The clouds which veil thee from our sight,
In pity, Lord, remove;
Dispose our minds to hear aright
The message of thy love.

4 The feeling heart, the melting eye,
The humble mind, bestow;
And shine upon us from above,
To make our graces grow.

John Newton.

523, 70, 147.

1 JESUS, our Lord, make no delay
To meet us with thy love;
Drive interposing clouds away,
And make our guilt remove.

2 What do we here without thy grace,
O blessed Lamb of God?
'T will be a dark and tiresome place
Unless we feel thy word.

3 Come in with power to every soul,
O thou immortal Dove;
Make every wounded spirit whole
With thy redeeming love.

4 We long to meet our God to-day,
And taste his grace divine;
That every soul with joy may say,
"My Lord, my God, I'm thine."

Anon.

27, 395, 308.

1 COME, thou Desire of all thy saints!
Our humble strains attend,
While with our praises and complaints,
Low at thy feet we bend.

2 Dear Saviour, let thy glory shine,
And fill thy dwellings here,
Till life, and love, and joy divine.
A heaven on earth appear.

3 Show us some token of thy love,
Our fainting hopes to raise;
And pour thy blessing from above,
To aid our feeble praise.

4 Then shall our hearts enraptured say,
"Come, great Redeemer! come,
And bring the bright, the glorious day,
That calls thy children home."

Anne Steele.

120, 227, 70.

1 WHEN, as returns this solemn day,
Man comes to meet his God,
What rites, what honors shall he pay?
How spread his praise abroad?

2 From marble domes and gilded spires
Shall clouds of incense rise?
And gems, and gold, and garlands deck
The costly sacrifice?

3 Vain, sinful man! creation's Lord
Thy offerings well may spare;
But give thy heart, and thou shalt find
Thy God will hear thy prayer.

Anne L. Barbauld.

11

ST. THOMAS. S. M.

GEORGE F. HANDEL.

1. Je - sus, we look to thee, Thy prom - ised pres - ence claim;

Thou in the midst of us shalt be, As - sem - bled in thy name.

151, 266, 30,

- 2 Thy name salvation is,
Which here we come to prove;
Thy name is life, and health, and peace,
And everlasting love.
- 3 Not in the name of pride
Or selfishness we meet;
From nature's paths we turn aside,
And worldly thoughts forget.
- 4 We meet the grace to take
Which thou hast freely given;
We meet on earth for thy dear sake,
That we may meet in heaven.

Charles Wesley.

688, 191, 403.

- 1 WITH joy we lift our eyes
To those bright realms above,
That glorious temple in the skies,
Where dwells eternal love.
- 2 Before thy throne we bow,
O thou almighty King!
Here we present the solemn vow,
And hymns of praise we sing.
- 3 While in thy house we kneel
With trust and holy fear,
Thy mercy and thy truth reveal,
And lend a gracious ear.
- 4 Lord, teach our hearts to pray,
And tune our lips to sing;
Nor from thy presence cast away
The sacrifice we bring.

Thomas Jervis.

85, 30, 688.

- 1 COME, ye that fear the Lord,
And love him while ye fear,
Come, and with heart and hand record
Your vow and covenant here.
- 2 Here to his altar brought,
Your holy vows renew,
To be in heart, and deed, and thought,
Faithful to him, and true.
- 3 And true and faithful he
To you will ever prove,
Though hills were swept into the sea,
And mountains should remove.
- 4 Then be his paths your choice,
The joy of young and old;
As sheep that hear their shepherd's voice,
And follow to the fold.

James Montgomery.

191, 236, 266.

- 1 How charming is the place
Where my Redeemer, God,
Unveils the beauty of his face,
And sheds his love abroad!
- 2 Not earth's fair palaces,
To which the great resort,
Are once to be compared with this,
Where Jesus holds his court.
- 3 Give me, O Lord, a place
Within thy blest abode,
Among the children of thy grace,
The servants of thy God.

Samuel Stennett

1. Lord, we come be - fore thee now, At thy feet we humbly bow; O do not our suit dis-dain! Shall we seek thee, Lord, in vain? Shall we seek thee, Lord, in vain?

240, 272, 457.

- 2 Lord, on thee our souls depend;
In compassion now descend,
Fill our hearts with thy rich grace,
Tune our lips to sing thy praise.
- 3 Send some message from thy word
That may joy and peace afford;
Let thy Spirit now impart
Full salvation to each heart,
- 4 Comfort those who weep and mourn,
Let the time of joy return;
Those that are cast down lift up,
Make them strong in faith and hope.
- 5 Grant that all may seek, and find
Thee a God supremely kind;
Heal the sick, the captive free;
Let us all rejoice in thee.

William Hammond.

240, 407, 272.

- 1 LORD of hosts, how lovely, fair,
E'en on earth thy temples are!
Here thy waiting people see
Much of heaven and much of thee.
- 2 From thy gracious presence flows
Bliss that softens all our woes,
While thy Spirit's holy fire
Warms our hearts with pure desire.
- 3 Here we supplicate thy throne;
Here thy pardoning grace is known;
Here we learn thy righteous ways,
Taste thy love, and sing thy praise.

Daniel Turner.

37, 457, 158.

- 1 GRACIOUS Father, lend thine ear,
Deign our humble songs to hear;
Purer praise we hope to bring
When around thy throne we sing.
- 2 While on earth ordained to stay,
Guide our footsteps in thy way,
Till we come to dwell with thee,
Till we all thy glory see.
- 3 Then, with angel-harps again,
We will wake a nobler strain;
There, in joyful songs of praise,
Our triumphant voices raise.

18

240, 37, 339.

- 1 In thy house, while now we sing,
Tune our hearts, O heavenly King!
Then our joyful souls shall bless
Thee, the Lord, our righteousness.
- 2 While to thee our prayers ascend,
Let thine ear in love attend;
Hear us, for thy Spirit pleads—
Hear, for Jesus intercedes.
- 3 While we hear thy word with awe,
While we tremble at thy law,
Let thy gospel's wondrous love
Every doubt and fear remove.
- 4 From thy house when we return,
Let our hearts within us burn,
That at evening we may say,
"We have walked with God to-day."

James Montgomery.

1. Be - fore Je - ho - vah's aw - ful throne, Ye nations, bow with sa - cred joy;

Know that the Lord is God a - lone; He can cre - ate, and he destroy.

1, 58, 336.

- 2 His sovereign power, without our aid,
Made us of clay, and formed us men;
And when like wandering sheep we strayed,
He brought us to his fold again.
- 3 We'll crowd thy gates with thankful songs,
High as the heavens our voices raise;
And earth, with her ten thousand tongues,
Shall fill thy courts with sounding praise.
- 4 Wide as the world is thy command,
Vast as eternity thy love;
Firm as a rock thy truth shall stand,
When rolling years shall cease to move.

Isaac Watts.

108, 101, 23.

- 1 SERVANTS of God, in joyful lays
Sing ye the Lord Jehovah's praise;
His glorious name let all adore,
From age to age, forevermore.
- 2 Who is like God? so great, so high,
He bows himself to view the sky;
And yet, with condescending grace,
Looks down upon the human race.
- 3 He hears the uncomplaining moan
Of those who sit and weep alone;
He lifts the mourner from the dust;
In him the poor may safely trust.
- 4 O then aloud, in joyful lays,
Sing to the Lord Jehovah's praise;
His saving name let all adore,
From age to age, forevermore.

James Montgomery.

64, 592, 104.

- 1 NATURE, with all her powers, shall sing
Her great Creator and her King;
Nor air, nor earth, nor skies, nor seas,
Deny the tribute of their praise.
- 2 Ye seraphs who sit near his throne,
Begin to make his glories known;
Tune high your harps, and spread the sound
Throughout creation's utmost bound.
- 3 O may our ardent zeal employ
Our loftiest thoughts and loudest songs!
Let there be sung, with warmest joy,
Hosanna from ten thousand tongues.
- 4 Yet, mighty God, our feeble frame
Attempts in vain to reach thy name;
The highest notes that angels raise
Fall far below thy glorious praise.

22

212, 301, 304.

- 1 My God, my King, thy various praise
Shall fill the remnant of my days,
Thy love shall tune my thankful tongue
With humble prayer and grateful song.
- 2 The wings of every hour shall bear
Some thankful tribute to thine ear;
And every setting sun shall see
New works of duty done for thee.
- 3 Let distant climes and nations raise
The long succession of thy praise;
And every kindred make thy song
The joy and triumph of their tongue.

Isaac Watts.

23

ANGELS. L. M.

ORLANDO GIBBONS.

1. From all that dwell be - low the skies Let the Cre - a - tor's praise a - rise;

Let his almight - y name be sung, Through ev - ery land, by ev - ery tongue.

1, 168, 215.

- 2 Eternal are thy mercies, Lord,
Eternal truth attends thy word ;
Thy praise shall sound from shore to shore,
Till suns shall rise and set no more.
- 3 Your lofty themes, ye mortals, bring,
In songs of praise divinely sing ;
God's great salvation loud proclaim,
And shout for joy his glorious name.
- 4 In every land begin the song,
To every land the strains belong ;
In cheerful sounds all voices raise,
And fill the world with loudest praise.

Isaac Watts.

24

197, 47, 108.

- 1 O THOU to whom, in ancient time,
The psalmist's sacred harp was strung,
Whom kings adored in songs sublime,
And prophets praised with glowing tongue.
- 2 Not now on Zion's hight alone
Thy favored worshippers may dwell,
Nor where, at sultry noon, thy Son
Sat weary by the patriarch's well.
- 3 From every place below the skies,
The grateful song, the fervent prayer—
The incense of the heart—may rise
To heaven, and find acceptance there.
- 4 To thee shall age, with snowy hair,
And strength, and beauty, bend the knee,
And childhood lisp with reverent air
Its praises and its prayers to thee.

John Pierpont.

3, 58, 272.

- 1 GREAT God, attend while Zion sings
The joy that from thy presence springs ;
To spend one day with thee on earth
Exceeds a thousand days of mirth.
- 2 Might I enjoy the humblest place
Within thy house, O God of grace !
Not tents of ease, nor thrones of power,
Should tempt my feet to leave thy door.
- 3 God is our sun, he makes our day ;
God is our shield, he guards our way
From all assaults of hell and sin,
From foes without and foes within.
- 4 All needful grace will God bestow,
And crown that grace with glory, too ;
He gives us all things, and withholds
No needed good from upright souls.

Isaac Watts.

26

19, 54, 58.

- 1 ETERNAL God, celestial King,
Exalted be thy glorious name ;
Let hosts in heaven thy praises sing,
And saints on earth thy love proclaim.
- 2 My heart is fixed on thee, my God,
I rest my hope on thee alone ;
I'll spread thy sacred truths abroad,
To all mankind thy love make known.
- 3 With those who in thy grace abound,
To thee I'll raise my thankful voice,
Till every land, the earth around,
Shall hear, and in thy name rejoice.

William Wrangham.

HARVEY'S CHANT. C. M.

WILLIAM B. BRADBURY.

1. With reverence let the saints appear, And bow be-fore the Lord; His high commands with reverence hear, And tremble at his word; And tremble at his word.

2 How terrible thy glories be!
How bright thine armies shine!
Where is the power that vies with thee,
Or truth compared with thine?

3 Sing, all ye ransomed of the Lord,
Your great Deliverer sing;
Ye pilgrims now for Zion bound,
Be joyful in your King.

4 O Jesus, Lord of earth and heaven,
Our life and joy, to thee
Be honor, thanks, and blessing given
Through all eternity.

Isaac Watts.

28

201, 7, 546.

1 WHAT shall I render to my God
For all his kindness shown?
My feet shall visit thine abode,
My songs address thy throne.

2 Among the saints who fill thy house
My offering shall be paid;
There shall my zeal perform the vows
My soul in anguish made.

3 How much is mercy thy delight,
Thou ever-blessed God!
How dear thy servants in thy sight!
How precious is their blood!

4 How happy all thy servants are!
How great thy grace to me!
My life, which thou hast made thy care,
Lord, I devote to thee.

5 Now I am thine, forever thine,
Nor shall my purpose move;
Thy hand hath loosed my bonds of pain,
And bound me with thy love.

6 Here in thy courts I leave my vow,
And thy rich grace record;
Witness, ye saints, who hear me now,
If I forsake the Lord

Isaac Watts.

29

227, 548, 395.

1 HOLY and reverend is the name
Of our eternal King;
Thrice holy Lord! the angels cry;
Thrice holy! let us sing.

2 The deepest reverence of the mind,
Pay, O my soul! to God;
Lift with thy hands a holy heart
To his sublime abode.

3 With sacred awe pronounce his name
Whom words nor thoughts can reach;
A broken heart shall please him more
Than the best forms of speech.

4 Thou holy God, preserve our souls
From all pollution free;
The pure in heart are thy delight,
And they thy face shall see.

5 Till then thy service shall be ours,
Thy praise our constant theme;
We'll worship thee with all our powers,
Whose mercy doth redeem.

John Needham.

30

WAUGH, S. M.

RALPH HARRISON.

1. Come, ye who love the Lord, And let your joys be known;

Join in a song of sweet ac-cord; And thus sur-round the throne.

11, 26c, 55b.

- 2 Let those refuse to sing
Who never knew our God;
But children of the heavenly King
May speak their joys abroad.
- 3 The hill of Zion yields
A thousand sacred sweets
Before we reach the heavenly fields,
Or walk the golden streets.
- 4 Then let our songs abound,
And every tear be dry;
We're marching through Immanuel's ground.
To fairer worlds on high.

Isaac Watts.

31

39, 85, 601.

- 1 STAND up, and bless the Lord,
Ye people of his choice;
Stand up, and bless the Lord your God,
With heart, and soul, and voice.
- 2 Though high above all praise,
Above all blessing high,
Who would not fear his holy name,
And laud and magnify?
- 3 O for the living flame
From his own altar brought,
To touch our lips, our souls inspire,
And wing to heaven our thought!
- 4 God is our strength and song,
And his salvation ours;
Then be his love in Christ proclaimed
With all our ransomed powers.

James Montgomery.

32

30, 11, 151.

- 1 COME, sound his praise abroad,
And hymns of glory sing;
Jehovah is the sovereign God,
The universal King.
- 2 He formed the deep unknown,
He gave the seas their bound;
The watery worlds are all his own,
And his the solid ground.
- 3 Come, worship at his throne,
Come, bow before the Lord;
We are his work, and not our own;
He formed us by his word.
- 4 To-day attend his voice,
Nor dare provoke his rod;
Come, like the people of his choice,
And own your gracious God.

Isaac Watts.

35, 688, 151.

- 1 SING to the Lord, our Might,—
With holy fervor sing;
Let hearts and instruments unite
To praise our heavenly King.
- 2 As unto them of old,
Who roamed this wilderness,
Our God is still as near his fold,
To pity and to bless.
- 3 Then let us open wide
Our hearts for him to fill;
And he who Israel's God is called,
Will help his Israel still.

James F. Lytle.

1. Praise ye Jo - ho - vah's name, Praise through his courts proclaim, Rise and a - dore. High o'er the heavens a - bove, Sound his great acts of love, While his rich grace we prove Vast as his power.

127, 155, 694.

- 2 Now let the trumpet raise
Sounds of triumphant praise,
Wide as his fame.
There let the harp be found;
Organs of solemn sound,
Roll your deep notes around,
Filled with his name.
- 3 While his high praise you sing,
Shake every sounding string;
Sweet the accord!
He vital breath bestows;
Let every breath that flows,
His noble fame disclose;
Praise ye the Lord.

- 1 God of the morning ray,
God of the rising day,
Glorious in power!
In thee we live and move,
And thus we daily prove
Thy condescending love
Each passing hour.
- 2 God of our feeble race,
God of redeeming grace,
Spirit all-blest!
Our own eternal Friend,
Thy guardian influence lend,
From every snare defend;
In thee we rest.

Thomas Hastings.

- 1 COME, thou almighty King,
Help us thy name to sing,
Help us to praise,
Father all-glorious,
O'er all victorious,
Come, and reign over us,
Ancient of Days.
- 2 Come, thou incarnate Word,
Gird on thy mighty sword,
Our prayer attend;
Come and thy people bless,
And give thy word success;
Spirit of holiness,
On us descend.
- 3 Come, holy Comforter,
Thy sacred witness bear
In this glad hour:
Thou who almighty art,
Rule now in every heart,
And ne'er from us depart,
Spirit of power.
- 4 Thou art the mighty One,
On earth thy will be done,
From shore to shore.
Thy sovereign majesty
May we in glory see,
And through eternity
Love and adore.

Lord, as incense to the skies,
May thy Spirit's quickening fire,
Every heart and tongue inspire.
- 3 Praises for thy love to man,
For redemption's wondrous plan,
For the life that thou didst give,
Lord, that we, thy foes, might live!
- 4 Daily gifts of love untold
From thy bounteous hand unfold;
Thine's a never-failing store,—
O for hearts to praise thee more!

- 1 MAGNIFY Jehovah's name;
For his mercies, ever sure,
From eternity the same,
To eternity endure.
- 2 Let his ransomed flock rejoice,
Gathered out of every land
As the people of his choice,
Plucked from the destroyer's hand.
- 3 To the Lord their God they cry;
He inclines a gracious ear,
Sends deliverance from on high,
Rescues them from all their fear.
- 4 O that men would praise the Lord
For his goodness to their race!
For the wonders of his word,
And the riches of his grace!

- 1 PRAISE the Lord—his power confess:
Praise him in his holiness;
Praise him as the theme inspires,
Praise him as his fame requires.
- 2 Let the trumpet's lofty sound
Spread its loudest notes around;
Let the harp unite in praise,
With the sacred minstrel's lays.
- 3 Let the organ join to bless
God, the Lord of righteousness;
Tune your voice to spread the fame
Of the great Jehovah's name.
- 4 All who dwell beneath his light,
In his praise your hearts unite;
While the stream of song is poured,
Praise and magnify the Lord.

Past and present and to be,
Like the years of his right hand,
Like his own eternity.
- 3 Praise him, ye who know his love;
Praise him from the depths beneath;
Praise him in the heights above;
Praise your Maker, all that breathe.

1. O worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness, Bow down before him, his glory proclaim;

With gold of obedience, and incense of lowliness, Kneel and adore him, the Lord is his name.

2 Low at his feet lay thy burden of carefulness,
High on his heart he will bear it for thee,
Comfort thy sorrows, and answer thy prayer-fulness,
Guiding thy steps as may best for thee be.

Truth in its beauty, and love in its tenderness,
These are the offerings to lay on his shrine.

4 These, though we bring them in trembling and fearfulness,

3 Fear not to enter his courts in the slenderness
Of the poor wealth thou wouldst reckon as thine:

He will accept for the Name that is dear;
Mornings of joy give for evenings of tearfulness,
Trust for our trembling, and hope for our fear.

1. Be joy-ful in God, all ye lands of the earth; O serve him with gladness and fear!

Exult in his presence with mu-sic and mirth, With love and de-votion draw near.

2 Jehovah is God, and Jehovah alone,
Creator and ruler o'er all;
And we are his people, his scepter we own,
His sheep, and we follow his call.

His praise with melodious accordance prolong,
And bless his adorable name.

3 O, enter his gates with thanksgiving and song,
Your vows in his temple proclaim;

4 For good is the Lord, inexpressibly good.
And we are the work of his hand;
His mercy and truth from eternity stood,
And shall to eternity stand.

Thy truth shall break through every cloud That veils thy just and wise de - signs.

19, 3, 101.

- 2 Forever firm thy justice stands,
As mountains their foundations keep ;
Wise as the wonders of thy hands,
Thy judgments are a mighty deep.
- 3 O God, how excellent thy grace,
Whence all our hope and comfort spring !
The sons of Adam, in distress,
Fly to the shadow of thy wing.
- 4 In the provisions of thy house
We still shall find a sweet repast ;
There mercy like a river flows,
And brings salvation to our taste.

Isaac Watts.

- 1 WAIT, O my soul, thy Maker's will,
Tumultuous passions all be still,
Nor let a murmuring thought arise ;
His ways are just, his counsels wise.
- 2 In realms of cloudless light he dwells,
Performs his work, the cause conceals ;
And though his footsteps are unknown,
Judgment and truth support his throne.
- 3 In heaven and earth and air and seas
He executes his firm decrees ;
And by his saints it stands confessed
That what he does is ever best.
- 4 Wait, then, my soul, submissive wait,
With reverence bow before his seat,
And 'mid the terrors of his rod
Trust in a wise and gracious God.

- 1 THINE, Lord, is wisdom, thine alone ;
Justice and truth before thee stand :
Yet, nearer to thy sacred throne
Mercy withhold thy lifted hand.

Each rising morn thy plenteous grace ;
Thy wakened wrath doth slowly move,
Thy willing mercy flies apace.
- 3 To thy benign, indulgent care,
Father, this light, this breath, we owe ;
And all we have, and all we are,
From thee, great Source of being, flow.

The power omnipotent is thine ;
And when created nature dies,
Thy never-ceasing glories shine.

- 1 ETERNAL Power, whose high abode
Becomes the grandeur of a God,
Infinite lengths beyond the bounds
Where stars revolve their little rounds !
- 2 Earth, from afar, hath heard thy fame,
And worms have learned to lisp thy name ;
But O ! the glories of thy mind
Leave all our soaring thoughts behind.
- 3 God is in heaven, and men below ;
Be short our tunes, our words be few ;
A solemn reverence checks our songs,
And praise sits silent on our tongues.

2 Loud may the troubled ocean roar;
In sacred peace our souls abide;
While every nation, every shore,
Trembles, and dreads the swelling tide.

3 There is a stream whose gentle flow
Supplies the city of our God,
Life, love, and joy, still gliding through,
And watering our divine abode.

4 That sacred stream, thy holy word,
Our grief allays, our fear controls;
Sweet peace thy promises afford,
And give new strength to fainting souls.

5 Zion enjoys her Monarch's love,

1 LORD of all being, throned afar,
Thy glory flames from sun and star,—
Center and soul of every sphere,
Yet to each loving heart how near!

2 Sun of our life, thy quickening ray
Sheds on our path the glow of day;
Star of our hope, thy softened light
Cheers the long watches of the night.

3 Our midnight is thy smile withdrawn,
Our noontide is thy gracious dawn,
Our rainbow arch thy mercy's sign,—
All, save the clouds of sin, are thine!

4 Lord of all life, below, above,
Whose light is truth, whose warmth is love,
Before thy ever-blazing throne
We ask no luster of our own.

5 Grant us thy truth to make us free,
And kindling hearts that burn for thee,
Till all thy living altars claim
One holy light, one heavenly flame!

Oliver Wendell Holmes.

316, 542, 314.

1 LORD! thou hast searched and seen me
through;
Thine eye commands with piercing view
My rising and my resting hours,
My heart and flesh, with all their powers.

2 My thoughts, before they are my own,
Are to my God distinctly known;
He knows the words I mean to speak
Ere from my opening lips they break.

3 Within thy circling power I stand;
On every side I find thy hand;
Awake, asleep, at home, abroad,
I am surrounded still with God.

4 Amazing knowledge, vast and great!
What large extent! what lofty height!
My soul, with all the powers I boast,
Is in the boundless prospect lost.

5 O, may these thoughts possess my breast
Where'er I rove, where'er I rest;
Nor let my weaker passions dare
Consent to sin, for God is there!

- 2 With whom dost thou delight to dwell?
Sinners, a vile and thankless race!
O God, what tongue aright can tell
How vast thy love, how great thy

- 3 The dictates of thy sovereign will
With joy our grateful hearts receive;
All thy delight in us fulfill:
Lo, all we are, to thee we give.
- 4 To thy sure love, thy tender care,

O high immense! what words suffice
Thy countless attributes to show?
- 2 Greatness unspeakable is thine,—
Greatness whose undiminished ray,
When short-lived worlds are lost, shall shine,
When earth and heaven are fled away.
- 3 Unchangeable, all-perfect Lord,
Essential life's unbounded sea,
What lives and moves, lives by thy word;
It lives, and moves, and is, from thee.
- 4 High is thy power above all height;
Whate'er thy will decrees, is done;
Thy wisdom, equal to thy might,
Only to thee, O God, is known!

Ernest Lange.

- 1 ERE mountains reared their forms sublime,
Or heaven and earth in order stood,
Before the birth of ancient time,
From everlasting thou art God.
- 2 A thousand ages, in their flight,
With thee are as a fleeting day;
Past, present, future, to thy sight
At once their various scenes display.
- 3 But our brief life's a shadowy dream,
A passing thought, that soon is o'er,
That fades with morning's earliest beam,
And fills the musing mind no more.
- 4 To us, O Lord, the wisdom give,
Each passing moment so to spend
That we at length with thee may live,
Where life and bliss shall never end.

Harriet Auber.

- 1 GOD is our refuge and defense,
In trouble our unfailing aid;
Secure in his omnipotence,
What foe can make our souls afraid?
- 2 Yea, though the earth's foundations rock,
And mountains down the gulf be hurled,
His people smile amid the shock;
They look beyond this transient world.
- 3 Built by the word of his command,
Ten thousand worlds on nothing rest;
All living things are in his hand,
And he who trusts his word is blest.

James Montgomery.

160, 212, 343.

- 2 In all my ways thy hand I own,
Thy ruling providence I see;
Assist me still my course to run,
And still direct my paths to thee.
- 3 How do thy mercies close me round!
Forever be thy name adored;
I blush in all things to abound;
The servant of a gracious Lord.
- 4 I have no skill the snare to shun,
But thou O God, my wisdom art:
I ever into danger run,
But thou art greater than my heart.
- 5 I rest beneath thy kindly shade;
My griefs expire, my troubles cease;
Thou, Lord, on whom my soul is stayed,
Wilt keep me still in perfect peace.
- 4 A glance of thine runs through the globe,
Rules the bright worlds, and moves their frame;
Of light thou form'st thy dazzling robe;
Thy ministers are living flame.
- 5 How shall polluted mortals dare
To sing thy glory or thy grace?
Beneath thy feet we lie afar,
And see but shadows of thy face.
- 6 Who can behold the blazing light?
Who can approach consuming flame?
None but thy wisdom knows thy might;
None but thy word can speak thy name.

- 1 God is the name my soul adores,
Almighty, high, Eternal One:
Both heaven and earth, with all their powers,
Proclaim the Infinite Unknown.
- 2 Thy voice ordained the rolling spheres,
And bade the countless planets shine:
But nothing like thyself appears
Through all these spacious works of thine.
- 3 Still restless nature dies and grows,
From change to change thy creatures run;
Thy being no succession knows,
And all thy vast designs are one.
- 1 HOLY as thou, O Lord, is none;
Thy holiness is all thine own;
A drop of that unbounded sea
Is ours,—a drop derived from thee.
- 2 And when thy purity we share,
Thy brightest glory we declare;
And, humbled into nothing, own,
Holy and pure is God alone.
- 3 Sole, self-existing God and Lord,
By all thy heavenly hosts adored,
Let all on earth bow down to thee,
And own thy peerless majesty.
- 4 Thy power unequalled we confess,
Established on the rock of peace;
The rock that never shall remove,
The rock of pure, almighty love.

- 1 THE Lord is King! lift up thy voice,
O earth, and all ye heavens, rejoice!
From world to world the joy shall ring,
The Lord omnipotent is King!
- 2 The Lord is King! child of the dust,
The Judge of all the earth is just,
Holy and true are all his ways;
Let every creature speak his praise.
- 3 He reigns! ye saints, exalt your strains,
Your God is King, your Father reigns;
And he is at the Father's side,
The man of love, the Crucified.
- 4 Come, make your wants, your burdens known,
He will present them at the throne;
And angel bands are waiting there,
His messages of love to bear.

- 5 O when his wisdom can mistake,
His might decay, his love forsake,
Then may his children cease to sing,
The Lord omnipotent is King!

- 1 PRAISE ye the Lord!—'t is good to raise
Our hearts and voices in his praise;
His nature and his works invite
To make this duty our delight.
- 2 The Lord builds up Jerusalem,
And gathers nations to his name;
His mercy melts the stubborn soul,
And makes the broken spirit whole.
- 3 He formed the stars,—those heavenly flames,—
He counts their numbers, calls their names:
His wisdom's vast, and knows no bound,—
A deep, where all our thoughts are drowned.
- 4 Great is our Lord, and great his might,
And all his glories infinite;
He crowns the meek, rewards the just,
And treads the wicked to the dust.
- 5 But saints are lovely in his sight;
He views his children with delight;
He sees their hope, he knows their fear,
And looks, and loves his image there.
- 6 Proclaim him King, pronounce him blest:
He's your defense, your joy, your rest:
When terrors rise and nations faint,
God is the strength of every saint.

- 1 LORD, my weak thought in vain would climb
To search the starry vault profound;
In vain would wing her flight sublime,
To find creation's outmost bound.
- 2 But weaker yet that thought must prove
To search thy great eternal plan,—
Thy sovereign counsels, born of love
Long ages ere the world began.
- 3 When my dim reason would demand
Why that, or this, thou dost ordain,
By some vast deep I seem to stand,
Whose secrets I must ask in vain.
- 4 When doubts disturb my troubled breast,
And all is dark as night to me,
Here, as on solid rock, I rest;
That so it seemeth good to thee.

- 5 Be this my joy, that evermore
Thou rulest all things at thy will:
Thy sovereign wisdom I adore,

- 1 GOD of my life, to thee belong
The grateful heart, the joyful song;
Touched by thy love, each tuneful chord
Resounds the goodness of the Lord.
- 2 Yet why, dear Lord, this tender care?
Why doth thy hand so kindly rear
A useless cumberer of the ground,
On which so little fruit is found?
- 3 Still let the barren fig-tree stand,
Upheld and fostered by thy hand;
Its fruit and verdure yet shall be
A grateful tribute, Lord, to thee.

The eternal, uncreated mind?
Nor men nor angels can explore
Thy heights of love, thy depths of power.
- 3 That power we trace on every side;
O may thy wisdom be our guide;
And while we live, and when we die,
May thy almighty love be nigh.

 The moon takes up the wondrous tale;
 And nightly, to the listening earth
 Repeats the story of her birth;
 While all the stars that round her burn,
 And all the planets in their turn,
 Confirm the tidings as they roll,
 And spread the truth from pole to pole.

3 What though in solemn silence, all
 Move round the dark terrestrial ball?
 What though no real voice nor sound
 Amid their radiant orbs be found?
 In reason's ear they all rejoice,
 And utter forth a glorious voice,
 Forever singing as they shine,
 "The hand that made us is divine."

Joseph Addison.

Wide as the wheels of nature roll,
 Thy hand supports and guides the whole;
 The sun is taught by thee to rise,
 And darkness when to veil the skies

2 The flowery spring, at thy command
 Perfumes the air, adorns the land;
 The summer rays with vigor shine,
 To raise the corn, to cheer the vine:
 Thy hand, in autumn, richly pours
 Through all our coasts redundant stores;
 And winters, softened by thy care,
 No more the face of horror wear.

3 Seasons and months, and weeks and days,
 Demand successive songs of praise;
 And be the grateful homage paid,
 With morning light and evening shade.
 Here in thy house let incense rise,
 And circling Sabbaths bless our eyes,
 Till to those lofty heights we soar,
 Where days and years revolve no more.

- 3 With longing eyes, thy creatures wait
On thee for daily food;
Thy liberal hand provides their meat,
And fills their mouth with good.
- 4 How kind are thy compassions, Lord;
How slow thine anger moves!
But soon he sends his pardoning word
To cheer the souls he loves.

Isaac Watts.

- 1 THY way, O Lord, is in the sea;
Thy paths I cannot trace,
Nor comprehend the mystery
Of thine unbounded grace.
- 2 As through a glass I dimly see
The wonders of thy love,
How little do I know of thee,
Or of the joys above!
- 3 'Tis but in part I know thy will;
I bless thee for the sight:
When will thy love the rest reveal
In glory's clearer light?
- 4 With rapture shall I then survey
Thy providence and grace,
And spend an everlasting day
In wonder, love, and praise.

John Fawcett.

- 1 LORD, when my raptured thought surveys
Creation's beauties o'er,
All nature joins to teach thy praise
And bid my soul adore.
- 2 Where'er I turn my gazing eyes,
Thy radiant footsteps shine;
Ten thousand pleasing wonders rise,
And speak their source divine.
- 3 On me thy providence has shone
With gentle, smiling rays;
O let my lips and life make known
Thy goodness and thy praise!

Anne Steele.

- 2 Deep in unfathomable mines
Of never-failing skill,
He treasures up his bright designs,
And works his sovereign will.
- 3 Ye fearful saints, fresh courage take;
The clouds ye so much dread,
Are big with mercy, and shall break
In blessings o'er your head.
- 4 Judge not the Lord by feeble sense,
But trust him for his grace;
Behind a frowning providence
He hides a smiling face.
- 5 Blind unbelief is sure to err,
And scan his work in vain;
God is his own interpreter,
And he will make it plain.

William Cowper.

70, 677, 120.

- 1 JEHOVAH, God, thy gracious power
On every hand we see;
O may the blessings of each hour
Lead all our thoughts to thee!
- 2 If on the wings of morn we speed
To earth's remotest bound.
Thy hand will there our footsteps lead,
Thy love our path surround.
- 3 How good thou art! how large thy grace!
How ready to forgive!
Thy mercies crown our fleeting days,
And by thy love we live.

- 4 Thy power is in the ocean deeps,
And reaches to the skies;
Thine eye of mercy never sleeps,
Thy goodness never dies.
- 5 From morn till noon—till latest eve,
Thy hand, O God, we see;
And all the blessings we receive
Proceed alone from thee.

John Thomson.

- 1 BEGIN, my tongue, some heavenly theme,
And speak some wondrous thing—
The mighty works or mightier name
Of our eternal King.
- 2 Tell of his wondrous faithfulness,
And sound his praise abroad;
Sing the sweet promise of his grace,
And the performing God.
- 3 His every word of grace is strong
As that which built the skies;
The voice that rolls the stars along
Speaks all these promises.
- 4 Let every tongue his goodness speak,
The sovereign Lord of all;
Whose gracious hands uphold the weak,
And raise the poor that fall.
- 5 O, might I hear that heavenly tongue
But whisper, "Thou art mine,"
Those gentle words should raise my song
To notes almost divine.

- 2 Unnumbered comforts to my soul
 Thy tender care bestowed,
 Before my infant heart discerned
 From whom those comforts flowed.
- 3 Ten thousand thousand precious gifts
 My daily thanks employ;
 Nor is the least a cheerful heart,

- 4 O, how can words with equal warmth
 The gratitude declare
 That glows within my raptured heart?—
 But thou canst read it there.
- 5 Through all eternity, to thee
 A joyful song I'll raise:
 But O, eternity's too short
 To utter all thy praise!

Joseph Addison.

- 1 GREAT God, how infinite thou art!
 What worthless worms are we!
 Let the whole race of creatures bow,
 And pay their praise to thee.
- 2 Thy throne eternal ages stood,
 Ere seas or stars were made;
 Thou art the ever-living God,
 Were all the nations dead.
- 3 Eternity, with all its years,
 Stands present in thy view;
 To thee there's nothing old appears,
 Nor aught to thee is new!

- 1 "My God, how wonderful thou art!
 Thy majesty how bright!
 How beautiful thy mercy-seat,
 In depths of burning light!
- 2 How dread are thine eternal years,
 O everlasting Lord!
 By prostrate angels day and night
 Incessantly adored!
- 3 How beautiful, how beautiful,
 The sight of thee must be!—
 Thine endless wisdom, boundless power,
 And awful purity!
- 4 O how I fear thee, living God!
 With deepest, tenderest fears;
 And worship thee with trembling hope
 And penitential tears.
- 5 Yet I may love thee too, O Lord!
 Almighty as thou art;
 For thou hast stooped to ask of me
 The love of my poor heart.

Frederick W. Faber.

1. There is a book that all may read, Which heavenly truth imparts; And all the lore its scholars need, And all the lore its schol-ars need, Pure eyes and Christian hearts.

227, 114, 70.

- 2 The works of God above, below,
Within us, and around,
Are pages in that book, to show
How God himself is found.
- 3 The glorious sky, embracing all,
Is like the Maker's love,
Wherewith encompassed, great and small,
In peace and order move.
- 4 The dew of heaven is like thy grace,
It steals in silence down;
But where it falls, the favored place
By richest fruits is known.
- 5 Thou who hast given me eyes to see,
And love for what is fair,
Give me a heart to find out thee,
And read thee everywhere.

John Keble.

- 1 WHILE thee I seek, protecting Power,
Be my vain wishes stilled;
And may this consecrated hour
With better hopes be filled.
- 2 Thy love the power of thought bestowed,
To thee my thoughts would soar;
Thy mercy o'er my life has flowed;
That mercy I adore.
- 3 In each event of life, how clear
Thy ruling hand I see;
Each blessing to my soul is dear,
Because conferred by thee.

- 4 In every joy that crowns my days,
In every pain I bear,
My heart shall find delight in praise,
Or seek relief in prayer.
- 5 When gladness wings my favored hour,
Thy love my thoughts shall fill;
Resigned, when storms of sorrow lower,
My soul shall meet thy will.
- 6 My lifted eye without a tear,
The gathering storm shall see;
My steadfast heart shall know no fear,
Because it rests on thee.

Helen M. Williams.

82

70, 120, 204.

- 1 THY goodness, Lord, our souls confess,
Thy goodness we adore;
A spring whose blessings never fail,
A sea without a shore.
- 2 Sun, moon, and stars, thy love attest
In every cheerful ray;
Love draws the curtain of the night,
And love restores the day.
- 3 Thy bounty every season crowns
With all the bliss it yields;
With joyful clusters bend the vines,
With harvests wave the fields.
- 4 But chiefly thy compassions, Lord,
Are in the gospel seen;
There like the sun, thy mercies shine
Without a cloud between.

Thomas Gibbons.

1. I sing the mighty power of God, That made the mountains rise, That spread the flow-ing seas abroad, And built the loft-y skies; I sing the wis-dom that ordained The sun to rule the day; The moon shines full at his command, And all the stars o-bey.

436, 434, 450.

- 2 I sing the goodness of the Lord,
That filled the earth with food;
He formed the creatures with his word,
And then pronounced them good.
Lord, how thy wonders are displayed
Where'er I turn my eye!
If I survey the ground I tread,
Or gaze upon the sky!
- 3 There's not a plant or flower below
But makes thy glories known;
And clouds arise, and tempests blow,
By order from thy throne.
Creatures that borrow life from thee
Are subject to thy care;
There's not a place where we can flee
But God is present there.

Isaac Watts.

436, 291, 636.

- 1 FATHER, how wide thy glory shines!
How high thy wonders rise!
Known through the earth by countless signs,
By countless through the skies.

Those mighty orbs proclaim thy power,
Their motions speak thy skill;
And on the wings of every hour
We read thy patience still.

- 2 But, when we view thy strange design
To save rebellious worms,
Where vengeance and compassion join
In their divinest forms,—
Here the whole Deity is known;
Nor dares a creature guess
Which of the glories brightest shone—
The justice, or the grace.

- 3 Now while the glories of the Lamb
Adorn the heavenly plains;
While seraphs chant Immanuel's name,
And try their choicest strains,
O may I bear some humble part
In that immortal song!
Wonder and joy shall tune my heart,
And love command my tongue.

Isaac Watts.

- 2 The creature of thy hand,
On thee alone I live;
My God, thy benefits demand
More praise than I can give.
- 3 Lord, what can I impart
When all is thine before?
Thy love demands a thankful heart;
The gift, alas! how poor.
- 4 O! let thy grace inspire
My soul with strength divine;
Let every word and each desire
And all my days be thine.

Anne Steele.

- 1 O LORD, our heavenly King,
Thy name is all divine;
Thy glories round the earth are spread,
And o'er the heavens they shine.
- 2 Lord, what is worthless man,
That thou shouldst love him so?
Next to thine angels he is placed,
And lord of all below.
- 3 How rich thy bounties are,
And wondrous are thy ways!
In us O let thy power frame
A monument of praise!

Isaac Watts.

11, 236, 89.

- 1 THE God who rules on high,
And all the earth surveys,
Who rides upon the stormy sky,
And calms the roaring seas,—

- 2 This awful God is ours,
Our Father and our Love;
He will send down his heavenly powers,
To carry us above.
- 3 There we shall see his face,
And never, never sin;
There, from the rivers of his grace
Drink endless pleasures in.
- 4 Yea, and before we rise
To that immortal state,
The thought of such amazing bliss
Should constant joys create.

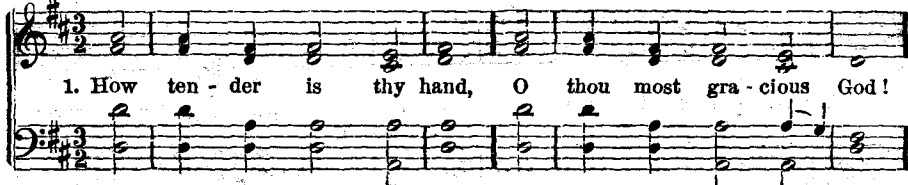

Isaac Watts.

- 1 My soul, repeat His praise,
Whose mercies are so great;
Whose anger is so slow to rise,
So ready to abate.
- 2 High as the heavens are raised
Above the ground we tread,
So far the riches of his grace
Our highest thoughts exceed.
- 3 The pity of the Lord,
To those that fear his name,
Is such as tender parents feel;
He knows our feeble frame.
- 4 His power subdues our sins;
And his forgiving love,
Far as the east is from the west,
Doth all our guilt remove.

Isaac Watts.

1. How ten - der is thy hand, O thou most gra - cious God!

151, 688, 403.

- 2 How gentle is the rod
That chastens us for sin!
How soon we find a smiling God
Where deep distress has been!
- 3 A Father's hand we feel,
A Father's love we know,
'Mid tears of penitence we kneel,
And find his promise true.
- 4 We tell him all our grief,
We think of Jesus' love;
A sense of pardon brings relief,
And lids our pains remove.
- 5 Now will we bless the Lord,
And in his strength confide;
Forever be his name adored,
For there is none beside.

Thomas Hastings.

- 2 O, bless the Lord, my soul!
Nor let his mercies lie
Forgotten in unthankfulness,
And without praises die.
- 3 'Tis he forgives thy sins,
'Tis he relieves thy pain,
'Tis he that heals thy sicknesses,
And makes thee whole again.

- 4 He crowns thy life with love,
When ransomed from the grave;
He that redeemed my soul from hell
Hath sovereign power to save.
- 5 He fills the poor with good,
He gives the sufferers rest;
The Lord hath judgments for the proud
And justice for the oppressed.
- 6 His wondrous works and ways
To us he hath made known;
And sent the world his truth and grace,

How kind his precepts are!
Come, cast your burdens on the Lord,

That hand which bears all nature up
Shall guard his children well.
- 3 Why should this anxious load
Press down your weary mind?
Haste to your heavenly Father's throne,

- 1 THERE'S a wideness in God's mercy,
Like the wideness of the sea;
There's a kindness in his justice,
Which is more than liberty.
- 2 There is welcome for the sinner,
And more graces for the good;
There is mercy with the Saviour;
There is healing in his blood.
- 3 For the love of God is broader
Than the measure of man's mind,
And the heart of the Eternal

- 1 MIGHTY God! while angels bless thee,
May a mortal lip thy name?
Lord of men, as well as angels!
Thou art every creature's theme:
- 2 Lord of every land and nation!
Ancient of eternal days!
Sounded through the wide creation
Be thy just and awful praise.
- 3 For the grandeur of thy nature—
Grand, beyond a seraph's thought;
For the wonders of creation,
Works with skill and kindness wrought;
- 4 For thy providence, that governs
Through thine empire's wide domain,
Wings an angel, guides a sparrow,—
Blessed be thy gentle reign.
- 5 For thy rich, thy free redemption—
Bright, though veiled in darkness long—
Thought is poor, and poor, expression;
Who can sing that wondrous song?
- 6 Christ the brightness of thy glory,
By thy mercy came to die;
How can mortal tongue be silent?
How can praise unuttered lie?
- 7 Leaving all his exaltation,
Bearing all our sin and woe,—
O, what love divine was shown us!
Flow, my praise, forever flow.

Robert Robinson.

1. Lord, thy glo - ry fills the heaven; Earth is with its fullness stored; Un-to thee be glory giv-en, Ho-ly, ho-ly, ho-ly Lord! Heavens still with anthems ringing; Earth takes up the angels' cry, Ho-ly, ho-ly, ho-ly, sing-ing, Lord of hosts, thou Lord most high.

132, 501, 844.

2. Ever thus in God's high praises,
Brethren, let our tongues unite;
While our thought his greatness raises,
And our love his gifts excite:
With his seraph train before him,
With his holy church below,
Thus unite we to adore him,
Bid we thus our anthem flow.
3. Lord, thy glory fills the heaven,
Earth is with its fullness stored;
Unto thee be glory given,
Holy, holy, holy Lord!
Thus thy glorious name confessing,
We adopt the angels' cry,
Holy, holy, holy, blessing
Thee, the Lord our God most high!

Richard Mant.

Help, O God, my weak endeavor;
This dull soul to rapture raise;
Thou must light the flame, or never
Can my soul be warmed to praise.

2. Praise, my soul, the God that sought thee,
Wretched wanderer, far astray;
Found thee lost, and kindly brought thee
From the paths of death away;
Praise, with love's devoutest feeling,
Him who saw thy guilt-born fear,
And, the light of hope revealing,
Bade the blood-stained cross appear.

3. Lord, this bosom's ardent feeling
Vainly would my lips express:
Low before thy footstool kneeling,
Deign thy suppliant's prayer to bless;
Let thy grace, my soul's chief treasure,
Love's pure flame within me raise;
And, since words can never measure,
Let my life show forth thy praise.

Francis Scott Key.

1. O worship the King, all-glorious a-bove, And grate-ful-ly sing his won-der-ful love;

Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of days, Pa- villioned in splendor, and gird-ed with praise.

2 O tell of his might and sing of his grace,
Whose robe is the light; whose canopy,
space;
His chariots of wrath the deep thunder-
clouds form,
And dark is his path on the wings of the storm.

3 Thy bountiful care, what tongue can recite?
It breathes in the air, it shines in the light;
It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain,
And sweetly distills in the dew and the rain.

4 Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail,
In Thee do we trust, nor find thee to fail;
Thy mercies, how tender! how firm to the end!
Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer, and Friend!

1 THOUGH troubles assail, and dangers af-fright;
Though friends should all fail, and foes all unite,
Yet one thing secures us, whatever betide,
The promise assures us, "The Lord will provide."

2 The birds, without barn or store-house,
are fed;
From them let us learn to trust for our bread;

His saints what is fitting shall ne'er be denied,
So long as 'tis written, "The Lord will provide."

3 When Satan appears to close up our path,
And fills us with fears, we triumph by faith;
He cannot take from us, though oft he has tried,
The heart-cheering promise, "The Lord will provide."

4 He tells us we're weak, our hope is in vain;
The good that we seek we ne'er shall obtain:
But when such suggestions our graces have tried,
This answers all questions, "The Lord
will provide."

5 No strength of our own, nor goodness, we claim,
Our trust is all thrown on Jesus' dear
name;
In this our strong tower, for safety we hide,
The Lord is our power—"The Lord will provide."

6 When life sinks apace, and death is in view,
The word of his grace shall comfort us
through;
Not fearing or doubting, with Christ at our side,
We'll still trust his promise,— "The Lord
will provide."

Ho-ly, ho-ly, ho-ly, mer-ci-ful and mighty! God o-ver all, who rules e-ter-ni-ty.

2 Holy, holy, holy! angels adore thee,
Casting down their bright crowns around

Thousands, and ten thousands worship low

1. Je-sus, and shall it ev-er be, A mor-tal man ashamed of thee?

Ashamed of thee, whom an-gels praise, Whose glories shine through endless days?

108, 58, 315.

- 2 Ashamed of Jesus! sooner far
Let evening blush to own a star;
He sheds the beams of light divine
O'er this benighted soul of mine.
- 3 Ashamed of Jesus! just as soon
Let midnight be ashamed of noon;
'Twas midnight with my soul till he,
Bright Morning Star, bade darkness flee.
- 4 Ashamed of Jesus! that dear Friend
On whom my hopes of heaven depend!
No; when I blush, be this my shame
That I no more revere his name.
- 5 Ashamed of Jesus! yes, I may
When I've no guilt to wash away;
No tear to wipe, no good to crave,
No fears to quell, no soul to save.
- 6 Till then,—nor is my boasting vain,—
Till then I boast a Saviour slain;
And O, may this my glory be,
That Christ is not ashamed of me!

- 1 JESUS, my love, my chief delight,
For thee I long, for thee I pray,
Amid the shadows of the night,
Amid the business of the day.
- 2 When shall I see thy smiling face,
That face which I have often seen?
Arise, thou Sun of Righteousness,
Scatter the clouds that intervene.

- 3 Thou art the glorious Gift of God
To sinners weary and distressed;
The first of all his gifts bestowed,
And certain pledge of all the rest.
- 4 Since I can say this gift is mine,
I'll tread the world beneath my feet,
No more at poverty repine,
Nor envy the rich sinner's state.
- 5 The precious jewel I will keep,
And lodge it deep within my heart;
At home, abroad, awake, asleep,
It never shall from thence depart.

- 1 O THOU, my soul, forget no more
The Friend who all thy sorrows bore;
Let every idol be forgot,
But, O my soul, forget him not.
- 2 Eternal truth and mercy shine
In him, and he himself is thine;
And canst thou, then, with sin beset,
Such charms, such matchless charms,
forget?
- 3 O no! till life itself depart,
His name shall cheer and warm my heart;
And, lisping this, from earth I'll rise,
And join the chorus of the skies.
- 4 Then through eternity I'll sing
The matchless love of Christ, my King;
And finding there no end of days,
So shall I find no end of praise.

1. Come, let us sing the song of songs,—The an-gels first be-gan the strain,—

The homage which to Christ be-longs: "Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain!"

212, 101, 347.

- 2 Slain to redeem us by his blood,
To cleanse from every sinful stain,
And make us kings and priests to God:
"Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain!"
- 3 To him who suffered on the tree,
Our souls, at his soul's price, to gain,
Blessing, and praise, and glory be:
"Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain!"
- 4 To him enthroned by filial right
All power in heaven and earth proclaim,
Honor, and majesty, and might:
"Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain!"
- 5 Long as we live, and when we die,
And while in heaven with him we reign,
This song our song of songs shall be:
"Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain!"

James Montgomery.

105

136, 101, 68.

- 1 WHAT equal honors shall we bring
To thee, O Lord our God, the Lamb,
When all the notes that angels sing
Are far inferior to thy name?
- 2 Worthy is he that once was slain,
The Prince of peace that groaned and
died,
Worthy to rise, and live, and reign,
At his almighty Father's side.
- 3 Blessings forever on the Lamb,
Who bore the curse for wretched men;
Let angels sound his sacred name,
Let every creature say, Amen!

Isaac Watts.

- 1 WHEN strangers stand and hear me tell
What beauties in my Saviour dwell,
Where he is gone they fain would know,
That they may seek and love him too.
- 2 O may my spirit daily rise
On wings of faith above the skies,
Till I shall make my last remove,
To dwell forever with my love.
- 3 In Paradise, within the gates,
A higher entertainment waits,—
Fruits new and old laid up in store,
There we shall hunger nevermore.

Isaac Watts

- 1 NATURE with open volume stands
To spread her Maker's praise abroad,
And every labor of his hands
Shows something worthy of a God;
- 2 But in the grace that rescues man
His brighter form of glory shines;
Here on the cross 't is fairest drawn
In precious blood and crimson lines.
- 3 O, the sweet wonders of that cross,
Where Christ, the Saviour, loved and died!
The noblest life my spirit draws
From his dear wounds and bleeding side.
- 4 I would forever speak his name
In tones to mortal ears unknown,
With angels join to praise the Lamb,
And worship at his Father's throne.

MIGDOL. L. M.

LOWELL MASON.

1. Je - sus, thou joy of lov-ing hearts! Thou fount of life! thou light of men!

From the best bliss that earth imparts, We turn un - filled to thee a - gain.

101, 336, 301.

- 2 Thy truth unchanged has ever stood ;
Thou savest those that on thee call ;
To them that seek thee, thou art good,
To them that find thee, all in all.
- 3 We taste thee, O thou Living Bread,
And long to feast upon thee still ;
We drink of thee, the Fountain-head,
And thirst our souls from thee to fill !
- 4 Our restless spirits yearn for thee,
Where'er our changeful lot is cast ;
Glad, when thy gracious smile we see,
Blest, when our faith can hold thee fast.
- 5 O Jesus, ever with us stay ;
Make all our moments calm and bright ;
Chase the dark night of sin away,
Shed o'er the world thy holy light !

109

301, 336, 215.

- 1 O THAT I could forever dwell
Delighted at my Saviour's feet,
Behold the form I love so well,
And all his tender words repeat !
- 2 The world shut out from all my soul,
And heaven brought in with all its
bliss,
O, is there aught, from pole to pole,
One moment to compare with this ?
- 3 This is the hidden life I prize,—
A life of penitential love ;
When most my follies I despise,
And raise my highest thoughts above ;

- 4 When all I am I clearly see,
And freely own, with deepest shame ;
When the Redeemer's love to me
Kindles within a deathless flame.
- 5 Thus would I live till nature fail,
And all my former sins forsake ;
Then rise to God within the veil,
And of eternal joys partake.

Andrew Reed.

110

1168, 101, 47.

- 1 AWAKE, my soul, in joyful lays,
And sing thy great Redeemer's praise :
He justly claims a song from me,
His loving kindness, O, how free !
- 2 He saw me ruined in the fall,
Yet loved me, notwithstanding all ;
He saved me from my lost estate :
His loving-kindness, O, how great !
- 3 Though numerous hosts of mighty foes,
Though earth and hell my way oppose,
He safely leads my soul along :
His loving-kindness, O, how strong !
- 4 When trouble, like a gloomy cloud,
Has gathered thick and thundered loud,
He near my soul has always stood :
His loving-kindness, O, how good !
- 5 And when earth's rightful King shall come
To take his ransomed people home,
I'll sing upon that blissful shore
His loving-kindness evermore.

Samuel Medley.

CORONATION. C. M.

OLIVER HOLDEN.

1. All hail the power of Jesus' name! Let angels prostrate fall; Bring forth the royal di - a - dem, And crown him Lord of all; Bring forth the royal di - a - dem, And crown him Lord of all.

114, 70, 1220.

2 Ye chosen seed of Israel's race,
A remnant, weak and small,
Hail him who saves you by his grace,
And crown him Lord of all.

3 Sinners, whose love can ne'er forget
The wormwood and the gall;
Go, spread your trophies at his feet,
And crown him Lord of all.

4 Let every kindred, every tribe,
On this terrestrial ball,
To him all majesty ascribe,
And crown him Lord of all.

5 O that, with yonder sacred throng,
We at his feet may fall!
We'll join the everlasting song,
And crown him Lord of all.

Edward Perronet.

27, 438, 264.

1 COME, let us join our cheerful songs
With angels round the throne;
Ten thousand thousand are their tongues,
But all their joys are one.

2 Worthy the Lamb who died, they cry,
To be exalted thus;
Worthy the Lamb, our hearts reply,
For he was slain for us.

3 Jesus is worthy to receive
Honor and power divine;
And blessings more than we can give,
Be, Lord, forever thine.

4 To him who reigns in worlds of light,
The eternal King of heaven,
Be honor, majesty, and might,
And praise, and glory given.

5 Let all creation join in one
To bless the sacred name
Of him who sits upon the throne,
And to adore the Lamb.

Isaac Watts.

113

438, 114, 227.

1 COME, ye that love the Saviour's name,
And joy to make it known,
The Sovereign of your hearts proclaim,
And bow before his throne.

2 Behold your Lord, your Master, crowned
With glories all divine,
And tell the wondering nations round
How bright those glories shine.

3 When in his earthly courts we view
The glories of our King,
We long to love as angels do,
And wish like them to sing.

4 And shall we long and wish in vain?
Lord, teach our songs to rise:
Thy love can animate the strain,
And bid it reach the skies.

5 Since thou art ours, most gracious Lord,
Can hope and comfort die?
We'll trust in thine almighty word,
That built the earth and sky.

Anne Steele.

114

1. O for a thousand tongues, to sing My great Re-deem-ers praise!

The glo-ries of my God and King, The tri-umphs of his grace.

677, 176, 120.

- 2 My gracious Master and my God,
Assist me to proclaim,
To spread through all the earth abroad,
The honors of thy name.
- 3 Jesus, the name that calms our fears,
That bids our sorrows cease,—
'Tis music in the sinner's ears,
'Tis life, and health, and peace.
- 4 He breaks the cruel power of sin,
He sets the prisoner free;
His blood can make the foulest clean,
His blood avails for me.
- 5 He speaks, and listening to his voice,
New life the dead receive;
The mournful, broken hearts rejoice,
The humble poor believe.
- 6 Hear him, ye deaf; praise him, ye dumb,—
Your loosened tongues employ;
Ye blind, behold your Saviour come,
And leap, ye lame, for joy.

Charles Wesley.

115

227, 646, 147.

- 1 My Saviour! my almighty Friend,
When I begin thy praise,
Where will the growing numbers end,
The numbers of thy grace?
- 2 Thou art my everlasting trust;
Thy goodness I adore;
And, since I knew thy graces first,
I speak thy glories more.

- 3 Sweet is thy speech with heavenly grace,
Thy form divinely fair;
There's none of all the mortal race
Can e'er with thee compare
- 4 My feet shall travel all the length
Of the celestial road,
And march with courage, in thy strength,
To see my Father God.
- 5 How will my lips rejoice to tell
The victories of my King!
My soul, redeemed from sin and hell,
Shall thy salvation sing.

Isaac Watts.

116

546, 201, 227.

- 1 To thee, my Shepherd and my Lord,
A grateful song I'll raise;
O, let the humblest of thy flock
Attempt to speak thy praise.
- 2 My life, my joy, my hope, I owe
To thine amazing love;
Ten thousand thousand comforts here,
And nobler bliss above.
- 3 To thee my trembling spirit flies,
With sin and grief oppressed;
Thy gentle voice dispels my fears,
And lulls my cares to rest.
- 4 Lead on, dear Shepherd!—led by thee,
No evil shall I fear;
Soon shall I reach thy fold above,
And praise thee better there.

Ottiwell Heginbotham.

| 2 No voice can sing, no heart can frame,
Nor can the memory find
A sweeter sound than Jesus' name,
The Saviour of mankind. 3 O hope of every contrite heart!
O joy of all the meek!
To those who fall, how kind thou art!
How good to those who seek! 4 But what to those who find? Ah! this Nor tongue nor pen can show:
The love of Jesus,—what it is,
None but his loved ones know. 5 Jesus, our only joy be thou,
As thou our prize wilt be;
In thee be all our glory now,
And through eternity. | 4 Jesus, my Shepherd, Guardian, Friend!
My Prophet, Priest, and King!
For all the blessings thou dost send,
Accept the praise I bring. 5 Weak is the effort of my heart,

Refresh my soul in death. |

120, 147, 227.

- 1 THE Saviour! O what endless charms
Dwell in the blissful sound!
Its influence every fear disarms,
And spreads sweet comfort round.
- 2 The mighty Former of the skies
Stooped to our vile abode,
While angels viewed with wondering eyes,
And hailed the incarnate God.
- 3 O the rich depths of love divine!
Of bliss, a boundless store!
Dear Saviour, let me call thee mine,
I cannot wish for more.
- 4 On thee alone my hope relies,
Beneath thy cross I fall;
My Lord, my Life, my Sacrifice!
My Saviour, and my All!

Anne Steele.

(1094-1193) Bernard of Clairvaux.

118

27, 187, 114.

- 1 How sweet the name of Jesus sounds
In a believer's ear!
It soothes his sorrows, heals his wounds,
And drives away his fear.
- 2 It makes the wounded spirit whole,
And calms the troubled breast;
'T is manna to the hungry soul,
And to the weary, rest.
- 3 Dear name! the rock on which I build!
My shield and hiding-place!
My never-failing treasury, filled
With boundless stores of grace!

1. Ma - jes - tic sweet - ness sits enthroned Up - on the Saviour's brow; His head with radiant light is crowned, His lips with grace o'erflow, His lips with grace o'erflow.

183, 227, 201.

2 No mortal can with him compare,
Among the sons of men;
Fairer is he than all the fair
That fill the heavenly train.

3 He saw me plunged in deep distress,
He flew to my relief;
For me he bore the shameful cross,
And carried all my grief.

4 To him I owe my life and breath,
And all the joys I have;
He makes me triumph over death,
He saves me from the grave.

5 To heaven, the place of his abode,
He brings my weary feet;
Shows me the glories of my God,
And makes my joy complete.

6 Since from his bounty I receive
Such proofs of love divine,
Had I a thousand hearts to give,
Lord, they should all be thine.

Samuel Stennett.

395, 446, 183.

1 THE head that once was crowned with thorns
Is crowned with glory now;
A royal diadem adorns
The mighty Victor's brow.

2 The highest place that heaven affords,
Is his by sovereign right;
The King of kings, and Lord of lords,
He reigns in glory bright;—

3 The joy of all who dwell above,
The joy of all below,
To whom he manifests his love,
And grants his name to know.

4 To them the cross, with all its shame,
With all its grace, is given;
Their name—an everlasting name,
Their joy—the joy of heaven.

5 To them the cross is life and health,
Though shame and death to him;
His people's hope, his people's wealth,
Their everlasting theme.

Thomas Kelly.

122

546, 308, 395.

1 THOU dear Redeemer, dying Lamb,
I love to hear of thee;
No music's like thy charming name,
Nor half so sweet can be.

2 O let me ever hear thy voice
In mercy to me speak;
In thee, my Priest, will I rejoice,
And thy salvation seek.

3 My Jesus shall be still my theme
While in this world I stay;
I'll sing my Jesus' lovely name
While all things else decay.

4 When I appear in yonder cloud,
With all thy favored throng,
Then will I sing more sweet, more loud,
And Christ shall be my song.

John Cennick

ARIEL. C: P. M.

LOWELL MASON.

1. O could I speak the match-less worth, O could I sound the glories forth,

Which in my Saviour shine! I'd soar and touch the heavenly strings And vie with Gabriel while he sings In notes al-most di-vine, In notes al-most di-vine.

235, 658.

- 2 I'd sing the precious blood he spilt,
My ransom from the dreadful guilt
Of sin and wrath divine!
I'd sing his glorious righteousness,
In which all perfect heavenly dress
My soul shall ever shine.
- 3 I'd sing the character he bears,
And all the forms of love he wears,
Exalted on his throne;
In loftiest songs of sweetest praise,
I would to everlasting days
Make all his glories known.
- 4 Well, the delightful day will come,
When my dear Lord will take me home,
And I shall see his face;
Then, with my Saviour, Brother, Friend,
A blest eternity I'll spend,
Triumphant in his grace.

Samuel Medley.

124

235, 658.

- 1 COME join, ye saints, with heart and voice,
Alone in Jesus to rejoice,
And worship at his feet;
Come, take his praises on your tongues,
And raise to him your thankful songs;
In him ye are complete!
- 2 In him, who all our praise excels,
The fullness of the Godhead dwells,
And all perfections meet:
The head of all celestial powers,
Divinely theirs, divinely ours:
In him ye are complete!
- 3 Still onward urge your heavenly way,
Dependent on him day by day,
His presence still entreat;
His precious name forever bless,
Your glory, strength, and righteousness:
In him ye are complete!

DIADEMATA, S. M. D.

GEORGE J. ELVRY.

1. Crown him with many crowns, The Lamb up-on his throne; Hark! how the heavenly anthem drowns All mu - sic but its own! Awake, my soul, and sing

Of him who died for thee; And hail him as thy matchless King Through all eterni- ty.

817, 899.

- 2 Crown him the Lord of love!
Behold his hands and side,
Those wounds, yet visible above,
In beauty glorified:
No angel in the sky
Can fully bear that sight,
But downward bends his wondering eye
At mysteries so great.
- 3 Crown him the Lord of peace!
Whose hand a scepter sways
From pole to pole, that wars may cease,
And all be prayer and praise:
His reign shall know no end,
And round his pierced feet
Fair flowers of paradise extend,
Their fragrance ever sweet.
- 4 Crown him the Lord of years,
The Potentate of time,
Creator of the rolling spheres,
Ineffably sublime!
All hail! Redeemer, hail!
For thou hast died for me;
Thy praise shall never, never fail
Throughout eternity.

Matthew Bridges.

126

899, 817.

- 1 BEYOND the starry skies,
Far as the eternal hills,
There in the boundless world of light
Our great Redeemer dwells.
Around him angels fair
In countless armies shine;
And ever, in exalted lays,
They offer songs divine.
- 2 "Hail, Prince of life!" they cry,
"Whose unexampled love
Moved thee to quit these glorious realms
And royalties above."
And when he stooped to earth,
And suffered rude disdain,
They cast their honors at his feet,
And waited in his train.
- 3 They saw him on the cross,
While darkness veiled the skies;
And when he burst the gates of death,
They saw the Conqueror rise.
They thronged his chariot wheels,
And bore him to his throne;
Then swept their golden harps and sung,
"That glorious work is done."

Daniel Turner.

1. Come, all ye saints of God, Wide thro' the earth a-broad Spread Je-sus' fame;

Tell what his love hath done, Trust in his name alone, He is the loft-y One, Worthy the Lamb!

34, 155.

- 2 Hence, gloomy doubts and fears!
Dry all your mournful tears,
Swell the glad theme;
To Christ, our gracious King,
Strike each melodious string,
Join heart and voice to sing,
Worthy the Lamb!
- 3 Hark! how the choirs above,
Filled with the Saviour's love,
Dwell on his name!
There, too, may we be found,
With light and glory crowned,
While all the heavens resound,
Worthy the Lamb!

James Borden.

128

34, 155.

- 1 SOUND, sound the truth abroad!
Bear ye the word of God
Through the wide world;
Tell what our Lord has done,
Tell how the day is won,
And from his lofty throne
Satan is hurled.
- 2 Ye who, forsaking all
At your loved Master's call,
Comforts resign;
Soon will your work be done,
Soon will the prize be won;
Brighter than yonder sun
Then shall ye shine.

Thomas Kelly.

129

34, 155.

- 1 GLORY to God on high!
Ye harpers of the sky,
Praise ye his name.
Ye saints, his love adore
Who all your sorrows bore;
Sing joyful, evermore,
Worthy the Lamb!
- 2 While they around the throne
Cheerfully join in one,
Praising his name,
Ye who have felt his blood
Sealing your peace with God,
Sound his dear name abroad,
Worthy the Lamb!
- 3 Join, all ye ransomed race,
Our Lord and God to bless:
Praise ye his name.
In him we will rejoice,
And make a joyful noise,
Shouting with heart and voice,
Worthy the Lamb!
- 4 Soon shall we see his face,
And in that heavenly place
We'll praise his name.
To him our songs we'll bring,
Hail him our gracious King,
And through the ages sing,
Worthy the Lamb!

James Allen.

3 When the sun of bliss is beaming
Light and love upon my way,
From the cross the radiance streaming
Adds new luster to the day.

4 Bane and blessing, pain and pleasure,
By the cross are sanctified;
Peace is there, that knows no measure,
Joys that through all time abide.

5 In the cross of Christ I glory,

All the light of sacred story
Gathers round its head sublime.

501, 466, 503.

- 2 Jesus, hail! whose glory brightens
 All above, and gives it worth;
 Lord of life, thy smile enlightens,
 Cheers, and charms thy saints on earth:
 When we think of love like thine,
 Lord, we own it love divine.
 Hallelujah! hallelujah!
 Hallelujah! amen.
- 3 King of glory, reign forever,
 Thine an everlasting crown;
 Nothing from thy love shall sever
 Those whom thou shalt call thine own;
 Happy objects of thy grace,
 Destined to behold thy face!
 Hallelujah! hallelujah!
 Hallelujah! amen.
- 4 Saviour, hasten thine appearing;
 Bring, O bring, the glorious day
 When, the awful summons hearing,
 Heaven and earth shall pass away!
 Then, with golden harps, we'll sing,
 "Glory, glory to our King!
 Hallelujah! hallelujah!
 Hallelujah! amen."

Thomas Kelly.

133

501, 499, 95.

- 1 PRAISE to thee, O dear Redeemer,
 For the riches of thy grace;
 Bow, my soul, no idle dreamer,
 Worship him who saves the race;
 He who reigned with God on high,
 He who laid his glory by:
 Sing his praises, sing his praises,
 Sing of him who came to die.
- 2 How shall mortal man adore thee,
 Thou the high, Immortal One?
 Sinful dust might bow before thee
 While the countless ages run;
 Yet 't were vain to worship thee
 Unless love the motive be.
 O my Saviour! O my Saviour!
 Grant this gift of love to me.
- 3 Vain are all the words I've spoken,
 Lord, to show that love is mine;
 Godly life shall be the token
 Of my love for things divine.
 This I covet, this bestow,—
 Strength to live aright below;
 Then how much thy child doth love thee,
 O my Saviour, thou shalt know!

WARE, L. M.

GEORGE KINGSLEY.

1. Come, gra-cious Spir-it, heavenly Dove, With light and com-fort from a - bove;

Be thou our guardian, thou our guide; O'er all our thoughts and steps pre-side.

47, 8, 58.

- 2 To us the light of truth display,
And make us know and choose thy way;
Plant holy fear in every heart,
That we from God may ne'er depart.
- 3 Lead us to holiness,—the road
That we must take to dwell with God;
Lead us to Christ, the living way,
Nor let us from his precepts stray.
- 4 Lead us to God, our final rest,
To be with him forever blest;
Lead us to heaven, its bliss to share—
Fullness of joy forever there!

Simon Browne.

137

58, 140, 47.

- 1 POUR out thy Spirit from on high;
Lord, thine assembled servants bless;
Graces and gifts to each supply,
And clothe us all with righteousness.
- 2 Wisdom, and zeal, and faith impart,
Firmness, with meekness from above,
To bear thy people on our heart,
And love the souls whom thou dost love;
- 3 To watch and pray, and never faint,
By day and night strict guard to keep;
To warn the sinner, cheer the saint,
Nourish thy lambs, and feed thy sheep.
- 4 Then, when our work is finished here,
In humble hope our charge resign:
When the chief Shepherd shall appear,
O God! may they and we be thine!

James Montgomery.

138

168, 212, 215.

- 1 COME, blessed Spirit, source of light,
Whose power and grace are unconfined.
Dispel the gloomy shades of night,
The thicker darkness of the mind.
- 2 To my enlightened eyes display
The glorious truth thy words reveal;
Cause me to run the heavenly way,
Make me delight to do thy will.
- 3 Thine inward teachings make me know,
The wonders of redeeming love,
The vanity of things below,
And excellence of things above.
- 4 While through these dubious paths I stray,
Spread, like the sun, thy beams abroad;
Show me the dangers of the way,
And guide my feeble steps to God.

Benjamin Beddome.

139

215, 171, 219.

- 1 COME, Holy Spirit, calm my mind,
And fit me to approach my God;
Remove each vain, each worldly thought,
And lead me to thy blest abode.
- 2 Hast thou imparted to my soul
A living spark of holy fire?
O, kindle now the sacred flame;
Make me to burn with pure desire.
- 3 A brighter faith and hope impart,
And let me now my Saviour see;
O, soothe and cheer my burdened heart,
And bid my spirit rest in thee.

1. O for that flame of liv - ing fire Which shonesobright in saints of old ;
Which bade their souls to heaven as - pire, Calm in dis - tress, In dan - ger bold !

212, 3, 47.

- 2 Where is that spirit, Lord, which dwelt
In Abram's breast, and sealed him thine ?
Which made Paul's heart with sorrow melt,
And glow with energy divine ?—
- 3 That spirit which from age to age
Proclaimed thy love, and taught thy ways ?
Brightened Isaiah's vivid page,
And breathed in David's hallowed lays ?
- 4 Is not thy grace as mighty now
As when Elijah felt its power ?
When glory beamed from Moses' brow,
Or Job endured the trying hour ?
- 5 Remember, Lord, the ancient days ;
Renew thy work, thy grace restore ;
And while to thee our hearts we raise,
On us thy Holy Spirit pour.

Wm. H. Bathurst.

141

3, 64, 51.

1. COME, Holy Spirit, heavenly guest,
And make thy mansion in my breast ;
Dispel my doubts, my fears control,
And heal the anguish of my soul.
- 2 Thou God of love and peace divine,
O make thy light within me shine !
Forgive my sins, my guilt remove,
And send the tokens of thy love.
- 3 Come with thy healing from above,
Fill each and every heart with love ;
O turn to flesh the flinty stone,
And let thy sovereign power be known !

Philip Doddridge.

142

136, 101, 53.

- 1 As when in silence vernal showers
Descend and cheer the fainting flowers,
So, in the secrecy of love,
Falls the sweet influence from above.
- 2 That heavenly influence let me find
In holy silence of the mind ;
While every grace maintains its bloom,
Diffusing wide its rich perfume.
- 3 Nor let these blessings be confined
To me, but poured on all mankind,
Till earth's wild wastes in verdure rise,
And blooming Eden bless our eyes.

John Rippon.

143

136, 101, 3.

- 1 O BLESSED Comforter, draw nigh !
Cheer and sustain my fainting heart ;
Without thee every hope would die,
And every cheering ray depart.
- 2 When'er to call the Saviour mine
With ardent wish my heart aspires,
Can it be less than power divine
That animates these strong desires ?
- 3 And when my cheerful hope can say
I love my God and taste his grace,
Lord, is it not thy blissful ray
That brings this dawn of sacred peace ?
- 4 Let thy good Spirit in my heart
Forever dwell, O God of love !
And light and heavenly peace impart,
Sweet earnest of the joys above.

Anne Steele.

1. Come, Ho - ly Spir - it, heav'n - ly Dove, With all thy quickening powers;

Kin - dle a flame of sa - cred love In these cold hearts of ours.

27, 74, 147.

2 O raise our thoughts from things below,
From vanities and toys!
Then shall we with fresh courage go
To reach eternal joys.

3 Awake our souls to joyful songs;
Let pure devotions rise;
Till praise employs our thankful tongues,
And doubt forever dies.

4 Father, we would no longer live
At this poor, dying rate,
To thee our thankful love we give,
For thine to us is great.

5 Come, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove,
With all thy quickening powers;
Come, shed abroad a Saviour's love,
And that shall kindle ours.

Isaac Watts.

145

74, 120, 546.

- 1 ETERNAL Spirit, power of truth,
Our contrite hearts inspire;
Revive the flame of heavenly love,
And feed the pure desire.
- 2 'Tis thine to soothe the sorrowing mind,
With guilt and fear oppressed;
'Tis thine to bid the dying live,
And give the weary rest.
- 3 Subdue the power of every sin,
Whate'er that sin may be;
That we, in singleness of heart,
May worship only thee.

4 Then with our spirits witness bear
That we are sons of God,
Redeemed from sin, and death, and hell,
Through Christ's atoning blood.

5 God, through himself, we then shall know,
If thou within us shine;
And sound, with all thy saints below,
The depths of love divine.

Thomas Cotterill.

114, 117, 120.

- 1 SPIRIT Divine, attend our prayer,
And make our hearts thy home;
Descend with all thy gracious power:
Come, Holy Spirit, come!
- 2 Come as the light, to us reveal
Our sinfulness and woe,
And lead us in those paths of life
Where all the righteous go.
- 3 Come as the fire, and purge our hearts,
Like sacrificial flame;
Let our whole soul an offering be
To our Redeemer's name.
- 4 Come as the wind, with rushing sound,
With Pentecostal grace;
And make the great salvation known,
Wide as the human race.
- 5 Spirit Divine, attend our prayer,
And make our hearts thy home;
Descend with all thy gracious power:
Come, Holy Spirit, come!

BELMONT. C. M.

SAMUEL WEBBE.

1. Our blest Re - deem - er, ere he breathed His ten - der, last farewell,

A guide, a Com - fort - er, bequeathed, With us on earth to dwell.

395, 7, 187.

- 2 He came in tongues of living flame,
To teach, convince, subdue;
All-powerful as the wind he came,
And all as viewless, too.
- 3 He comes sweet influence to impart,
A gracious, willing guest,
While he can find one humble heart
Wherein to fix his rest.
- 4 And his that gentle voice we hear,
Soft as the breath of even,
That checks each fault, calms every fear,
And whispers thoughts of heaven.
- 5 And every virtue we possess,
And every virtue won,
And every thought of holiness
Is his, and his alone.

Harriet Auber.

148

669, 117, 201.

- 1 SPIRIT of life, and light, and love,
Thy heavenly influence give;
Quicken our souls, our guilt remove,
That we in Christ may live.
- 2 To our benighted minds reveal
The glories of his grace,
And bring us where no clouds conceal
The brightness of his face.
- 3 His love within us shed abroad,
Life's ever-springing well;
Till God in us, and we in God,
In love eternal dwell.

Thomas Haweis.

149

227, 669, 204.

- 1 COME, Holy Ghost, our hearts inspire;
Let us thine influence prove;
Source of the old prophetic fire,
Fountain of life and love.
- 2 Water with heavenly dew thy word,
In this appointed hour;
Attend it with thy presence, Lord,
And bid it come with power.
- 3 Open the hearts of them that hear,
To make the Saviour room;
Now let us find redemption near;
Let faith by hearing come.

Charles Wesley.

70, 183, 204.

- 1 GREAT Spirit, by whose mighty power
All creatures live and move,
On us thy benediction shower;
Inspire our souls with love.
- 2 Hail, Source of light! arise and shine;
Darkness and doubt dispel;
Give peace and joy, for we are thine;
In us forever dwell.
- 3 From death to life our spirits raise,
And full redemption bring;
New tongues impart to speak the praise
Of Christ, our God and King.
- 4 Thine inward witness bear, unknown
To all the world beside;
Exulting then, we feel and own
Our Saviour glorified.

Thomas Haweis.

1. Come, Ho - ly Spir - it, come, Let thy bright beams a - rise,

Dis - pel the sor - row from our minds, The dark - ness from our eyes.

688, 30, 89.

- 2 Convince us all of sin,
Then lead to Jesus' blood,
And to our wondering view reveal
The mercies of our God.
- 3 Revive our drooping faith,
Our doubts and fears remove,
And kindle in our breasts the flame
Of never-dying love.
- 4 'Tis thine to cleanse the heart,
To sanctify the soul,
To pour fresh life in every part,
And new-create the whole.
- 5 Come, Holy Spirit, come,
Our minds from bondage free;
Then shall we know, and praise, and love,
The Father, Son, and thee.

Joseph Hart.

152

568, 11, 30.

- 1 'Tis God's own Spirit leads
In paths before unknown;
The work to be performed is ours,
The strength is all his own.
- 2 Supported by his grace,
We still pursue our way,
And hope at last to reach the prize,
Secure in endless day.
- 3 'Tis he that works to will,
'Tis he that works to do;
His is the power by which we act,
His be the glory too.

James Montgomery.

153

11, 89, 601.

- 1 COME, Spirit, source of light,
Thy grace is unconfined;
Dispel the gloomy shades of night,
The darkness of the mind.
- 2 Now to our eyes display
The truth thy words reveal;
Cause us to run the heavenly way,
Delighting in thy will.
- 3 Thy teachings make us know
The mysteries of thy love,
The vanity of things below,
The joy of things above.

Anon.

89, 191, 236.

- 1 BLEST Comforter divine,
Let rays of heavenly love
Amid our gloom and darkness shine,
And point our souls above.
- 2 Turn us with gentle voice
From every sinful way,
And bid the mourning saint rejoice
Though earthly joys decay.
- 3 By thine inspiring breath
Make every cloud of care,
And e'en the gloomy vale of death,
A smile of glory wear.
- 4 O, fill thou every heart
With love to all our race;
Great Comforter, to us impart
These blessings of thy grace.

Lydia H. Sigourney.

1. Come, Ho-ly Ghost, in love, Shed on us from a-bove Thine own bright ray: Di-vine-ly good thou art; Thy sacred gifts impart To glad-den each sad heart; O, come to-day.

34, 127.

2 Come, tenderest Friend, and best,
Our most delightful Guest,
With soothing power;
Rest, which the weary know,
Shade, 'mid the noontide glow,
Peace, when deep griefs overflow,
Cheer us, this hour.

3 Come, Light serene, and still
Our inmost bosoms fill;
Dwell in each breast:
We know no dawn but thine,
Send forth thy beams divine
On our dark souls to shine,
And make us blest.

± Exalt our low desires,
Extinguish passion's fires,
Heal every wound;
Our stubborn spirits bend,
Our icy coldness end,
Our devious steps attend
While heavenward bound.

Robert II., King of France.

34, 127.

1 SPIRIT of truth and love,
Life-giving holy Dove!
Speed forth thy flight;
Move o'er the waters' face,
Bearing the lamp of grace,
And in earth's darkest place
Let there be light!

2 Thou, whose almighty word
Chaos and darkness heard,
And took their flight,
Hear us, we humbly pray;
And where the gospel's day
Sheds not its glorious ray,
Let there be light!

3 Thou, who didst come to bring,
On thy redeeming wing,
Healing and sight,
Health to the sick and blind,
Sight to the darkened mind,
O now, to all mankind,
Let there be light!

John Marriott.

1 COME, thou soul-transforming Spirit,
Bless the sower and the seed;
Let each heart thy grace inherit,
Raise the weak, the hungry feed;
From the gospel
Now supply thy people's need.

2 O may all enjoy the blessing
Which thy word's designed to give;
Let us all, thy love possessing,
Joyfully the truth receive,
And forever
To thy praise and glory live.

MERCY, 7s. LOUIS M. GOTTSCHALK, ARR. BY E. P. PARKER.

1. Ho - ly Spir - it, light di - vine, Shine up - on this heart of mine,

Chase the shades of night a - way, Turn my dark - ness in - to day.

240, 272, 407.

- 2 Holy Spirit, power divine,
 Cleanse this guilty heart of mine;
 Long has sin, without control,
 Held dominion o'er my soul.
- 3 Holy Ghost, with joy divine,
 Cheer this saddened heart of mine,
 Bid my many woes depart,
 Heal my wounded, bleeding heart.
- 4 Holy Spirit, all divine,
 Dwell within this heart of mine,
 Cast down every idol-throne,
 Reign supreme, and reign alone.

Andrew Reed.

159

15, 467, 480.

- 1 GRACIOUS Spirit, love divine,
 Let thy light within me shine,
 All my guilty fears remove,
 Fill me with thy heavenly love.
- 2 Speak thy pardoning grace to me,
 Set the burdened sinner free,
 Lead me to the Lamb of God,
 Wash me in his precious blood.
- 3 Life and peace to me impart,
 Seal salvation on my heart,
 Breathe thyself into my breast
 Earnest of immortal rest.
- 4 Let me never from thee stray,
 Keep me in the narrow way,
 Fill my soul with joy divine,
 Keep me, Lord, forever thine.

John Stocker.

407, 531, 240.

- 1 COME, divine and peaceful Guest,
 Enter each devoted breast;
 Holy Ghost, our hearts inspire,
 Kindle there the gospel fire.
- 2 God, the everlasting God,
 Makes with mortals his abode;
 Whom the heavens cannot contain,
 He vouchsafes to dwell in man.
- 3 Never will he thence depart,
 Inmate of a humble heart;
 Carrying on his work within,
 Striving till he cast out sin.
- 4 Crown the agonizing strife,
 Principle and Lord of life;
 Life divine in us renew,
 Thou the Gift and Giver too!

Charles Wesley.

161

15, 339, 407.

- 1 HOLY SPIRIT, truth divine,
 Dawn upon this soul of mine;
 Word of God, and inward light,
 Wake my spirit, clear my sight.
- 2 Holy Spirit, love divine,
 Glow within this heart of mine,
 Kindle every high desire,
 Perish self in thy pure fire.
- 3 Holy Spirit, power divine!
 Fill and nerve this will of mine;
 Be my law, and I shall be
 Firmly bound, yet ever free.

Samuel Longfellow.

1. Let thy Spir - it, bless - ed Sav - iour, Come and bid our doubtings cease;

Come, O, come with love and fa - vor, Fill us all with joy and peace.

41, 92, 277.

- 2 Fearful dangers are around us,
Satan watches to destroy;
Lord, our foes would fain confound us;
O, for us thy might employ!
- 3 On thy word our souls are resting;
Taught by thee, thy name we love;
Sweetest of all names is Jesus;
How it doth our spirits move!
- 4 Let us not, O Lord, be weary
Of the roughness of the way;
Though the road be often dreary,
Thou shalt drive our gloom away.

Anon.

163

130, 41, 92.

- 1 HOLY Spirit, source of gladness,
Shine amid the clouds of night;
O'er our weariness and sadness
Breathe thy life and shed thy light;
- 2 Send us thine illumination;
Banish all our fears at length;
Rest upon this congregation,
Spirit of unfailling strength.
- 3 Let that love which knows no measure
Now in quickening showers descend,
Bringing us the richest treasure
Man can wish or God can send.
- 4 Hear our earnest supplication;
Every struggling heart release;
Rest upon this congregation,
Spirit of eternal peace.

Paul Gerhardt.

164

960, 130, 660.

- 1 HOLY Spirit, fount of blessing,
Ever watchful, ever kind;
Thy celestial aid possessing,
Prisoned souls deliverance find;—
- 2 Seal of truth, and bond of union,
Source of light, and flame of love,
Symbol of divine communion,
In the olive-bearing dove.
- 3 Heavenly guide from paths of error,
Comforter of minds distressed;
When the billows swell with terror,
Pointing to an ark of rest;—
- 4 Promised pledge! Eternal Spirit!
Greater than all gifts below,—
May our hearts thy grace inherit;
May our lips thy glories show.

Thomas J. Judkin.

165

277, 41, 92.

- 1 Love divine, all love excelling,
Joy of heaven, to earth come down:
Fix in us thy humble dwelling,
All thy faithful mercies crown.
- 2 Jesus, thou art all compassion,—
Pure, unbounded love thou art;
Visit us with thy salvation,
Enter every trembling heart.
- 3 Breathe, O breathe thy loving Spirit
Into every troubled breast!
Let us all thy grace inherit;
Let us find thy promised rest.

Give thy bless - ed in - ward sight, Com - fort - er di - vine!

2 We are sinful ; cleanse us, Lord :
We are faint ; thy strength afford :
Lost,—until by thee restored,
Comforter divine !

3 Like the dew, thy peace distill ;
Guide, subdue our wayward will,
Things of Christ unfolding still,
Comforter divine !

4 In us "Abba Father," cry,—
Earnest of our rest on high,
Hope of immortality,
Comforter divine !

5 Search for us the depths of God ;
Bear us up the starry road
To the hight of thine abode,
Comforter divine !

1. O thou that hear-est prayer, At-tend our hum-ble cry, And let thy servants share

Thy blessing from on high : We plead the promise of thy word ; Grant us thy Ho-ly Spirit, Lord.

252, 264, 359.

2 If earthly parents hear
Their children when they cry,
If they, with love sincere,
Their varied wants supply,
Much more wilt thou thy love display,
And answer when thy children pray.

3 Our heavenly Father, thou ;
We children of thy grace ;
O, let thy Spirit now
Descend and fill the place !
So shall we feel the heavenly flame,
And all unite to praise thy name.

John Burton.

1. O ho-ly book of truth di-vine! E-ter-nal as thy Mak-er's name;

Through countless a-ges of de-cline Thy glow-ing truths have stood the same.

3, 47, 215.

- 2 The dust of time is on thy page,
Yet dims no pure and hallowed thought;
In every clime, in every age,
Have saints thy holy comfort sought.
- 3 Thou art the life, the joy, the light,
The hope of trusting thousands here,
Whose faith shall find eternal sight
Beyond this dreary mortal sphere.
- 4 No other rule by which to live,
No other faith like thine to save;
No other hope such peace can give
When near the cold and silent grave.
- 5 O wondrous lamp of promise sweet!
Thy light illumes the trusting soul
With glory that shall be complete
When days and years have ceased to roll.

F. E. Belden.

169

3, 101, 336.

- 1 THE heavens declare thy glory, Lord;
In every star thy wisdom shines;
But when our eyes behold thy word,
We read thy name in fairer lines.
- 2 The rolling sun, the changing light,
And nights and days, thy power confess;
But the blest volume thou didst write,
Reveals thy justice and thy grace.
- 3 Sun, moon, and stars convey thy praise
Round the whole earth, and never stand;
So, when thy truth began its race,
It touched and lightened every land.

- 4 Nor shall thy spreading gospel rest
Till through the world thy truth has run;
Till Christ has all the nations blessed
That see the light or feel the sun.
- 5 Great Sun of righteousness! arise;
Bless the dark world with heavenly light;
Thy gospel makes the simple wise,
Thy laws are pure, thy judgments right.
- 6 Thy noblest wonders here we view
In souls renewed and sins forgiven:
Lord, cleanse my sins, my soul renew,
And make thy word my guide to heaven.

Isaac Watts.

170

171, 58, 101.

- 1 LET everlasting glories crown
Thy head, my Saviour and my Lord;
Thy hands have brought salvation down,
And stored the blessings in thy word.
- 2 In vain the trembling conscience seeks
Some solid ground to rest upon;
With deep distress the spirit breaks,
Till we apply to Christ alone.
- 3 How well thy blessed truths agree!
How wise and holy thy commands!
Thy promises, how firm they be,
How sure our hope and comfort stands!
- 4 Should all the forms that men devise
Assault my faith with treach'rous art,
I'd call them vanity and lies,
And bind the gospel to my heart.

Isaac Watts.

HAMBURG. L. M. GREGORIAN, ARR. BY LOWELL MASON.

1. I love the sa - cred book of God, No oth - er can its place sup - ply;

It points me to the saints' a - bode, And bids me from de - struc - tion fly.

168, 275, 343.

- 2 Sweet book ! in thee my eyes discern
The image of my absent Lord ;
From thy instructive page I learn
The joys his presence will afford.
- 3 But while I'm here, thou shalt supply
His place, and tell me of his love ;
I'll read with faith's discerning eye,
And thus partake of joys above.
- 4 Within thy sacred lids is found
A transcript of my Maker's will ;
Treasures of knowledge here abound,
The deepest, loftiest mind to fill.
- 5 Light of the world, thy beams impart,
To lead my feet through life's dark way ;
O, shine on this benighted heart,
Nor let me from thy guidance stray.

Thomas Kelly.

172

223, 542, 592.

- 1 'T WAS by an order from the Lord
The ancient prophets spoke his word ;
His Spirit did their tongues inspire,
And warmed their hearts with heavenly fire.
- 2 Great God, mine eyes with pleasure look
On the dear volume of thy book ;
There my Redeemer's face I see,
And read his name who died for me.
- 3 Let the false raptures of the mind
Be lost, and vanish in the wind ;
Here I can fix my hope secure ;
This is thy word, and must endure.

Isaac Watts.

173

279, 168, 51.

- 1 God, in the gospel of his Son,
Makes his eternal counsels known ;
'T is here his richest mercy shines,
And truth is drawn in fairest lines.
- 2 Wisdom its dictates here imparts,
To form our minds, to cheer our hearts ;
Its influence makes the sinner live ;
It bids the drooping saint revive.
- 3 Our rising passions it controls,
And comfort yields to contrite souls ;
It brings a better world in view,
And guides us all our journey through.

Benjamin Beddome.

174

168, 336, 51.

- 1 THE starry firmament on high,
And all the glories of the sky,
Yet shine not to thy praise, O Lord,
So brightly as thy written word.
- 2 The hopes that holy word supplies,
Its truths divine and precepts wise,
In each a heavenly beam I see,
And every beam conducts to thee.
- 3 Almighty Lord, the sun shall fail,
The moon her borrowed glory veil,
And deepest reverence hush on high
The joyful chorus of the sky :
- 4 But fixed for everlasting years,
Unmoved amid the wreck of spheres,
Thy word shall shine in cloudless day,
When heaven and earth have passed away

Spreads heavenly peace around ;
And life and everlasting joys
Attend the blissful sound.
- 3 Jesus, thy word with friendly aid
Restores our wandering feet,
Converts the sorrows of the mind
To joys divinely sweet.
- 4 O may these heavenly pages be
My ever dear delight ;
And still new beauties may I see,
And still increasing light.
- 5 Divine Instructor, gracious Lord,
Be thou forever near ;
Teach me to love thy sacred word,
And view my Saviour here.

- 1 How precious is the book divine
By inspiration given !
Bright as a lamp its doctrines shine,
To guide our souls to heaven.
- 2 It sweetly cheers our drooping hearts
In this dark vale of tears,
And life and light and joy imparts,
To banish all our fears.
- 3 This lamp, through all the tedious night
Of life, shall guide our way,
Till we behold the clearer light
Of an eternal day.

John Fawcett.

177

120, 114, 27.

- 1 How blest the children of the Lord,
Who, walking in his sight,
Make all the precepts of his word
Their study and delight !
- 2 That precious wealth shall be their dower,
Which cannot know decay ;
Which moth and rust shall ne'er devour,
Or spoiler take away.
- 3 For them that heavenly light shall spread
Whose cheering rays illumine
The darkest hours of life, and shed
A halo round the tomb.
- 4 Their works of piety and love,
Performed through Christ, their Lord,
Forever registered above,
Shall meet a sure reward.

Harriet Auber.

- 1 GREAT God, with wonder and with praise,
On all thy works I look ;
But still thy wisdom, power, and grace
Shine brightest in thy book.
- 2 Lord, make me understand thy law,
Show what my faults have been,
And from thy gospel let me draw
Forgiveness for my sin.
- 3 Here are my choicest treasures hid,
Here my best comfort lies,
Here my desires are satisfied,
And here my hopes arise.

1. A glo - ry in the word we find Whengrace restores our sight; But sin has darkened all the mind, And veiled the heavenly light, And veiled the heavenly light.

175, 117, 183.

- 2 When God's own Spirit clears our view,
How bright the doctrines shine!
Their holy fruits and sweetness show
The author is divine.
- 3 How blest are we, with open face
To view thy glory, Lord,
And all thy image here to trace,
Reflected in thy word!
- 4 O teach us, as we look, to grow
In holiness and love,
That we may long to see and know
Thy glorious face above.

Campbell's Collection.

180

227, 201, 546.

- 1 A GLORY gilds the sacred page,
Majestic like the sun;
It gives a light to every age,
It gives, but borrows none.
- 2 The Spirit breathes upon the word,
And brings the truth to sight;
Precepts and promises afford
A sanctifying light.
- 3 The hand that gave it, still supplies
The gracious light and heat;
His truths upon the nations rise,
They rise, but never set.
- 4 Let everlasting thanks be thine,
For such a bright display;
It makes a world of darkness shine
With beams of heavenly day.

Wm. Cowper.

181

546, 395, 446,

- 1 LET others boast of wealth or power,
And glory in their pride;
Thy word, O God, we value more Than all the world beside.
- 2 Here mines of knowledge, love, and joy
Are open to our sight,
The purest gold without alloy,
And gems divinely bright.
- 3 The counsels of redeeming grace
These sacred leaves unfold,
And here the Saviour's lovely face
Our raptured eyes behold.
- 4 Here light, descending from above,
Directs our doubtful feet;
Here promises of heavenly love
Our ardent wishes meet.

Samuel Stennett.

182

175, 446, 147.

- 1 THERE is an ancient, blessed book,
Sent down from age to age;
Admiring angels bend to look Upon its hallowed page.
- 2 Preserved by wondrous care and skill,
For our instruction given,
It speaks of God, and shows his will,
And points the way to heaven.
- 3 O let us seek for heavenly grace
To hear and read aright!
Till we behold the Saviour's face,
And faith gives place to sight.

Anon.

1. How shall the young se-cure their hearts And guard their lives from sin ?

Thy word the choicest rules im - parts To keep the conscience clean.

120, 7, 227.

- 2 'T is like the sun, a heavenly light,
That guides me all the day ;
And through the dangers of the night,
A lamp to lead my way.
- 3 Thy precepts make me truly wise ;
I hate the sinner's road ;
I hate my own vain thoughts that rise,
But love thy law, my God.
- 4 Thy word is everlasting truth ;
How pure is every page !
That holy book shall guide my youth,
And well support my age.

Isaac Watts.

184

175, 395, 438.

- 1 LIGHT of the world, shine on our souls ;
Thy grace to us afford ;
And while we meet to learn thy truth,
Be thou our teacher, Lord.
- 2 As once thou didst thy word expound
To those that walked with thee,
So teach us, Lord, to understand,
And its blest fullness see ;
- 3 Its richness, sweetness, power, and depth,
Its holiness discern ;
Its joyful news of saving grace
By blest experience learn.
- 4 Thus may thy word be dearer still,
And studied more each day ;
And as it richly dwells within,
Thyself in it display.

Anon.

185

438, 227, 187.

- 1 LET all the heathen writers join
To form one perfect book :
Great God, if once compared with thine,
How mean their writings look !
- 2 Not the most perfect rules they gave
Could show one sin forgiven,
Nor lead a step beyond the grave ;
But thine conducts to heaven.
- 3 Yet men would fain be just with God
By works their hands have wrought ;
But thy commands, exceeding broad,
Extend to every thought.
- 4 Our faith, and love, and every grace
Fall far below thy word ;
But perfect truth and righteousness
Dwell only with the Lord.

Anon.

The healing beams of light.
- 2 Jesus, thy word, with friendly aid,
Restores our wandering feet ;
Converts the sorrows of the mind
To joys divinely sweet.
- 3 O send thy light and truth abroad,
In all their radiant blaze ;
And bid the admiring world adore
The glories of thy grace.

1. Lamb of our feet, where-by we trace Our path when wont to stray;

Stream from the fount of heaven-ly grace; Brook by the traveler's way;

114, 147, 208.

- 2 Bread of our souls, whereon we feed ;
True manna from on high ;
Our guide and chart, wherein we read
Of realms beyond the sky.
- 3 Pillar of fire through watches dark,
And radiant cloud by day ;
When waves would toss our tossing
bark,
Our anchor and our stay ;
- 4 Word of the everlasting God ;
Will of his glorious Son, —
Without thee how could earth be trod,
Or heaven itself be won ?-
- 5 Lord, grant us all aright to learn
The wisdom it imparts,
And to its heavenly teaching turn
With simple, childlike hearts.

- 1 JESUS, thy word is my delight,
There grace and truth are seen ;
O could I study day and night,
And meditate therein !
- 2 O Lamb of God, the book unseal,
And to our hearts explain ;
Let all its life and spirit feel,
And heavenly wisdom gain.
- 3 That thou for us didst live and die,
Make known to us, dear Lord ;
To us the promises apply,
Recorded in thy word.

- 1 WHAT is the chaff, the word of man,
When set against the wheat ?
Can it a dying soul sustain
Like that immortal meat ?
- 2 Thy word, O God, with heavenly bread
Thy children doth supply ;
And those who by thy word are fed,
Their souls shall never die.
- 3 'T is like a field where hidden lies
The pearl of price unknown,
And he indeed is truly wise
Who makes this pearl his own.

- 1 ALMIGHTY God, thy word is cast
Like seed upon the ground ;
O let the dew of heaven descend,
And shed its influence round.
- 2 Let not the foe of Christ and man
This holy seed remove ;
May it take root in every heart,
And grow in faith and love.
- 3 Let not this life's deceitful cares,
Nor worldly wealth and joy,
Nor scorching beam, nor stormy blast,
The rising plant destroy.
- 4 Where'er the word of life is sown,
A large increase bestow,
That all who hear thy message, Lord,
Its saving power may know.

- 2 I hear thy word in love,
In faith thy word obey;
O send thy Spirit from above,
To teach me, Lord, thy way.
- 3 Thy counsels all are plain,
Thy precepts all are pure;
And long as heaven and earth remain,
Thy truth shall still endure.
- 4 O, may my soul with joy
Trust in thy faithful word;
Be it through life my glad employ,
To keep thy precepts, Lord.

- 1 HOLY Bible! book divine!
Precious treasure, thou art mine!
Mine to tell me whence I came;
Mine to teach me what I am;
- 2 Mine to chide me when I rove;
Mine to show a Saviour's love;
Mine art thou to guide my feet;
Mine to judge, condemn, acquit;
- 3 Mine to comfort in distress,
If the Holy Spirit bless;
Mine to show by living faith,
Man can triumph over death;
- 4 Mine to tell of joys to come,
And the rebel sinner's doom;
O thou holy book divine!
Precious treasure, thou art mine!

How it doth my bosom cheer!
What hath earth like this to covet?
O, what stores of wealth are here!
- 2 'Tis a fountain ever bursting,
Whence the weary may obtain
Water for the soul that's thirsting,
That it may not thirst again.
- 3 'Tis a chart that never faileth,
One which God to man has given;
And though oft the storm assaileth,
It will guide you safe to heaven.

All the gems in ocean found;
And, its sacred precepts heeding,
So shall you in grace abound.

1. O word of God in-car-nate, O wis-dom from on high, O truth un-changed, unchanging, O light of our dark sky! We praise thee for the ra-diance That from the hallowed page, A lamp to guide our footsteps, Shines on from age to age.

492, 246, 415.

- 2 The church from her dear Master
Received the gift divine,
And still that light she lifteth
O'er all the earth to shine.
It is the golden casket
Where gems of truth are stored,
It is the heaven-drawn picture
Of Christ the living Word.
- 3 It floateth like a banner
Before God's host unfurled,
It shineth like a beacon
Above the stormy world;
It is the chart and compass
That o'er life's raging sea,
'Mid mists and rocks and quicksands,
Still guides, O Christ, to thee!
- 4 O, make thy church, dear Saviour,
A lamp of burnished gold,
To bear before the nations
Thy true light as of old;
O, teach thy wandering pilgrims
By this their path to trace,
Till, clouds and darkness ended,
They see thee face to face.

- 1 THE heavens declare his glory,
Their Maker's skill, the skies;
Each day repeats the story,
And night to night replies.
Their silent proclamation
Throughout the earth is heard,—
The record of creation,
The page of nature's word.
- 2 But there's a radiance streaming
More bright than that of day,
'Tis God's own glory beaming
In truth's celestial ray:
So pure, so soul restoring,
It makes the simple wise;
And, balm of comfort pouring,
Each aching heart supplies.
- 3 Thy word is richer treasure
Than lurks within the mine;
And daintiest fare less pleasure
Yields than this food divine.
How wise each kind monition!
Led by thy counsels, Lord,
How safe the saints' condition!
How great is their reward!

1. God's law demands one liv - ing faith, And not a crowd of life - less creeds ;

Its war - rant is a firm "God saith ;" Its claim not words, but liv - ing deeds.

212, 101, 58.

2 Yet, Lord, forgive—thy holy law
Grows tarnished in our earthly clasp ;
Pure in itself, without a flaw,
It dims in our too worldly grasp.

3 Forgive the sacrilege, and take
From every soul the unholy stain,
And help us for thy Son's dear sake,
To keep thy perfect law again.

1 O LAW of God! blest and divine!
Penned by the Everlasting Hand!
Long shall thy sacred precepts shine,
Firm as the eternal hills shall stand.

2 God's covenant shall e'er abide,
Though heaven and earth shall pass
away ;
That rule which is the angel's guide
Shall I not fear to disobey ?

3 With all my power, from morn till night,
I'll publish 'mong the sons of men
That sacred law, though others scorn
To keep thy holy precepts ten.

4 O that an angel's tongue were mine !
Then would I magnify that word,
Which, echoing from lips divine,
From Sinai's rugged mount was heard.

5 And when old earth shall be restored
To Eden beauty, fair and bright,
And God himself shall dwell with men,
Still in that law shall I delight.

1 TRUTH is the gem for which we seek,
O tell us where shall it be found !
For this we search, and pray, and weep,
That truth may in our hearts abound.

2 We want the truth on every point,
We want it all to practice by ;
Do thou, O Lord, our eyes anoint
With a fresh unction from on high.

3 Were not the ten commandments given
By the great Source of light and truth,
For all who tread the path to heaven
From the dark wilderness of earth ?

4 Then, as we would our God obey,
In letter and in spirit too,
O, let us keep the seventh day,
For it is plainly brought to view.

1 O PERFECT law of the Most High !
Law ever holy, just, and good !
No other code with thee can vie,

2 Let thy ten words my soul convert
From every false and sinful way ;
Write thy pure precepts on my heart,
That from thy truth I may not stray.

3 Then in the glorious world to come,
No more I'll need the chastening rod ;
For all who reach that blissful home
Will be in harmony with God.

O that my God would grant me grace To know and do his will!

Thy law upon my heart,
Nor let my tongue indulge deceit,
Nor act the liar's part.
- 3 From vanity turn off my eyes,
Let no corrupt design
Nor covetous desires arise
Within this soul of mine.
- 4 Order my footsteps by thy word,
And make my heart sincere;
Let sin have no dominion, Lord,
But keep my conscience clear.
- 5 Make me to walk in thy commands,
'Tis a delightful road;
Nor let my head, nor heart, nor hands
Offend against my God.

Soon as I know thy way,
I hasten to obey thy word,
And suffer no delay.
- 2 I choose the path of heavenly truth,
And glory in my choice;
Not all the riches of the earth
Could make me so rejoice.
- 3 The testimonies of thy grace
I set before mine eyes;
Thence I derive my daily strength,
And there my comfort lies.

- 4 If once I wander from thy path,
I think upon my ways;
Then turn my feet to thy commands,
And trust thy pardoning grace.

Thou art my shield, my hiding-place,

1. Lord of the Sab-bath and its light, I hail thy hallowed day of rest; It is my wea-ry soul's delight, The sol-ace of my care-worn breast, The solace of my care-worn breast.

54, 47, 58.

- 2 O sacred day of peace and joy,
Thy hours are ever dear to me;
Ne'er may a sinful thought destroy
The holy calm I find in thee.
- 3 How sweetly now they glide along!
How hallowed is the calm they yield!
Transporting is their rapturous song,
And heavenly visions seem revealed.
- 4 O Jesus, let me ever hail
Thy presence with the day of rest;
Then will thy servant never fail
To deem thy Sabbath doubly blest.

Anon.

215, 343, 47.

- 1 DELIGHTFUL day, best gift of heaven,
By man in Eden first possessed;
Jehovah's rest-day, kindly given
That all his creatures might be blessed.
- 2 Memorial of creation's King,
We welcome now thy glad return;
And while his praise we join to sing,
Our hearts with love and rapture burn.
- 3 We bless thy name, almighty Lord,
We love the keepsake thou hast given;
Our voices raise with one accord
In honor of the King of heaven.
- 4 All praise to Jesus, by whose blood
We are redeemed from sin and death;
Give glory to the Son of God,—
Praise him all creatures that have breath.

- 5 By sin we are exposed to wrath;
He died for us, that he might draw
Our wandering feet to virtue's path,
Where we may keep God's holy law.
- 6 That law shall still be our delight,—
The holy Sabbath is a part,—
And when we gain that world so bright,
All flesh shall keep it with one heart.

- 1 AWAKE, my heart! my soul, arise!
This is the day believers prize;
Improve this Sabbath, then, with care;
Another may not be thy share.
- 2 O, solemn thought! Lord, give me power,
Wisely to fill up every hour;
O for the wings of faith and love
To bear my longing heart above!
- 3 Jesus, assist, nor let me fail
To worship thee within the veil,
To glorify thy matchless grace,
To see the beauties of thy face.
- 4 Be with me in thy house to-day,
And tune my heart to praise and pray;
Command thy word to fall like dew,
Refreshing, quickening all anew.
- 5 Call forth my thoughts, and let them rove
O'er the green pastures of thy love;
O let not sin prevent my rest,
Nor keep me from my Saviour's breast.

So sweet a rest to weary minds:
A blessed antepast is given,

- 1 BLEST hour, when mortal man retires
To hold communion with his God,
To send to heaven his warm desires,
And listen to the sacred word.
- 2 Blest hour, when earthly cares resign
Their empire o'er his anxious breast;
While all around, the calm divine
Proclaims the holy day of rest.
- 3 Blest hour, when God himself draws nigh,
Well pleased his people's voice to hear,
To send the penitential sigh,
And wipe away the mourner's tear.
- 4 Blest hour! for, where the Lord resorts,
Foretastes of future bliss are given;
And mortals find his earthly courts
The house of God, the gate of heaven.

- 1 WE'VE entered now on holy time,
God's blessed rest-day all divine;
The labors of the week are past,
Now let earth's cares aside be cast.
- 2 O let us help repair the breach,
And all of God's commandments teach,
Calling his rest-day our delight,
Thus walking blameless in his sight,
- 3 This holy rest to us is given,
To call our minds from earth to heaven;
That we may not forget the Lord,
And trample down his holy word.

Whose kind compassions never cease,
We seek instruction, pardon, peace.

Let every one his goodness speak,
Who deigns his glory to display
On each returning Sabbath-day.

- 2 Sweet is the day of sacred rest ;
No mortal cares shall seize my breast ;
O, may my heart in tune be found,
Like David's harp of solemn sound !
- 3 My heart shall triumph in the Lord
And bless his works and bless his word ;
Thy works of grace how bright they shine !
How deep thy counsels, how divine !
- 4 When grace has purified my heart,
Then I shall share a glorious part ;
And fresh supplies of joy be shed,
Like holy oil to cheer my head.
- 5 Then shall I see and hear and know
All I desired or wished below,
And every hour find sweet employ

Isaac Watts.

- 1 THIS is the day of sacred rest,
Which God hath sanctified and blessed,
When throned in majesty he stood,
And viewed his works, and called them good.
- 2 The heavenly host their harps employ,
The sons of God gave shouts of joy ;
Through heaven and earth his praises rang,
The morning stars together sang.
- 3 Come, then, ye weary souls oppressed
Come and enjoy this holy rest ;
Let humble songs like incense rise,
And prayer and praise ascend the skies.

Dr. H. Clarke.

- 1 SWEET is the Sabbath of the Lord
To those who in his law delight ;
Who love the precepts of his word,
And tread the narrow path of right.
- 2 This holy day Jehovah blessed
Ere sorrow, pain, or death were born,
And sanctified for man his rest
In glad creation's sinless morn.
- 3 It speaks of him whose wondrous might
The heavens and earth from nothing made ;
Who formed the glorious orbs of light,
And the deep sea's foundations laid.
- 4 Its sacred hours, ye saints of God,
Remember with respect and love ;
And through obedience to his word
Your love for your Creator prove.
- 5 And, when, immortalized we see
The treasures of the new earth bright,
God's holy Sabbath still shall be
A source of blessing and delight.

When suffering shall forever close,
And they shall reach their destined place.

1. Lord of the Sab-bath, hear us pray In this thy house, on this thy day;

Ac-cept, as grate-ful sac-ri-fice, The songs which from thy tem-ple rise.

215, 219, 58.

2 Thine earthly Sabbaths, Lord, we love,
But there's a nobler rest above;
To that our laboring souls aspire
With ardent hope and strong desire.

3 No more fatigue, no more distress,
No sin nor death can reach that place;
No tears shall mingle with the songs
That warble from immortal tongues.

4 No rude alarm of raging foes,
No cares to break the long repose,
No midnight shade, no clouded sun,
But sacred, high, eternal noon.

5 O long-expected day, begin!
Dawn on these realms of woe and sin;
Fain would I leave this weary road,
And go to meet my blessed Lord.

Philip Doddridge.

224

108, 336, 171.

1 LORD, on this Sabbath-day of rest
We lift to thee our earnest praise,
Obedient to the high behest
Which thou didst give to guide our ways.

2 We thank thee for the holy light
That from thy law shines full and clear,
Directing our weak steps aright
Through earth's low path of doubt and fear.

3 For Jesus, too, whom thou didst send
To teach the way of grace and truth,
We bow before thy throne, and blend
The thanks of age, the love of youth.

4 O, write thy word on every heart!
In us let thy pure Spirit live,
That his rich presence may impart
Such peace as thou alone canst give.

T. R. Williamson.

225

1, 219, 343.

1 THIS day the Lord has called his own;
O, let us, then, his praise declare!
Fix our desires on him alone,
And seek his face with fervent prayer.

2 Lord, in thy love we would rejoice,
Which bids the burdened soul be free;
And with united heart and voice,
Devote these sacred hours to thee.

3 Now let the world's delusive things
No more our groveling thoughts employ,
But faith be taught to stretch her wings
In search of heaven's unfading joy.

4 O, let these earthly Sabbaths, Lord,
Be to our lasting welfare blessed!
The purest comfort here afford,
And fit us for eternal rest.

William H. Bathurst.

108, 171, 212.

1 I LOVE thine earthly Sabbaths, Lord,
For they are days of holy rest;
And thou hast passed thy changeless word,
That they shall be forever blest.

2 I love thine earthly Sabbaths, Lord,
That congregate thy people here,
To join their hearts in sweet accord,
And fit them for a higher sphere.

joy the summons we obey, To wor-ship at his throne, To wor-ship at his throne.

70, 80, 147.

- 2 Thy chosen temple, Lord, how fair!
Where willing votaries throng
To breathe the humble, fervent prayer,
And pour the choral song.
- 3 Spirit of grace, O deign to dwell
Within thy church below;
Make her in holiness excel,
With pure devotion glow.
- 4 Let peace within her walls be found;
Let all her sons unite
To spread with grateful zeal around,
Her clear and shining light.
- 5 Then hail! thou sacred, blessed day,
The best of all the seven,
When hearts unite their vows to pay
Of gratitude to heaven.

Henry F. Lyte.

228

70, 201, 208.

- 1 DEAR Lord, we would thy praises sing
On this thy holy day;
With grateful hearts our tribute bring;
To thee our homage pay.
- 2 This day, which thou for us hast blessed,
And set apart as thine,—
This day, when God himself did rest,
Hath honors all divine.
- 3 Lord, we would turn away our feet
From this thy holy day,
And call its rest and worship sweet,
Not doing our own way.

- 4 That we may thus restore the breach
Which in thy law is made,
We need thy grace our hearts to teach,
We need thy Spirit's aid.
- 5 O, give us wisdom from above
To worship thee aright,
Till we shall meet Him whom we love,
And faith is lost in sight.

Anon.

- 1 COME, dearest Lord, and feed thy sheep,
On this sweet day of rest;
O bless this flock, and make this fold
Enjoy a heavenly rest.
- 2 Welcome and precious to my soul.
Are these sweet days of love,
But what a Sabbath shall I keep
When I shall rest above!
- 3 I come, I wait, I hear, I pray;
Thy footsteps, Lord, I trace;
Here, in thine own appointed way,
I wait to see thy face.
- 4 These are the sweet and precious days
On which my Lord I've seen;
And oft, when feasting on his word,
In raptures I have been.
- 5 O, if my soul, when Christ appears,
In this sweet frame be found,
I'll clasp my Saviour in my arms,
And leave this earthly ground!

William Mason.

1. How sweet up - on this sa - cred day, The best of all the seven,

To cast our earth - ly thoughts a - way, And think of God and heaven!

201, 227, 114.

- 2 How sweet to be allowed to pray,
Our sins may be forgiven!
With filial confidence to say,
"Father, who art in heaven!"
- 3 How sweet the words of peace to hear
From him to whom 't is given
To wake the penitential tear,
And lead the way to heaven!
- 4 And if to make our sins depart,
In vain the will has striven,
He who regards the inmost heart
Will send his grace from heaven.

Mrs. Follen.

227, 120, 80.

- 1 WHEN the worn spirit wants repose,
And sighs her God to seek,
How sweet to hail the hours that close
The labors of the week!
- 2 How sweet to hail the Sabbath-day,
The day of holy rest;
From earth's wild cares to soar away
To regions pure and blest.
- 3 Sweet day! thine hours too soon will cease;
Yet, while they gently roll,
Breathe, heavenly Spirit, source of peace,
A sabbath o'er my soul.
- 4 Soon will my pilgrimage be done,
The world's long week be o'er,—
That Sabbath dawn which needs no sun,
That day which fades no more.

James Edmeston.

232

546, 446, 438.

- 1 How bright a day was that which saw
Creation's work complete!
All nature owned her Maker's law,
And worshiped at his feet.
- 2 The world, arranged by power divine,
In perfect order stood;
And, resting from his great design,
God saw that all was good.
- 3 Not such a Sabbath now appears,
For sin has ruined all;
No longer man with pleasure hears
A gracious Father's call.
- 4 Yet, Lord, bring back the reign of peace,
Let brighter days begin;
And teach vain creatures how to cease
From folly and from sin.
- 5 Let sinners be again made thine,
Though once with vengeance cursed;
And let the holy Sabbath shine,
As glorious as at first.

Anon.

233

438, 227, 117.

- 1 COME, thou beloved Redeemer, come,
Thy waiting church to bless;
Shine forth upon this Sabbath-day,
Thou Sun of righteousness.
- 2 Thou art our Maker, thou our God,
And thy great name we own;
All praise and honor and renown
We yield to thee alone.

BADEA, S. M.

GERMAN.

1. Thy ho - ly Sab - bath, Lord, Thy peo - ple hail with joy;

And while we wait to hear thy word, Let praise our hearts em - ploy.

11, 85, 30.

- 2 With sweet delight the day
That thou hast called thine own
We hail, and all our homage pay
To thine exalted throne.
- 3 O may thy saints be blessed !
Assist us while we pray ;
May we enjoy a holy rest,
And keep the sacred day.
- 4 When Sabbaths here shall end,
And from these courts we move,
May we an endless Sabbath spend
In heavenly courts above.

Anon.

237

89, 11, 151.

- 1 SIX days of toil and care,
I bid you all adieu ;
And now, O peaceful Sabbath hours,
I gladly welcome you.
- 2 My heart with rapture turns
To Eden's vale so fair ;
Then forward to the heavenly world,
And views the Sabbath there.
- 3 Sweet day of rest, through thee
Shall memory faithful prove
To him who made the earth and sea,
And starry worlds above.
- 4 Each Sabbath spent aright
Shall bring us nearer thee,
Till in that glorious land of light
We're made forever free.

Anon.

- 1 WELCOME, sweet day of rest,
The day believers prize,
Welcome to this reviving breast,
And these rejoicing eyes.
- 2 The King himself comes near,
And feasts his saints to-day ;
Here we may sit, and taste his cheer,
And love, and praise, and pray.
- 3 One day within the place
Where Christ, my Lord, has been,
Is sweeter than ten thousand days
Of folly and of sin.
- 4 My willing soul would stay
In such a frame as this
Till called to rise and soar away
To everlasting bliss.

Isaac Watts.

688, 801, 151.

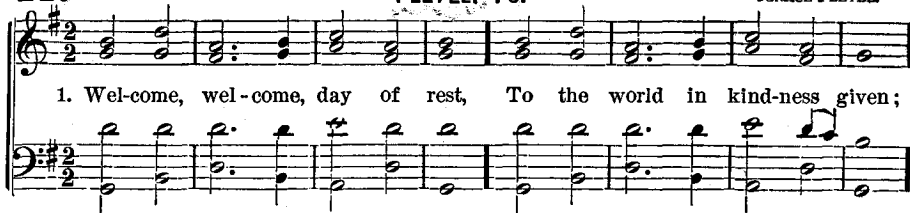

- 1 SWEET is the work, O Lord,
Thy glorious name to sing ;
To praise and pray, to hear thy word,
And grateful offerings bring.
- 2 Sweet, on this day of rest,
To join in heart and voice
With those who love and serve thee best,
And in thy name rejoice.
- 3 To songs of praise and joy
Be every Sabbath given,
That such may be our blest employ
Eternally in heaven.

Harriet Auber.

PLEYEL, 7s.

IGNACE PLEYEL.

1. Wel-come, wel-come, day of rest, To the world in kind-ness given;

Wel-come to this hum-ble breast, As the beam-ing light from heaven.

15, 531, 457.

- 2 Day of calm and sweet repose,
Gently now thy moments run;
Balm to soothe our cares and woes,
Till our labor here is done.
- 3 Holy day that most we prize,
Day of solemn praise and prayer,
Day to make the simple wise,
O, how great thy blessings are!
- 4 Welcome, welcome, day of rest,
With thy influence all divine;
May thy hallowed hours be blessed
To this waiting heart of mine.

Anon.

241

15, 339, 531.

- 1 HOLY Sabbath, sacred rest,
Welcome to each waiting breast;
Cheering hour that points away
To eternity's glad day.
- 2 Ever since creation's birth,
Thou hast been to cheer our earth;
When the course of time began,
Thou wast made, and made for man.
- 3 While thou bringest peaceful rest,
Man by thee is doubly blest;
Thou dost tend our thoughts to raise
To our great Creator's praise.
- 4 Thus drawn nearer to our Lord,
Hearts attuned to sweet accord,
We shall hail the glorious day
When all flesh shall own thy sway.

R. F. Cottrell.

242

15, 272, 37.

- 1 HOLY day! Jehovah's rest!
Of creation's week the best;
Last of all the chosen seven,
Blest of God, to man 't was given
- 2 First his six day's work was done,
Then the Sabbath hour begun;
Thus he blessed the seventh day,
Thus in resting we obey.
- 3 While we praise our Maker's name,
We his faithful promise claim;
Meet with us, dear Lord, we pray,
Thine are we, and thine this day.
- 4 Let thy Spirit on us shine,
Help us keep thy law divine;
Day by day so shall we be
Shining lights, O Lord, for thee.

F. E. Belden.

243

407, 457, 480.

- 1 WELCOME, sacred day of rest!
Sweet repose from worldly care,
Day above all days the best,
When our souls for heaven prepare.
- 2 Gracious Lord, we love this day,
When we hear thy holy word;
When we sing thy praise, and pray;
Earth can no such joys afford.
- 3 But a better rest remains,—
Heavenly Sabbaths, happier days,
Rest from sin, and rest from pains,
Endless joys, and endless praise.

Anon.

1. Safe-ly through ano-th-er week God has brought us on our way; Let us now a blessing seek, Wait - ing in his courts to - day, — Day of all the week the best, Emblem of e - ter - nal rest, Day of all the week the best, Emblem of e - ter - nal rest.

1114, 827, 885,

2 While we seek supplies of grace
Through the dear Redeemer's name,
Show thy reconciling face,
Take away our sin and shame;
From our worldly cares set free
May we rest this day in thee.

3 Here we come thy name to praise,
May we feel thy presence near,
May thy glory meet our eyes
While we in thy courts appear;
Here afford us, Lord, a taste
Of our everlasting feast.

4 May the gospel's joyful sound
Conquer sinners, comfort saints;
Make the fruits of grace abound,
Bring relief to all complaints;
Thus may all our Sabbaths be
Till we rise to reign with thee.

John Newton.

Scarcely shines the morn, the noon,
Ere the evening brings thy last!
And another Sabbath flies,
Solemn witness! to the skies.

2 What is the report it bears
To the secret place of God?
Does it speak of worldly cares,
Thoughts which cling to earth's low sod?
Or has sweet communion shone
Through its hours from God alone?

3 Could we hope the day was spent
Prayerfully, with constant heart,
We might yield it up content,
Knowing, though so soon it part,
We should see a better day,
Which could never pass away.

4 God of Sabbaths, O, forgive
That we use thy gifts so ill;
Teach us daily how to live
That we ever may fulfill
All thy gracious love designed,
Giving Sabbaths to mankind.

1114, 489, 827.

1 CLOSING Sabbath! Ah, how soon
Have thy sacred moments passed:

1. O day of rest and gladness, O day of joy and light, O balm of care and sad - ness, Most beau - ti - ful, most bright; On thee, the high and low - ly.
 Who bend before the throne, Sing, Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly, To the E - ter - nal One.

492, 611, 415.

2 Thou art a port protected
 From storms that round us rise,
 A garden intersected
 With streams of paradise;
 Thou art a cooling fountain
 In life's dry, dreary sand;
 From thee, like Pisgah's mountain,
 We view our promised land.

3 A day of sweet reflection
 Thou art, a day of love;
 A day to raise affection
 From earth to things above.
 New graces ever gaining
 From this our day of rest,
 We seek the rest remaining
 In mansions of the blest.

Christopher Wordsworth.

492, 330, 195.

1 THY holy day's returning
 Our hearts exult to see,
 And, with devotion burning,
 Ascend, great God, to thee.
 To-day, with purest pleasure,
 Our thoughts from earth withdraw;
 We search for heavenly treasure,
 We learn thy holy law.

2 We join to sing thy praises,
 O God of Sabbath-day!
 Each voice in gladness raises
 Its loudest, sweetest lay.
 Thy richest mercies sharing,
 Inspire us with thy love;
 By grace our souls preparing
 For nobler praise above.

Ray Palmer.

[Tune, Sabbath, No. 244.] 7s. 6l.

1 HAIL, thou bright and sacred morn,
 Risen with gladness in thy beams!
 Light, which not of earth is born,
 From thy dawn in glory streams;
 Airs of heaven are breathed around,
 And each place is holy ground.

2 Great Creator! who this day
 From thy perfect work didst rest,
 By the souls that own thy sway
 Hallowed be its hours and blest,
 Cares of earth aside be thrown,
 This day given to God alone.

Julia A. Elliot.

1. Again the day re - turns of ho - ly rest, Which, when he made the world, Jehovah blest;

When, like his own, he bade our labors cease, And all be pl e - ty, and all be peace.

- 2 Let us devote this consecrated day
To learn his will, and all we learn obey;
So shall he hear, when fervently we raise
Our supplications, and our songs of praise.
- 3 Lord of all worlds, incline thy gracious ear;
Thy children's voice in tender mercy hear;
Bear thy blest promise, fixed as hills, in mind,
And shed renewing grace on lost mankind.
- 4 Father in heaven, in whom our hopes confide,
Whose power defends us, and whose precepts guide,
Through life our surest guardian and
friend,
Glory supreme be thine till time shall end.

William Mason.

250

- 1 HAIL, happy day! thou day of holy rest;
What heavenly peace and transport fill our breast
When Christ, the Lord of grace, in love descends,
And kindly holds communion with his friends!
- 2 Let earth and all its vanities be gone,
Move from my sight, and leave my soul
alone;
Its flattering, fading glories I despise,
And to immortal beauties turn my eyes.
- 3 Fain would I mount, and penetrate the skies,
And on my Saviour's glories fix my eyes:

O meet my rising soul, thou God of love,
And waft it to the blissful realms above!

- 4 O Son of God, exalted on thy throne,
Impart that grace which comes from thee
alone:
Thou, by whose love our light and peace
are given,
Bring us, dear Saviour, to thyself and heaven.

P. H. Brown.

251

- 1 As time rolls on amid earth's gloom profound,
And wearing toil presents a ceaseless
round,
'Tis good to have some way-marks on our road,
To cheer our hearts, and lift our thoughts
to God.
- 2 The Sabbath to this end divinely blest,
Not only gives the body timely rest,
But by its influence helps our minds to raise
And tune our hearts to our Creator's praise.
- 3 Then hail the glad memorial of our King!
Let us give thanks, and join his praise to sing;
And learning now to celebrate his praise,
So shall we sing of him through endless days.

R. F. Cottrell.

1. The God that made the earth, And all the worlds on high, Who gave all creatures birth,

In earth, and sea, and sky, Aft - er six days in work employed,

Aft - er six days in work employed, Up - on the seventh a rest en - joyed.

167, 254, 359.

- 2 The Sabbath-day was blessed,
Hallowed, and sanctified ;
It was Jehovah's rest,
And so it must abide ;
'T was set apart before the fall,
'T was made for man, 't was made for all.
- 3 And when from Sinai's mount,
Amidst the fire and smoke,
Jehovah did recount,
And all his precepts spoke,
He claimed the rest-day as his own,
And wrote it with his law on stone.
- 4 The Son of God appeared
With tidings of great joy ;
God's precepts he revered,
He came not to destroy ;
None of the law was set aside,
But every tittle ratified.
- 5 Our Saviour did not die
To render null and void
The law of the Most High,
Which cannot be destroyed ;

But, bruised for us, our stripes he bore,—
We'll go in peace and sin no more.

R. F. Cottrell.

- 1 WELCOME, the Sabbath hour,
The holy and the blest !
With sweet, subduing power
It calms the soul to rest ;
And hope and love spring up anew,
To cheer us on our journey through.
- 2 Our only care and aim
Throughout this hallowed day,
To glorify thy name,
And grateful homage pay ;
Advance the glory of thy cause,
And vindicate thy righteous laws.
- 3 Descend, celestial Dove !
E'en while we wait and sing ;
Come from the throne of love,
With healing on thy wing ;
With ardent zeal each heart inspire,
And rebaptize with holy fire.

 Thy scepter, Lord, extend,
 While saints address thy face;
 Let sinners feel thy quickening word,
 And learn to know and fear the Lord.

3 Descend, celestial Dove,
 With all thy quickening powers;
 Disclose a Saviour's love,
 And bless these sacred hours:
 Then shall my soul new life obtain,
 Nor Sabbath-days be passed in vain.

2 We praise thee, our Maker, our God, and

 Extolling thy goodness we joyfully sing;

Praise him a-bove, ye heaven-ly host; Praise Fa-ther, Son, and Ho-ly Ghost!

257

223, 171.

1 DISMISS us with thy blessing, Lord,
Help us to feed upon thy word;
All that has been amiss forgive,
And let thy truth within us live.

2 Though we are guilty, thou art good;
Cleanse us from sin through Jesus' blood;
Give every fettered soul release,
And bid us all depart in peace.

Joseph Hart.

3 When the Chief Shepherd shall appear,

O may the flock assembled here
Be with the saved at his right hand!

Anon.

260

47, 64.

1 THY presence, ever-living God,
Wide through all nature spreads abroad;
Thy watchful eyes, which never sleep,
In every place thy children keep.

2 To thee we now commit our ways,
And still implore thy heavenly grace;
Still cause thy face on us to shine,
And guard and guide us still as thine.

3 Give us within thy house to raise
Again united songs of praise;
Or if that joy no more be known,
Give us to meet around thy throne.

Anon.

258

212, 58.

1 ERE to the world again we go,
To meet its cares and idle show,
Thy grace, once more, O God, we crave,
From folly and from sin to save.

2 May the great truths we here have heard,
The lessons of thy holy word,
Dwell in our inmost bosoms deep,
And all our souls from error keep.

3 O may the influence of this day
Long as our memory with us stay,
And as an angel guardian prove,
To guide us to our home above!

Anon.

261

347, 223.

1 BE with us, Lord, where'er we go;
Teach us what thou wouldst have us do;
Suggest whate'er we think or say;
Direct us in the narrow way.

2 Prevent us, lest we harbor pride;
Lest we in our own strength confide;
Show us our weakness, let us see
We have our power, our all, from thee.

3 Enrich us always with thy love;
Our kind Protector ever prove:
Thy signet put upon each breast,
And let thy Spirit on us rest.

John Cennick.

1 Now may the Lord, our Shepherd, lead
To living streams his little flock;
May he in flowery pastures feed,
Shade us at noon beneath the rock.

2 Now may we hear our Shepherd's voice,
And gladly answer to his call;
Now may our hearts in him rejoice
Who knows, and names, and loves us all.

- 1 STILL with thee, O my God!
I would desire to be;
By day, by night, at home, abroad,
I would be still with thee.
- 2 With thee when dawn comes in,
And calls me back to care,
Each day returning to begin
With thee, my God, in prayer.
- 3 With thee, when day is done,
And evening calms the mind;
The setting, as the rising sun,
With thee my heart would find.
- 4 With thee, in thee, by faith
Abiding I would be;
By day, by night, in life, in death,
I would be still with thee.

James Burns.

1. When shall we meet a - gain, Meet ne'er to sev - er? When will peace wreath her chain Round us for - ev - er? Our hearts will ne'er re - pose, Safe from each blast that blows, In this dark vale of woes, Never,—no, nev - er!

2 When shall love freely flow
 Pure as life's river?
 When shall sweet friendship glow,
 Changeless forever?
 Where joys celestial thrill,
 There bliss each heart shall fill,
 And fears of parting chill
 Never,—no, never!

3 Then to that world of light
 Take us, dear Saviour;
 May we all there unite,
 Blessed forever;
 Where kindred spirits dwell,
 There may our music swell,
 And time our joys dispel
 Never,—no, never!

4 Soon shall we meet again,
 Meet ne'er to sever;
 Soon shall peace wreath her chain
 Round us forever;

Our hearts will then repose,
 Secure from worldly woes;
 Our songs of praise shall close
 Never,—no, never!

Alaric A. Watts.

1 GRACIOUS God, ere we part
 Give us thy Spirit,
 And as children of thine
 May we inherit
 That land of light and joy
 Where sin can ne'er annoy,
 And peace without alloy
 Reigneth forever.

2 There shall saints ever dwell,
 Free from all sorrow,
 In that home of delight,
 On that blest morrow.
 Lord fill us with thy grace,
 And give us each a place,
 Where we may see thy face,
 Glorified ever.

1. For a sea - son called to part, Let us now our - selves com - mend

To the gra - cious eye and heart Of our ev - er - pres - ent Friend.

240, 457, 37.

2 Jesus, hear our humble prayer;
Tender Shepherd of thy sheep,
Let thy mercy and thy care
All our souls in safety keep.

3 In thy strength may we be strong
Sweeten every cross and pain,
And our wasting lives prolong
Till we meet on earth again.

4 Then if thou thy help afford,
Joyful songs to thee shall rise,
And our souls shall praise the Lord,
Who regards our humble cries.

John Newton.

1 For the mercies of the day,
For this rest upon our way,
Thanks to thee alone be given,
Lord of earth and King of heaven!

2 Oft our services have been
Mingled with the taint of sin;
But thou canst and wilt forgive;
By thy grace alone we live.

3 While this thorny path we tread,
May thy love our footsteps lead;
When our journey here is past,
May we rest with thee at last.

4 Let these earthly Sabbaths prove
Foretastes of our joys above,
While their steps thy children bend
To the rest that knows no end.

James Montgomery.

1 CHRISTIAN brethren, ere we part,
Every voice and every heart
Join, and to our Father raise
One last hymn of grateful praise.

2 Though we here should meet no more,
Yet there is a brighter shore;
There released from toil and pain,
Saints with joy shall meet again.

Henry K. White.

1 THOU, from whom we never part,
Thou, whose love is everywhere,

Love unfailling, full and free;
Love that no alarm can move,
Love that ever rests on thee.

1 IF 't is sweet to mingle where
Christians meet for social prayer,
If 't is sweet with them to raise
Songs of holy joy and praise,
O, how sweet that state must be,
Where they meet eternally!

2 Saviour, may these meetings prove
Preparations from above;
As we leave this sacred place,
May we go from grace to grace,
Till we each, in his degree,
Fit for endless glory be.

256, 223, 47.

- 2 Once did the skies before thee bow ;
A virgin's arms contain thee now :
Angels, who did in thee rejoice,
Now listen to thy infant voice.
- 3 A little child, thou art our guest,
That weary ones in thee may rest ;
Forlorn and lowly is thy birth,
That we may rise to heaven from earth.
- 4 Thou comest in the darksome night,
To make us children of the light ;
To make us, in the realms divine,
Like thy own angels round thee shine.
- 5 All this for us thy love hath done,
By this to thee our love is won ;
For this we tune our cheerful lays,
And tell our thanks in songs of praise.

- 1 WAKE ! O my soul, and hail the morn ;
For unto us a Saviour's born :
See how the angels wing their way
To usher in the glorious day !
- 2 Hark ! what sweet music ! what a song
Sounds from the bright, celestial throng !
Sweet song, whose melting strains impart
Joy to each raptured, listening heart.
- 3 Come, join the angels as they cry,
" Glory to God who reigns on high ;
Let peace and love on earth abound,
While spheres revolve and years roll
round."

- 1 WHEN Jordan hushed his waters still,
And silence slept on Zion's hill ;
When Salem's shepherds through the night
Watched o'er their flocks by starry light ;

A voice of more than mortal sound
In distant hallelujahs stole,
Like music o'er the raptured soul.
- 3 On wheels of light, on wings of flame,
The glorious hosts of Zion came ;
High heaven with songs of triumph rung,
While angels struck their harps and sung.

- 1 BEFORE the heavens were spread abroad,
From everlasting was the Word ;
With God he was, the Word was God !
And must divinely be adored.

He led the host of morning stars ;
His generation who can tell,
Or count the number of his years ?

The Word descends and dwells in clay,
That he may converse hold with worms,
Dressed in such feeble flesh as they.

To learn new mysteries here, and tell
The love of our descending God,
The glories of Immanuel.

CHRISTMAS. C. M.

GEORGE F. HANDEL.

1. Whileshepherds watched their flocks by night, All seat-ed on the ground, The an-gel of the Lord came down, And glory shone around, And glo-ry shone around.

27, 74, 70.

- 2 "Fear not," said he,—for mighty dread
Had seized their troubled mind,—
Glad tidings of great joy I bring
To you and all mankind.
- 3 "To you, in David's town this day
Is born, of David's line,
The Saviour, who is Christ the Lord;
And this shall be the sign:
- 4 "The heavenly babe you there shall find
To human view displayed,
All humbly wrapped in swathing-bands,
And in a manger laid."
- 5 Thus spake the seraph; and forthwith
Appeared a shining throng
Of angels, praising God on high,
Who thus addressed their song:
- 6 "All glory be to God on high,
And to the earth be peace;
Good-will henceforth from heaven to men,
Begin and never cease."
- 3 Swift through the vast expanse it flew,
And loud the echo rolled;
The theme, the song, the joy, was new,—
'Twas more than heaven could hold.
- 4 Down through the portals of the sky
The impetuous torrent ran;
And angels flew, with eager joy,
To bear the news to man.
- 5 With joy the chorus we repeat,
"Glory to God on high!"
Good-will and peace are now complete,
Through Christ who came to die.
- 6 Hail, Prince of life, forever hail!
Redeemer, Brother, Friend!
Though earth, and time, and life shall fail,
Thy praise shall never end.

Samuel Medley.

289

114, 322, 201.

- 1 MORTALS, awake, with angels join,
And chant the solemn lay;
Joy, love, and gratitude combine,
To hail the auspicious day.
- 2 In heaven the rapturous song began,
And sweet seraphic fire
Through all the shining legions ran,
And strung and tuned the lyre.
- 1 To us a Child of hope is born;
To us a Son is given;
Him shall the tribes of earth obey,
Him all the hosts of heaven.
- 2 His name shall be the Prince of peace,
Forevermore adored,
The Wonderful, the Counselor,
The great and mighty Lord!
- 3 His power increasing still shall spread,
His reign no end shall know;
Justice shall guard his throne above,
And peace abound below.

CAROL. C. M. D.

RICHARD S. WILLIS.

1. It came up - on the mid-night clear, That glo - rious song of old,

From an - gels bend - ing near the earth To touch their harps of gold;
D. S.—The world in sol - emn still - ness lay, To hear the an - gels sing.

“Peace on the earth, good will to men, From heaven’s all - gra - cious King.”

2 Still through the cloven skies they come,
With peaceful wings unfurled;
And still their heavenly music floats
O'er all the weary world:
Above its sad and lowly plains
They bend on hovering wing,
And ever o'er its Babel sounds
The blessed angels sing.

3 But with the woes of sin and strife
The world has suffered long;
Beneath the angel-strain have rolled
Two thousand years of wrong;
And man, at war with man, hears not
The love song which they bring:
O cease, ye mortals, cease your strife,
And hear the angels sing!

Edmund H. Sears.

292

488, 450, 83.

1 CALM on the listening ear of night,
Come heaven's melodious strains,
Where wild Judea stretches far
Her silver-mantled plains;
Celestial choirs from courts above
Shed sacred glories there;
And angels, with their sparkling lyres,
Make music on the air.

2 The answering hills of Palestine
Send back the glad reply,
And greet from all their holy heights
The Dayspring from on high:
O'er the blue depths of Galilee
There comes a holier calm;
And Sharon waves in solemn praise
Her silent groves of palm.

3 “Glory to God!” the lofty strain
The realm of ether fills;
How sweeps the song of solemn joy
O'er Judah's sacred hills!
“Glory to God!” the sounding skies
Loud with their anthems ring:
“Peace on the earth; good will to men,
From heaven's eternal King.”

4 To-day shall Christian tongues be mute,
And Christian hearts be cold?
O catch the anthem that from heaven
O'er Judah's mountains rolled
When, sweetly burst from seraph-harps
The high and solemn lay,— “Glory to God; on earth be peace;
Salvation comes to-day!”

Edmund H. Sears.

HERALD ANGELS, 7s. D. FELIX MENDELSSOHN-BARTHOLDY.

1. Hark! the her-ald angels sing, "Glo-ry to the new-born King; Peace on earth, and mercy mild,
God and sin-ners reconciled!" { Joy-ful, all ye na-tions, rise, } { Join the triumph of theskies; } With the an-gel host proclaim,
"Christ is born in Bethlehem!" With the an-gel host proclaim, "Christ is born in Bethlehem!"

328, 901, 464.

- 2 Christ, by highest heaven adored,
Christ the everlasting Lord;
In the manger born a king,
While adoring angels sing,
"Peace on earth, to men good-will;"
Bid the trembling soul be still,
Christ on earth has come to dwell,
Jesus, our Emmanuel!
- 3 Hail! the heaven-born Prince of peace!
Hail! the Sun of righteousness!
Life and light to all he brings,
Risen with healing in his wings.
Mild he lays his glory by,
Born that man no more may die,
Born to raise the sons of earth,
Born to give them second birth.

Charles Wesley.

828, 464, 901.

- 1 HE has come! the Christ of God
Left for us his glad abode,
Stooping from his throne of bliss
To this darksome wilderness.

He has come! the Prince of peace;
Come to bid our sorrows cease,
Come to scatter with his light
All the shadows of our night.

- 2 He, the mighty King, has come!
Making this poor earth his home;
Come to bear our sin's sad load;
Son of David, Son of God!
He has come, whose name of grace
Speaks deliverance to our race;
Left for us his glad abode;
Son of Mary, Son of God!

- 3 Unto us a child is born!
Ne'er has earth beheld a morn,
Among all the morns of time,
Half so glorious in its prime.
Unto us a Son is given!
He has come from God's own heaven,
Bringing with him from above
Holy peace and holy love.

Horatius Bonar.

2 Startled shepherds, all awaking,
Hear the song the angels sing,
And their frightened flocks forsaking,
Go to seek the Saviour-king.

3 Son of God, in manger lowly,
Prince of light and Lord of love;
King of heaven, high and holy,
Boon on earth from courts above!

We rejoice, and praise thy name;
Every knee shall bend before thee,
Every tongue thy love proclaim.

- 1 HARK! what mean those holy voices,
Sweetly warbling in the skies?
All the heavenly host rejoices,
Loudest hallelujahs rise.
- 2 Listen to the wondrous story,
Which they chant in hymns of joy,—
“Glory in the highest, glory;
Glory be to God most high!
- 3 “Peace on earth, good-will from heaven,
Reaching far as man is found;
Souls redeemed, and sins forgiven;
Loud our golden harps shall sound.
- 4 “Christ is born, the great Anointed;
Heaven and earth his glory sing;
Glad receive whom God appointed,
For your Prophet, Priest, and King.

Learn his name and taste his joy;
Till in heaven you stand before him,
And his praise your tongues employ.”

- 1 ANGELS, from the realms of glory,
Wing your flight o'er all the earth;
Ye who sang creation's story,
Now proclaim Messiah's birth.
- CHO.—Come and worship, come and worship,
Worship Christ, the new-born King.
- 2 Shepherds in the field abiding,
Watching o'er your flocks by night,
God with man is now residing,
Yonder shines the infant light.
- 3 Sages, leave your contemplations,
Brighter visions beam afar;
Seek the great Desire of nations;
Ye have seen his natal star.
- 4 Saints, before the altar bending,
Watching long in hope and fear,
Suddenly the Lord, descending,
In his temple shall appear.
- 5 Sinners, wrung with true repentance,
Come with all your guilty stains;
Justice now revokes the sentence,
Mercy calls you,—break your chains.

James Montgomery.

1. Brightest and best of the sons of the morning, Dawn on our darkness, and lend us thine aid;

Star of the east, the ho - ri - zon adorning, Guide where our infant Re - deem - er is laid.

2 Cold on his cradle the dew-drops are shining;
Low lies his head with the beasts of the stall;
Angels adore him, in slumber reclining,—
Maker, and Monarch, and Saviour of all.

Gems of the mountain, and pearls of the ocean,
Myrrh from the forest, and gold from the mine?

3 Say, shall we yield him, in costly devotion,
Odors of Edom and offerings divine?

4 Vainly we offer each ample oblation,
Vainly with gifts would his favor secure;
Richer by far is the heart's adoration,
Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor.

1. { As with glad-ness men of old Did the guiding star behold;
{ As with joy they hailed its light, Leading onward, beaming bright; } So, most gracious Lord, may we Evermore be led to thee.

2 As with joyful steps they sped
To that lowly manger-bed,
There to bend the knee before
Him whom heaven and earth adore;
So may we with willing feet
Ever seek the mercy-seat.

3 As they offered gifts most rare
At that manger rude and bare;
So may we with holy joy,

Pure, and free from sin's alloy,
All our costliest treasures bring,
Christ, to thee, our heavenly King.

4 Blessed Saviour, every day
Keep us in the narrow way;
And, when earthly things are past,
Bring our ransomed souls at last
Where they need no star to guide,
Where no clouds thy glory hide.

1. My blest Re-deem-er and my Lord. I read my du - ty in thy word;

But in thy life the law appears, Drawn out in liv - ing char - ac - ters.

223, 58, 101.

2 What truth and love thy bosom fill!
What zeal to do thy Father's will!
Such zeal, and truth, and love divine,
I would transcribe, and make them mine.

3 Cold mountains and the midnight air
Witnessed the fervor of thy prayer;
The desert thy temptations knew,
Thy conflict, and thy victory too.

4 Be thou my pattern; make me bear
More of thy gracious image here;
Then God, the Judge, shall own my name
Among the followers of the Lamb.

Isaac Watts.

302

168, 223, 542.

1 How beauteous were the marks divine
That in thy meekness used to shine,
That lit thy path, O Son of God!
The lonely path thy feet have trod.

2 Oh, who like thee, so calm, so mild,
So patient, pure, and undefiled?
Oh, who like thee did ever go
So sinless through a world of woe?

3 Oh, who like thee so humbly bore
The scorn, the scoffs of men, before?
So meek, so lowly, yet so high,
So glorious in humility?

4 A suffering life by thee was led;
Thou hadst not where to lay thy head;
And since, O Lord, 'twas all for me,
Shall I not gladly follow thee?

5 And death, that sets the prisoner free,
Was pang, and scoff, and scorn to thee;
Yet love through all thy torture glowed,
And mercy with thy life-blood flowed.

6 O wondrous Lord, my soul would be Still more and more conformed to thee,
And learn of thee, the lowly One,
And like thee, all my journey run.

A. Cleveland Cox.

64, 542, 23.

1 WHEN, like a stranger on our sphere,
The lowly Jesus wandered here,
Where'er he went, affliction fled,
And sickness reared her fainting head.

2 The eye that rolled in irksome night,
Beheld his face—for God is light;
The opening ear, the loosened tongue,
His precepts heard, his praises sung.

3 With bounding steps the halt and lame,
To hail their great Deliverer came;
O'er the cold grave he bowed his head,
He spake the word, and raised the dead.

4 Despairing madness, dark and wild,
In his inspiring presence smiled;
The storm of horror ceased to roll,
And reason lighted up the soul.

5 Through paths of loving-kindness led,
Where Jesus triumphed, we would tread;
To all with willing hands dispense
The gifts of our benevolence.

301, 343, 58.

2 Lord, should my path through suffering lie.
 Forbid that I should e'er repine;
 Still let me turn to Calvary,
 Nor heed my grief, remembering thine.

3 O, let me think how thou didst leave
 Thy heavenly home of pure delights,
 To fast, to faint, to watch, to grieve,
 Through toilsome days, through lonely nights!

4 All this thou didst, then died for me!
 Thou camest not thyself to please;
 And, dear though earthly comforts be,
 Shall I not love thee more than these?

1 WHEN the blind suppliant in the way,
 By friendly hands to Jesus led,
 Prayed to behold the light of day,
 "Receive thy sight," the Saviour said.

2 At once he saw the pleasant rays
 That lit the glorious firmament;
 And, with firm step and words of praise,
 He followed where the Master went.

3 Look down in pity, Lord, we pray,
 On eyes oppressed by moral night,
 And touch the darkened lids, and say
 The gracious words, "Receive thy sight."

4 Then, in clear daylight, shall we see
 Where walked the sinless Son of God;
 And, aided by new strength from thee,
 Press onward in the path he trod.

William C. Bryant.

1 O WONDROUS type! O vision fair
 Of glory that the church shall share,
 Which Christ upon the mountain shows,
 Where brighter than the sun he glows!

2 From age to age the tale declare,
 How with the three disciples there,
 Where Moses and Elias meet,
 The Lord holds converse high and sweet.

3 With shining face and bright array,
 Christ deigns to manifest to-day
 What glory shall be theirs above,
 Who live below in perfect love.

4 And faithful hearts are raised on high
 By this great vision's mystery;
 For which in joyful strains we raise
 The voice of prayer, the hymn of praise.

 From lips of gentleness and grace,
 When listening thousands gathered round,
 And joy and gladness filled the place!

 To heaven he led his followers' way;
 Dark clouds of gloomy night he broke,
 Unveiling an immortal day.

3 He points us to his Father's home,
 "Come, all ye weary ones, and rest;"
 Yes, sacred Teacher, we will come,
 Obey thee, love thee, and be blest!

Yet no ungentle, murmuring word
Escaped thy silent tongue.
- 3 Thy foes might hate, despise, revile,
Thy friends unfaithful prove ;
Unwearied in forgiveness still,
Thy heart could only love.
- 4 O, give us hearts to love like thee !
Like thee, O Lord, to grieve
Far more for others' sins, than all
The wrongs that we receive.

Sir Edward Denny.

- 1 BEHOLD, where, in a mortal form,
Appears each grace divine !
The virtues, all in Jesus met,
With mildest radiance shine.
- 2 To spread the rays of heavenly light,
To give the mourner joy,
To preach glad tidings to the poor,
Was his divine employ.
- 3 'Mid keen reproach and cruel scorn,
He meek and patient stood ;
His foes, ungrateful, sought his life,
Who labored for their good.
- 4 Be Christ our pattern and our guide,
His image may we bear ;
O, may we tread his holy steps
Till we his glory share !

- 1 THE chosen three, on mountain high,
While Jesus bowed in prayer,
Beheld his vesture glow with light,
His face shine wondrous fair.
- 2 And lo ! with the transfigured Lord,
Leader and seer they saw ;
With Carmel's hoary prophet stood
The giver of the law.
- 3 From the low-bending cloud above,
Whence radiant brightness shone,
Spake out the Father's voice of love,
" Hear my beloved Son ! "
- 4 Lord, lead us to the mountain high ;
To prayer's transfiguring glow ;
And clothe us with the Spirit's might,
For grander work below.

- 1 A PILGRIM through this lonely world,
The blessed Saviour passed ;
A mourner all his life was he,
A dying Lamb at last.
- 2 That tender heart that felt for all,
For all its life-blood gave ;
It found on earth no resting-place,
Save only in the grave.
- 3 Such was our Lord ; and shall we fear
The cross, with all its scorn ?
Or love a faithless, evil world,
That wreathed his brow with thorn ?

INVITATION. C. M.

WILLIAM V. WALLACE.

1. We may not climb the heaven-ly steeps To bring the Sav - iour down ;

In vain we search the low - est deeps, For him no depths can drown.

201, 27, 147.

2 But warm, sweet, tender, even yet

A present help is he ;
And faith has yet its Olivet,
And love its Galilee.

3 The healing of the seamless dress

Is by our beds of pain ;
We touch him in life's throng and press,
And we are whole again.

4 Through him the first fond prayers are said
Our lips of childhood frame ;
The last low whispers of our dead
Are burdened with his name.

5 O Lord and Master of us all,
Whate'er our name or sign,
We own thy sway, we hear thy call,
We test our lives by thine !

John G. Whittier.

{ Kinsman, Friend, and el - der Brother, Is his ev - er - last - ing name. }

Sav - iour, who can love like thee, Gra - cious One of Beth - a - ny?

2 When the pangs of trial seize us,
When the waves of sorrow roll,

I will lay my head on Jesus,
Pillow of the troubled soul :
Surely, none can feel like thee,
Weeping One of Bethany !

3 Jesus wept ! and still in glory

He can mark each mourner's tear,
Living to retrace the story

Of the hearts he solaced here.
Lord, if I am called to die,
Let me think of Bethany.

4 Jesus wept ! those tears of sorrow
Are a legacy of love ;
Yesterday, to-day, to-morrow,
He the same doth ever prove.
Thou art all in all to me,
Living One of Bethany !

1. 'Tis midnight; and on Olives' brow The star is dimmed that late-ly shone:

'Tis midnight; in the gar-den, now, The suffering Sav-lour prays a-lone.

316, 171, 61.

2 'Tis midnight; and from all removed,
The Saviour wrestles lone with fears;
E'en that disciple whom he loved
Heeds not his Master's grief and tears.

Yet he who hath in anguish knelt,
Is not forsaken by his God.

4 'Tis midnight; and from ether plains
Is borne the song that angels know;
Unheard by mortals are the strains
That sweetly soothe the Saviour's woe.

1. When I sur-vey the wondrous cross On which the Prince of glo-ry died,

My rich-est gain I count but loss, And pour contempt on all my pride.

58, 101, 104.

2 See, from his head, his hands, his feet,
Sorrow and love flow mingled down;
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet?
Or thorns compose so rich a crown?

Forbid it, then, that I should boast,
Save in the cross of Christ, my Lord.

3 Since I, who was undone and lost,
Have pardon through his name and
word;

4 Were the whole realm of nature mine,
That were a tribute far too small;
Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my life, my soul, my all.

Isaac Watts.

OLDEN, L. M.

LOWELL MASON.

1. "'Tis finished!" so the Saviour cried, And meekly bowed his head, and died:

'Tis finished! yes, the race is run; The battle fought; the victory won.

314, 315, 171.

- 2 'Tis finished! that which heaven foretold
By prophets in the days of old;
And truths are opened to our view
That kings and prophets never knew.
- 3 'Tis finished! Son of God, thy power
Hath triumphed in this awful hour;
And yet our eyes with sorrow see
That life to us was death to thee.
- 4 'Tis finished! let the joyful sound
Be heard through all the nations round;
'Tis finished! let the triumph rise,
And swell the chorus of the skies!

Samuel Stennett.

428, 64, 471.

- 1 HE dies! the Friend of sinners dies!
Lo, Salem's daughters weep around;
A solemn darkness veils the skies,
A sudden trembling shakes the ground.
- 2 Come, saints, and shed your tears anew
For him who groaned beneath your load;
He shed his precious blood for you,
Then freely be your tears bestowed.
- 3 Here's love and grief beyond degree;
The Lord of glory dies for men!
But lo, what sudden joys we see!
Jesus the dead revives again!
- 4 He lives forever, wondrous King,
Born to redeem, and strong to save;
Then ask, O death, where is thy sting?
And where 's thy victory, boasting grave?

Isaac Watts.

318

301, 361, 58.

- 1 'Tis finished! the Messiah dies,—
Cut off for sins, but not his own;
Accomplished is the sacrifice;
Now his incarnate work is done.
- 2 'Tis finished! all the debt is paid;
Justice divine is satisfied;
The grand and full provision made:
Christ for a guilty world hath died.
- 3 The veil is rent; in him alone
The living way to heaven is seen;
The middle wall is broken down,
And all mankind may enter in.
- 4 The types and figures are fulfilled;
Exactd is the legal pain;
The precious promises are sealed:
The spotless Lamb of God is slain.

Charles Wesley.

- 1 LORD JESUS, when we stand afar,
And gaze upon thy holy cross,
In love of thee and scorn of self,
O, may we count the world as loss.
- 2 When we behold thy bleeding wounds,
And the rough way that thou hast trod,
Make us to hate the load of sin
That lay so heavy on our God.
- 3 O holy Lord! uplifted high
With outstretched arms, in mortal woe,
Embracing in thy wondrous love
The sinful world that lies below!

1. O Love di-vine, what hast thou done! The incarnate God hath died for me!

The Fa-ther's well-be-lov-ed Son Bore all my sins up-on the tree!

The Son of God for me hath died,—My Lord, my Love, is cru-ci-fied.

234, 706, 682.

- 2 Behold him, all ye passers by—
The bleeding Prince of life and peace!
Come, sinners, see your Saviour die,
And say, was ever grief like his?
Come, feel with me his blood applied,—
My Lord, my Love, is crucified:
- 3 Is crucified for me and you,
To bring us rebels back to God;
Believe, believe the record true,
Ye all are bought with Jesus' blood;
Pardon for all flows from his side,—
My Lord, my Love, is crucified.
- 4 Then let us sit beneath his cross,
And gladly catch the healing stream;
All things for him account but loss,
And give up all our hearts to him!
Of nothing think or speak beside,—
My Lord, my Love, is crucified.

Charles Wesley.

321

234, 683, 706.

- 1 WOULD Jesus have the sinner die?
Why hangs he then on yonder tree?
What means that strange expiring cry?
Sinners, he prays for you and me:
"Forgive them, Father, O forgive!
They know not that by me they live."
- 2 Jesus, descended from above,
Our loss of Eden to retrieve;
Great God of universal love,
If all the world through thee may live.
In us a quickening spirit be,
And witness thou hast died for me.
- 3 O, let thy love my heart constrain,—
Thy love, for every sinner free,—
That every fallen son of man
May taste the grace that rescued me,
That all mankind his love may prove—
That sovereign, everlasting love.

Charles Wesley.

Would he de-vote that sa-cred head For such a worm as I?
 And when thou sit-test on thy throne, O Lord, re-mem-ber me.

80, 7, 179.

- 2 Was it for crimes that I have done
 He groaned upon the tree?
 Amazing pity! grace unknown!
 And love beyond degree!
- 3 Well might the sun in darkness hide,
 And shut his glories in,
 When Christ the Lord was crucified
 For man, the creature's sin.
- 4 Thus might I hide my blushing face,
 While his dear cross appears,
 Dissolve my heart in thankfulness,
 And melt mine eyes to tears.
- 5 But drops of grief can ne'er repay
 The debt of love I owe;
 Here, Lord, I give myself away;
 'Tis all that I can do.

Isaac Watts.

- 1 BEHOLD the Saviour of mankind
 Nailed to the shameful tree!
 How vast the love that him inclined
 To die for you and me!
- 2 Hark! how he groans, while nature shakes,
 And earth's strong pillars bend;
 The temple's vail in sunder breaks,
 The solid marbles rend.
- 3 'Tis done! the precious ransom's paid!
 'Tis done, the Saviour cries;
 See where he bows his sacred head;
 He bows his head, and dies.

Samuel Wesley.

 The cruel nails they drive:
 Our ransom thus is made complete,
 Our souls are saved alive.
- 2 And see! the spear has pierced his side,
 And shed that sacred flood—
 That holy, reconciling tide—
 The water and the blood.
- 3 O holy cross! from thee we learn
 The only way to heaven;
 And O, to thee may sinners turn,
 And look, and be forgiven!

- 1 THERE is a dear and hallowed spot,
 Oft present to my eye;
 By saints it ne'er can be forgot—
 That place is Calvary.
- 2 O, what a scene was there displayed,
 Of love and agony,
 When our Redeemer bowed his head,
 And died on Calvary!
- 3 When fainting under guilt's dread load,
 Unto the cross I'll fly,
 And trust the merits of the blood
 That flowed at Calvary.
- 4 Whene'er I feel temptation's power,
 On Jesus I'll rely,
 And in the sharp, conflicting hour,
 Repair to Calvary.

1. Dark was the night, and cold the ground On which the Lord was laid;

His sweat like drops of blood ran down, In ag - o - ny he prayed:—

546, 120, 117.

- 2 "Father, remove this bitter cup,
If such thy sacred will;
If not, content to drink it up,
Thy pleasure I fulfill."
- 3 Go to the garden, sinner, see
Those precious drops that flow;
The heavy load he bore for thee,
For thee he lies so low.
- 4 Then learn of him the cross to bear,
Thy Father's will obey;
And, when temptations press thee near,
Awake to watch and pray.

- 1 JESUS, thy love shall we forget,
And never bring to mind
The grace that paid our hopeless debt,
And bade us pardon find?
- 2 Shall we thy life of grief forget,
Thy fasting and thy prayer,
Thy locks with mountain vapors wet,
To save us from despair?
- 3 Gethsemane can we forget—
Thy struggling agony
When night lay dark on Olivet,
And none to watch with thee?
- 4 Our sorrows and our sins were laid
On thee, alone on thee;
Thy precious blood our ransom paid—
Thine all the glory be!

Wm. Mitchell.

- 1 O JESUS, sweet the tears I shed
While at thy cross I kneel,
Gaze on thy wounded, fainting head,
And all thy sorrows feel.
- 2 My heart dissolves to see thee bleed,
This heart so hard before;
I hear thee for the guilty plead,
And grief o'erflows the more.
- 3 I know this cleansing blood of thine
Was shed, dear Lord, for me;
For me, for all,—O, grace divine!—
Who look by faith on thee.
- 4 In patient hope the cross I'll bear,
Thine arm shall be my stay;
And thou, enthroned, my soul shalt spare
On thy great Judgment-day.

When all was sin and shame,
A second Adam to the fight
And to the rescue came.
- 2 O, wisest love! that flesh and blood
Which did in Adam fail,

- 3 O, generous love!—that he who smote
In Man for man the foe,
The double agony in Man
For man should undergo!

1. O sacred Head, once wounded, With grief and shame weighed down; Once scornfully surrounded With thorns, thine only crown;

O sacred Head, what glory, What bliss, till then was thine! Yet, though despised and gory, I joy to call thee mine.

492, 246, 415.

2 What thou, my Lord, hast suffered,
Was all for sinners' gain;
Mine, mine was the transgression,
But thine the deadly pain;
Lo, here I fall, my Saviour!
'Tis I deserved thy place;
Look on me with thy favor,
Vouchsafe to me thy grace.

3 What language shall I borrow
To thank thee dearest Friend,
For this, thy dying sorrow,
Thy pity without end?
Lord, make me thine forever,
Nor let me faithless prove;
O, let me never, never
Abuse such dying love!

1. A-mong the mount-ain trees The winds were whispering low, And night's ten thou-sand har-mo-nies

Were har-mo-nies of woe; A voice of grief was on the gale, It came from Ked-ron's gloomy vale.

2 It was the Saviour's prayer
That on the silence broke,
Imploring strength from heaven to bear
The sin-avenging stroke;
As in Gethsemane he knelt,
And pangs unknown his bosom felt.

3 The fitful starlight shone
In dim and misty gleams;
Deep was his agonizing groan,
And large the vital streams
Which trickled to the dewy sod,
While Jesus raised his voice to God.

4 The chosen three that staid
Their nightly watch to keep,
Left him through sorrows deep to wade,
And gave themselves to sleep;
Meekly and sad he prayed alone,
Strangely forgotten by his own.

5 Along the streamlet's bank
The reckless traitor came,
And heavy on his bosom sank
The load of guilt and shame;
Yet unto those who waited nigh,
He gave the Lamb of God to die!

6 Among the mountain trees
The winds were whispering low,
And night's ten thousand harmonies
Were harmonies of woe;

For cruel voices filled the gale
That came from Kedron's gloomy vale.

1 BOUND upon the accursed tree,
Faint and bleeding, who is He?
By the eyes so pale and dim,
Streaming blood, and writhing limb,
By the flesh with scourges torn,
By the crown of twisted thorn,
By the drooping, death-dewed brow;
Son of man, 't is thou! 't is thou!

2 Bound upon the accursed tree,
Dread and awful, who is He?
By the sun at noonday pale,
Shivering rocks, and rending veil,
By the earth enwrapt in gloom,
By the saints who burst their tomb,
Lord, our suppliant knees we bow!
Son of God! 't is thou! 't is thou!

3 Bound upon the accursed tree,
Dread and awful, who is He?
By the prayer for them that slew,
"Lord! they know not what they do!"
By the spoiled and empty grave,
By the souls he died to save,
By the rainbow round his brow,
Son of God! 't is thou! 't is thou!

- 2 There his triumphal chariot waits,
And angels chant the solemn lay:
"Lift up your heads, ye heavenly gates;
Ye everlasting doors, give way."
- 3 Loose all your bars of golden light,
And wide unfold the beauteous scene;
He claims these mansions as his right,
Receive the King of glory in.
- 4 Who is the King of glory? Who?—
The Lord, that all our foes o'ercame;
The world, sin, death, and hell o'erthrew;
And Jesus is the conqueror's name.
- 5 Lo! his triumphal chariot waits,
And angels chant the solemn lay:
"Lift up your heads, ye heavenly gates;

He lives, my everlasting Head!
- 2 He lives to bless me with his love,
He lives to plead for me above,
He lives my hungry soul to feed,
He lives to help in time of need.

3 He lives, and grants me daily breath;
He lives, and I shall conquer death;
He lives my mansion to prepare,
He lives to bring me safely there.

4 He lives, all glory to his name!
He lives, my Saviour, still the same;
What joy the blest assurance gives,—

- 1 THE morning kindles all the sky,
The heavens resound with anthems high
The shining angels, as they speed,
Proclaim, "The Lord is risen indeed!"
- 2 Vainly with rocks his tomb was barred,
While Roman warriors stood on guard.
Majestic from the spoiled tomb
In pomp of triumph, he has come!
- 3 When the amazed disciples heard,
Their hearts with speechless joy were stirred;
Their Lord's beloved face to see,
Eager they haste to Galilee.
- 4 His pierced hands to them he shows,
His face with love's own radiance glows;
They with the angels' message speed,
And shout, "The Lord is risen indeed!"
- 5 O Christ, thou King compassionate!
Our hearts possess, on thee we wait;
Help us to render praises due,
To thee the endless ages through!

- 1 HAIL the day that sees him rise,
And ascend his native skies!
Christ, awhile to mortals given,
Enters now the gates of heaven.
- 2 There the glorious triumph waits;
Lift your heads, eternal gates!
Christ hath vanquished death and sin;
Take the King of glory in.
- 3 See, the heaven its Lord receives!
Yet he loves the earth he leaves;
Though returning to his throne,
Still he calls mankind his own.
- 4 See, he lifts his hands above!
See, he shows the prints of love!
Hark! his gracious lips bestow
Blessings on his church below.
- 5 Saviour, parted from our sight,
High above yon azure hight,
Grant our hearts may thither rise,
Following thee beyond the skies.

Made like thee, by thee we rise;
Ours the cross, the grave, the skies.

R. F. Cottrell
58, 347, 23.

- 1 THERE is a house in heaven built,
The temple of the living God,
The tabernacle true, where guilt
Is washed away by precious blood.
- 2 Long since, our High Priest entered there,
Who knows the frailties of our frame,
Who loves to hear his people's prayer,
And offer to our God the same.
- 3 The daily ministry he bore,
Till ended the prophetic days;
He opened then the inner door,
To justify the sacred place.
- 4 Before the ark of ten commands,
On which the mercy-seat is placed,
Presenting his own blood, he stands,
Till Israel's sins are all erased.

R. F. Cottrell.

101, 336, 592.

- 1 JESUS, thy blood and righteousness
My beauty are, my glorious dress;
'Mid hosts of sin, in these arrayed,
My soul shall never be afraid.
- 2 Lord, I believe thy precious blood,
Which, at the mercy-seat of God,
Forever doth for sinners plead,
Can cleanse my guilty soul indeed.
- 3 Lord, I believe were sinners more
Than sands upon the ocean shore,
Thou hast for all a ransom paid,
For all a full provision made.

WARD, L. M.

SCOTCH, ARR. BY LOWELL MASON.

1. Where high the heavenly tem-ple stands, The house of God not made with hands,

A great High Priest our na-ture wears, The Guardian of man-kind appears.

136, 343, 23.

- 2 He who for men their surety stood,
And poured on earth his precious blood,
Pursues in heaven his mighty plan,
The Saviour and the Friend of man.
- 3 In every pang that rends the heart,
The Man of sorrows had a part;
He sympathizes with our grief,
And to the sufferer sends relief.
- 4 With boldness, therefore, at the throne
Let us make all our sorrows known,
And ask the aid of heavenly power,
To help us in the evil hour.

Michael Bruce.

348

361, 64, 101.

- 1 THOUGH I should seek to wash me clean
In water of the driven snow,
My soul would yet its spots retain,
And sink in conscious guilt and woe.
- 2 God's law in all its power divine
Condemns my erring soul to death;
Declares the foulness of its sin,
And shows the vileness of its worth.
- 3 There must a Mediator plead
Whom God and man may both embrace,
With God for man to intercede,
And offer us the purchased grace.
- 4 And thus the Son of God is slain
To be this Mediator crowned;
In him, my soul, be cleansed from stain,
In him thy righteousness be found.

Anon.

1394, 518.

- 1 O SOLEMN thought! and can it be
The hour of Judgment now is come,
Which soon must fix our destiny,
And seal the sinner's fearful doom?
Yes, it is so; the Judgment hour
Is swiftly hastening to its close;
Then will the Judge, in mighty power,
Descend in vengeance on his foes.
- 2 He who came down to earth to die,
An offering for the sins of men,
And then ascended up on high,
And will ere long return again,
Is standing now before the ark,
And mercy-seat, and cherubim,
To plead his blood for saints, and make
The last remembrance of their sin.
- 3 The solemn moment is at hand
When we who have his name confessed,
Each in his lot must singly stand,
And pass the final, searching test.
Jesus! we hope in thee alone;
In mercy now upon us look,
Confess our names before the throne,
And blot our sins from out thy book.
- 4 O blessed Saviour! may we feel
The full importance of this hour.
Inspire our hearts with holy zeal,
And aid us by thy Spirit's power,
That we may, in thy strength, be strong,
And brave the conflict valiantly;
Then, on Mount Zion, join the song,
And swell the notes of victory.

GEORGE F. HANDEL.

1. I know that my Re-deem - er lives, And ev - er prays for me;

A to - ken of his love he gives, A pledge of lib - er - ty.

395, 147.

- 2 Jesus, I hang upon thy word;
I steadfastly believe
Thou wilt return, and claim me, Lord,
And to thyself receive.
- 3 Joyful in hope, my spirit soars
To meet thee from above;
Thy goodness thankfully adores,
And tastes thy precious love.
- 4 When God is mine and I am his,
Of paradise possessed,
I taste unutterable bliss,
And everlasting rest.

Charles Wesley.

227, 114.

- 1 WITH joy we meditate the grace
Of our High Priest above;
His heart is made of tenderness,
His bosom glows with love.
- 2 Touched with a sympathy within,
He knows our feeble frame;
He knows what sore temptations mean,
For he hath felt the same.
- 3 He, in the days of feeble flesh,
Poured out his cries and tears;
And in full measure feels afresh
What every member bears.
- 4 Then let our humble faith address
His mercy and his power;
We shall obtain delivering grace
In the distressing hour.

Isaac Watts.

354, 187.

- 1 BEFORE the throne of God above
Our Intercessor stands;
Pleads for his own with deathless love,
With pierced and bleeding hands.
- 2 The barren rocks of Calvary
Echoed his dying cries,
When Christ became, as sin for me,
A wondrous Sacrifice.
- 3 Not yet may victors' songs be sung
In realms of endless light,
Not yet the notes of triumph rung
By saints all robed in white.
- 4 Not yet do pilgrims' weary feet
Find sweet abiding rest;
But when redemption is complete,
We'll dwell among the blest.

L. D. Santee.

353

227, 354.

- 1 JESUS, the Lord of glory, died
That we might never die;
And now he reigns supreme, to guide
His people to the sky.
- 2 Weak though we are, he still is near,
To lead, console, defend;
In all our sorrow, all our fear,
Our all-sufficient Friend.
- 3 From his high throne of grace he deigns
Our every prayer to heed;
Bears with our folly, soothes our pains,
Supplies our every need.

Baptist W. Noe.

WOODLAND, C. M.

NATHANIEL D. GOULD.

1. The won-ders of re-deem-ing love Our highest thoughts exceed; The Son of God comes from above, The Son of God comes from a-bove For sin-ful man to bleed.

669, 27, 70.

- 2 He gives himself, his life, his all,
A sinless Sacrifice.
For man he drains the cup of gall,
For man the victim dies.
- 3 And now before his Father's face
His precious blood he pleads;
For those who seek the throne of grace
His love still intercedes.
- 4 He knows the frailties of our frame,
For he has borne our grief;
Our great High Priest once felt the same,
And he can send relief.
- 5 His love will not be satisfied,
Till he in glory see
The faithful ones for whom he died
From sin forever free.

R. F. Cottrell.

355

669, 27, 114.

- 1 ERECTED high in heaven stands
The tabernacle true;
And Jesus there in mercy pleads
For all the faithful few.
- 2 His blood he offers freely now
For all who will receive,
For all who to his truth will bow,
And in his word believe.
- 3 The Jewish priesthood shadowed forth
His ministration there,
The cleansing of the inner court,
His coming to prepare.

- 4 His work performed, he leaves the seat
Of mercy, where is found
The law of God, the ten commands,
And comes with glory crowned.
- 5 He that is holy then shall be
In holiness preserved,
While sinners vainly strive to flee
The wrath they've long deserved.

Anon.

356

114, 581, 636.

- 1 COME, let us join our songs of praise
To our ascended Priest;
He entered heaven with all our names
Engraven on his breast.
- 2 He died to wash our guilt away,
By his atoning blood,
Which now he pleads before the throne,
And brings us near to God.
- 3 Clothed with our nature still, he knows
The weakness of our frame,
And how to shield us from the foes
Which he himself o'ercame.
- 4 Nor time, nor distance, e'er shall quench
The fervor of his love;
For us he died in kindness here,
For us he lives above.
- 5 O, may we ne'er forget his grace,
Nor blush to speak his name!
Still may our hearts hold fast his faith,—
Our lips his praise proclaim.

Alexander Pirrie.

1. { The sprinkled blood is speaking Be-fore the Father's throne, } The sprinkled blood is telling
 { The Spir-it's power is seek-ing To make its virtues known; }

Je- hovah's love to man, While heavenly harps are swelling Sweet notes to mercy's plan.

492, 246, 415.

- 2 The sprinkled blood is speaking
 Forgiveness full and free,
 Its wondrous power is breaking
 Each bond of guilt for me;
 The sprinkled blood's revealing
 A Father's smiling face,
 The Saviour's love is sealing
 Each monument of grace.
- 3 The sprinkled blood is pleading
 Its virtue as my own,
 And there my soul is reading
 Her title to Thy throne.
 The sprinkled blood is owning
 The weak one's feeblest plea;
 'Mid sighs, and tears, and groaning,
 It pleads, O Lord, with thee.
- 4 O wondrous power, that seeketh
 From sin to set me free!
 O precious blood, that speaketh!
 Should I not value thee?
 The sprinkled blood is shedding
 Its fragrance all around,
 It gilds the path we're treading,
 It makes our joys abound.

[Tune, Autumn, No. 501.] 8s & 7s. D.

- 1 HAIL, thou once despised Jesus!
 Crowned in mockery a king!
 Thou didst suffer to release us;
 Thou didst free salvation bring.

- Hail, thou agonizing Saviour!
 Bearer of our sin and shame!
 By thy merits we find favor;
 Life is given through thy name.
- 2 Paschal Lamb, by God appointed,
 All our sins on thee were laid;
 By Almighty Love anointed.
 Thou redemption's price hast paid.
 All thy people are forgiven
 Through the virtue of thy blood;
 Opened is the gate of heaven,
 Peace is made 'twixt man and God.
- 3 Jesus, hail! enthroned in glory!
 There forever to abide;
 All the heavenly hosts adore thee,
 Seated at thy Father's side:
 There for sinners thou art pleading;
 There thou dost our place prepare,
 Ever for us interceding,
 Till in glory we appear.
- 4 Worship, honor, power, and blessing,
 Thou art worthy to receive;
 Loudest praises, without ceasing,
 Meet it is for us to give;
 Help, ye bright angelic spirits,
 Bring your sweetest, noblest lays;
 Help to sing our Saviour's merits,
 Help to chant Immanuel's praise!

252, 360, 167.

- 2 He ever lives above,
For me to intercede;
His all-redeeming love,
His precious blood, to plead;
His blood was shed for all our race,
And sprinkles now the throne of grace.
- 3 Five bleeding wounds he bears,
Received on Calvary;
They pour effectual prayers,

- They strongly speak for me:
Forgive him, O, forgive! they cry,
Nor let the contrite sinner die!
- 4 The Father hears him pray,
His dear, anointed One;
He cannot turn away
The presence of his Son;
His Spirit answers to the blood,
And tells me I'm a child of God.

1. His earth - ly work is done, The Vic - tim's blood is shed, And Je - sus now is gone His peo - ple's cause to plead; He stands in heaven, their great High Priest, He bears their names up - on his breast.

252, 786, 369.

- 2 He sprinkles with his blood
The mercy-seat above;
He seals our brotherhood
With his atoning love;
And justice threatens us no more,
But mercy yields her boundless store.
- 3 No temple made with hands
His place of service is;
In heaven itself he stands,

- A heavenly priesthood his:
In him the shadows of the law
Are all fulfilled, and now withdraw.
- 4 And though awhile he be
Hid from the eyes of men,
His people look to see
Their great High Priest again;
In brightest glory he will come,
And take his waiting people home.

But wisdom shows a narrow path, With here and there a trav - el - er.

58, 171, 316.

2 Deny thyself, and take thy cross,
Is thy Redeemer's great command;
Nature must count her gold but dross,
If she would gain that heavenly land.

3 The fearful soul that tires and faints,
And walks the ways of God no more,
Is but esteemed almost a saint,
And makes his own destruction sure.

4 Lord, let not all my hopes be vain,
Create my heart entirely new;
Let thy sweet Spirit me sustain,—
O guide me all life's journey through.

Isaac Watts.

362

171, 28, 314.

1 LORD, we are vile, and full of sin,
We're born unholy and unclean;
Sprung from the man whose guilty fall
Corrupts his race, and taints us all.

2 Soon as we draw our infant breath
The seeds of sin grow up for death;
Thy law demands a perfect heart,
But we're defiled in every part.

3 Behold, we fall before thy face;
Our only refuge is thy grace:
No outward forms can make us clean;
The leprosy lies deep within.

4 Nor bleeding bird, nor bleeding beast,
Nor hyssop branch, nor earthly priest,
Nor running brook, nor flood, nor sea,
Can wash the dismal stain away.

5 Jesus, thy blood, thy blood alone,
Hath power sufficient to atone;
Thy blood can make us white as snow;
No other tide can cleanse us so.

Isaac Watts.

363

171, 58, 365.

1 DEEP are the wounds which sin has made;
Where shall the sinner find a cure?
In vain, alas! is nature's aid;
The work exceeds her utmost power.

2 But can no sovereign balm be found,
And is no kind physician nigh,
To ease the pain, and heal the wound,
Ere life and hope forever fly?

3 There is a great Physician near;
Look up, O fainting soul, and live;
See, in his heavenly smiles appear
Such help as nature cannot give.

Anne Steele.

1 SHALL this vile race of flesh and blood
Contend with their Creator, God?
Shall mortal worms presume to be
More holy, wise, or just, than he?

2 From night to day, from day to night,
We die by thousands in thy sight;
Buried in dust whole nations lie,
Like a forgotten vanity.

3 Almighty Power, to thee we bow;
How frail are we! how glorious thou!
No more the sons of earth shall dare
With an eternal God compare.

Isaac Watts.

1. When, marshaled on the night-ly plain, The glittering host be-stud the sky,

One star a-lone of all the train Can fix the sin-ner's wandering eye.

212, 336, 58.

- 2 Once on the raging seas I rode ;
The storm was loud, the night was dark,
The ocean yawned, and rudely blowed
The wind that tossed my foundering
bark.
- 3 Deep horror then my vitals froze ;
Death-struck, I ceased the tide to stem ;
When suddenly a star arose,—
It was the Star of Bethlehem.
- 4 It was my guide, my light, my all ;
It bade my dark forebodings cease ;
And through the storm and danger's thrall
It led me to the port of peace.

Henry Kirke White.

215, 23, 428.

- 1 JESUS, engrave it on my heart
That thou the one thing needful art ;
I could from all things parted be,
But never, never, Lord, from thee.
- 2 Needful is thy most precious blood,
To reconcile my soul to God ;
Needful is thy indulgent care,
Needful thy all-prevailing prayer.
- 3 Needful thy presence, dearest Lord,
True peace and comfort to afford ;
Needful thy promise, to impart
Fresh life and vigor to my heart.
- 4 Needful art thou, my Guide, my Stay,
Through all life's dark and weary way ;
Nor will at last less needful be
To bring me home to heaven and thee.

Samuel Medley.

367

171, 64, 314.

- 1 INFINITE Love! what precious stores
Thy mercy has prepared for us !
The costliest gems, the richest ores,
Could never have endowed us thus.
- 2 But thy soft hand, O gracious Lord,
Can draw from suffering souls the sting ;
And thy rich bounty to our board
Can bread for hungering sinners bring.
- 3 How rich the grace ! the gift how free !
'T is only "ask,"—it shall be given ;
'T is only "knock," and thou shalt see
The opening door that leads to heaven.
- 4 O then arise, and take the good,
So full and freely proffered thee,
Remembering that it cost the blood
Of Him who died on Calvary.

Jared Waterbury.

368

215, 301, 336.

- 1 AGAINST the God that rules the sky
I fought, with weapons lifted high ;
I madly ran the sinful race,
Regardless of a hiding-place.
- 2 But a celestial voice I heard,
A bleeding Saviour then appeared ;
Led by the Spirit of his grace,
I found in him a hiding-place.
- 3 On him the weight of vengeance fell
That else had sunk a world to hell ;
Then, O my soul, forever praise
Thy Saviour, God, thy hiding-place !

MELODY, C. M.

I. P. COLE

1. Not all the out-ward forms on earth, Nor rites that God has given,

Nor will of man, nor blood, nor birth, Can raise a soul to heaven.

227, 669, 581.

- 2 The sovereign will of God alone,
Creates us heirs of grace;
Born in the image of his Son,
A new, peculiar race.
- 3 The Spirit, like some heavenly wind,
Breathes on the sons of flesh,
New-models all the carnal mind,
And forms the man afresh.
- 4 Our quickened souls awake and rise
From the long sleep of death;
On heavenly things we fix our eyes,
And praise employs our breath.

Isaac Watts.

370

179, 207, 147.

- 1 THOU art the Way; to thee alone,
From sin and death we flee;
And he who would the Father seek,
Must seek him, Lord, by thee.
- 2 Thou art the Truth; thy word alone,
True wisdom can impart;
Thou only canst inform the mind,
And purify the heart.
- 3 Thou art the Life; the rending tomb
Proclaims thy conquering arm;
And those who put their trust in thee,
Nor death nor hell shall harm.
- 4 Thou art the Way, the Truth, the Life;
Grant us that way to know,
That truth to keep, that life to win,
Whose joys eternal flow.

Anon.

371

395, 227, 546.

- 1 How sad our state by nature is;
Our sin—how deep it stains!
And Satan holds our captive minds
Fast in his slavish chains.
- 2 But there's a voice of sovereign grace,
Sounds from the sacred word;
"Ho! ye despairing sinners, come!
And trust a pardoning Lord."
- 3 My soul obeys the almighty call,
And runs to this relief;
I would believe thy promise, Lord;
O, help my unbelief!
- 4 A guilty, weak, and helpless worm,
In thy kind arms I fall;
Be thou my Strength and Righteousness,
My Saviour and my All.

Isaac Watts.

372

546, 395.

- 1 STRAIT is the way, the door is strait,
That leads to joys on high;
'T is but a few that find the gate,
While thousands pass it by.
- 2 Belovèd self must be denied,
The mind and will renewed,
Passion suppressed, and patience tried,
And vain desires subdued.
- 3 Lord! can a feeble, helpless worm
Fulfill a task so hard?
Thy grace must all my work perform,
And give the free reward.

Isaac Watts.

1. How help-less guilt-y na-ture lies, Un-con-scious of its load!

The heart, unchanged, can nev-er rise To hap-pi-ness and God.

179, 201, 227.

- 2 Can aught, beneath a power divine,
The stubborn will subdue?
'Tis thine, almighty Spirit! thine,
To form the heart anew.
- 3 'Tis thine, the passions to recall,
And upward bid them rise;
To make the scales of error fall
From reason's darkened eyes.
- 4 Oh change these wretched hearts of ours,
And give them life divine;
Then shall our passions and our powers,
Almighty Lord! be thine.

Anne Steele.

374

399, 446, 201.

- 1 IN vain we seek for peace with God
By methods of our own:
No other plea than Jesus' blood
Can bring us near the throne.
- 2 The threatenings of the broken law
Impress the soul with dread;
If God his sword of vengeance draw,
It strikes the spirit dead.
- 3 But thine illustrious sacrifice
Hath answered these demands,
And peace and pardon from the skies
Are offered by thy hands.
- 4 'Tis by thy death we live, O Lord!
'Tis on thy cross we rest:
Forever be thy love adored,
Thy name forever blessed.

Isaac Watts.

375

326, 546, 147.

- 1 PLUNGED in a gulf of dark despair,
We wretched sinners lay,
Without one cheering beam of hope,
Or spark of glimmering day.
- 2 With pitying eyes the Prince of grace
Beheld our helpless grief:
He saw, and, O amazing love!
He came to our relief.
- 3 Down from the shining courts above,
With joyful haste he sped,
Entered the grave in mortal flesh,
And dwelt among the dead.
- 4 O for this love let rocks and hills
Their lasting silence break;
And all harmonious human tongues,
The Saviour's praises speak.

Isaac Watts.

376

396, 446, 669.

- 1 VAIN are the hopes the sons of men
On their own works have built;
Their hearts, by nature, all unclean,
And all their actions, guilt.
- 2 Let Jew and Gentile equal stand,
Without a murmuring word;
And the whole race of Adam own
Their guilt before the Lord.
- 3 Jesus, how glorious is thy grace;
When in thy name we trust,
Our faith receives a righteousness
That makes the sinner just.

Isaac Watts.

HOLY CROSS. C. M. FELIX MENDELSSOHN-BARTHOLDY.

1. Thou Sav - iour of the sin - sick soul, Thou Ref - uge in dis - tress,

When doubt's dark bil - lows near me roll, Close to thy side I press.

179, 395, 581.

2 The burdened heart must seek in vain
For merit of its own;
There's freedom from each crimson stain
In thee, and thee alone.

3 Let him who feels his load of guilt
Strive not its weight to bear;
The hopes that man on self has built
Are doomed to dark despair.

4 But thou, O Christ, whose blood was shed
For all who plead its power,
Wilt lift the load that bows the head
In deep contrition's hour!

5 Thy tender heart has felt the weight
Of sins that were not thine,
And lo! within that burden great
I view these sins of mine.

6 'Tis faith that points them out to me
When, fainting 'neath the load,
I turn my longing eyes to thee,
Far up the narrow road.

F. E. Belden.

378

175, 179, 581.

1 WHEN wounded sore, the stricken soul
Lies bleeding and unbound,
One only hand—a piercèd hand—
Can heal the sinner's wound.

2 When sorrow swells the laden breast,
And tears of anguish flow,
One only heart—a broken heart—
Can feel the sinner's woe.

3 When penitence has wept in vain
Over some foul, dark spot,
One only stream—a stream of blood—
Can wash away the blot.

4 'Tis Jesus' blood that washes white,
His hand that brings relief;
His heart that's touched with all our joys,
And feels for all our grief.

5 Lift up thy bleeding hand, O Lord!
Unseal that cleansing tide:
We have no shelter from our sin
But in thy wounded side.

Mrs. Cecil F. Alexander.

399, 798, 201.

1 How great the wisdom, power, and grace,
Which in redemption shine!
The heavenly host with joy confess
The work is all divine.

2 Before His feet they cast their crowns,—
Those crowns which Jesus gave,—
And with ten thousand thousand tongues,
Proclaim his power to save.

3 They tell the triumphs of his cross,
The suffering which he bore;
How low he stooped, how high he rose,
And rose to stoop no more.

4 With them let us our voices raise,
And still the song renew;
Salvation well deserves the praise
Of men and angels too.

Benjamin Beddome

1. O, where shall rest be found—Rest for the wea - ry soul?

'T were vain the o - cean depths to sound, Or pierce to ei - ther pole.

89, 191, 151.

- 2 This world can never give
The bliss for which we sigh;
Its fairest glories shortest live,
And all its pleasures die.
- 3 Beyond this vale of tears
There is a life above,
Unmeasured by the flight of years;
And all that life is love.
- 4 Through Christ, the Life, the Way,
May we that life obtain;
And through the merits of his blood,
That endless glory gain.

James Montgomery.

89, 403, 11.

- 1 God's holy law, transgressed,
Speaks nothing but despair;
Burdened with guilt, with grief oppressed,
We find no comfort there.
- 2 Not all our groans and tears,
Nor works which we have done,
Nor vows, nor promises, nor prayers,
Can e'er for sin atone.
- 3 Relief alone is found
In Jesus' precious blood;
'Tis this that heals the mortal wound,
And reconciles to God.
- 4 High lifted on the cross,
The spotless Victim dies;
This is salvation's only source,
Whence all our hopes arise.

Benjamin Beddome.

382

236, 89, 191.

- 1 LIKE sheep we went astray,
And broke the fold of God,—
Each wandering in a different way,
But all the downward road.
- 2 How dreadful was the hour,
When God our wanderings laid,
And did at once his vengeance pour
Upon the Shepherd's head!
- 3 How glorious was the grace,
When Christ sustained the stroke!
His life and blood the Shepherd pays,
A ransom for the flock.
- 4 But God shall raise his head
O'er all the sons of men,
And make him see a numerous seed,
To recompense his pain.

Isaac Watts.

- 1 NOT what these hands have done
Can save this guilty soul;
Not what this toiling flesh has borne
Can make my spirit whole.
- 2 Not what I feel or do
Can give me peace with God;
Not all my prayers, and sighs, and tears,
Can bear my awful load.
- 3 Thy work alone, O Christ,
Can ease this weight of sin;
Thy blood alone, O Lamb of God,
Can give me peace within.

1. Ah, how shall fall - en man Be just be - fore his God?

If he con - tend in right - eousness, We sink be - neath his rod.

151, 89, 403.

- 2 If he our ways should mark
With strict inquiring eyes,
Could we for one of thousand faults
A just excuse devise?
- 3 All-seeing, powerful God!
Who can with thee contend?
Or who, that tries the unequal strife,
Shall prosper in the end?
- 4 The mountains, in thy wrath,
Their ancient seats forsake;
The trembling earth deserts her place,
Her rooted pillars shake.
- 5 Ah! how shall guilty man
Contend with such a God?
None, none, can meet him and escape,
But through the Saviour's blood.

Isaac Watts.

89, 191, 403.

- 1 My former hopes are fled,
My terror now begins;
I feel, alas! that I am dead
In trespasses and sins.
- 2 Ah! whither shall I fly?
I hear the thunder roar;
The law proclaims destruction nigh,
And vengeance at the door.
- 3 When I review my ways,
I dread impending doom
Until a friendly whisper says,
"Flee from the wrath to come."

William Couper.

386

688, 736, 266.

- 1 Is this the kind return,
Are these the thanks we owe,
Thus to abuse eternal love,
Whence all our blessings flow?
- 2 To what a stubborn frame
Has sin reduced our mind!
What strange rebellious wretches we,
And God as strangely kind!
- 3 Turn, turn us, mighty God,
And mold our souls afresh;
Break, sovereign grace, these hearts of stone,
And give us hearts of flesh.

Isaac Watts.

387

236, 736, 568.

- 1 CAN sinners hope for heaven,
Who love this world so well?
Or dream of future happiness,
While on the road to hell?
- 2 Shall they hosannas sing,
With an unhallowed tongue?
Shall palms adorn the guilty hand
Which does its neighbor wrong?
- 3 Can sin's deceitful way
Conduct to Zion's hill?
Or those expect with God to reign
Who disregard his will?
- 4 Thy grace, O God, alone,
Good hopes can e'er afford:
The pardoned and the pure shall see
The glory of the Lord.

DESIRE. L. M.

ISAAC B. WOODBURY.

1. Come, wea-ry souls with sin distressed, Come, and ac-cept the promised rest ;

The Sav-iour's gra-cious call o-bey, And cast your gloom-y fears a-way.

787, 431, 212.

2 Oppressed with guilt, a painful load,
O, come and spread your woes abroad !
Divine compassion, mighty love,
Will all the painful load remove.

3 Here mercy's boundless ocean flows,
To cleanse your guilt, and heal your woes ;
Pardon, and life, and endless peace ;
How rich the gift ! how free the grace !

4 Lord, we accept, with thankful hearts,
The hopes thy gracious word imparts ;
We come with trembling, yet rejoice,
And bless the kind, inviting voice.

5 Dear Saviour, let thy powerful love
Confirm our faith, our fears remove ;
And sweetly influence every breast,
And guide us to eternal rest.

Anne Steele.

4 Take up thy cross, then, in his strength,
And calmly every danger brave ;
'Twill guide thee to a better home,
And lead to victory o'er the grave.

5 Take up thy cross, and follow Christ ;
Nor think till death to lay it down ;
For only he who bears the cross
May hope to wear the glorious crown.
Charles W. Everest.

1 God calling yet ! shall I not hear ?
Earth's pleasures shall I still hold dear ?
Shall life's swift passing years all fly,
And still my soul in slumber lie ?

2 God calling yet ! shall I not rise ?
Can I his loving voice despise,
And basely his kind care repay ?
He calls me still ; can I delay ?

3 God calling yet ! and shall he knock,
And I my heart the closer lock ?
He still is waiting to receive,
And shall I dare his Spirit grieve ?

4 God calling yet ! and shall I give
No heed, but still in bondage live ?
I wait, but he does not forsake :
He calls me still ; my heart, awake !

5 God calling yet ! I cannot stay ;
My heart I yield without delay ;
Vain world, farewell ! from thee I part ;
The voice of God hath reached my heart.

Jane Borthwick.

428, 215, 47.

1 "TAKE up thy cross," the Saviour said,
" If thou wouldst my disciple be ;
Deny thyself, the world forsake,
And humbly follow after me."

2 Take up thy cross ; let not its weight
Fill thy weak spirit with alarm ;
His strength shall bear thy spirit up,
And brace thy heart and nerve thy arm.

3 Take up thy cross, nor heed the shame ;
Nor let thy foolish pride rebel ;
Thy Lord for thee the cross endured,
To save thy soul from death and hell.

BERA, L. M.

1. Why do we waste on trifling cares That life which God's compassion spares,

While in the various range of thought, The one thing needful is for-got?

215, 108, 136.

2 Shall God invite us from above?
Shall Jesus urge his dying love?
Shall troubled conscience give us pain?
And all these pleas unite in vain?

3 Not so our eyes will always view
Those objects which we now pursue;
Not so will heaven and hell appear,
When death's decisive hour is near.

4 Almighty God, thy grace impart;
Fix deep conviction on each heart;
Nor let us waste on trifling cares
That life which thy compassion spares.

Philip Doddridge.

1 COME hither, all ye weary souls;
Ye heavy-laden sinners, come;
I'll give you rest from all your toils,
And raise you to my heavenly home.

2 They shall find rest who learn of me;
I'm of a meek and lowly mind;
But passion rages like the sea,
And pride is restless as the wind.

3 Blest is the man whose shoulders take
My yoke, and bear it with delight;
My yoke is easy to his neck,
My grace shall make the burden light.

4 Jesus, we come at thy command;
With faith, and hope, and humble zeal,
Resign our spirits to thy hand,
To mold and guide us at thy will.

Isaac Watts.

787, 542, 51.

1 BEHOLD a Stranger at the door!
He gently knocks, has knocked before,
Has waited long, is waiting still;
You treat no other friend so ill.

2 O, lovely attitude! he stands
With melting heart and laden hands;
O, matchless kindness! and he shows
This matchless kindness to his foes.

3 But will he prove a friend indeed?
He will, the very friend you need—
The Friend of sinners; yes, 't is he,
With garments dyed on Calvary.

4 Rise, touched with gratitude divine,
Turn out his enemy and thine—
That soul-destroying monster, sin—
And let the heavenly Stranger in.

5 Admit him ere his anger burn;
His feet, departed, ne'er return:
Admit him, or the hour's at hand
When at his door denied you'll stand.

Joseph Grigg.

1 HASTE, traveler, haste! the night comes on,
And many a shining hour is gone;
The storm is gathering in the west,
And thou art far from home and rest.

2 Then linger not in all the plain,
Flee for thy life, the mountain gain;
Look not behind, make no delay,
O speed thee, speed thee on thy way.

William B. Collier.

ARR. BY R. SIMPSON.

1. Re-turn, O wan-der-er, re-turn, And seek thy Fa-ther's face;
Those new de-sires which in thee burn, Were kin-dled by his grace.

227, 339.

- 2 Return, O wanderer, return,
He hears thy humble sigh;
He sees thy softened spirit moura,
When no one else is nigh.
- 3 Return, O wanderer, return;
Thy Saviour bids thee live;
Come to his cross, and, grateful, learn
How freely he'll forgive.
- 4 Return, O wanderer, return,
And wipe the falling tear;
Thy Father calls—no longer mourn;
'Tis love invites thee near.
- 5 Return, O wanderer, return;
Regain thy long-sought rest;
The Saviour's melting mercies yearn
To clasp thee to his breast.

Wm. B. Collyer.

- 1 THE Saviour calls;—let every ear
Attend the heavenly sound;
Ye doubting souls, dismiss your fear,
Hope smiles reviving round.
- 2 For every thirsty, longing heart,
Here streams of bounty flow,
And life, and health, and bliss impart,
To banish mortal woe.
- 3 Ye sinners, come; 't is mercy's voice;
The gracious call obey:
Mercy invites to heavenly joys,
And can you yet delay?

Anne Steele.

- 1 O SINNER, heed the voice of God,
It speaks to you to-day,
And calls you by his sacred word
From sin's destructive way.
- 2 It bids you turn to him, and live
Through his abounding grace;
His mercy will the guilt forgive
Of those who seek his face.
- 3 Bow to the scepter of his word,
Renouncing every sin:
Submit to him, your sovereign Lord,
And bid him reign within.

John Fawcett.

398

581, 147.

- 1 COME, humble sinner, in whose breast
A thousand thoughts revolve,
Come, with your guilt and fear oppressed,
And make this last resolve:—
- 2 I'll go to Jesus, though my sins
Like mountains round me close;
I know his courts, I'll enter in,
Whatever may oppose.
- 3 Prostrate I'll lie before his throne,
And there my guilt confess;
I'll tell him, I'm a wretch undone
Without his sovereign grace.
- 4 Perhaps he will admit my plea,
Perhaps will hear my prayer;
But if I perish I will pray,
And perish only there.

Edmund Jones.

1. Come to the liv - ing wa - ters, come! O - bey your Mak - er's call; Re - turn, ye weary wanderers, home; My grace is free for all, My grace is free for all.

176, 117, 114.

- 2 Nothing ye in exchange shall give;
Leave all you have behind;
Freely the gift of God receive,
And peace in Jesus find.
- 3 I bid you all my goodness prove;
My promises are free:
Come, taste the manna of my love,
Delight your souls in me.
- 4 Your willing ear and heart incline,
My words in faith receive;
Quickened, your souls by faith divine,
Eternal life shall live.

- 1 THERE is a line by us unseen,
That crosses every path,—
The hidden boundary between
God's patience and his wrath.
- 2 O! where is this mysterious bourne
By which our path is crossed,—
Beyond which God himself hath sworn
That he who goes is lost?
- 3 How far may we go on in sin?
How long will God forbear?
Where does hope end? And where begin
The confines of despair?
- 4 An answer from the skies is sent:
"Ye that from God depart,
While it is called to-day, repent,
And harden not your heart."

F. Addison Alexander.

- 1 WHY should we boast of time to come,
Though but a single day?
This hour may fix our final doom,
Though strong, and young, and gay.
- 2 The present we should now redeem;
This only is our own;
The past, alas! is all a dream;
The future is unknown.
- 3 O think what vast concerns depend
Upon a moment's space,
When life and all its cares shall end
In vengeance or in grace.
- 4 O for that power which melts the heart,
And lifts the soul on high!
Where sin and grief and death depart,
And pleasures never die.

M. Wilkes.

- 1 COME, O thou all-victorious Lord!
Thy power to us make known;
Strike with the hammer of thy word,
And break these hearts of stone.
- 2 Give us ourselves and thee to know,
In this our gracious day;
Repentance unto life bestow,
And take our sins away.
- 3 Convince us first of unbelief,
And freely then release;
Fill every soul with sacred grief,
And then with sacred peace.

Charles Wesley.

1. O sin - ner, mark thy fate! Soon will the Judge ap - pear,

And then thy cries will come too late—Too late for God to hear.

236, 736.

- 2 The day of mercy gone,
The Spirit grieved away,
The cup, long filling, now o'erflown,
Demands the vengeful day.
- 3 Thy God, insulted, seems
To draw his glittering sword;
And o'er thy guilty head it gleams,
To vindicate his word.
- 4 One only hope I see;
O sinner, seize it now;
The blood that Jesus shed for thee!
No other hope hast thou.

- 1 "ALL things are ready," come!
Come to the supper spread;
Come, rich and poor, come, old and young;
Come, and be richly fed.
- 2 "All things are ready," come!
The invitation's given
Through Him who now in glory sits
At God's right hand in heaven.
- 3 "All things are ready," come!
The door is open wide;
O feast upon the love of God;
For Christ, his Son, has died.
- 4 "All things are ready," come!
To-morrow may not be;
O sinner, come! the Saviour waits
This hour to welcome thee.

Albert Midlane.

- 1 THE Spirit in our hearts,
Is whispering, "Sinner, come;"
The holy Bride of Christ proclaims
To all her children, "Come!"
- 2 Let him that heareth say
To all about him, "Come!"
Let him that thirsts for righteousness
To Christ, the Fountain, come.
- 3 Yes, whosoever will,
O let him freely come,
And freely drink the stream of life;
'Tis Jesus bids him come.
- 4 Lo! Jesus, who invites,
Declares, "I quickly come:"
Lord, even so, we wait thy hour;
O blest Redeemer, come.

Henry Onderdonk.

- 1 SINNERS, the call obey,—
The latest call of grace;
The day will come—the vengeful day—
Of a devoted race.
- 2 To shelter the distressed,
He did the cross endure;
Enter into the clefts, and rest
In Jesus' wounds secure.
- 3 Jesus, to thee we fly
From the devouring sword;
Our city of defense is nigh,
Our help is in the Lord.

Hast - en, lest ye come too late, Lest in vain shall be your prayer.

15, 457, 272.

- 2 Soon the Saviour will arise,
And forever shut the door:
Hopeless then will be your cries;
God will welcome you no more.
- 3 From his glorious seat within,
Zion's King so long forgot,
Then will say, "Ye slaves of sin,
Hence depart, I know you not."
- 4 O! the anguish of that word,—
Anguish which no measure knows,—
Sinners, haste to seek the Lord,
Ere the door of mercy close.

Come, and make my paths your choice:

Balm for every bleeding wound,
Peace which ever shall endure,
Rest, eternal, sacred, sure.

- 1 HASTEN, sinner, to be wise;
Stay not for the morrow's sun;
Wisdom, if you still despise,

- 2 Hasten, sinner, to return;
Stay not for the morrow's sun,
Lest thy lamp should fail to burn
Ere thy work of grace be done.

Thomas Scott.

- 1 HEAVY clouds are gathering fast,
Tokens of destruction sure;
Sinner, now before the blast,
Seek a shelter to secure.
- 2 Thousand voices from afar,
Warn thee of thy coming fate:
Careless sinner, now beware!
Haste thee, ere it be too late!
- 3 Crimes in every shape increase;
Judgments stalk throughout the land;
Signs are borne on every breeze,
That destruction is at hand.
- 4 Darker clouds will soon arise,
Louder still the thunders roar,
Fiercer lightnings pierce the skies,—
But the sinner's day is o'er.

Wilt thou still refuse to pray?
Can thy heart or hands endure
In the Lord's avenging day?

Earth affrighted hastes to flee;
Solid mountains melt like wax;
What will then become of thee?
- 3 Who his advent may abide?
You that glory in your shame,
Will you find a place to hide,
When the world is wrapped in flame?

2 Ho, ye needy; come, and welcome;
 God's free bounty glorify!
 True belief and true repentance,
 Every grace that brings us nigh,
 Without money
 Come to Jesus Christ and buy.

3 Let not conscience make you linger,
 Nor of fitness fondly dream;
 All the fitness he requireth
 Is to feel your need of him;
 This he gives you;
 'T is the Spirit's rising beam.

Joseph Hart.

By the perfect law convicted,
 Through the cross behold the crown;
 Look to Jesus;
 Mercy flows through him alone,

2 Take his easy yoke and wear it;
 Love will make obedience sweet;
 Christ will give you strength to bear it,
 While his wisdom guides your feet
 Safe to glory,
 Where his ransomed captives meet.

3 Sweet as home to pilgrims weary,
 Light to newly opened eyes,
 Or full springs in deserts dreary,
 Is the rest the cross supplies;
 All who taste it
 Shall to rest immortal rise.

TO-DAY, 6s & 4s.

LOWELL MASON.

1. To-day the Saviour calls: Ye wanderers come; O ye benighted souls, Why longer roam?

2 To-day the Saviour calls!
 O listen now;
 Within these sacred walls,
 To Jesus bow.

3 To-day the Saviour calls!
 For mercy flee;
 For all the guilty soon
 Must guilty be.

4 To-day the Saviour calls!
 For refuge fly;
 The storm of vengeance falls;
 Ruin is nigh.

5 The Spirit calls to-day!
 Yield to its power;
 O grieve it not away;
 'T is mercy's hour.

1. O, Com-fort to the drear-y! O, Joy to the oppressed! "Come un-to Me, ye wea-ry, And I will give you rest." O, come with all your weakness, Come with your load of woe; And learn of him with meekness All righteousness to know.

492, 246, 357.

- 2 Enslaved of Romish error,
Worn out with fruitless pains,
Reapers of doubt and terror,
Come, cast away your chains!
Renounce the superstition
By all the world preferred;
And turn from vain tradition
To His redeeming word.
- 3 Ye who the world have courted,
And suffered from its spite;
Ye who with sin have sported,
And felt its serpent bite;
Come, learn, your follies quitting,
That this world's gain is loss;
To Christ's light yoke submitting,
Come, and take up the cross.
- 4 O come, and make the trial;
Christ's service is release;
If hard the self-denial,
Its fruit is joy and peace.
His word your faith defending,
Shall nerve you for the strife;
Peace all your steps attending;
The prize,—eternal life!

- 1 O JESUS! thou art standing
Outside the fast-closed door,
In lowly patience waiting
To pass the threshold o'er:
We bear the name of Christians,
Thy name and sign we bear:
O, shame, thrice shame upon us!
To keep thee standing there.
- 2 O Jesus! thou art knocking;
And lo! that hand is scarred,
And thorns thy brow encircle,
And tears thy face have marred:
O, love that passeth knowledge,
So patiently to wait!
O, sin that hath no equal,
So fast to bar the gate!
- 3 O Jesus! thou art pleading
In accents meek and low,—
"I died for you, my children,
And will ye treat me so?"
O Lord, with shame and sorrow
We open now the door:
Dear Saviour, enter, enter,
And leave us nevermore!

EXPOSTULATION. 11s.

JOSIAH HOPKINS.

1. O turn ye, O turnye; for why willye die, When God in great mercy is com-ing so nigh?

Now Je-sus invites you, the Spirit says, Come, And an-gels are waiting to welcome you home.

512, 781.

2 And now Christ is ready your souls to receive;
O, how can you question when you may believe?
If sin is your burden, why will you not come?
'T is you he bids welcome; he bids you come home.

Anon.

4 Delay not, delay not, the Spirit of grace
Long grieved and resisted may take his sad flight,
And leave thee in darkness to finish thy race,
To sink in the gloom of eternity's night.

5 Delay not, delay not, the hour is at hand,
The earth shall dissolve, and the heav-en's shall fade,
The dead, small and great, in the Judgment shall stand;
What power then, O sinner! will lend thee its aid?

Thomas Hastings.

418

511, 781.

1 DELAY not, delay not, O sinner, draw near!
The waters of life are now flowing for thee;
No price is demanded, the Saviour is here;
Redemption is purchased, salvation is free.

2 Delay not, delay not, why longer abuse
The love and compassion of Jesus, thy God?
A fountain is open; how canst thou refuse
To wash and be cleansed in his pardon-ing blood?

3 Delay not, delay not, O sinner, to come;
For Mercy still lingers, and calls thee to-day:
Her voice is not heard in the vale of the tomb;
Her message unheeded will soon pass away.

419

511, 781, 783.

1 ACQUAINT thyself quickly, O sinner, with God;
And joy, like the sunshine, shall beam on thy road;
And peace, like the dewdrop, shall fall on thy head;
And sleep, like an angel, shall visit thy bed.

2 Acquaint thyself quickly, O sinner, with God;
And he shall be with thee when fears are abroad,
Thy Safeguard in danger that threatens thy path,
Thy Joy in the valley and shadow of death.

Knox.

COME, YE DISCONSOLATE. 11s & 10s.

SAMUEL WEBBE.

1. Come, ye dis-con-so-late, where'er ye lan-guish; Come to the mercy-seat, fer-vently kneel;

Here bring your wounded hearts, here tell your anguish; Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal.

2 Joy of the comfortless, light of the stray-
ing,
Hope of the penitent, fadeless and pure;
Here speaks the Comforter, tenderly say-
ing,
"Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot cure."

3 Here see the Bread of Life; see waters flowing
Forth from the throne of God, pure from above;
Come to the feast of love—come, ever knowing
Earth has no sorrow but heaven can remove.

Thomas Moore.

THOMAS HASTINGS. D. C.

1. { Child of sin and sor-row, Filled with dismay, } Heaven bids thee come While yet there's room.
{ Wait not for to-mor-row, Yield thee to-day: }
D. C.—Child of sin and sor-row, Hear and o-bey.

2 Child of sin and sorrow,
Why wilt thou die?
Come while thou canst borrow
Help from on high:
Grieve not that love
Which from above,
Child of sin and sorrow,
Would bring thee nigh.
Thomas Hastings

Exiled from home,
Sadly to roam,
Child of sin and sorrow,
Where wilt thou flee?

2 Child of sin and sorrow,
Lift up thine eye;
Heirship thou canst borrow
In worlds on high:
Bright mansions fair
Are waiting there;
Child of sin and sorrow,
Now homeward fly.

422

1 CHILD of sin and sorrow,
Where wilt thou flee
Through the long to-morrow,—
Eternity?

Anon.

1. Ah! guilt-y sin-ner, ruined by transgression, What will thy doom be when arrayed in ter-ror

God shall command thee, covered with pollution, "Up to the judgment, up to the judgment?"

2 Oft he has called thee, but thou would'st not hear him;
Mercies and judgments have alike been sighted;
Yet he is gracious, and with arms unfolded
Waits to embrace you.

3 But if you trifle with his gracious message,
Cleave to the world, and love its guilty pleasures,
Mercy, grown weary, will in righteous judgment
Leave you forever.

4 Then you shall call, but he will not regard you;
Seek for his favor, yet will never find it;
Cry to the rocks to hide you from his presence
Deep in their caverns.

5 O! guilty sinner, hear the voice of warn-
ing;
Fly to the Saviour, and embrace his pardon:
So shall you meet him, and with joy triumphant,
Coming to judgment.

[Tune, I Love Thee, No. 511.]

11s.

- 1 THE last call of mercy now lingers for thee;
O sinner, receive it; to Jesus now flee!
He often has called thee—but thou hast refused;
His offered salvation and love are abused.
- 2 O slight not the warning now offered at last,
Till summer is ended and harvest is passed;
Till mercy, long slighted, has left thy heart's door,
And pardon, sweet pardon, is offered no
more.
- 3 While Jesus is calling, O turn not away;
For swiftly approacheth the dread judgment day:
The Spirit invites you, O why will you
roam?
Come now to life's waters, ye thirsty ones,
come.
- 4 The last call of mercy now lingers for thee;
O, break the strong fetters of sin, and be free!
The Bride is now calling; ye wanderers,
come;
Accept of salvation, in heaven there's room.

 Ye heart-burdened ones, who in misery languish,
 O say, will you go to the Eden above? | 4 No poverty there, no, the saints are all wealthy,
 The heirs of His glory whose nature is love;
 No sickness can reach them, that country is healthy;
 O say, will you go to the Eden above? |
| 3 Nor fraud, nor deceit, nor the hand of oppression,
 Can injure the dwellers in that holy grove;
 No wickedness there, not a shade of transgression;
 O say, will you go to the Eden above? | 5 And yet, guilty sinner, we would not forsake thee,
 We halt yet a moment as onward we move;
 O, come to thy Lord! in his arms he will take thee,
 And bear thee along to the Eden above. |

1. All you that are wea-ry and sad, come, And you that are cheer-ful and glad, come;

{ In robes of hu-mil-i-ty clad, come; The Saviour invites you to-day. }
 { In robes of hu-mil-i-ty clad, come; The Saviour invites you (omit.) } to-day.

1. { Hark, sin-ner, while God from on high doth en-treat thee, And warn-ings with accents of mer-cy doth blend; }
 { Give ear to his voice, lest in judg-ment he meet thee, "The har-vest is pass-ing, the sum-mer will end." }

Refrain.

The har-vest is pass-ing, the sum-mer will end; The har-vest is pass-ing, the sum-mer will end.

By per. Biglow & Main.

2 How oft of thy danger and guilt he hath told thee!

How oft still the message of mercy doth send!

Haste, haste, while he waits in his arms to enfold thee;

"The harvest is passing, the summer will end."

3 Despised and rejected, at length he may leave thee:

What anguish and horror thy bosom will rend!

Then haste thee, O sinner, while he will receive thee;

"The harvest is passing, the summer will end."

4 Ere long, and Jehovah will come in his power;

Our God will arise, with his foes to contend;

Haste, haste thee, O sinner! prepare for that hour!

"The harvest is passing, the summer will end."

5 The Saviour will call thee in judgment before him;

O, bow to his scepter, and make him thy friend!

Now yield him thy heart, and make haste to adore him;

Thy harvest is passing, thy summer will end.

1 ALL you that are weary and sad, come;
 And you that are cheerful and glad, come;
 In robes of humility clad, come;
 The Saviour invites you to-day.

2 Let youth in its freshness and bloom, come;
 Let man in the pride of his noon come;
 Let age on the verge of the tomb come;
 Let none in his pride stay away.

3 Let the halt, and the maimed, and the blind come;
 Let all who are freely inclined come;
 With humble and peaceable mind, come
 Away from the waters of strife.

4 The Spirit and Bride freely say, Come!
 Let him that now heareth it say, Come!
 Let all that are thirsty, to-day come,
 And drink of the Fountain of Life.

WOODWORTH, L. M.

WILLIAM B. BRADBURY.

1. Just as I am, with-out one plea But that thy blood was shed for me,

And that thou bid'st me come to thee, O Lamb of God, I come, I come.

168, 101, 212.

- 2 Just as I am, and waiting not
To rid my soul of one dark blot,
To thee, whose blood can cleanse each spot,
O Lamb of God, I come, I come.
- 3 Just as I am, though tossed about
With many a conflict, many a doubt—
“Fightings within, and fears without,”
O Lamb of God, I come, I come.
- 4 Just as I am, poor, wretched, blind,—
Sight, riches, healing of the mind,
Yea, all I need, in thee to find,
O Lamb of God, I come, I come.
- 5 Just as I am, thou wilt receive,
Wilt welcome, pardon, cleanse, relieve;
Because thy promise I believe,
O Lamb of God, I come, I come.

624, 361, 314.

- 1 WITH broken heart and contrite sigh,
A trembling sinner, Lord, I cry;
Thy pardoning grace is rich and free:
O God, be merciful to me!
- 2 I smite upon my troubled breast
With deep and conscious guilt oppressed;
Christ and his cross my only plea:
O God, be merciful to me!

Charlotte Elliott.

- 3 Far off I stand with tearful eyes,
Nor dare uplift them to the skies;
But thou dost all my anguish see:
O God, be merciful to me!
- 4 Nor alms, nor deeds that I have done,
Can for a single sin atone;
To Calvary alone I flee:
O God, be merciful to me!
- 5 And when, redeemed from sin and hell,
With all the ransomed throng I dwell,
My raptured song shall ever be,
“God has been merciful to me!”

Cornelius Elven.

471, 316, 347.

- 1 WITH tearful eyes I look around;
Life seems a dark and stormy sea,
Yet, 'mid the gloom, I hear a sound,
A heavenly whisper, “Come to me.”
- 2 It tells me of a place of rest;
It tells me where my soul may flee:
O, to the weary, faint, oppressed,
How sweet the bidding, “Come to me.
- 3 “Come, for all else must fail and die!
Earth is no resting-place for thee;
To heaven direct thy weeping eye,
I am thy portion; come to me.”
- 4 O voice of mercy! voice of love!
In conflict, grief, and agony,
Support me, cheer me from above!
And gently whisper, “Come to me.”

GREGORIAN, ARR. BY LOWELL MASON.

1. O that my load of sin were gone! O that I could at last sub - mit

At Je - sus' feet to lay it down—To lay my all at Je - sus' feet!

514, 314, 624.

- 2 Rest for my soul I long to find :
Saviour of all, if mine thou art,
Give me thy meek and lowly mind,
And stamp thine image on my heart.
- 3 Break off the yoke of inbred sin,
And fully set my spirit free ;
I cannot rest till pure within,
Till I am wholly lost in thee.
- 4 Fain would I learn of thee, my God ;
Thy light and easy burden prove,
The cross all stained with hallowed blood,
The labor of thy dying love.
- 5 I would, but thou must give the power ;
My heart from every sin release ;
Bring near, bring near the joyful hour,
And fill me with thy perfect peace.

Charles Wesley.

432

374, 343, 212.

- 1 FORGIVE us, Lord ! to thee we cry ;
Forgive us thro' thy matchless grace ;
On thee alone our souls rely ;
Be thou our strength and righteousness.
- 2 Forgive thou us, as we forgive
The ills we suffer from our foes ;
Restore us, Lord ! and bid us live ;
O ! let us in thine arms repose.
- 3 Forgive us, for our guilt is great !
Our wretched souls no merit claim ;
For sovereign mercy still we wait,
And ask but in the Saviour's name.

Thomas Hastings.

433

212, 101, 28.

- 1 AWAKED from sin's delusive sleep,
My heavy guilt I feel, and weep ;
Beneath a weight of woes oppressed,
I come to thee, my Lord, for rest.
- 2 Now, from thy throne of grace above,
Look down upon my soul in love ;
That smile shall sweeten all my pain,
And make my soul rejoice again.
- 3 By thy divine, transforming power,
My ruined nature now restore ;
And let my life and temper shine,
In blest resemblance, Lord, to thine.

Thomas Moore.

434

624, 538, 101.

- 1 SHOW pity, Lord ; O Lord, forgive !
Let a repenting sinner live ;
Are not thy mercies large and free ?
May not the guilty trust in thee ?
- 2 My crimes, though great, do not surpass
The power and glory of thy grace ;
O, wash my soul from every sin,
And make my guilty conscience clean !
- 3 My lips with shame my sins confess,
Against thy law, against thy grace ;
Lord, should thy judgment be severe,
I am condemned, but thou art clear.
- 4 Yet save a trembling sinner, Lord,
Whose hope, still hovering round thy word,
Would light on some sweet promise there,
Some sure support against despair.

Isaac Watts.

1. { O, hap - py day! that fixed my choice On thee, my Sav - iour and my God; }
 { Well may this glow - ing heart re - joice, And tell its rapt - ures all a - broad. }

Chorus.

Hap - py day, hap - py day, When Je - sus washed my sins a - way! { He taught me how to watch and pray, }
 { And live re - joic - ing ev - ery day; }

Fine. D. S.

212, 223, 47.

- 2 'Tis done, the great transaction's done;
 I am my Lord's, and he is mine;
 He drew me, and I followed on,
 Charmed to confess the voice divine.
- 3 Now rest, my long-divided heart,
 Fixed on this blissful center, rest;
 Nor ever from thy Lord depart,
 With him of every good possessed.
- 4 High Heaven, that heard the solemn vow,
 That vow renewed shall daily hear,
 Till in time's latest hour I bow,
 And bless at last a bond so dear.
- 5 And when the bright celestial train,
 From highest heaven to earth shall come;
 Then with my Lord I'll rise, and reign
 Forever in that happy home.

Philip Doddridge.

436

538, 171, 108.

- 1 JESUS, my all, to heaven is gone,
 He whom I fix my hopes upon;
 His track I see, and I'll pursue
 The narrow way, till him I view.
- 2 The way the holy prophets went,
 The road that leads from banishment,
 The King's highway of holiness,
 I'll go; for all his paths are peace.
- 3 This is the way I long have sought,
 And mourned because I found it not;
 My grief a burden long has been,
 Because I was not saved from sin.

- 4 Lo! glad I come, and thou, blest Lamb,
 Shalt take me to thee, whose I am;
 Nothing but sin have I to give,
 Nothing but love shall I receive.
- 5 Then will I tell to all around,
 What a dear Saviour I have found;
 I'll point to thy redeeming blood,
 And say, "Behold the way to God."

John Cennick.

361, 101, 624.

- 1 LORD, I was blind: I could not see
 In thy marred visage any grace;
 But now the beauty of thy face,
 In radiant vision dawns on me.
- 2 Lord, I was deaf: I could not hear
 The thrilling music of thy voice;
 But now I hear thee and rejoice,
 And all thy uttered words are dear.
- 3 Lord, I was dumb: I could not speak
 The grace and glory of thy name;
 But now, as touched with living flame,
 My lips thine eager praises wake.
- 4 Lord, I was dead: I could not stir
 My lifeless soul to come to thee;
 But now, since thou hast quickened me,
 I rise from sin's dark sepulcher.
- 5 Lord, thou hast made the blind to see,
 The deaf to hear, the dumb to speak,
 The dead to live; and lo, I break
 The chains of my captivity!

1. A - wake, my heart, a - rise, my tongue, Pre - pare a tune - ful voice;

In God, the life of all my joys, A - loud will I re - joice.

354, 794, 369.

- 2 'Tis he adorned my naked soul,
And made salvation mine;
Upon a poor, polluted worm
He makes his graces shine.
- 3 And lest the shadow of a spot
Should on my soul be found,
He took the robe the Saviour wrought,
And cast it all around.
- 4 How far that heavenly robe excels
What earthly princes wear!
These ornaments, how bright they shine!
How white the garments are!
- 5 The Spirit wrought my faith and love
And hope, and every grace;
But Jesus spent his life to work
The robe of righteousness.

Isaac Watts.

439

396, 399, 636.

- 1 SALVATION!—O, the joyful sound!
'Tis pleasure to our ears;
A sovereign balm for every wound,
A cordial for our fears.
- 2 Buried in sorrow and in sin,
At hell's dark door we lay;
But we arise by grace divine,
To see a heavenly day.
- 3 Salvation!—let the echo fly
The spacious earth around;
While all the armies of the sky
Conspire to raise the sound.

Isaac Watts.

440

354, 369, 636.

- 1 O, HOW divine, how sweet the joy,
When but one sinner turns,
And, with an humble, broken heart,
His sins and errors mourns!
- 2 Pleased with the news, the saints below
In songs their tongues employ;
Beyond the skies the tidings go,
And heaven is filled with joy.
- 3 Well pleased the Father sees and hears
The conscious sinner's moan;
Jesus receives him in his arms,
And claims him as his own.

John Needham.

441

364, 446, 147.

- 1 AMAZING grace! how sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost, but now am found;
Was blind, but now I see.
- 2 'T was grace that taught my heart to fear,
And grace my fears relieved;
How precious did that grace appear,
The hour I first believed!
- 3 Through many dangers, toils, and snares,
I have already come;
'Tis grace hath brought me safe thus far,
And grace will lead me home.
- 4 The earth shall soon dissolve like snow,
The sun forbear to shine;
But God, who called me here below,
Will be forever mine.

John Newton.

1. Je - sus, to thee I now can fly, On whom my help is laid:

Oppressed by sins, I lift mine eye, And see the shad - ows fade.

207, 227, 114.

- 2 Believing on my Lord, I find
A sure and present aid;
On thee alone my constant mind
Be every moment stayed.
- 3 What'er in me seems wise, or good,
Or strong, I here disclaim;
I wash my garments in the blood
Of the atoning Lamb.
- 4 Jesus, my strength, my life, my rest,
On thee will I depend,
Till summoned to the marriage-feast,
When faith in sight shall end.

Charles Wesley.

646, 117, 681.

- 1 JESUS,—and didst thou leave the sky,
To bear our griefs and woes?
And didst thou bleed, and groan and die,
For thy rebellious foes?
- 2 Well might the heavens with wonder view
A love so strange as thine!
No thought of angels ever knew
Compassion so divine!
- 3 Is there a heart that will not bend
To thy divine control?
Descend, O sovereign love, descend,
And melt that stubborn soul!
- 4 O, may our willing hearts confess
Thy sweet, thy gentle sway!
Glad captives of thy matchless grace,
Thy righteous rule obey.

Anne Steele.

444

399, 308, 644.

- 1 GREAT God, when I approach thy throne,
And all thy glory see;
This is my stay, and this alone,
That Jesus died for me!
- 2 How can a soul condemned to die,
Escape the just decree?
Helpless, and full of sin am I,
But Jesus died for me.
- 3 Burdened with sin's oppressive chain,
O, how can I get free?
No peace can all my efforts gain,
But Jesus died for me.
- 4 And, Lord, when I behold thy face,
This must be all my plea;
Save me by thy almighty grace,
For Jesus died for me.

Anon.

179, 395, 147.

- 1 LORD! at thy feet we humbly lie,
And knock at mercy's door;
With heavy heart and downcast eye
Thy favor we implore.
- 2 'Tis mercy, mercy, we implore;
We would thy pity move:
Thy grace is an exhaustless store,
And thou thyself art love.
- 3 O, for thine own, for Jesus' sake,
Our numerous sins forgive!
Thy grace our stony hearts can break:
Heal us, and bid us live.

Simon Browne.

1. All that I was—my sin, my guilt, My death was all my own;

All that I am I owe to thee, My gra-cious God, a-lone.

546, 596, 117.

- 2 The evil of my former state
Was mine, and only mine;
The good in which I now rejoice
Is thine, and only thine.
- 3 The darkness of my former state,
The bondage, all was mine;
The light of life in which I walk,
The liberty, is thine.
- 4 Thy grace first made me feel my sin;
It taught me to believe;
Then, in believing, peace I found,
And now I live, I live.
- 5 All that I am, even here on earth,
All that I hope to be,
When Jesus comes and glory dawns,
I owe it, Lord, to thee.

Horatius Bonar.

447

227, 546, 669.

- 1 THE Lord first empties whom he fills,
Casts down whom he would raise;
He quickens, when the letter kills,
Exalting thus his praise.
- 2 When he applies his healing blood
Unto a sin-sick soul,
This balsam, powerful, precious, good,
Ne'er fails to make it whole.
- 3 On us he spent his life and blood,
Our losses to retrieve;
Mankind's redemption now holds good
For sinner's who believe.

Erskine.

448

179, 201, 396.

- 1 O FOR that tenderness of heart
That bows before the Lord;
That owns how just and good thou art,
And trembles at thy word!
- 2 O for those humble, contrite tears
Which from repentance flow;
That sense of guilt which, trembling,
fears
The long-suspended blow!
- 3 O, fill my soul with faith and love,
And strength to do thy will;
Raise my desires and hopes above,—
Thyself to me reveal.

Charles Wesley.

449

179, 354, 114.

- 1 BE merciful to me, O God!
Be merciful to me;
For though I sink beneath thy rod,
Yet do I trust in thee.
- 2 Thou art my refuge, and I know
My burden thou dost bear;
And I would seek, where'er I go,
To cast on thee my care.
- 3 Thou knowest, Lord, my flesh how frail,
Strong though my spirit be;
O, then assist, when foes assail,
The soul that clings to thee!
- 4 And, gracious Lord, whate'er befall,
A thankful heart be mine,—
A heart that answers to thy call,—
One that is wholly thine.

JERUSALEM. G. M. D.

LOUIS SPONZ.

1. I heard the voice of Je-sus say, "Come unto me and rest; Lay down, thou weary one, lay down
D. S.—I found in him a resting-place,

Rit. D. S.
Thy head up on my breast." I came to Je - sus as I was—Wear-y, and worn, and sad;
And he has made me glad.

486, 83.

2. I heard the voice of Jesus say,
"Behold I freely give
The living water; thirsty one,
Stoop down, and drink, and live."
I came to Jesus, and I drank
Of that life-giving stream;
My thirst was quenched, my soul revived,
And now I live in him.
- 3 I heard the voice of Jesus say,
"I am this dark world's light;
Look unto me: thy morn shall rise,
And all thy day be bright."
I looked to Jesus, and I found
In him my star, my sun;
And in that light of life I'll walk,
Till all my journey's done.

Horatius Bonar.

451

486, 83.

- 1 I HEARD a voice, the sweetest voice
That mortal ever heard;
O, how it made my heart rejoice,
And every feeling stirred!
'Twas Jesus spoke to me so mild;
He called me to his side,
And said; although with heart-defiled,
I might in him confide.
- 2 I saw his face, the fairest face
That mortal ever saw;
I longed the Saviour to embrace,
From him new life to draw,

- "Come unto me," he kindly said,
"And I will give thee rest;
The ransom-price I fully paid;
Repent! believe! be blest!"
- 3 I felt his love, the strongest love
That mortal ever felt;
O, how it drew my soul above,
And made my hard heart melt!
My burden at his feet I laid,
And knew the joy of heaven,
As in my willing ear he said
The blessed word, "Forgiven!"

Peter Stryker.

452

486, 83.

- 1 My God, my God, to thee I cry;
Thee only would I know:
Thy purifying blood apply,
And wash me white as snow.
Touch me, and make the leper clean;
Purge mine iniquity:
Unless thou wash my soul from sin,
I have no part in thee.
- 2 But art thou not already mine?
Answer, if mine thou art;
Whisper within, thou Love divine,
And cheer my drooping heart.
Behold for me the Victim bleeds,
His wounds are open wide;
For me the blood of sprinkling pleads,
And speaks me justified.

Charles Wesley.

1. Ah! whith - er should I go, Bur - dened, and sick, and faint?

Copyrighted 1886

To whom should I my troub - le show, And pour out my com - plaint?

89, 191, 558.

- 2 My Saviour bids me come;
Ah! why do I delay?
He calls the weary sinner home,
And yet from him I stay.
- 3 What is it keeps me back,
From which I cannot part,—
Which will not let the Saviour take Possession of my heart?
- 4 Searcher of hearts, in mine
Thy trying power display;
Into its darkest corners shine,
And take all sin away.

Charles Wesley.

454

403, 384, 688.

- 1 IN mercy, not in wrath,
Rebuke me, gracious God!
Lest, if thy whole displeasure rise,
I sink beneath thy rod.
- 2 Touched by thy quickening power,
My load of guilt I feel;
The wounds thy Spirit hath unclosed
O let that Spirit heal!
- 3 In trouble and in gloom,
Must I forever mourn?
And wilt thou not at length, O God,
In pitying love return?
- 4 O come; ere life expire,
Send down thy power to save;
For who shall sing thy name in death,
Or praise thee in the grave?

Anon.

455

384, 732, 736.

- 1 I SEEK the mercy-seat,
Where Thou dost answer prayer;
There humbly fall before thy feet,
For none can perish there.
- 2 Thy promise is my plea;
With this I venture nigh;
Thou callest hurdened souls to thee,
And such, O Lord, am I.
- 3 Bowed down beneath my sin,
By Satan sorely pressed;
By wars without and fears within;
I come to thee for rest.
- 4 Be thou my hiding-place;
That, sheltered near thy side,
I may rejoice in Jesus' grace—
In Jesus crucified.

Anon.

- 1 DID Christ o'er sinners weep?
And shall our cheeks be dry?
Let floods of penitential grief
Burst forth from every eye.
- 2 The Son of God in tears,
The wondering angels see!
Be thou astonished, O my soul!
He shed those tears for thee.
- 3 He wept that we might weep;
Each sin demands a tear;
In heaven alone no sin is found,
And there's no weeping there.

WILLIAM B. BRADBURY.

1. Depth of mer - cy!—can there be Mer - cy still re - served for me?

Can my God his wrath for - bear? Me, the chief of sin - ners, spare?

720, 767, 568.

2 I have long withstood his grace,
Long provoked him to his face,
Would not hearken to his calls,
Grieved him by a thousand falls.

3 Now incline me to repent;
Let me now my sins lament;
Now my foul revolt deplore,
Weep, believe, and sin no more.

4 There for me the Saviour stands,
Shows his wounds and spreads his hands;
God is love! I know, I feel;
Jesus weeps, and loves me still.

Charles Wesley.

458

720, 581, 407.

1 DOES the gospel word proclaim
Rest for those that weary be?
Then, my soul, put in thy claim;
'Tis that promise speaks to thee.

2 Marks of grace I cannot show,
All polluted is my best;
But I weary am, I know,
And the weary long for rest.

3 Burdened with a load of sin.
Harassed with tormenting doubt;
Hourly conflicts from within,
Hourly crosses from without.

4 All my little strength is gone,
Sink I must without supply;
Sure upon the earth is none
Can more weary be than I.

5 In the ark the weary dove
Found a welcome resting place;
Thus my spirit longs to prove
Rest in Christ, the Ark of grace.

John Newton.

1 BLESSED Jesus, heavenly Lamb,
Thine and only thine I am:
Take me, body, spirit, soul;
Only thou possess the whole.

2 Thou my one thing needful be;
Let me ever cleave to thee;
Let me choose the better part;
Let me give thee all my heart.

3 Fairer than the sons of men!
Do not let me turn again,
Nor the Fountain-head of bliss,
Leave for creature happiness.

1 LORD, forgive me, day by day,
Debts I cannot hope to pay;
Duties I have left undone,
Evils I have failed to shun;

2 Trespasses in word or thought;
Deeds from evil motive wrought;
Cold ingratitude; distrust;
Thoughts unhallowed, or unjust.

3 Much forgiven, may I learn
Love for hatred to return;
Then assured my heart shall be
Thou, my God, hast pardoned me.

2 I lay my wants on Jesus,
All fullness dwells in him,
He healeth my diseases,
He doth my soul redeem.

3 I lay my grieves on Jesus,
My burdens and my cares;

1 I NEED thee, precious Jesus,
For I am very poor;
A stranger and a pilgrim,
I have no earthly store.

2 I need the love of Jesus
To cheer me on my way,
To guide my doubting footsteps,
To be my strength and stay.

3 I need the heart of Jesus
To feel each anxious care,
To tell my every trial,
And all my sorrows share.

4 I need the Holy Spirit
To teach me what I am,
To show me more of Jesus,
To point me to the Lamb.

5 I need thee, precious Jesus,
I hope to see thee soon,
Encircled with the rainbow,
And seated on thy throne.

6 There, with thy blood-bought children,
My joy shall ever be
To sing thy praises, Jesus,
To gaze, my Lord, on thee!

1 We stand in deep repentance,
Before thy throne of love;
O God of grace, forgive us,
The stain of guilt remove.

2 Behold us while with weeping
We lift our eyes to thee;
And all our sins subduing,
Our Father, set us free!

3 O, shouldst thou from the fallen
Withhold thy grace to guide,
Forever we should wander,
From thee, and peace, aside.

4 Our souls—on thee we cast them,
Our only refuge thou!
Thy cheering words revive us,
When pressed with grief we bow.

5 Thou bearest the trusting spirit
Upon thy loving breast,
And givest all thy ransomed
A sweet, unending rest.

Ray Palmer.

1. { Je - sus, Sav - iour of our race, Trust - ing in thy blood and grace, }
 { I, a sin - ner, wound - ed, sore, Pros - trate fall, and help im - plore; }

D. C.—In my heart a sense of wrong Shades with sad - ness e'en my song.

D. C.
 On my back's a bur - den high,—Sins of years that mul - ti - ply;—

828, 567.

2 Long I've wandered round and round,
 Sought relief, but none have found;
 Now at last I come to thee,
 Save me, Lord; O, set me free!
 Yes, I hear the potent word;
 Yes, my earnest prayer is heard;
 Once in bondage, now I'm free;
 Saved, dear Lord, and saved by thee!

3 From my back the burden rolled,—
 Burden high of sins untold;—
 From my heart all sense of shame
 Passed away when Jesus came.
 O what love in Christ I found!
 Love so high, so broad, profound;
 Love that I can never tell;
 Love that saved my soul from hell.

4 How shall I the debt repay,—
 Debt that swells from day to day?—
 How can I in words reveal
 That which in my heart I feel?
 Ah! my soul, it ne'er can be;
 Love divine's too high for thee;
 What I owe to Christ to-day
 Words or deeds can ne'er repay.

5 Bankrupt 'neath the cross I stand:
 Thus I sing,—O, sea! O, land —
 "In my hand no price I bring,
 Simply to thy cross I cling."

Such a song my Lord approves,
 Sung by one the Spirit moves;
 Love is all he asks from me,
 That he has, most full, most free.

W. H. Littlejohn.

828, 567.

1 JESUS, merciful and mild,
 Lead me as a helpless child:
 On no other arm but thine
 Would my weary soul recline;
 Thou art ready to forgive,
 Thou canst bid the sinner live,
 Guide the wanderer, day by day,
 In the strait and narrow way.

2 Thou canst fit me by thy grace
 For the heavenly dwelling-place;
 All thy promises are sure,
 Ever shall thy love endure;
 Then what more could I desire,
 How to greater bliss aspire?
 All I need, in thee I see;
 Thou art all in all to me.

3 Jesus, Saviour all divine,
 Hast thou made me truly thine?
 Hast thou bought me by thy blood?
 Reconciled my heart to God?
 Harken to my tender prayer,
 Let me thine own image bear;
 Let me love thee more and more,
 Till I reach heaven's blissful shore.

2 Whither should my soul be flying
 But to him who comfort gives?
 Whither from the dread of dying
 But to him who ever lives?
 While I view thee, wounded, grieving,
 Breathless on the cursed tree,
 Fain I'd feel my heart believing
 Thou didst suffer thus for me.

3 With thy righteousness and Spirit
 I am more than angels blessed;
 Heir with thee, all things inherit,—
 'Peace and joy, and endless rest:
 Saved! the deed shall spread new glory
 Through the shining realms above;
 Angels sing the pleasing story,
 All enraptured with thy love.

Daniel Turner.

1 YE who know your sins forgiven,
 And are happy in the Lord,
 Have you read that gracious promise
 Which is left us in his word?
 I will sprinkle you with water,
 I will cleanse you from all sin,
 Sanctify and make you holy,
 I will dwell and reign within.

2 Though you have much peace and comfort
 Greater things you yet may find,—
 Freedom from unholy tempers,
 Freedom from the carnal mind.
 To procure your perfect freedom,
 Jesus suffered, groaned, and died;
 On the cross the healing fountain
 Gushes from his wounded side.

1 TAKE my heart, O Father, take it!
 Make and keep it all thine own;
 Let thy Spirit melt and break it,
 This proud heart of sin and stone.
 Father, make it pure and lowly,
 Fond of peace and far from strife,
 Turning from the paths unholy,
 Of this vain and sinful life.

2 Ever let thy grace surround it,
 Strengthen it with power divine;
 Till thy cords of love have bound it,
 Make it to be wholly thine.
 May the blood of Jesus heal it,
 And its sins be all forgiven;
 Holy Spirit, take and seal it,
 Guide it in the path to heaven.

1. O, how hap-py are they Who their Saviour o-bey, And have laid up their treasure above!

Tongue can nev-er ex-press The sweet comfort and peace Of a soul in its ear - li - est love.

- 2 That sweet comfort is mine,
Since the favor divine
I received through the blood of the Lamb;
Since my heart first believed,
What a joy I've received,
What a heaven in Jesus' dear name!
- 3 'Tis a heaven below
My Redeemer to know;
And the angels can do nothing more
Than to fall at his feet,
And the story repeat,
And the Lover of sinners adore.
- 4 Jesus all the day long
Is my joy and my song;
O that all to this refuge might fly!
He hath loved me, indeed,
He did suffer and bleed,
To redeem such a rebel as I.
- 5 On the wings of his love,
I am carried above
All my sin, and temptation, and pain;
O, that all would believe,
And by sin never grieve,
And thus cause him to suffer again.

- 1 O THOU that hearest the prayer of faith,
Wilt thou not save a soul from death
That casts itself on thee?
I have no refuge of my own,
But fly to what my Lord hath done,
And suffered once for me.
- 2 Slain in the guilty sinner's stead,
His spotless righteousness I plead,
And his availing blood:
That righteousness my robe shall be,
That merit shall atone for me,
And bring me near to God.
- 3 Then save me from the second death,
The Spirit of adoption breathe,
His consolations send;
By him some word of life impart,
And sweetly whisper to my heart,
"Thy Maker is thy friend."
- 4 Now, Lord, I would be thine alone;
Come, take possession of thine own;
For thou hast set me free:
Released from Satan's hard command,
See all my powers in waiting stand,
To be employed by thee.

1 THERE is an hour of hallowed peace
 For those with cares oppressed,
 When sighs and sorrowing tears shall cease,
 And all be hushed to rest.
 'Tis then the soul is freed from fears
 And doubts which here annoy;
 Then they that oft have sown in tears
 Shall reap again in joy.

2 There is a home of sweet repose,
 Where storms assail no more;
 The stream of endless pleasure flows
 On that celestial shore.
 There purity and love appear,
 And bliss without alloy;
 There they that oft had sown in tears
 Shall reap again in joy.

By thy mercy reconciled;
Hear, and all thy graces shower,
All the joy, and peace, and power;
All my Saviour asks above,
All the life and heaven of love.
- 2 Lord, I will not let thee go

Hear my Advocate divine;
Lo! to his my suit I join;
Joined to his, it cannot fail;
Bless me; for I will prevail.
- 3 Heavenly Father, Life divine,
Change my nature into thine;
Move, and spread throughout my soul;

Actuate and fill the whole:
Be it I no longer now
Living in the flesh, but thou.

By thy bitter agony,
By thy pangs to us unknown,
By thy spirit's parting groan,
Lord, thy presence let me see,
Manifest thyself to me.
- 2 Prince of life! to thee I cry:
By thy glorious majesty,
By thy triumph o'er the grave,
Meek to suffer, strong to save,
Lord, thy presence let me see,
Manifest thyself to me.
- 3 Lord of glory, now on high,
Hear thy needy servant's cry;
With thy love my bosom fill,
Prompt me to perform thy will;
Then thy glory I shall see,
Thou wilt bring me home to thee.

2 Ye shall be mine, says Jesus,
In that auspicious day
When I make up my jewels,
Released from cumb'rous clay;
He'll polish and refine you
From worthless dross and tin,
And to his heavenly kingdom
Will bid you enter in.

3 We'll range the wide dominion

4 All earthly tribulation
Is but a moment here;
And O, if we are faithful,
A crown of life we'll wear!
We shall be pure and holy,
And feed on angels' food,
Rejoicing in bright glory
Around the throne of God.

1 THOU Shepherd of Israel, and mine,
The joy and desire of my heart,
For closer communion I pine,
I long to reside where thou art;
The pasture I languish to find,
Where all who their Shepherd obey,
Are fed, on thy bosom reclined,
And screened from the heat of the day.

2 'Tis there, with the lambs of thy flock,
There only, I covet to rest;
To lie at the foot of the rock,
Or rise to be hid in thy breast:
'Tis there I would always abide,
And never a moment depart,
Concealed in the cleft of thy side,
Eternally held in thy heart.

 Something still to do or bear.
 Think what Spirit dwells within thee;
 Think what Father's smiles are thine;
 Think that Jesus died to win thee;
 Child of Heaven, canst thou repine?
- 4 Haste thee on from grace to glory,
 Armed by faith and winged by prayer;
 Heaven's eternal day's before thee;
 God's own hand shall guide thee there.

Soon shall close thy earthly mission.
 Soon shall pass thy pilgrim days;
 Hope shall change to glad fruition,
 Faith to sight, and prayer to praise.

844, 503.

- 1 FAR from mortal cares retreating,
 Sordid hopes and vain desires,
 Here, our willing footsteps meeting,
 Every heart to heaven aspires.
 From the Fount of glory beaming,
 Light celestial cheers our eyes:
 'Tis the grace of pardon streaming
 From the portals of the skies.
- 2 Who may share this great salvation?
 Every pure and humble mind,
 Every kindred, tongue, and nation,
 From the stains of guilt refined.
 Blessings all around bestowing,
 God withholds his care from none;
 Grace and truth are ever flowing
 From the fountain of his throne.

AUTUMN. 8s & 7s. D.

SPANISH, FROM MARCHIO.

1. Bless-ed Je-sus, meek and low-ly, With us here take thine a-bode; We would fain like thee be ho-ly,
D. S.—Lest without thine aid we peri-h.

Fine. D. S.
Hum-bly walk-ing with our God. We would thy sweet Spir-it cher-ish, Welcome in our hearts thy stay;
O, a-bide with us, we pray!

844, 132.

- 2 Guide us in the path to heaven,
Rugged though that path may be;
Let each bitter cup that's given,
Serve to draw us nearer thee.
In thy footsteps traced before us,
There we see earth's scorn and frown;
There is suffering ere the glory,
There's a cross before the crown.

- 3 In thy vineyard let us labor,
Of thy goodness let us tell;
All is ill without thy favor,
With thy presence all is well.
While the evening shadows gather,
Through this dreary night of tears,
Tarry with us, O our Saviour,
Till the morning light appears.

- 4 Then with thee may we forever
Reign with all the good and blest,
Where no sin from thee can sever,
Where the weary are at rest;
There to praise the matchless Giver.
There with angels to adore
Him who did through grace deliver
Us from death forevermore.

Annie R. Smith.

499, 844.

- 1 VAIN are all terrestrial pleasures,
Mixed with dross the purest gold;
Seek we then for heavenly treasures—
Treasures never waxing old.
Let our best affections center
On the things around the throne:
There no thief can ever enter;
Moth and rust are there unknown.
- 2 Earthly joys no longer please us;
Here we would renounce them all;
Seek our only rest in Jesus—
Him our Lord and Master call.
Faith, our languid spirits cheering,
Points to brighter worlds above;
Bids us look for his appearing,
Bids us triumph in his love.
- 3 May our light be always burning,
And our loins be girded round,
Waiting for our Lord's returning—
Longing for the welcome sound.
Thus the Christian life adorning,
Never need we be afraid,
Should he come at night or morning,
Early dawn or evening shade.

844, 132.

2 Here I raise my Ebenezer,
 Hither by thy help I've come,
 And I hope by thy good pleasure
 Safely to arrive at home.
 Jesus sought me when a stranger,
 Wandering from the fold of God;
 He to rescue me from danger
 Interposed his precious blood.

3 O, to grace how great a debtor
 Daily I'm constrained to be!
 Let thy goodness like a fetter
 Bind me closer still to thee.
 Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it,—
 Prone to leave the God I love,—
 Here's my heart—O, take and seal it;
 Seal it for thy courts above.

 Let me go and bathe my spirit
 In the rapture angels know:
 Let me go, for bliss eternal
 Lures my soul away, away,
 And the victor's song triumphant
 Thrills my heart, I cannot stay.

3 Let me go, why should I tarry?
 What has earth to bind me here?
 What but cares and toils and sorrows?
 What but death and pain and fear?
 Let me go, for hopes most cherished,
 Blasted round me often lie:
 Here I've gathered brightest flowers
 But to see them fade and die.

CONTRAST. 8s. D.

LEWIS EDSON.

1. We speak of the realms of the blest, That coun-try so bright and so fair,

And oft are its glo-ries confessed,—But what must it be to be there!
D. S.—Its won-ders and pleasures un-told,—But what must it be to be there!

We speak of its pathway of gold,—Its walls decked with jew-els so rare,
D. S.

- 2 We speak of its freedom from sin,
From sorrow, temptation and care,
From trials without and within,—
But what must it be to be there!
We speak of its service of love,
Of the robes which the glorified wear,
Of the church of the first-born above,—
But what must it be to be there!

- 3 Our mourning is all at an end,
When, raised by the life-giving word,
We see the new city descend,
Adorned as a bride for her Lord:
The city so holy and clean,
No sorrow can breathe in the air;
No gloom of affliction or sin,
No shadow of evil is there.

- 4 Do Thou, midst temptation and woe,
For heaven my spirit prepare;
And shortly I also shall know
And feel what it is to be there.
Then o'er the bright fields we shall roam,
In glory celestial and fair,
With saints and with angels at home,
And Jesus himself will be there.

Elizabeth Mills.

- 1 How tedious and tasteless the hours
When Jesus no longer I see!
Sweet prospects, sweet birds, and sweet flowers,
Have all lost their sweetness to me;
The midsummer sun shines but dim,
The fields strive in vain to look gay;
But when I am happy in him,
December's as pleasant as May.
- 2 His name yields the richest perfume,
And sweeter than music his voice;
His presence disperses my gloom,
And makes all within me rejoice;
I should, were he always thus nigh,
Have nothing to wish or to fear;
No mortal so happy as I,
My summer would last all the year.
- 3 My Lord, if indeed I am thine,
If thou art my Sun and my Song,
Say, why do I languish and pine?
And why are my winters so long?
O drive these dark clouds from my sky,
Thy soul-cheering presence restore;
Or take me to thee up on high,
Where winter and clouds are no more.

HOMeward BOUND. 10s & 7s. P.

UNKNOWN. Fine.

- 2 Wildly the storm sweeps us on as it roars,
 We're homeward bound, homeward bound;
 Look! yonder lie the bright heavenly shores,
 We're homeward bound, homeward bound.
 Steady, O pilot! stand firm at the wheel;
 Steady, we soon shall outweather the gale;
 O, how we fly 'neath the loud-creaking sail!
 We're homeward bound, homeward bound.
- 3 Into the harbor of heaven now we glide,
 We're home at last, home at last;
 Softly we drift on its bright silver tide,
 We're home at last, home at last.
 Glory to God! all our dangers are o'er,
 We stand secure on the glorified shore;
 Glory to God! we shall shout evermore;
 We're home at last, home at last.

- 2 What though the billows of life darkly roll,
 O do not fear, do not fear;
 Friends all forsake thee, and cares press thy soul;
 Be of good cheer, of good cheer.
 Christian, remember that Christ loves thee still;
 Only be faithful, and do Jesus' will,
 Soon thou wilt stand with him on Zion's hill;
 Be of good cheer, of good cheer.
- 3 Christian, the angels will soon come for thee,
 O do not fear, do not fear;
 He whom thou lovest in glory thou'lt see;
 Be of good cheer, of good cheer.
 O, if thou would'st to the end firm endure,
 Keep thy robe holy, and spotless, and pure,
 Victorious faith will make Canaan sure;
 Be of good cheer, of good cheer.

- 1 CHRISTIAN, thy warfare will shortly be o'er,
 O do not fear, do not fear;
 Soon thou shalt rest where thy foes come no more;
 Be of good cheer, of good cheer.
 What though the night be so dreary and long,
 What though thy foes be unwearied and strong,
 Soon thou shalt join in the conqueror's song;
 Be of good cheer, of good cheer.

- 4 Christian, the shadows will soon flee away,
 O do not fear, do not fear;
 Then thou wilt enter an eternal day;
 Be of good cheer, of good cheer.
 In the bright kingdom forever to dwell,
 Join angel choirs, and the rich anthem swell,
 Bid to thy sorrow a long, long farewell;
 Be of good cheer, of good cheer.

2 O brother, be faithful! the city of gold,
 Prepared for the good and the blest,
 Is waiting its portals of pearl to unfold,
 And welcome thee into thy rest.
 Then, brother, prove faithful! not long shall we stay
 In weariness here, and forlorn,
 Time's dark night of sorrow is wearing
 away,
 We haste to the glorious morn.

3 O brother, be faithful! He soon will descend,
 Creation's omnipotent King,
 While legions of angels his chariot attend,
 And palm-wreaths of victory bring.

O brother, be faithful! and soon shalt thou hear
 Thy Saviour pronounce the glad word,
 Well done, faithful servant, thy title is clear,
 To enter the joy of thy Lord.

4 O brother, be faithful! eternity's years
 Shall tell for thy faithfulness now,
 When bright smiles of gladness shall scat-

 And a coronet gleam on thy brow.
 O brother, be faithful! the promise is - sure,
 That waits for the faithful and tried;
 To reign with the ransomed, immortal

COME, LET US ANEW. P. M.

UNKNOWN.

1. Come, let us a-new our journey pur-sue, Roll round with the year, And never stand still till the Mas-ter ap-pear; And never stand still till the Mas-ter appear.

- 2 His adorable will let us gladly fulfill,
And our talents improve
By the patience of hope, and the labor of love.
- 3 Our life as a dream, our time as a stream,
Glides swiftly away,
And the fugitive moment refuses to stay.
- 4 The arrow is flown, the moment is gone;
The millennial year
Rushes on to our view, and eternity's here.

- 5 O, that each in the day of His coming may say,
"I have fought my way through;
I have finished the work thou didst give me
to do."
- 6 O, that each from his Lord may receive the glad word,
"Well and faithfully done!
Enter into my joy, and sit down on my throne."

I LOVE THEE. 11s.

UNKNOWN.

1. I love thee, I love thee, I love thee, my Lord; I love thee, my Saviour, I love thee, my God:

I love thee, I love thee, and that thou dost know; But how much I love thee my actions will show.

- 2 I'm happy, I'm happy, O, wondrous account!
My joys are immortal, I stand on the mount!
I gaze on my treasure and long to be there,
With Jesus and angels, and kindred so dear.
- 3 O Jesus, my Saviour, with thee I am blest,—
My life and salvation, my joy and my rest:
Thy name be my theme, and thy love be my
song;
Thy grace shall inspire both my heart and my tongue.

- 4 O, who's like my Saviour? he's Salem's bright
King;
He smiles, and he loves me, and helps me to sing:
I'll praise him, I'll praise him, with notes
loud and clear,
While rivers of pleasure my spirit do cheer.

REST IN HEAVEN. 11s.

LOWELL MASON.

1. My rest is in heaven, my rest is not here, Then why should I tremble when trials are near?

Behushed, my sad spirit, the worst that can come But shortens my journey, and hastens me home.

511, 255.

2 It is not for me to be seeking my bliss,
Or building my hopes in a region like this;
I look for a city that hands have not piled,
I pant for a country by sin undefiled.

3 The thorn and the thistle around me may grow,
I would not lie down upon roses below;
I ask not my portion, I seek not my rest,
Till I find them forever on Jesus' breast.

4 Afflictions may press me, they cannot destroy;
One glimpse of his love turns them all into joy;

And the bitterest tears, if he smile but on them,
Like dew in the sunshine, grow diamond and gem.

5 Let doubt, then, and danger, my progress oppose,

They only make heaven more sweet at its close;
Come joy, or come sorrow, whate'er may befall,
An hour with my God will make up for them all.

6 A scrip on my back, and a staff in my hand,
I march on in haste through an enemy's land;
The road may be rough, but it cannot be long:
I'll smooth it with hope, and I'll cheer it with song.

2 No spot on this earth can give permanent
bliss,
No home for a stranger and pilgrim is this;
But far in yon azure, the star-spangled dome,
We'll find in the bosom of Jesus a home.

3 This hope cheers the prospect that's gloomy and drear,
And points to the haven of rest that is near;
O there, in sweet fields of delight we shall
roam,
And find in the bosom of Jesus a home.

RETREAT. L. M.

THOMAS HASTINGS.

1. From ev - ery storm - y wind that blows, From ev - ery swell - ing tide of woes,

There is a calm, a sure re-treat; 'Tis found be-neath the mer - cy - seat.

101, 638, 104.

- 2 There is a place where Jesus sheds
The oil of gladness on our heads,—
A place than all besides more sweet;
It is the blood-bought mercy-seat.
- 3 There is a scene where spirits blend,
Where friend holds fellowship with friend;
Though sundered far, by faith they meet
Around one common mercy-seat.
- 4 There, there, on angel's wings we soar,
And earthly cares molest no more,
And heaven comes down our souls to greet,
And glory crowns the mercy-seat.
- 5 Ah! whither should we flee for aid,
When tempted, desolate, dismayed?
Or how the hosts of sin defeat,
Had suffering saints no mercy-seat?
- 4 When Moses stood with arms spread wide,
Success was found on Israel's side;
But when, through weariness, they failed,
That moment Amalek prevailed.
- 5 Have you no words? Ah! think again;
Words flow apace when you complain,
And fill your fellow-creatures' ears
With the sad tale of all your cares.
- 6 Were half the breath thus vainly spent,
To heaven in supplication sent,
Your cheerful song would oftener be,
"Hear what the Lord hath done for me!"

Hugh Stowell.William Couper.

516

471, 431, 104.

- 1 WHAT various hindrances we meet
In coming to the mercy-seat!
Yet who that knows the worth of prayer
But wishes to be often there?
- 2 Prayer makes the darkest cloud withdraw;
Prayer climbs the ladder Jacob saw,
Gives exercise to faith and love,
Brings every blessing from above.
- 3 Restraining prayer, we cease to fight;
Prayer makes the Christian's armor bright;
And Satan trembles when he sees
The weakest saint upon his knees.
- 1 PRAYER is appointed to convey
The blessings God designs to give;
Long as they live should Christians pray
They learn to pray when first they live.
- 2 If pains afflict, or wrongs oppress,
If cares distract, or fears dismay,
If guilt dejects, if sins distress,—
In every case still watch and pray.
- 3 'Tis prayer supports the soul that's weak,
Though thought be broken, language
lame;
Pray, if thou canst or canst not speak,
But pray with faith, in Jesus' name.
- 4 Depend on him; thou canst not fail;
Make all thy wants and wishes known;
Fear not; his merits must prevail!
Ask but in faith, it shall be done.

D. C.—And oft es-caped the templer's snare, By thy re-turn, sweet (omit) . . . hour of prayer.

D. C.
In sea - sons of dis - tress and grief, My soul has oft - en found re - lief,

- 2 Sweet hour of prayer! sweet hour of prayer!
Thy wings shall my petition bear
To Him whose truth and faithfulness
Engage the waiting soul to bless.
And since he bids me seek his face,
Believe his word, and trust his grace,
I'll cast on him my every care,
And wait for thee, sweet hour of prayer.
- 3 Sweet hour of prayer! sweet hour of prayer!
May I thy consolation share
Till from Mount Pisgah's lofty height

354, 179, 201.

2 I love in solitude to shed
 The penitential tear;
 And all his promises to plead,
 Where none but God can hear.

3 I love to think on mercies past,
 And future good implore;
 And all my cares and sorrows cast
 On him whom I adore.

4 I love by faith to take a view
 Of brighter scenes to come;
 The prospect doth my strength renew
 While here away from home.

Phæbe Hinsdale Brown.

520

396, 147, 644.

1 THERE is an eye that never sleeps
 Beneath the wing of night;
 There is an ear that never shuts
 When sink the beams of light.

2 There is an arm that never tires
 When human strength gives way;
 There is a love that never fails
 When earthly loves decay.

3 That eye is fixed on seraph throngs;
 That arm upholds the sky;
 That ear is filled with angel songs;
 That love is throned on high.

4 But there's a power which man can wield
 When mortal aid is vain,
 That eye, that arm, that love to reach,
 That listening ear to gain.

5 That power is prayer, which soars on high,
 Through Jesus, to the throne;
 And moves the hand which moves the world,
 To bring salvation down.

John A. Wallace.

 All hallowed be thy name;
 Thy kingdom come; thy will be done

2 Give us this day our daily bread;
 And as we those forgive
 Who sin against us, so may we Forgiving grace receive.

3 Into temptation lead us not;
 From evil set us free;
 And thine the kingdom, thine the power

Adoniram Judson.

1 I LOVE the Lord: he heard my cries,
 And pitied every groan;
 Long as I live, when troubles rise,
 I'll hasten to his throne.

2 I love the Lord: he bowed his ear,
 And chased my grief away;
 O let my heart no more despair,
 While I have breath to pray.

3 The Lord beheld me sore distressed;
 He bade my pains remove:
 Return, my soul, to God, thy rest;
 For thou hast known his love.

- 1 PRAYER is the breath of God in man,
Returning whence it came;
Love is the sacred fire within,
And prayer the rising flame.
- 2 It gives the burdened spirit ease,
And soothes the troubled breast;
Yields comfort to the mourners here,
And to the weary rest.
- 3 The humble suppliant cannot fail
To have his wants supplied,
Since He for sinners intercedes
Who once for sinners died.

Benjamin Beddome.

- 1 PRAYER is the soul's sincere desire,
Uttered or unexpressed;
The motion of a hidden fire
That trembles in the breast.
- 2 Prayer is the burden of a sigh,
The falling of a tear,
The upward glancing of an eye,
When none but God is near.
- 3 Prayer is the simplest form of speech
That infant lips can try;
Prayer the sublimest strains that reach
The Majesty on high.

James Montgomery.

All time, and toil, and care;
Labor is rest, and pain is sweet,
If thou, my God, art here.

- 3 Upon the battle-field,
Before the fight begins,
We seek, O Lord, thy sheltering shield,
To guard us from our sins.
- 4 On the lone mountain side,
Before the morning's light,
The Man of sorrows wept and cried,
And rose refreshed with might.
- 5 O, hear us, then, for we
Are very weak and frail;
We make the Saviour's name our plea,
And surely must prevail.

1. Come, my soul, thy suit pre-prepare; Je - sus loves to an - swer prayer;

He him - self has bid thee pray, Therefore will not say thee nay.

963, 407, 720.

- 2 With my burden I begin :—
Lord! remove this load of sin ;
Let thy blood, for sinners spilt,
Set my conscience free from guilt.
- 3 Lord! I come to thee for rest,
Take possession of my breast ;
There, thy sovereign right maintain,
And, without a rival, reign.
- 4 While I am a pilgrim here,
Let thy love my spirit cheer ;
Be my Guide, my Guard, my Friend,
Lead me to my journey's end.
- 5 Show me what I have to do,
Every hour my strength renew ;
Let me live a life of faith,
Let me die thy people's death.

John Newton.

720, 457, 663.

- 1 LORD! I cannot let thee go,
Till a blessing thou bestow ;
Do not turn away thy face,
Mine's an urgent, pressing case.
- 2 Once a sinner, near despair,
Sought thy mercy-seat by prayer ;
Mercy heard and set him free ;—
Lord! that mercy came to me.
- 3 Many days have passed since then,
Many changes I have seen ;
Yet have been upheld till now ;
Who could hold me up but thou?

- 4 Thou hast helped in every need,
This emboldens me to plead ;
After so much mercy past,
Canst thou let me sink at last?
- 5 No, I must maintain my hold ;
'Tis thy goodness makes me bold ;
I can no denial take,
Since I plead for Jesus' sake.

John Newton.

- 1 THEY who seek the throne of grace
Find that throne in every place ;
If we live a life of prayer,
God is present everywhere.
- 2 In our sickness and our health,
In our want, or in our wealth,
If we look to God in prayer,
God is present everywhere.
- 3 When our earthly comforts fail,
When the foes of life prevail,
'Tis the time for earnest prayer ;
God is present everywhere.
- 4 Then, my soul, in every strait,
To thy Father come, and wait ;
He will answer every prayer :
God is present everywhere.
- 5 Doubt him not, his promise plead
In the hour of sorest need ;
Neyer yet was saint o'erthrown
Trusting in God's strength alone

Copyright 1888

As that which calls me to thy feet,—The hour of prayer?

- 2 Blest is that tranquil hour of morn,
And blest that solemn hour of eve,
When, on the wings of prayer upborne,
The world I leave.
- 3 Then is my strength by thee renewed;
Then are my sins by thee forgiven;
Then dost thou cheer my solitude
With hopes of heaven.

- 4 No words can tell what sweet relief
Here for my every want I find;
What strength for warfare, balm for grief;
What peace of mind.

No privilege so dear shall be,
As thus my inmost soul to pour
In prayer to thee.

1. Come, let us pray! 'tis sweet to feel That God himself is near; That, while we at his footstool kneel,

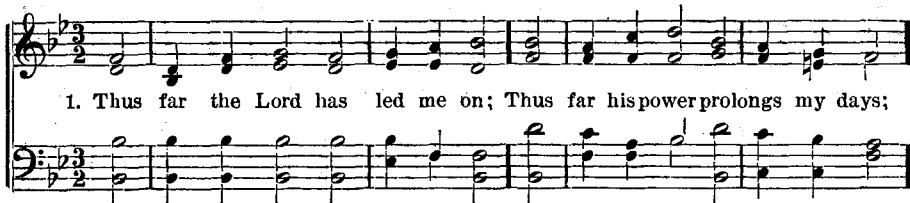

His mercy deigns to hear. Though sorrows cloud life's dreary way, This is our solace—let us pray.

987, 988.

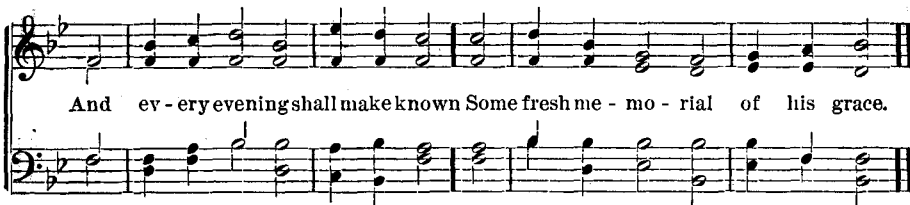

- 2 Come, let us pray! the burning brow,
The heart oppressed with care,
And all the woes that throng us now,
Will be relieved by prayer;
Our God will chase our griefs away;
O glorious thought! come, let us pray.

- 3 Come, let us pray! the mercy-seat
Invites the fervent prayer;
Our heavenly Father waits to greet
The contrite spirit there.
O loiter not, nor longer stay
From him who loves us; let us pray.

- 2 Much of my time has run to waste,
And I, perhaps, am near my home;
But he forgives my follies past,
And gives me strength for days to come.

Peace is the pillow for my head;
While well-appointed angels keep
Their watchful stations round my bed.

The appointed duties of the day;
With ready mind and active will,
March on, and keep my heavenly way.
- 3 Lord, thy commands are clean and pure,
Enlightening our beclouded eyes;
Thy threatenings just, thy promise sure;
Thy gospel makes the simple wise.

1 GLORY to thee, my God, this night,
For all the blessings of the light;
Keep me, O mighty King of kings,
Beneath the shadow of thy wings,

2 Forgive me, Lord, for thy dear Son,
The ills which I this day have done;
That with the world, myself, and thee,
I, ere I sleep, at peace may be.

3 Be thou my Guardian while I sleep;
Thy watchful station near me keep;
My heart with love celestial fill,
And guard me from the approach of ill.

4 Lord, let my heart forever share
The bliss of thy paternal care;
'Tis heaven on earth, 'tis heaven above,
To see thy face and sing thy love.

5 Teach me this fleeting life to live,
So that the grave no dread shall give;
Teach me to die, so that I may

Free from care, from la - bor free, Lord, we would commune with thee.

407, 720, 457.

2 Thou, whose all-pervading eye
Naught escapes, without, within,
Pardon each infirmity,
Open fault, and secret sin.

3 Soon from us the light of day
Shall forever pass away;
Then, from sin and sorrow free,
Take us, Lord, to dwell with thee.

1 SOFTLY fades the twilight ray
Of the holy Sabbath-day,
Gently as life's setting sun
When the Christian's course is run.

2 Night her solemn mantle spreads
O'er the earth as daylight fades,
All things tell of calm repose
At the holy Sabbath's close.

3 Peace is on the world abroad;
'Tis the holy peace of God,
Symbol of the peace within
When the spirit rests from sin.

4 Still the Spirit lingers near,
Where the evening worshiper
Seeks communion with the skies,
Pressing onward to the prize.

5 Saviour, may our Sabbaths be
Days of joy and peace in thee,
Till in heaven our souls repose,
Where the Sabbath-ne'er shall close.

Samuel F. Smith.

3 When our work of life is past,
O receive us all at last;
Labor then will all be o'er,
Sin's dark night will be no more.

Though the arrows past us fly,
Angel guards from thee surround us;
We are safe if thou art nigh.

3 Though the night be dark and dreary,

484, 328.

2 As the winged arrow flies
Speedily the mark to find,

All below is but a dream.

3 Thanks for mercies past receive,
Pardon of our sins renew ;

Bless thy word to young and old,
Fill us with a Saviour's love,
And when life's short tale is told,
May we dwell with him above.

428, 367, 437,

- 2 In penitential grief we sigh,
And lift to thee our humble cry,
Won by thy love, we turn to Him
Who died to save us from our sin.
- 3 Hear us, great Shepherd of thy sheep!
Our wanderings heal, our footsteps keep:
We seek thy sheltering fold again,
Nor shall we seek thee, Lord, in vain.
- 4 O God! we praise thee for thy grace:
How sweet the smiling of thy face!
O let thy grace our hearts control,
And fill with love each longing soul.
- 5 Teach us to know and love thy way;
And grant, to life's remotest day,
By thine unerring guidance led,

- 1 OH, turn, great Ruler of the skies!
Turn from my sin thy searching eyes;
Nor let the offenses of my hand

A conscience pure, a soul renewed;
Nor let me, wrapt in endless gloom,
An outcast from thy presence roam.

If thou withhold thy heavenly light,

One sovereign word can draw me thence:
I would obey the voice divine,
And all inferior joys resign.
- 4 Be earth, with all her scenes, withdrawn;
Let noise and vanity be gone;
In secret silence of the mind,
My heaven, and there my God, I find.

Isaac Watts.

1. Return, my roving heart, re- turn, And life's vain shadows chase no more;

Seek out some sol - i - tude to mourn, And thy for-sak - en God im - plore.

746, 542, 23.

- 2 O thou great God! whose piercing eye
Distinctly marks each deep retreat,
In these sequestered hours draw nigh,
And let me here thy presence meet.
- 3 Through all the windings of my heart,
My search let heavenly wisdom guide;
And still its beams unerring dart,
Till all be known and purified.
- 4 Then let the visits of thy love
My inmost soul be made to share,
Till every grace combine to prove
That God has fixed his dwelling there.

Philip Doddridge.

431, 314, 136.

- 1 O THOU that hearest when sinners cry,
Though all my crimes before thee lie,
Behold me not with angry look,
But blot their memory from thy book.
- 2 Create my nature pure within,
And form my soul averse to sin;
Let thy good Spirit ne'er depart,
Nor hide thy presence from my heart.
- 3 I cannot live without thy light,
Cast out and banished from thy sight;
Thy holy joys, my God, restore,
And guard me, that I fall no more.
- 4 Though I have grieved thy Spirit, Lord,
His help and comfort still afford;
And let a sinner seek thy throne;
To plead the merits of thy Son.

Isaac Watts.

575

787, 746, 538.

- 1 JESUS demands this heart of mine,
Demands my love, my joy, my care;
But ah! how dead to things divine,
How cold my best affections are!
- 2 'Tis sin, alas! with dreadful power,
Divides my Saviour from my sight;
O for one happy, cloudless hour
Of sacred freedom, sweet delight!
- 3 Come, gracious Lord! thy love can raise
My captive powers from sin and death,
And fill my heart and life with praise,
And tune my last expiring breath.
- 4 Take, then, O Lord, this heart of mine,
My grateful love, my joy, my care;
No longer dead to things divine,
With thee my best affections are.

Anne Steele.

136, 624, 51.

- 1 WHEN, gracious Lord, when shall it be
That I shall find my all in thee?
The fullness of thy promise prove,
The seal of thine eternal love?
- 2 Ah! wherefore did I ever doubt?
Thou wilt in no wise cast me out,—
A helpless soul that comes to thee
With only sin and misery.
- 3 Lord, I am blind; be thou my sight:
Lord, I am weak; be thou my might:
A helper of the helpless be,
And let me find my all in thee.

1. Lord! when we bend be-fore thy throne, And our con-fes-sions pour,

O, may we feel the sins we own, And hate what we de-plore.

546, 395, 446.

- 2 Our contrite spirits pitying see;
True penitence impart;
And let a healing ray from thee
Beam hope on every heart.
- 3 When we disclose our wants in prayer,
May we our wills resign;
Nor let a thought our bosom share
Which is not wholly thine.
- 4 Let faith each meek petition fill,
And waft it to the skies;
And teach our hearts 'tis goodness still
That grants it or denies.

Joseph D. Carlyle.

578

179, 794, 399.

- 1 JESUS, thine all-victorious love
Shed in my heart abroad:
Then shall my feet no longer rove,
Nor leave the heavenly road.
- 2 O, that in me the sacred fire
Might now begin to glow;
Burn up the dross of base desire,
And make the mountains flow.
- 3 O, that it now from heaven might fall,
And all my sins consume:
Come, Holy Ghost, for thee I call;
Spirit of burning, come.
- 4 Refining fire, go through my heart;
Illuminate my soul;
Scatter thy life through every part
And sanctify the whole.

Charles Wesley.

- 1 My head is low, my heart is sad,
My feet with travel torn,
Yet, O my Saviour, thou art glad
To see thy child return.
- 2 It was thy love that homeward led,
Thine arm that upward stayed;
It is thy hand which on my head
Is now in mercy laid.
- 3 O Saviour, in this broken heart
Confirm the trembling will,
Which longs to reach thee where thou art,
Rest in thee, and be still.
- 4 Within that bosom which hath shed
Both tears and blood for me,
O let me hide this aching head,
Once pressed and blessed by thee.

John S. Monnell.

724, 399, 147.

- 1 How oft this wretched, sinful heart
Has wandered from the Lord!
How oft my roving thoughts depart,
Forgetful of his word!
- 2 Yet mercy calls me now, "Return;"
Saviour, to thee I come;
My vile ingratitude I mourn;
O take the wanderer home!
- 3 Thy love, so full, so free, so sweet,
Blest Saviour, I adore;
O keep me at thy sacred feet,
And let me rove no more.

MANOAH. C. M.

FRANCIS J. HAYDN.

1. O, for a clos - er walk with God! A calm and heav - en - ly frame,

A light to shine up - on the road That leads me to the Lamb.

546, 179, 446.

2 Return, O holy Dove! return,—
Sweet Messenger of rest;
I hate the sins that made thee mourn,
And drove thee from my breast.

3 What peaceful hours I once enjoyed!
How sweet their memory still!
But they have left an aching void
The world can never fill.

4 The dearest idol I have known,
Whate'er that idol be,
Help me to tear it from thy throne,
And worship only thee.

5 So shall my walk be close with God,
Calm and serene my frame;
So purer light shall mark the road
That leads me to the Lamb.

Wm. Crozer.

582

322, 395, 227.

1 COME, let us to the Lord our God
With contrite hearts return;
Our God is gracious, nor will leave
The desolate to mourn.

2 His voice commands the tempest forth,
And stills the stormy wave;
His arm, though it be strong to smite,
Is also strong to save.

3 Our hearts, if God we seek to know,
Shall know him and rejoice;
His coming like the morn shall be,
Like morning songs his voice.

4 As dew upon the tender herb,
Diffusing fragrance round;
As showers that usher in the spring,
And cheer the thirsty ground;

5 So shall his presence bless our souls,
And shed a joyful light;
That hallowed morn shall chase away
The sorrows of the night.

John Morrison.

583

639, 1075, 117.

1 SWEET was the time when first I felt
The Saviour's pardoning blood
Applied to cleanse my soul from guilt,
And bring me home to God.

2 Soon as the morn the light revealed,
His praises tuned my tongue;
And when the evening shades prevailed,
His love was all my song.

3 In prayer my soul drew near the Lord,
And saw his glory shine;
And when I read his holy word,
I called each promise mine.

4 But now, when evening shade prevails,
My soul in darkness mourns;
And when the morn the light reveals,
No light to me returns.

5 Rise, Lord, and help me to prevail;
O make my soul thy care!
I know thy mercy cannot fail;
Let me that mercy share,

John Newton.

G. C. W. MORNINGTON.

1. Gra - cious Re - deem - er, shake This slum - ber from my soul!

Say to me now, "A - wake, a - wake! And Christ shall make thee whole!"

810, 558, 762.

2 Touch with thy mighty hand;
Alarm me in this hour;
And make me fully understand
My danger and thy power.

3 Give me on thee to call,
Always to watch and pray,
Lest I into temptation fall,
And cast my shield away.

4 For each assault prepared
And ready may I be;
Forever standing on my guard,
And looking up to thee.

5 O do thou always warn
My soul of evil near;
When to the right or left I turn,
Thy voice still let me hear:

6 "Come back! this is the way;
Come back and walk therein;"
O may I hearken and obey,
And shun the paths of sin.

Charles Wesley.

585

89, 558, 736.

1 O THOU whose mercy hears
Contrition's humble sigh,
Whose hand indulgent wipes the tears
From Sorrow's weeping eye;—

2 See, at thy throne of grace,
A wretched wanderer mourn:
Hast thou not bid me seek thy face?
Hast thou not said, "Return"?

3 Shall guilty fears prevail
To drive me from thy feet?
O let not this last refuge fail,
This only safe retreat.

4 Absent from thee, my Light,
Without one cheering ray,
Through dangers, fears, and gloomy night,
How desolate my way!

5 On this benighted heart
With beams of mercy shine,
And let thy voice again impart
A taste of joy divine.

Anne Steele.

586

732, 762, 236.

1 O JESUS, full of grace,
To thee I make my moan:
Let me again behold thy face,
Call home thy banished one.

2 Again my pardon seal,
Again my soul restore,
And freely my backslidings heal,
And bid me sin no more.

3 Wilt thou not bid me rise?
Speak, and my soul shall live;
"Forgive," my stricken spirit cries,
"Abundantly forgive."

4 Thine utmost mercy show;
Say to my drooping soul,
"In peace and full assurance go;
Thy faith hath made thee whole."

Charles Wesley.

LOVEST THOU ME? 7s.

UNKNOWN.

1. Hark! my soul, it is the Lord; 'Tis the Sav-iour; hear his word;

Je - sus speaks, and speaks to thee, Say, poor sin - ner, lov'st thou me?

333, 457, 720.

2 I delivered thee when bound,
And when wounded, healed thy wound;
Sought thee wandering, set thee right,
Turned thy darkness into light.

3 Can a mother's tender care
Cease toward the child she bare?
Yes, she may forgetful be,
Yet will I remember thee.

4 Mine is an unchanging love,
Higher than the heights above,
Deeper than the depths beneath,
Free and faithful, strong as death.

5 Thou shalt see my glory soon,
When the work of grace is done;
Partner of my throne shalt be:
Say, poor sinner, lov'st thou me?

6 Lord, it is my chief complaint
That my love's so weak and faint;
Yet I love thee, and adore;
O for grace to love thee more!

William Cowper.

588

333, 457, 407.

1 God of mercy, God of grace,
Hear our sad, repentant song;
Sorrow dwells on every face,
Penitence on every tongue.

2 Deep regret for follies past,
Talents wasted, time misspent;
Hearts debased by worldly cares,
Thankless for the blessings lent;

3 Foolish fears and fond desires,
Vain regrets for things as vain;
Lips too seldom taught to praise,
Oft to murmur and complain;—

4 These, and every secret fault,
Filled with grief and shame we own;
Humbled at thy feet we lie,
Seeking pardon from thy throne.

Jane Taylor.

589

720, 457, 531.

1 'Tis a point I long to know,
Oft it causes anxious thought;
Do I love the Lord, or no?
Am I his, or am I not?

2 Could my heart so hard remain,
Prayer a task and burden prove,
Every trifle give me pain,
If I knew a Saviour's love?

3 Yet I mourn my stubborn will,
Find my sin a grief and thrall;
Should I grieve for what I feel,
If I did not love at all?

4 Could I joy with saints to meet,
Choose the ways I once abhorred,
Find at times the promise sweet,
If I did not love the Lord?

5 Lord, decide the doubtful case,
Thou who art thy people's Sun;
Shine upon thy work of grace,
If it be indeed begun.

John Newton.

1. Sav - iour, Prince, en - throned a - bove, Re - pent - anee to im - part,

Give me, through thy dy - ing love, The hum - ble, con - trite heart;
D. S.—Turn, and look up - on me, Lord, And break my heart of stone. Fine.

Give, what I have long implored, A por - tion of thy grief unknown; D. S.

- 2 For thine own compassion's sake,
 The gracious wonder show;
 Cast my sins behind thy back,
 And wash me white as snow:
 If thy pity now is stirred,
 If now I do myself bemoan,
 Turn, and look upon me, Lord,
 And break my heart of stone.
- 3 See me, Saviour, from above,
 Nor suffer me to die!
 Life, and happiness, and love,
 Drop from thy gracious eye:
 Speak the reconciling word,
 And let thy mercy melt me down;
 Turn, and look upon me, Lord,
 And break my heart of stone.
- 4 Clothe me with thy holiness,
 Thy meek humility;
 Put on me thy glorious dress—
 Endue my soul with thee:
 Let thine image be restored,
 Thy name and nature let me prove;
 Fill me with thy fullness, Lord,
 And perfect me in love.

Charles Wesley.

591

- 1 JESUS, Friend of sinners, hear
 Yet once again, I pray;
 From my debt of sin set clear,
 For I have naught to pay:
 Speak, O speak the kind release,
 A poor backsliding soul restore;
 Love me freely, seal my peace,
 And bid me sin no more.
- 2 For my selfishness and pride
 Thou hast withdrawn thy grace;
 Left me long to wander wide,
 An outcast from thy face;
 But I now my sins confess,
 And mercy, mercy, I implore;
 Love me freely, seal my peace,
 And bid me sin no more.
- 3 Sin's deceitfulness hath spread
 A hardness o'er my heart;
 But if thou thy Spirit shed,
 The stony shall depart:
 Shed thy love, thy tenderness,
 And let me feel thy softening power;
 Love me freely, seal my peace,
 And bid me sin no more.

1. Be-hold the Chris-tian war-rior stand In all the ar-mor of his God;
The Spir-it's sword is in his hand, His feet are with the Gos-pel shod.

212, 54, 624.

- 2 In panoply of truth complete,
Salvation's helmet on his head;
With righteousness a breast-plate meet,
And faith's broad shield before him spread,
3 Undaunted to the field he goes;
Yet vain were skill and valor there,
Unless, to foil his legion foes,
He-takes the trustiest weapon, prayer.
4 Thus, strong in his Redeemer's strength,
Sin, death, and hell, he tramples down;
Fights the good fight, and wins at length,
Through mercy, an immortal crown.

James Montgomery.

- 1 STAND up, my soul! shake off thy fears,
And gird the gospel armor on;
Awake and run the heavenly race;
Let every trembling thought be gone.
2 True, 't is a strait and thorny road,
And mortal spirits tire and faint;
But they forget the mighty God,
Who is the strength of every saint,—
3 The mighty God, whose matchless power
Is ever new and ever young,
And firm endures, while endless years
Their everlasting circles run.

Isaac Watts.

594

19, 538, 875.

- 1 AWAKE, my soul! lift up thine eyes;
See where thy foes against thee rise,
In long array, a numerous host;
Awake, my soul! or thou art lost.

- 2 See where rebellious passions rage,
And fierce desires and lusts engage;
The meanest foe of all the train
Has thousands and ten thousands slain.

- 3 Thou treadest on enchanted ground;
Perils and snares beset thee round;
Beware of all, guard every part—
But most the traitor in thy heart.

- 4 The terror and the charm repel,
The powers of earth, and powers of hell;
The Man of Calvary triumphed here;
Why should his faithful followers fear?

- 5 Come then, my soul! now learn to wield
The weight of thine immortal shield;
Put on the armor, from above,
Of heavenly truth and heavenly love.

Anna L. Barbauld.

- 1 O ARMY of the living God,
Why sink your souls desponding down?
Why tremble at the oppressor's rod?
Why cower beneath the spoiler's frown?
2 O soldiers in the war-worn host,
Go forth in courage and in faith:
In Christ, your Captain, ye may boast;
He rules the world and conquers death.
3 Go forth, and mingle in the strife
Which God commands, which Christ approves;
Go struggle for eternal life,
And all the joys the Christian loves.

1. What poor, de - spis - ed com - pa - ny Of trav - el - ers are these, Who walk in yonder narrow way, A-long the rugged maze? A-long the rug-ged maze?

395, 724, 446.

- 2 Ah! these are of a royal line,
All children of a King,
Heirs of immortal crowns divine;
And lo! for joy they sing.
- 3 Why do they, then, appear so mean,
And why so much despised?
Because of their rich robes unseen
The world is not appraised.
- 4 But why keep they that narrow road—
That rugged, thorny maze?

Why, that's the way their Leader trod,
They love and keep his ways.

- 5 Why do they shun the pleasing path
That worldlings love so well?
Because that is the road to death,
The open road to hell.
- 6 What! is there then no other road
To Salem's happy ground?
Christ is the only way to God,
No other can be found.

1869 HYMN 120 400

I'M GOING HOME. L. M. P.

WILLIAM McDONALD.

1. { My heavenly home is bright and fair; Nor pain, nor death can en-ter there; }
{ Its glittering towers the sun out-shine; That heavenly man-sion shall be mine. }

Chorus.

{ I'm go-ing home, I'm go-ing home, I'm go-ing home to die no more; }
{ To die no more, to die no more, I'm go-ing home to die no more. }

- 2 My Father's house is built on high,
Far, far above the starry sky;
When from this earthly prison free,
That heavenly mansion mine shall be.

- 3 While here a stranger, far from home,
Affliction's waves may round me foam;
And though, like Lazarus, sick and poor,
My heavenly mansion is secure.

A heaven - ly race de - mands thy zeal, And an im - mor - tal crown.

794, 354, 369.

2 'Tis God's all-animating voice,
That calls thee from on high;
'Tis he whose hand presents the prize
To thine aspiring eye.

3 A cloud of witnesses around .
Hold thee in full survey;
Forget the steps already trod,
And onward urge thy way.

4 Blest Saviour, introduced by thee,
Our race have we begun;
And, crowned with victory, at thy feet
We'll lay our trophies down.

Philip Doddridge.

599

794, 369, 446.

1 AM I a soldier of the cross,
A follower of the Lamb?
And shall I fear to own his cause?
Or blush to speak his name?

2 Must I be carried to the skies
On flowery beds of ease,
Whilst others fought to win the prize,
And sailed through bloody seas?

3 Are there no foes for me to face?
Must I not stem the flood?
Is this vile world a friend of grace,
To help me on to God?

4 Sure I must fight if I would reign;
Increase my courage, Lord;
I'll bear the toil, endure the pain,
Supported by thy word.

5 Thy saints in all this glorious war
Shall conquer, though they die;
They see the triumph from afar,
With faith's discerning eye.

6 When that illustrious day shall rise,
And all thy armies shine
In robes of victory through the skies,
The glory shall be thine.

Isaac Watts.

600

399, 179, 644.

1 O, it is hard to work for God,
To rise and take his part
Upon this battle-field of earth,
And not sometimes lose heart!

2 He hides himself so wondrously,
As though there were no God;
He is least seen when all the powers
Of ill are most abroad;

3 Or he deserts us in the hour
The fight is all but lost,
And seems to leave us to ourselves
Just when we need him most.

4 It is not so, but so it looks;
And we lose courage then;
And doubts will come though God hath kept.
His promises to men.

5 But right is right, since God is God;
And right the day must win;
To doubt would be disloyalty,
To falter would be sin!

Frederick W. Faber.

558, 236, 266.

- 2 O watch, and fight, and pray !
The battle ne'er give o'er ;
Renew it boldly every day,
And help divine implore.
- 3 Ne'er think the victory won,
Nor lay thine armor down ;
Thy arduous task will not be done
Till thou obtain the crown.

George Heath.

602

810, 558, 732.

- 1 SOLDIERS of Christ, arise,
And put your armor on ;
Fight, for the battle will be ours ;
We fight to win a crown.
- 2 We fight not against flesh,
We wrestle not with blood ;
But principalities and powers,
And for the truth of God ;
- 3 With wicked spirits, too,
That in high places stand,
Perverting oft the word of God,
And say 't is by command.
- 4 Put all the armor on,
Like valiant soldiers stand ;
Let all your loins be girt with truth,
Waiting our Lord's command.
- 5 While Jesus is our friend,
And his rich grace supplies,
We'll march like valiant soldiers on ;
We're sure to win the prize.
- 6 The battle's almost o'er ;
The race is nearly run ;
Then with our glorious, conquering King
We'll sit down on his throne.

Charles Wesley.

603

810, 558, 384.

- 1 EQUIP me for the war,
And teach my hands to fight ;
My simple, upright heart prepare,
And guide my words aright.
- 2 Control my every thought ;
My whole of sin remove ;
Let all my works in thee be wrought,
Let all be wrought in love.
- 3 O arm me with the mind,
Meek Lamb, that was in thee !
And let my knowing zeal be joined
With perfect charity.
- 4 With calm and tempered zeal
Let me enforce thy call ;
And vindicate thy gracious will,
Which offers life to all.
- 5 O may I learn the art,
With meekness to reprove !
To hate the sin with all my heart,
But still the sinner love.

Charles Wesley.

604

558, 11, 89.

- 1 MY soul, weigh not thy life
Against thy heavenly crown ;
Nor suffer Satan's deadliest strife
To beat thy courage down.
- 2 With prayer and crying strong,
Hold on the fearful fight,
And let the breaking day prolong
The wrestling of the night.
- 3 The battle soon will yield,
If thou thy part fulfill ;
For strong as is the hostile shield,
Thy sword is stronger still.
- 4 Thine armor is divine,
Thy feet with victory shod,
And on thy head shall quickly shine
The diadem of God.

Satan would thy soul engage;
Gird on Faith's anointed shield,
Bear it to the battle-field.
- 3 Faint not, Christian! though the world
Has its hostile flag unfurled;
Hold the cross of Jesus fast;
Thou shalt overcome at last.

Like the foes we have within;
Yet let nothing spoil your peace,
Christ will also conquer these;
Then the joyful news will come,
"Child, your Father calls; come home."

Joseph Swain.

When the wily tempter's near,
Filling us with doubt and fear,—
Jesus, to thy cross we flee;
Jesus, we will look to thee.

- 2 Thou, our Saviour, from the throne,
List'nest to thy people's moan;
Thou, the living Head, dost share
Every pang thy members bear.
Full of tenderness thou art;
Thou wilt heal the broken heart;
Full of power, thine arm shall quell
All the rage and might of hell.
- 3 Mighty to redeem and save,
Thou hast overcome the grave;
Thou the bars of death hast riven,
Opened wide the gates of heaven.
Soon in glory thou shalt come,
Taking thy poor pilgrims home;
Jesus, then we all shall be,
Ever, ever, Lord, with thee.

MENDEBRAS. 7s & 6s. D. GERMAN, ARR. BY LOWELL MASON.

1. { Stand up! stand up for Je-sus! Ye soldiers of the cross; }
 { Lift high his roy-al ban-ner, It must not suf-fer loss: } From vic-t'ry un-to vic't'ry,

His arm-y shall he lead, Till ev-ery foe is vanquished, And Christ is Lord in-deed.

833, 246.

2 Stand up! stand up for Jesus!
 The trumpet-call obey;
 Forth to the mighty conflict,
 In this his glorious day:
 Ye that are men, now serve him,
 Against unnumbered foes;
 Let courage rise with danger,
 And strength to strength oppose.

3 Stand up! stand up for Jesus!
 Stand in his strength alone;
 The arm of flesh will fail you;
 Ye dare not trust your own:
 Put on the gospel armor,
 And, watching unto prayer,
 Where duty calls, or danger,
 Be never wanting there.

4 Stand up! stand up for Jesus!
 The strife will not be long;
 This day the noise of battle,
 The next the victor's song:
 To him that overcometh,
 A crown of life shall be;
 He with the King of Glory
 Shall reign eternally.

George Duffield.

Though hosts encamp around me,
 Firm in the fight I stand;
 What terror can confound me,
 With God at my right hand?

2 Place on the Lord reliance;
 My soul, with courage wait;
 His truth be thine affiance,
 When faint and desolate:
 His might thy heart shall strengthen,
 His love thy joy increase;
 Mercy thy day shall lengthen;
 The Lord will give thee peace!

James Montgomery.

833, 415.

1 Go forward, Christian soldier,
 Beneath his banner true:
 The Lord himself, thy Leader,
 Shall all thy foes subdue.
 His love foretells thy trials,
 He knows thy hourly need;
 He can, with bread of heaven,
 Thy fainting spirit feed.

2 Go forward, Christian soldier,
 Nor dream of peaceful rest,
 Till Satan's host is vanquished,
 And heaven at last possessed;
 Till Christ himself shall call thee
 To lay thine armor by,
 And wear in endless glory,
 The crown of victory.

Laurence Tuttielt.

1 GOD is my strong salvation;
 What foe have I to fear?
 In darkness and temptation,
 My Help, my Help is near:

CALEDONIA. 7s & 5. d.

SCOTCH.

1. Soldiers of the cross, arise! Lo! your Leader from the skies Waves before you glory's prize,—Prize of vic-to - ry.

Seize your ar-mor, gird it on; Soon the battle will be won; See! the strife is almost done; Struggle manful - ly.

2 Now the fight of faith begin,
Be no more the slaves of sin,
Strive the victor's palm to win,
Trusting in the Lord:
Gird ye on the armor bright,
Warriors of the King of light,
Never yield, nor lose by flight
Your divine reward.

3 Jesus conquered when he fell,
Met and vanquished sin and hell;
Now he bids his followers tell
Triumphs of his cross.

Though the evil hosts appear,
Who can doubt, or who can fear?
God, our strength and shield, is near;
Can we suffer loss?

4 Onward, then, ye hosts of God!
Jesus points the victor's rod;
Follow where your Leader trod;
Soon you'll see his face.
Soon, your enemies all slain,
Crowns of glory you shall gain,
Soon you'll join that glorious train
Shouting Jesus' praise.

CAPETOWN. 7s & 5.

FILITZ.

1. Christian, seek not yet repose, Cast thy dreams of ease away; Thou art in the midst of foes; Therefore watch and pray.

2 Gird thy heavenly armor on,
Wear it ever, night and day;
Near thee lurks the evil one;
Therefore watch and pray.

3 Listen to thy sorrowing Lord,
Him thou lovest to obey;
It is he who speaks the word;
Therefore watch and pray.

4 'T was by watching and by prayer
Holy men of olden day
Won the palms and crowns they'll wear;
Therefore watch and pray.

5 Watch, for thou thy guard must keep;
Pray, for God must speed thy way;
Narrow is the road and steep;
Therefore watch and pray.

I'M A TRAVELER. 7s & 4s. D.

N. BILLINGS.

1. I'm a lone - ly traveler here, Wea - ry, oppressed; But my journey's end is near, Soon I shall rest.
Dark and drear - y is the way, Toil-ing I've come; Ask me not with you to stay, Yon - der's my home.

2 I'm a traveler to a land
Where all is fair;
Where is seen no broken band—
All, all are there;
Where no tear shall ever fall,
Nor heart be sad;
Where the glory is for all,
And all are glad.

3 I'm a traveler—call me not—
Upward's my way;
Yonder is my rest and lot,
I cannot stay.
Farewell, earthly pleasures all,
Pilgrim I'll roam;
Hail me not—in vain you call—
Yonder's my home.

1. Breast the wave, Chris-tian, when it is strongest; Watch for day, Christian, when night is longest;
Onward and upward still be thine on-dear-or; The rest that re-main-eth en - dur-eth for - ev - er.

2 Fight the fight, Christian, Jesus is o'er thee;
Run the race, Christian, heaven is before thee;
He who hath promised will falter, no, never;
O trust in the love that endureth forever.

3 Lift the eye, Christian, just as it closeth;
Raise the heart, Christian, ere it reposeseth:
Nothing thy soul from the Saviour can sever;
And soon shalt thou see him and praise him forever.

Joseph Stammers.

For I look forward to that glorious day When sin and sorrow will van-ish a - way.

D. C.

- 2 Here fierce temptations beset me around;
 Here is no rest, is no rest;
 Here I am grieved while my foes me surround;
 Yet I am blest, I am blest.
 Let them revile me, and scoff at my name,
 Laugh at my weeping—endeavor to shame;
 I will go forward, for this is my theme,
 There, there is rest, there is rest.
- 3 Here are afflictions and trials severe;
 Here is no rest, is no rest;
 Here I must part with the friends I hold dear;
 Yet I am blest, I am blest.
 Sweet is the promise I read in his word,—
 Blessed are they who have died in the Lord;
 They will be called to receive their reward;
 Then there is rest, there is rest.
- 4 This world of cares is a wilderness state,
 Here is no rest, is no rest;
 Here I must bear from the world all its hate,
 Yet I am blest, I am blest.
 Soon shall I be from the wicked released,
 Soon shall the weary forever be blest,
 Soon shall I lean upon Jesus' breast;
 Then there is rest, there is rest.

[Tune, Triumph. No. 620.]

10s. P.

- 1 JOYFULLY, joyfully, onward I move,
 Bound for the land of bright glory above;
 Angelic choristers sing as I come,
 "Joyfully, joyfully, haste to thy home."
 Soon shall I pass from this dark vale of woe,
 Home to the land of the righteous I'll go;
 Pilgrim and stranger, no more shall I roam,
 Joyfully, joyfully, resting at home.
- 2 Friends fondly cherished, now sleep in the ground,
 But they'll awake when the last trump shall sound,
 Loosed from death's fetters, and upward we'll soar,
 Joyfully meeting to part nevermore.
 Sounds of sweet melody fall on the ear;
 Harps of the blessed, your voices I'll hear
 Filling with harmony heaven's high dome,
 "Joyfully, joyfully, haste to thy home."
- 3 Death with his weapons of war has laid low
 Many a pilgrim who feared not the blow;
 Jesus has broken the bars of the tomb;
 Joyfully, joyfully, will they come home.
 Bright will the morn of eternity dawn,
 Death shall be banished, his scepter be gone;
 Joyfully, then, shall I witness his doom,
 Joyfully, joyfully, safely at home.

Anon.

crowns that we hope soon to wear, Blessed the rest; O we long to be there.

2 There is the city in splendor sublime ;
 O, how its turrets and battlements shine !
 Pearls are its portals, surpassingly bright,
 Jasper its walls, and the Lamb is its light.
 Pathways of gold that blest city adorn,
 Glittering with glory far brighter than morn ;
 Angels stand beck'ning us onward to share
 Glory unfading ; we long to be there.

3 Rivers are gliding 'mid unfading trees,
 Songs of the ransomed are borne on the breeze ;
 Glory-gilt mountains resplendent are seen,
 Valleys and hills clad in Eden-like green ;
 There shall the glory of God ever be,
 Filling the earth as the waves fill the sea ;
 There shall the ransomed, immortal and fair,
 Evermore dwell ; O, we long to be there.

Anon.

621

1 THROUGH this dark valley of conflict and sin,
 Trials without and temptations within,
 Onward to glory, still urge thy lone way,
 Joyful in hope of the long-promised day.

In every danger thou hast a sure Guide,
 To every cloud there is yet a bright side ;
 Falter then not at the sternest behest,
 Ever remember—'tis all for the best.

2 Just as the eagle, in teaching to fly,
 Forceth her young from their covert so high ;
 Then if strength faileth, beneath them
 she flies,

On her wings beareth them safe to the
 skies ;

So will the arm of Jehovah uphold :
 In each affliction his mercies unfold ;
 Murmur then not that he stirreth thy nest,
 Ever remember—'tis all for the best.

3 Never of Providence dare to complain ;
 Sunshine and storm both must ripen the grain ;

Tried is the gold that the purest will shine,
 Crushed is the vintage that yieldeth the wine.

He who the end from beginning can tell,
 Works for thy good, for he doeth all well :
 This, that prepares for the mansions of rest,

Ever remember— is all for the best.

COURAGE. 8s & 6s. D.

ALFRED BOYNTON.

1. Cheer up, ye soldiers of the cross; The mo-ment soon will come When you shall lay your ar - mor off, And reach your bliss-ful home. The pearl-y gates will wide un- fold

Before our conquering King, And entering hosts, with harps of gold, Triumphantly shall sing.

- 2 What though the warfare be severe,
And enemies be strong;
And painful watchings, dark and drear,
The tedious night prolong;
Our Captain passed this way before,
And felt each cruel sting:
Courage! the strife will soon be o'er,
And then with joy we'll sing.
- 3 Many a soldier in this strife,
Has nobly bled and died,
Counting it joy to give his life
For Him once crucified.
And when our Captain comes again,
Those from the dead he'll bring;
And they with us, and we with them,
Triumphantly will sing.
- 4 O, 't will be joy, but to behold
That glad immortal throng
Enter and walk the streets of gold,
And sing the victor's song!

To see that host and hear that song,
Must joy ecstatic bring;
But those who will may join that throng,
With them you too may sing.

R. E. Cottrell,

- 1 As through this changing world we roam,
From infancy to age,
Heaven is the Christian pilgrim's home,
His rest at every stage;
Thither his raptured thoughts ascend,
Eternal joys to share;
There his adoring spirit bends,
While here he kneels in prayer.
- 2 From earth his freed affections rise
To fix on things above,
Where all his hope of glory lies,
And love is perfect love;
Ah! there may we our treasure place,
There let our hearts be found,
That still where sin abounded, grace
May more and more abound.

James Montgomery.

UXBRIDGE. L. M.

LOWELL MASON:

1. One precious boon, O Lord, I seek, While tossed up - on life's billowy sea;

To hear a voice with-in me speak, "Thy Sav - iour is well pleased with thee."

514, 47, 347.

2 Earth's scoffs and scorn well pleased I'll bear,
Nor mourn though under foot I'm trod,
If day by day I may but share
Thine approbation, O my God!

3 The friends I love may turn from me,
Their words unkind may pierce me
through;
But this my daily prayer shall be,
"Forgive; they know not what they do."

4 Let me but know, where'er I roam,
That I am doing Jesus' will;
And though I've neither friends nor home,
My heart shall glow with gladness still.

5 To that bright, blest, immortal morn,
By holy prophets long foretold,
My eager, longing eyes I turn,
And soon its glories shall behold.

6 Then all the scoffs and scorn I've borne
For His dear sake who died for me,
To everlasting joys will turn,
In glorious immortality;

Charles Fitch.

1 SHALL I, for fear of feeble man,
The Spirit's course in me restrain?
Or, undismayed in deed and word,
Be a true witness of my Lord?

2 Awed by a mortal's frown, shall I
Conceal the word of God most high?
How then before thee shall I dare
To stand, or how thine anger bear?

3 Shall I, to soothe the unholy throng,
Soften thy truth, or smooth my tongue
To gain earth's gilded toys, or flee
The cross endured, my Lord, by thee?

4 What, then, is he whose scorn I dread?
Whose wrath or hate makes me afraid?
A man! an heir of death! a slave
To sin! a bubble on the wave!

5 Yes, let men rage; since thou wilt spread
Thy shadowing wings around my head;
Since in all pain thy tender love
Will still my sure refreshment prove.

Johann F. Winkler.

626

532, 101, 336.

1 O LORD, thy heavenly grace impart,
And fix my frail, inconstant heart;
Henceforth my chief desire shall be
To dedicate myself to thee.

2 Whate'er pursuits my time employ,
One thought shall fill my soul with joy;
That silent, secret thought shall be
That all my thoughts are fixed on thee.

3 Thy glorious eye pervadeth space;
Thy presence, Lord, fills every place;
And wheresoe'er my lot may be,
Still shall my spirit rest with thee.

4 Renouncing every worldly thing,
And safe beneath thy spreading wing,
My sweetest thoughts henceforth shall be,
That all I want I find in thee.

CHESTER G. ALLEN.

1. My gra-cious Lord, I own thy right To ev-ery serv-ice I can pay,

And call it my su-preme de-light To hear thy dic-tates, and o-bey.

212, 301, 316.

2 What is my being but for thee,—
Its sure support, its noblest end?
'T is my delight thy face to see,
And serve the cause of such a Friend.

3 I would not sigh for worldly joy,
Or to increase my worldly good;
Nor future days nor powers employ
To spread a sounding name abroad.

4 'T is to my Saviour I would live,—
To him who for my ransom died;
Nor could all worldly honor give
Such bliss as crowns me at his side.

5 His work my hoary age shall bless
When youthful vigor is no more;
And my last hour of life confess
His saving love, his glorious power.
Philip Doddridge.

628

787, 932, 104.

1 So let our lips and lives express
The holy gospel we profess;
So let our works and virtues shine,
To prove the doctrine all divine.

2 Thus shall we best proclaim abroad
The honors of our gracious Lord,
When his salvation reigns within,
And grace subdues the power of sin.

3 Our flesh and sense must be denied,
Passion and envy, lust and pride;
While justice, temperance, truth, and love,
Our inward piety approve.

4 Religion bears our spirits up,
While we expect that blessed hope,
The bright appearing of the Lord;
And Faithstands leaning on his word.
Isaac Watts.

624, 538, 875.

1 AND is the gospel peace and love?
Such let our conversation be;
The serpent blended with the dove—
Wisdom and meek simplicity.

2 Whene'er the angry passions rise,
And tempt our thoughts and tongues
to strife;
To Jesus let us lift our eyes,
Bright Pattern of the Christian life.

3 Dispensing good where'er he came,
The labors of his life were love;
Then if we bear the Saviour's name,
By his example let us move.

4 O, how benevolent and kind!
How mild—how ready to forgive!
Be this the temper of our mind,
And these the rules by which we live.
Anon.

1 WHAT! never speak one evil word,
Or rash, or idle, or unkind?
O, how shall I, most gracious Lord,
This mark of true perfection find?

2 Thy sinless mind in me reveal;
Thy Spirit's plenitude impart;
And all my spotless life shall tell
That thou hast purified my heart.
Charles Wesley.

1. Je-sus, my Saviour, let me be More perfect-ly conformed to thee; Implant each grace, each sin dethrone, And form my temper like thine own, And form my tem- per like thine own.

876, 431, 316.

- 2 My foe, when hungry, let me feed,
Share in his grief, supply his need;
The haughty frown may I not fear,
But with a lowly meekness bear.
- 3 Let the envenomed heart and tongue,
The hand outstretched to do me wrong,
Excite no feelings in my breast,
But such as Jesus oft expressed.
- 4 To others let me always give
What I from others would receive.
Nor, when provoked, with anger burn,
Nor evil word or act return.
- 5 This will proclaim how bright and fair
The precepts of the gospel are,
And God himself, the God of love,
His own resemblance will approve.

Benjamin Beadome.

223, 431, 23.

- 1 WEANED from this earth I fain would be,
Of sin, of self, of all but Thee;
Reserved for Christ who bled and died,
Surrendered to the Crucified.
- 2 Securely hid from sin and strife,
The lust, the pomp, the pride of life;
Prepared for heaven; my noblest care
To have my conversation there.
- 3 Nothing save Jesus would I know;
My friend, and my companion, thou;
Constrain my soul thy way to own;
Self-will, self-righteousness dethrone.

Anon.

633

614, 638, 932.

- 1 LET me but hear my Saviour say,
Strength shall be equal to thy day,
Then I rejoice in deep distress,
Upheld by all-sufficient grace.
- 2 I can do all things, or can bear
All suffering, if my Lord be there;
Sweet pleasures mingle with the pains,
While he my sinking head sustains.
- 3 I glory in infirmity,
That Christ's own power may rest on me;
When I am weak, then am I strong:
Grace is my shield, and Christ my song.

Isaac Watts.

- 1 WHEN Jesus dwelt in mortal clay,
What were his works, from day to day,
But miracles of power and grace
That spread salvation through our race?
- 2 Teach us, O Lord, to keep in view
Thy pattern, and thy steps pursue;
Let alms bestowed, let kindness done,
Be witnessed by each rolling sun.
- 3 That man may last, but never lives,
Who much receives, but nothing gives;
Whom none can love, whom none can thank,
Creation's blot, creation's blank!
- 4 But he who marks, from day to day,
In generous acts his radiant way,
Treads the same path his Saviour trod,
The path to glory and to God.

179, 581, 724.

- 2 Walk in the light! and thou shalt own
Thy darkness passed away;
Because that light on thee hath shone
In which is perfect day.
- 3 Walk in the light! and e'en the tomb
No fearful shade shall wear;
Glory shall chase away its gloom,
For Christ hath conquered there.
- 4 Walk in the light! and thine shall be
A path, though thorny, bright;
For God, by grace, shall dwell in thee,
And God himself is light.

- 1 HEED not the tempter's siren voice,
A deep with dangers rife;
Mortal, thou hast a nobler choice—
Life, life, eternal life.
- 2 O, shun the world's bewitching snare,
Its fever, and its strife;
Mortal, thou hast a nobler share—
Life, life, eternal life.
- 3 Like Abram hast thou faith to bear
The sacrificial knife?
Then with the faithful thou shalt share
Life, life, eternal life.
- 4 For love of God canst thou lay down
Thy life 'mid hottest strife?
Then thou hast won a starry crown—
Life, life, eternal life.

Maintain the honor of his word,
The glory of his cross.
- 2 Jesus, my Lord, I know his name;
His name is all my trust;
Nor will he put my soul to shame,
Nor let my hope be lost.
- 3 Firm as his throne his promise stands,
And he can well secure
What I've committed to his hands
Till the decisive hour.
- 4 Then will he own my worthless name
Before his Father's face,
And in the New Jerusalem
Reserve for me a place.

Isaac Watts.

- 1 LET worldly minds the world pursue;
It has no charms for me:
Once I admired its trifles too,
But grace has set me free.
- 2 Its joys can now no longer please,
Nor e'en content afford:
Far from my heart be joys like these,
For I have seen the Lord.

- 2 Lord, I desire with thee to live
Anew from day to day,
In joys the world can never give,

Nor grieve thy love divine.

- 1 ARE vain desires within my heart?
Search, gracious God, and see;
Or do I act a haughty part?
Lord, I appeal to thee.
- 2 I charge my thoughts, be humble still,
And all my carriage mild,
Content, my Father, with thy will,

My heart the home shall be.

- 1 O SAVIOUR, may we never rest
Till thou art formed within;
Till thou hast calmed our troubled breast,
And crushed the power of sin!
- 2 O, may we gaze upon thy cross,
Until the wondrous sight
Makes earthly treasures seem but dross,
And earthly sorrows light!
- 3 Until, released from carnal ties,
Our spirit upward springs,
And sees, when earthly glory dies,
True joy in heavenly things.
- 4 There as we gaze may we become
United, Lord, to thee;
And in a fairer, happier home
Thy perfect beauty see.

And make me live to thee.
- 3 Let the sweet hope that thou art mine
My life and death attend;
Thy presence through my journey shine,
And crown my journey's end.

1. O blest are they who oft have said, "I thirst for right - eous-ness;

I hun-ger for the heaven-ly bread With an-guish and dis-tress."

724, 395, 546.

- 2 They of My fullness shall be fed,
For which they hungered sore ;
And there, by living waters led,
Their souls shall thirst no more.
- 3 Because I am the Truth, the Life,
All fullness dwells in me ;
They know no want, no sin, no strife,
Through all eternity.
- 4 How blessed, then, to share a part
With those that hunger here ;
To have the panting, thirsty heart,
And shed the bitter tear !
- 5 O give me, Lord, the grace to know
And feel my need of thee ;
To long for righteousness below
Till I thy fullness see.

A heart that's sprinkled with the blood
So freely shed for me !
- 2 A heart resigned, submissive, meek,
My dear Redeemer's throne ;
Where only Christ is heard to speak,
Where Jesus reigns alone !
- 3 A humble, lowly, contrite heart,
Believing, true, and clean,
Which neither life nor death can part
From Him that dwells within.

- 4 A heart in every thought renewed,
And filled with love divine !
Perfect, and right, and pure, and good,
A copy, Lord, of thine !
- 5 Thy nature, gracious Lord, impart,
Come quickly from above,
Write thy new name upon my heart,
Thy new, best name of love.

Charles Wesley.

- 1 LORD! when I all things would possess,
I crave but to be thine ;
O, lowly is the loftiness
Of these desires divine!
- 2 Each gift but helps my soul to learn
How boundless is thy store ;
I go from strength to strength, and yearn
For thee, my Helper, more.
- 3 How can my soul divinely soar,
How keep the shining way,
And not more tremblingly adore,
And not more humbly pray ?
- 4 The more I triumph in thy gifts,
The more I wait on thee,
The grace that mightily uplifts
Most sweetly humbleth me.
- 5 The heaven where I would stand complete
My lowly love shall see,
And stronger grow the yearning sweet,
My blessed Lord, for thee.

- 2 Lo, such the child whose early feet
The paths of peace have trod,
Whose secret heart, with influence sweet,
Is upward drawn to God.

We seek thy grace alone,
In childhood, manhood, age, and death,
To keep us still thine own.

Reginald Heber.

- 2 Yes, let it go; one look from thee
Will more than make amends
For all the losses I sustain
Of honor, riches, friends.
- 3 Ten thousand worlds, ten thousand lives,
How worthless they appear
Compared with thee, supremely good,
Divinely bright and fair!

- 4 Saviour of souls, could I from thee
A single smile obtain,
The loss of all things I could bear,
And glory in my gain.

When infants learn to lisp his name,
And their Redeemer love.

- 1 How vain are all things here below!
How false, and yet how fair!
Each pleasure hath its poison too,
And every sweet a snare.
- 2 The brightest things below the sky
Give but a flattering light;
We should suspect some danger nigh
Where we possess delight.
- 3 Our dearest joys, and nearest friends,
The partners of our blood,—
How they divide our wavering minds,
And leave but half for God!

89, 236, 384.

- 2 I want a sober mind,
A self-renouncing will,
That tramples down and casts behind
The baits of pleasing ill;
- 3 A soul inured to pain,
To hardship, grief, and loss;
Bold to take up, firm to sustain
The consecrated cross.
- 4 I want a godly fear,
A quick, discerning eye,
That looks to thee when sin is near,
And sees the tempter fly;
- 5 A spirit still prepared,
And armed with jealous care,
Forever standing on its guard,
And watching unto prayer.

Charles Wesley.

The watching power impart,
From all entanglements beneath
Call off my peaceful heart.
- 2 My feeble mind sustain,
By worldly thoughts oppressed;
Appear, and bid me turn again
To my eternal rest.
- 3 Swift to my rescue come,
Thine own this moment seize;
Gather my wandering spirit home,
And keep in perfect peace:

- 4 Suffer no more to rove
O'er all the earth abroad,
Arrest the prisoner of thy love,
And shut me up in God.

- 1 BLESSED are the pure in heart;
For they our God shall see,
And from his presence ne'er depart
Through all eternity.
- 2 I will be their delight
Who here delight in me,
And they shall walk with me in white
Who seek for purity.
- 3 No more in thought they err,
They're free from every stain;
They've washed their robes of character,
And spotless they remain.
- 4 O bliss for which we've sought—
From sin to be secure!
In every word, and act, and thought,
Forever to be pure.

1. Near-er, my God, to thee, Nearer to thee! E'en though it be a cross That raiseth me!

Still all my song shall be, Nearer, my God, to thee, Nearer, my God, to thee, Near-er to thee.

By per. C. Dixon & Co.

- 2 Though like a wanderer,
Daylight all gone,
Darkness be over me,
My rest a stone;
Yet in my dreams I'd be
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee.
- 3 There let the way appear,
Steps up to heaven;
All that thou sendest me,
In mercy given;
Angels to beckon me
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee.
- 4 Then, with my waking thoughts
Bright with thy praise,
Out of my stony griefs
Bethel I'll raise;
So by my woes to be
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee.
- 5 Or if, on joyful wing
Cleaving the sky,
Sun, moon, and stars forgot,
Upward I fly,
Still all my song shall be,
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee!

- 1 FADE, fade, each earthly joy;
Jesus is mine;
Break, every tender tie;
Jesus is mine.
Dark is the wilderness;
Earth has no resting-place;
Jesus alone can bless;
Jesus is mine.
- 2 Tempt not my soul away;
Jesus is mine;
Here would I ever stay;
Jesus is mine.
Perishing things of clay,
Born but for one brief day,
Pass from my heart away;
Jesus is mine.
- 3 Farewell, ye dreams of night;
Jesus is mine;
Lost in this dawning bright,
Jesus is mine.
All that my soul has tried
Left but a dismal void;
Jesus has satisfied;
Jesus is mine.
- 4 Farewell, mortality;
Jesus is mine;
Hail! immortality;
Jesus is mine.
Welcome, O loved and blest!
Welcome, sweet scenes of rest;
Welcome, my Saviour's breast;
Jesus is mine!

234, 622, 320.

- 2 Should I, to gain the world's applause,
Or to escape its sharpest frown,
Refuse to countenance thy cause,
And make thy people's lot my own,
What shame would fill me in that day
When thou thy glory shalt display!
- 3 And what is man, or what his smile?
The terror of his anger what?
Like grass he flourishes awhile,

- But soon his place shall know him not;
Through fear of such an one, shall I
The Lord of heaven and earth deny?
4 No; let the world cast out my name,
And vile account me, if it will;
If to confess the Lord be shame,
I purpose to be viler still:
For thee, my God, I all resign,
Content, if I can call thee mine.

With serious industry and fear
Eternal bliss t' insure—

And suffer all thy righteous will,
And to the end endure.

2 And one I saw, with sword and shield,
 Who boldly braved the world's cold
 frown,
 And fought, unyielding, on the field,
 To win an everlasting crown.
 Though worn with toil, oppressed by foes,
 No murmur from his heart arose:
 I asked what buoyed his spirits up,
 "O this!" said he—"the blessed hope."

3 And there was one who left behind
 The cherished friends of early years,
 And honor, pleasure, wealth resigned,
 To tread the path bedewed with tears.
 Through trials deep and conflicts sore,
 Yet still a smile of joy he wore:
 I asked what buoyed his spirits up,
 "O this!" said he—"the blessed hope."

4 While pilgrims here we journey on
 In this dark vale of sin and gloom,
 Through tribulation, hate, and scorn,
 Or through the portals of the tomb,
 Till our returning King shall come
 To take his exile captives home,
 O! what can buoy the spirits up?
 'Tis this alone—the blessed hope.

1 AWAY, my unbelieving fear!
 Fear shall in me no more have place:
 My Saviour doth not yet appear,
 He hides the brightness of his face;
 But shall I therefore let him go,
 And basely to the tempter yield?
 No, in the strength of Jesus, no;
 I never will give up my shield.

2 Although the vine its fruit deny,
 Although the olive yield no oil,
 The withering fig-trees droop and die,
 The fields elude the tiller's toil,
 The empty stall no herd afford,
 And perish all the bleating race;
 Yet I will triumph in the Lord,
 The God of my salvation praise.

3 Barren although my soul remain,
 And not one bud of grace appear,
 No fruit of all my toil and pain,
 But sin and only sin is here;
 Although my gifts and comforts lost,
 My blooming hopes cut off I see,
 Yet will I in my Saviour trust,
 And glory that he died for me.

1. O who, in such a world as this, Could bear his lot of pain,

Did not one ra-diant hope of bliss Un-cloud-ed yet re-main?

399, 114, 943.

2 That hope the sovereign Lord has given
Who reigns above the skies;
Hope that unites the soul to heaven
By faith's endearing ties.

3 Each care, each ill of mortal birth,
Is sent in pitying love,
To lift the lingering heart from earth,
And speed its flight above.

4 And every pang that wrings the breast,
And every joy that dies,
Bids us to seek a purer rest,
And trust to holier ties.

1 HAPPY the heart where graces reign,
Where love inspires the breast:
Love is the brightest of the train,
And strengthens all the rest.

2 Knowledge—alas! 'tis all in vain,
And all in vain our fear;
Our stubborn sins will fight and reign,
If love be absent there.

3 This is the grace that lives and sings
When faith and hope shall cease;
'Tis this shall strike our joyful strings
In the sweet realms of bliss.

4 Before we quite forsake our clay,
Or leave this dark abode,
The wings of love bear us away,
To see our smiling God.

Isaac Watts.

And cry for strength and light.

3 Lord, I believe; but oft, I know,
My faith is cold and weak:

And saves us from its snares;

1. { Come, O thou Trav-el-er unknown, Whom still I hold, but can-not see; }
 { My com-pa-ny be-fore is gone, And I am left a-lonewith thee; }

With thee all night I mean to stay, And wrestle till the break of day.

320, 234.

- 2 I need not tell thee who I am;
 My sin and misery declare;
 Thyself hast called me by my name,
 Look on thy hands, and read it there:
 But who, I ask thee, who art thou?
 Tell me thy name, and tell me now.

- 3 In vain thou strugglest to get free;
 I never will unloose my hold;
 Art thou the Man that died for me?
 The secret of thy love unfold;
 Wrestling, I will not let thee go,
 Till I thy name, thy nature know.

Charles Wesley.

{ Now hear me while I pray, }
 { Take all my guilt a - way, } O, let me from this day Be whol - ly thine!

165, 127.

2 May thy rich grace impart
 Strength to my fainting heart,
 My zeal inspire;
 As thou hast diéd for me,
 O, may my love to thee,
 Pure, warm, and changeless be,—
 A living fire!

3 While life's dark maze I tread,

 Bid darkness turn to day,
 Wipe sorrow's tears away,
 Nor let me ever stray
 From thee aside.

1. Though I speak with an - gel tongues Brav - est words of strength and fire,
D. C.—All the el - o - quence shall pass As the noise of sound - ing brass.

D. C.
 They are but as i - dle songs If no love my heart in - spire;

244, 768.

2 Though I lavish all I have,
 On the poor in charity,
 Though I shrink not from the grave,
 Or unmoved the stake can see,—
 Till by love the work be crowned,
 All shall profitless be found.

3 Come, thou Spirit of pure love,
 Who didst forth from God proceed,
 Never from my heart remove;
 Let me all thy impulse heed,
 Let my heart henceforward be
 Moved, controlled, inspired by thee.

1. { Though we could speak with an-gel tongues, Or with pro-phet-ic skill } And { Sur-vey the fu-ture at a glance (omit.) } read e-vents at will; Had we a faith in God so strong As mount-ains to remove, Yet all were fruit-less, all in vain, If not in-spired by love.

83, 291.

- 2 And though our goods to feed the poor
 Our liberal hands bestow,
 Or yield our bodies to the flames
 Our ardent zeal to show;
 Our deeds, though like the noon-day sun,
 Of no avail would prove,
 No sacrifice a merit claims
 That is not crowned by love.
- 3 Love suffers long and envies not,
 Endures, forbears, believes,
 All things it hopes, all things forgives,
 It trusts but ne'er deceives;
 And now abide to every soul
 These graces from above,—
 Faith, hope, and love,—immortal three,—
 But chief of all is love.

Anon.

179, 399, 227.

- 1 SPEAK gently; it is better far
 To rule by love than fear:
 Speak gently; let no harsh word mar
 The good we may do here.

- 2 Speak gently to the young; for they
 Will have enough to bear;
 Pass through this life as best they may,
 'Tis full of anxious care.
- 3 Speak gently to the aged one,
 Grieve not the careworn heart;
 The sands of life are nearly run,
 Let them in peace depart.
- 4 Speak gently to the erring ones;
 They must have toiled in vain;
 Perchance unkindness made them so:
 O, win them back again!
- 5 Speak gently; 't is a little thing,
 Dropped in the heart's deep well;
 The good, the joy, that it may bring,
 Eternity shall tell.
- 6 'Tis ours to sow the kindly seed,
 'Tis His to bid it grow;
 Our every word and every deed
 The harvest time will show.

Bates.

Than all the joy - less mock - er - y The world es - teems de - light.

732, 558, 810.

- 2 There is a lovely star
That lights the darkest gloom,
And sheds a peaceful radiance o'er
The prospects of the tomb.
- 3 There is a cheering voice
That lifts the soul above,
Dispels the painful, anxious doubt,
And whispers, "God is love."
- 4 That voice from Calvary's hight
Proclaims the soul forgiven;
That star is revelation's light,
That hope, the hope of heaven.

Anon.

- 1 FAITH is the polar-star
That guides the Christian's way,
Directs his wanderings from afar
To realms of endless day:
- 2 Faith is the rain-bow's form
Hung on the brow of heaven,
The glory of the passing storm,
The pledge of mercy given:
- 3 The Faith that works by love,
And purifies the heart,
A foretaste of the joys above
To mortals can impart:
- 4 It guides us far from strife,
Where'er our footsteps roam,
And promises eternal life
When we have reached our home.

- 1 THOU ever-present Aid
In suffering and distress,
The mind which still on thee is stayed,
Is kept in perfect peace.
- 2 The soul by faith reclined
Upon thy sheltering breast,
'Mid raging storms exults to find
An everlasting rest.
- 3 Sorrow and fear are gone,
Whene'er thy face appears;
It stills the sighing orphan's moan,
And dries the widow's tears.
- 4 It hallows every cross;,
It sweetly comforts me,
Makes me forget my every loss,
And find my all in thee.
- 5 O God, to whom I fly,
Do thou my wishes fill;
What though created streams are dry
Thou art my fountain still.
- 6 Stripped of each earthly friend,
I find them all in one;
And peace and joy which never end,
And heaven, in thee alone.
- 7 Here, then, I doubt no more,
But in his pleasure rest
Whose wisdom, love, and truth, and power,
Engage to make me blest.

1. O, deem not they are blest a-lone Whose lives a peace-ful ten-or keep ;

For God, who pit-ies man, hath shown A bless-ing for the eyes that weep.

223, 624, 932.

- 2 The light of smiles shall fill again
The lids that overflow with tears,
And weary hours of woe and pain
Are promises of happier years.
- 3 There is a day of sunny rest
For every dark and troubled night,
And grief may bide an evening guest,
But joy shall come with early light.
- 4 Nor let the good man's trust depart,
Though life its common gifts deny ;
Though with a sad and broken heart,
He sees his hopes most cherished die.
- 5 For God has marked each sorrowing day,
And numbered every secret tear,
And heaven's long age of bliss shall pay
For all his children suffer here.

William Cullen Bryant.

- 1 WEEPING endures but for a night,
Joy cometh with the morning light ;
Joy cometh of celestial birth,
• Unsullied by the blight of earth.
- 2 Joy comes each faithful heart to thrill,
That fears of change no more will chill ;
Transporting joy, that fills the soul
While everlasting ages roll.
- 3 Then, mourning pilgrim, upward gaze ;
Beyond this dark and thorny maze
A joy for every tear is found,
A healing balm for every wound.

- 4 No sorrow there shall dim the eye,
No wintry winds or storms are nigh,
No sighs borne on the fragrant air ;
But all shall in the glory share.
- 5 Awake, for lo, not distant far,
The rising of the Morning Star ;
O watch to catch the new-born ray
That ushers in a cloudless day.
- 6 Hail ! glorious morn, whose radiant light
Shall bid the darkness take its flight ;
Shall chase the shades of gloom away,
And night be turned to endless day.

Annie R. Smith.

- 1 Not all the nobles of the earth,
Who boast the honors of their birth,
So high a dignity can claim,
As those who bear the Christian name.
- 2 To them the privilege is given
To be the sons and heirs of heaven ;
Sons of the God who reigns on high,
And heirs of joy beyond the sky.
- 3 He teaches their young feet the way,
And early leads them to obey ;
Whispers instruction to their minds,
And on their hearts his precepts binds.
- 4 Their daily wants his hands supply,
Their steps he guards with watchful eye ;
Leads them from earth to heaven above,
And crowns them with eternal love.

347, 932, 104.

- 2 So when in silence nature sleeps,
And lonely watch the mourner keeps,
One thought shall every pang remove,
Trust, feeble man, thy Maker's love.
- 3 And when the last, dread hour shall come,
While trembling nature waits her doom,
This voice shall wake the righteous dead—
"Lo, it is I, be not afraid."

Sir F. E. Smith.

- 2 When not e'en friendship's gentle aid
Can heal the wounds the world has made,
O this shall check each rising sigh,
That Jesus is forever nigh.

My safety and my comfort are,
And he shall guide me all my days,
Till glory crown the work of grace.

- 1 AFFLICTED saint, to Christ draw near,
Thy Saviour's gracious promise hear;
His faithful word declares to thee,
That as thy day thy strength shall be.
- 2 Let not thy heart despond, and say,
"How shall I stand the trying day?"
He has engaged by firm decree,
That as thy day thy strength shall be.
- 3 Thy faith is weak, thy foes are strong,
And if the conflict should be long,
Thy Lord will make the tempter flee,
For as thy day thy strength shall be.
- 4 Should persecution rage and flame,
Still trust in thy Redeemer's name;
In fiery trials thou shalt see
That as thy day thy strength shall be.

- 1 GOD of my life, to thee I call,
Afflicted at thy feet I fall;
When the great water-floods prevail,
Leave not my trembling heart to fail.
- 2 Friend of the friendless and the faint,
Where shall I lodge my deep complaint?
Where but with thee, whose open door
Invites the helpless and the poor?
- 3 Did ever mourner plead with thee,
And thou refuse that mourner's plea?
Does not the word still fixed remain,
That none shall seek thy face in vain?
- 4 Poor though I am, despised, forgot,
Yet God, my God, forgets me not;
And he is safe and must succeed
For whom the Lord vouchsafes to plead.

My grace suf - fi - cient is for you, Though na - ture's powers may faint.

114, 179, 702.

- 2 My grace its glories shall display,
And make your griefs remove;
Your weakness shall the triumphs tell
Of boundless power and love.
- 3 O thou, my Saviour and my Lord,
'Tis good to trust thy name;
Thy power, thy faithfulness and love,

- 1 Is not the way to heavenly gain
Through earthly grief and loss?
Rest must be won by toil and pain,—
The crown repays the cross.
- 2 In tears and trials thou must sow
To reap in joy and love;
We cannot find our home below,
And hope for one above.
- 3 As woods, when shaken by the breeze,
Take deeper, firmer root;
As winter's frost but makes the trees
Abound in summer fruit;
- 4 So every heaven-sent pang and throe
That Christian firmness tries,
But nerves us for our work below,
And forms us for the skies.

- 1 WHEN waves of trouble round me swell,
My soul is not dismayed;
I hear a voice I know full well,—
"Tis I; be not afraid."
- 2 When black the threatening skies appear,
And storms my path invade,
Those accents tranquilize each fear,—
"T is I; be not afraid."
- 3 There is a gulf that must be crossed;
Saviour, be near to aid!
Whisper, when my frail bark is tossed,—
"T is I; be not afraid."
- 4 There is a dark and fearful vale,
Death hides within its shade;
O say, when flesh and heart shall fail,—
"T is I; be not afraid."

GRIGG, C. M.

JOSEPH GRIGG.

1. There is no sor-row, Lord, too light To bring in prayer to thee;

There is no anx-ious care too slight To wake thy sym-pa-thy.

395, 698, 669.

2 Thou who hast trod the thorny road
Wilt share each small distress;
The love which bore the greater load
Will not refuse the less.

3 There is no secret sigh we breathe
But meets thine ear divine,
And every cross grows light beneath
The shadow, Lord, of thine.

4 Life's ills without, sin's strife within,
The heart would overflow,
But for that love which died for sin,
That love which wept with woe.

Mrs. J. Creudson.

703

201, 596, 448.

1 If God is mine, then present things
And things to come are mine;
Yea, Christ, his word, and Spirit too,
And glory all divine.

2 If he is mine, then from his love
He every trouble sends;
All things are working for my good,
And bliss his rod attends.

3 If he is mine, let friends forsake,
Let wealth and honor flee;
Sure he who giveth me himself
Is more than these to me.

4 O, tell me, Lord, that thou art mine;
What can I wish beside?
My soul shall at the fountain live,
When all the streams are dried.

Benjamin Beddome.

724, 889, 669.

1 FROM lips divine, like healing balm
To hearts oppressed and torn,
The heavenly consolation fell,
"Blessed are they that mourn."

2 Unto the hopes by sorrow crushed
A noble faith succeeds;
And life, by trials furrowed, bears
The fruit of loving deeds.

3 How rich, how sweet, how full of strength
Our human spirits are,
Baptized into the sanctities
Of suffering and of prayer!

4 Yes, heavenly wisdom, love divine,
Breathed through the lips which said,
"O blessed are the hearts that mourn;
They shall be comforted."

William H. Burleigh.

705

546, 147, 204.

1 O THOU who driest the mourner's tear!
How dark this world would be
If, when deceived and wounded here,
We could not fly to thee!

2 O, who would bear life's stormy doom,
Did not thy wing of love
Come, brightly wafting through the gloom
Our peace-branch from above?

3 Each sorrow, touched by thee, grows bright
With more than rapture's ray,
As darkness shows us worlds of light
We never saw by day.

Thomas Moore.

1. { As oft, with worn and wea-ry feet, We tread earth's rugged val-ley o'er, }
 { The thought, how comfort-ing and sweet, Christ trod this ver-y path be-fore! }

Our wants and weak-ness he knows From life's first dawn-ing till its close.

234, 683, 320.

- 2 Do sickness, feebleness, or pain,
 Or sorrow in our path appear?
 The recollection will remain,—
 More deeply did he suffer here:
 His life, how truly sad and brief,
 Filled up with suffering and with grief!
- 3 If Satan tempts our hearts to stray,
 And whispers evil things within,
 So did he, in the desert way,
 Assail our Lord with thoughts of sin,
 When worn, and in a feeble hour,
 The tempter came with all his power.
- 4 Just such as I, this earth he trod,
 With every human ill but sin;
 And, though indeed the Son of God,
 As I am now, so he has been:
 My God, my Saviour! look on me
 With pity, love, and sympathy.

James Edmeston.

707

234, 683, 320.

- 1 WHEN gathering clouds around I view,
 And days are dark and friends are few,
 On Him I lean who not in vain
 Experienced every human pain:
 He sees my wants, allays my fears,
 And counts and treasures up my tears.
- 2 If aught should tempt my soul to stray
 From heavenly wisdom's narrow way,
 To fly the good I would pursue,
 Or do the sin I would not do,
 Still, He who felt temptation's power
 Shall guard me in that dangerous hour.

- 3 If wounded love my bosom swell,
 Deceived by those I prized too well,
 He shall his pitying aid bestow
 Who felt on earth severer woe,—
 At once betrayed, denied, or fled,
 By those who shared his daily bread.
- 4 When sorrowing o'er some stone I bend
 Which covers what was once a friend,
 And from his voice, his hand, his smile,
 Divides me for a little while,—
 Thou, Saviour, mark'st the tears I shed;
 For thou didst weep o'er Lazarus dead.

Robert Grant.

708

683, 234, 320.

- 1 BE still, my heart! these anxious cares
 To thee are burdens, thorns, and snares;
 They cast dishonor on thy Lord,
 And contradict his gracious word;
 Brought safely by his hand thus far,
 Why wilt thou now give place to fear?
- 2 When first before his mercy-seat
 Thou didst to him thy all commit,
 He gave thee warrant from that hour
 To trust his wisdom, love, and power:
 Did ever trouble yet befall
 And he refuse to hear thy call?
- 3 He who has helped thee hitherto,
 Will help thee all thy journey through;
 Though rough and thorny be the road,
 It leads thee home, apace, to God;
 Then count thy present trials small,
 For heaven will make amends for all.

John Newton.

1. When darkness gathers round thy way, As fall the shades of even; No star, with its mild, cheer-ing ray, To chase the gloom, our fears al-lay,—How sweet the light of heaven!

- 2 When toiling in the narrow way,
By persecution driven,
Beset with treacherous snares that lay
To lead our wayward feet astray,
How sweet the smiles of heaven!
- 3 When by earth's care and grief and woe
The anguished heart is riven,
And bitter tears of sorrow flow,

- No soothing balm found here below,—
How sweet the joy of heaven!
- 4 And when our pilgrimage is o'er,
The blessed promise given;
When, borne on angels' wings we soar
To meet the Saviour we adore,—
How sweet the home in heaven!

COMFORT, 6s & 5s.

ORAZ.

1. Why that look of sad-ness? Why that downcast eye? Can no thought of gladness lift thy soul on high?

2 O thou heir of heaven,
Think of Jesus' love,
While to thee is given
All his grace to prove.

3 Is thy burdened spirit
Agonized for sin?
Think of Jesus' merit;
He can make thee clean;

4 Think of Calvary's mountain,
Where his blood was spilt;
In that precious fountain
Wash away thy guilt.

5 Set the prize before thee;
Gird thy armor on:
Heir of grace and glory,
Struggle for thy crown.

Anon.

[Tune, Ellesde, No. 499.] 8s & 7s. D.

- 1 CHRISTIAN, wherefore yield to sadness?
Fix thy heart and hopes above;
Look to Jesus, and with gladness
Trust his gracious, pardoning love.
Trials here will sorely press thee,
Let thy trust on him be stayed:
He will cheer, and guide, and bless thee,
With his ever-present aid.
- 2 Think how kind, how condescending!
Jesus calls himself thy Friend,
From his throne in glory bending,
He will every prayer attend.
He will never, never leave thee,
Through thy pilgrim days below;
Then, at last, he will receive thee,
And a crown of life bestow.

1. My God, my Father, while I stray Far from my home, on life's rough way,

Oh, teach me from my heart to say, "Thy will be done, thy will be done!"

624, 316, 136.

- 2 What though in lonely grief I sigh
For friends beloved no longer nigh;
Submissive still would I reply,
"Thy will be done, thy will be done!"
- 3 If thou shouldst call me to resign
What most I prize,—it ne'er was mine;
I only yield thee what was thine:
"Thy will be done, thy will be done!"
- 4 If but my fainting heart be blest
With thy sweet Spirit for its guest,
My God, to thee I leave the rest:
"Thy will be done, thy will be done!"

- 2 O God, to thee we raise our eyes;
Calm resignation we implore;
O let no murmuring thought arise,
But humbly let us still adore.
- 2 With meek submission may we bear
Each needful cross thou shalt ordain;
Nor think our trials too severe,
Nor dare thy justice to arraign.
- 3 For though mysterious now thy ways
To erring mortals may appear,
Hereafter we thy name shall praise
For all our keenest sufferings here.
- 4 Thy needful help, O God, afford,
Nor let us sink in deep despair;
Aid us to trust thy sacred word,
And find our sweetest comfort there.

Our sharpest pang, our bitterest tear!
On thee we cast each earth-born care;
We smile at pain while thou art near.
- 2 Though long the weary way we tread,
And sorrow crown each lingering year,
No path we shun, no darkness dread;
Our hearts still whispering, "Thou art near!"
- 3 When drooping pleasure turns to grief,
And trembling faith is changed to fear,
The murmuring wind, the quivering leaf,
Shall softly tell us, "Thou art near!"
- 4 On thee we fling our burdening woe,
O love divine, forever dear;
Content to suffer while we know,
Living and dying, thou art near!

- 2 Thou hast bought me with thy blood,
Open wide the gate to God;
Peace I ask, but peace must be,
Lord! in being one with thee.
- 3 May thy will, not mine, be done,
May thy will and mine be one;
Chase these doubtings from my heart,
Now thy perfect peace impart.
- 4 Saviour, at thy feet I fall,
Thou, my life, my God, my all!
Let thy happy servant be
One forevermore with thee.

- 1 CAST thy burden on the Lord;
Lean thou only on his word:
Ever will he be thy stay,
Though the heavens shall pass away.

- 2 Ever in the raging storm
Thou shalt see his cheering form,
Hear his pledge of coming aid:
"It is I be not afraid."
- 3 Cast thy burden at his feet;
Linger near his mercy-seat:
He will lead thee by the hand
Gently to the better land.
- 4 He will gird thee by his power,
In thy weary, fainting hour;
Lean, then, loving, on his word;
Cast thy burden on the Lord.

- 1 THINE forever! God of love!
Hear us from thy throne above;
Thine forever may we be
Here and in eternity.
- 2 Thine forever! Lord of life!
Shield us through the earthly strife;
Thou, the Life, the Truth, the Way,
Guide us to the realms of day.
- 3 Thine forever! O how blest
They who find in thee their rest!
Saviour, Guardian, heavenly Friend!
O defend us to the end.
- 4 Thine forever! Saviour, keep
These thy frail and trembling sheep
Safe alone beneath thy care,
Let us all thy goodness share.

LOWELL MASON.

1. I ask not, Lord, for less to bear Here in the nar - row way, But that I may thy blessing share In all I do or say, In all I do or say.

364, 70, 399.

- 2 Through whatso'er my path shall lie,
With patience may I run;
With filial trust my heart reply,
"Thy will, O God, be done."
- 3 With thee to lead, I will not fear
In scenes with dangers rife,
While still thy cheering voice I hear,
"I am the Way, the Life."
- 4 Thou art the refuge of my soul,
My hope when comforts flee,
My strength while life's rough billows roll,
My joy eternally.
- 5 Then help me to improve with care,
These precious moments given;
For they a faithful record bear,
Of good or ill, to Heaven.
- 6 And in thine arms of love enfold
Me from the tempter's snare;
And in the book of life enrolled,
Be my name written there.

Annie R. Smith.

- 1 SUBMISSIVE to thy will, my God,
I all to thee resign,
And bow before thy chastening rod:
I mourn, but not repine.
- 2 Why should my foolish heart complain,
When wisdom, truth, and love
Direct the stroke, inflict the pain,
And point to joys above?

- 3 How short are all my sufferings here,
How needful every cross!
Away my unbelieving fears,
Nor call my gain my loss.
- 4 Then give, dear Lord, or take away,
I'll bless thy sacred name;
My Jesus, yesterday, to-day,
Forever is the same.

Anon.

- 1 Out of the depths to thee I cry
Whose fainting footsteps trod
The paths of our humanity,
Incarnate Son of God!
- 2 Thou Man of grief, who once apart
Didst all our sorrows bear,—
The trembling hand, the fainting heart,
The agony, and prayer!
- 3 Is this the consecrated dower,
Thy chosen ones obtain,
To know thy resurrection power
Through fellowship of pain?
- 4 Then, O my soul, in silence wait;
Faint not, O faltering feet;
Press onward to that blest estate,
In righteousness complete.
- 5 Let faith transcend the passing hour,
The transient pain and strife,
Upraised by an immortal power,—
The power of endless life.

1. We bless thee for thy peace, O God! Deep as the sound-less sea,

Which falls like sun-shine on the road Of those who trust in thee.

399, 364, 147.

2. We ask not, Father, for repose
Which comes from outward rest,
If we may have through all life's woes
Thy peace within our breast,—
- 3 That peace which suffers and is strong,
Trusts where it cannot see,
Deems not the trial way too long,
But leaves the end with thee.

- 1 WHEN I can trust my all with God
In trial's fearful hour,
I'll bow, resigned, beneath his rod,
And bless his saving power.
- 2 O, to be brought to Jesus' feet,
Though sorrows fix me there,
Is still a privilege most sweet,
For he will hear my prayer.
- 3 Then blessed be the hand that gave,
Still blessed when it takes;
Blessed be He who smites to save,
Who heals the heart he breaks.

Elizabeth Codner.

- 1 My times of sorrow and of joy,
Great God, are in thy hand;
My choicest comforts come from thee,
And go at thy command.
- 2 If thou shouldst take them all away,
Yet would I not repine;
Before they were possessed by me,
They were entirely thine.

- 3 Nor would I drop a murmuring word,
Though the whole world were gone,
But seek enduring happiness
In thee, and thee alone.

Benjamin Beddome.

- 1 SINCE all the varying scenes of time
God's watchful eye surveys,
O who so wise to choose our lot,
Or to appoint our ways?
- 2 Good, when he gives, supremely good,
Nor less when he denies;
E'en crosses, from his sovereign hand,
Are blessings in disguise.
- 3 Why should we doubt a Father's love,
So constant and so kind?
To his unerring, gracious will
Be every wish resigned.

James Hervey.

- 1 O THOU whose mercy guides my way,
Though now it seems severe,
Forbid my unbelief to say
There is no mercy here!
- 2 O may I, Lord, desire the pain
That comes in kindness down,
Far more than sweetest earthly gain,
Succeeded by a frown.
- 3 Then, though thou bend my spirit low,
Love only shall I see;
The gracious hand that strikes the blow
Was wounded once for me.

- 1 GIVE to the winds thy fears,
Hope and be undismayed;
God hears thy sighs and counts thy tears,
He shall lift up thy head.
- 2 Through waves, and clouds, and storms,
He gently clears thy way;
Wait thou his time, so shall this night
Soon end in joyous day.
- 3 Leave to his sovereign sway
To choose and to command;
So shalt thou, wondering, own his way,
How wise, how strong, his hand!

His counsel shall appear
When fully he the work hath wrought
That caused thy needless fear.

On thee, when sorrows rise,
On thee, when waves of trouble roll,
My fainting hope relies.

For thou alone canst heal;
Thy word can bring a sweet relief
For every pain I feel.
- 3 But O, when doubts prevail,
I fear to call thee mine;
The springs of comfort seem to fail,
And all my hopes decline.

Thou art my only trust;
And still my soul would cleave to thee,
Though prostrate in the dust.

GERMAN, ARR. BY LOWELL MASON.

1. If, through un-ruf-fled seas, Calm-ly toward heaven we sail, With grate-ful hearts, O God, to thee,

We'll own the favoring gale, With grate-ful hearts, O God, to thee, We'll own the favoring gale.

89, 558, 732.

- 2 But should the surges rise,
And rest delay to come,
Blest be the sorrow, kind the storm,
Which drives us nearer home.
- 3 Soon shall our doubts and fears
All yield to thy control;
Thy tender mercies shall illumine
The midnight of the soul.
- 4 Teach us in every state,
To make thy will our own,
And when the joys of sense depart,
To live by faith alone.

Augustus M. Toplady.

- 1 "My times are in thy hand:"
My God, I wish them there;
My life, my friends, my all I leave
Entirely to thy care.
- 2 "My times are in thy hand,"
Whatever they may be;
Pleasing or painful, dark or bright,
As best may seem to thee.
- 3 "My times are in thy hand;"
Why should I doubt or fear?
My Father's hand will never cause
His child a needless tear.
- 4 "My times are in thy hand;"
I'll always trust in thee,
Till I possess the promised land,
And all thy glory see.

William F. Lloyd.

- 1 BE tranquil, O my soul,
Be quiet every fear!
Thy Father hath supreme control,
And he is ever near.
- 2 Ne'er of thy lot complain,
Whatever may befall;
Sickness or sorrow, care or pain,
'Tis well appointed all.
- 3 A Father's chastening hand
Is leading thee along;
Nor distant is the promised land,
Where swells the immortal song.
- 4 O, then, my soul, be still!
Await heaven's high decree;
Seek but to do thy Father's will,
It shall be well with thee.

Thomas Hastings.

236, 732, 949.

- 1 It is thy hand, my God;
My sorrow comes from thee:
I bow beneath thy chastening rod;
'Tis love that bruises me.
- 2 I would not murmur, Lord;
Before thee I am dumb:
Lest I should breathe one murmuring
word,
To thee for help I come.
- 3 My God, thy name is love;
A Father's hand is thine;
With tearful eyes I look above,
And cry, "Thy will be mine!"

James G. Deck.

1. My Sav- iour, as thou wilt! O may thy will be mine! In - to thy hand of love I would my all resign; Through sor- row, or through joy,

Con- duct me as thine own, And help me still to say, "My Lord, thy will be done!"

2 My Saviour, as thou wilt!
 Though seen through many a tear,
 Let not my star of hope
 Grow dim or disappear:
 Since thou on earth hast wept,
 And sorrowed oft alone,
 If I must weep with thee,
 My Lord, thy will be done!

3 My Saviour, as thou wilt!
 All shall be well for me;
 Each changing future scene
 I gladly trust with thee:
 Straight to my home above
 I calmly travel on,
 And sing, in life or death,
 "My Lord, thy will be done!"

Benjamin Schmolke.

I dare not choose my lot;
 I would not if I might;
 Choose thou for me, my God,
 So shall I walk aright.

2 The kingdom that I seek
 Is thine; so let the way
 That leads to it be thine,
 Else I must surely stray.
 Take thou my cup, and it
 With joy or sorrow fill,
 As best to thee may seem;
 Choose thou my good and ill.

3 Choose thou for me my friends,
 My sickness, or my health;
 Choose thou my cares for me,
 My poverty or wealth.
 Not mine, not mine, the choice,
 In either great or small;
 Be thou my Guide, my Strength,
 My Wisdom, and my All.

Horatius Bonar.

1 THY way, not mine, O Lord,

- 2 In holy contemplation
We sweetly then pursue
The theme of God's salvation,
And find it ever new:
Set free from present sorrow,
We cheerfully can say,
Let the unknown to-morrow
Bring with it what it may.
- 3 Children of God lack nothing,
His promise bears them through;
Who gives the lilies clothing,
Will clothe his people too:
Beneath the spreading heavens
No creature but is fed,
And he who feeds the ravens
Will give his children bread.
- 4 Though vine nor fig-tree neither
Their wonted fruit should bear,
Though all the fields should wither,
Nor flocks nor herds be there;
Yet God the same abiding,
His praise shall tune my voice;
For while in him confiding,
I cannot but rejoice.

Cowper & Cennick.

- 1 In heavenly love abiding,
No change my heart shall fear;
And safe is such confiding,
For nothing changes here.
The storm may roar without me,
My heart may low be laid,
But God is round about me,
And can I be dismayed?
- 2 Wherever he may guide me,
No want shall turn me back;
My Shepherd is beside me,
And nothing can I lack.
His wisdom ever waketh,
His sight is never dim,
He knows the way he taketh,
And I will walk with him.
- 3 Green pastures are before me,
Which yet I have not seen;
Bright skies will soon be o'er me,
Where darkest clouds have been.
My hope I cannot measure,
My path to life is free,
My Saviour has my treasure,
And he will walk with me.

Anna L. Waring.

1. Father, I know that all my life Is portioned out for me; The changes that are sure to come

I do not fear to see; I ask thee for a present mind Intent on pleasing thee.

2 I ask thee for a thoughtful love,
Through constant watching wise,
To meet the glad with joyful smiles,
And wipe the weeping eyes;
A heart at leisure from itself,
To soothe and sympathize.

3 I would not have the restless will
That hurries to and fro,
Seeking for some great thing to do,
Or secret thing to know;
I would be treated as a child,
And guided where I go.

4 Wherever in the world I am,
In whatso'er estate,
I have a fellowship with hearts,
To keep and cultivate;
A work of lowly love to do
For Him on whom I wait.

5 I ask thee for the daily strength,
To none that ask denied,
A mind to blend with outward life
While keeping at thy side;
Content to fill a little space,
If thou be glorified.

6 And if some things I do not ask
Thou givest, Lord, to me,
Then shall my spirit rise the more

With grateful love to thee;
Still careful, not to serve thee less,
But more, and perfectly.

Anna L. Waring.

745

1 Go not far from me, O my Strength,
Whom all my times obey;
Take from me anything thou wilt,
But go not thou away;
And let the storm that does thy work
Deal with me as it may.

2 No suffering, while it lasts, is joy,
How blest soe'er it be;
Yet may the chastened child be glad
His Father's face to see;
And O, it is not hard to bear
What must be borne in thee!

3 Safe in thy sanctifying grace,
Almighty to restore;
Borne onward, sin and death behind,
And love and life before,
O let my soul abound in hope,
And praise thee more and more!

4 Deep unto deep may call, but I
With peaceful heart will say,
"Thy loving-kindness hath a charge
No waves can take away;"
And let the storm that speeds me home,
Deal with me as it may.

Anna L. Waring.

1. The tempter to my soul hath said, "There is no help in God for thee;"

Lord! lift thou up thy servant's head; My glo-ry, shield, and sol-ace be.

212, 108, 304.

- 2 Thus to the Lord I raised my cry;
He heard me from his holy hill;
At his command the waves rolled by;
He beckoned, and the winds were still.
- 3 I laid me down and slept,—I woke;—
Thou, Lord, my spirit didst sustain;
Bright, from the east, the morning broke;
Thy comforts rose on me again.
- 4 I will not fear, though armed throngs
Compass my steps in all their wrath;
Salvation to the Lord belongs;
His presence guards his people's path.

- 1 DEIGN, Jesus, Lord, my soul to hide
Within thy pierced and bleeding side!
O give me in thy wounded heart
My rest to find, nor thence depart.
- 2 When Satan's wiles would work me harm,
And earth with her delights would charm,
Within thy heart I safely rest,
Within thy side secure and blest.
- 3 When sense with every art beguiles,
And tempts me with her treacherous smiles,
I will not fear, since still for me
Thy side a refuge safe shall be.

2 Sometimes 'mid scenes of deepest gloom,
Sometimes where Eden's bowers bloom,
By waters still, o'er troubled sea,—

Content whatever lot I see,
Since 'tis my God that leadeth me.

1 ETERNAL Beam of light divine,
Thou Fount of unexhausted love,
In whom the Father's glories shine,
Through earth beneath, and heaven
above;

Jesus, the weary wanderer's rest,
Give me thy easy yoke to bear,
With steadfast patience arm my breast,
With spotless love and lowly fear.

2 Thankful I take the cup from thee,
Prepared and mingled by thy skill;
Though bitter to the taste it be,
Powerful the wounded soul to heal.
Be thou, O Rock of Ages, nigh!
So shall each murmuring thought be gone,
And grief, and fear, and care shall fly,
As clouds before the midday sun.

3 Speak to my warring passions, "Peace;"
Say to my trembling heart, "Be still;"
Thy power my strength and fortress is,
For all things serve thy sovereign will.
O death! where is thy sting? Where now
Thy boasted victory, O grave?
Who shall contend with God? or who
Can hurt whom God delights to save?

1. O, let me walk with thee, my God, As Enoch walked in days of old; Place thou my trembling hand in thine,

234, 320.

2 I cannot, dare not, walk alone;
The tempest rages in the sky,
A thousand snares beset my feet,
A thousand foes are lurking nigh:
Still thou the raging of the sea,
O Master! let me walk with thee.

3 If I may rest my hand in thine,
I'll count the joys of earth but loss,
And firmly, bravely journey on;
I'll bear the banner of the cross
Till Zion's glorious gates I see:
Yet, Saviour, let me walk with thee.

1 THE Lord my pasture shall prepare,
And feed me with a shepherd's care;
His presence shall my wants supply,
And guard me with a watchful eye;
My noonday walks he shall attend,
And all my midnight hours defend.

2 When on the sultry glebe I faint,
Or on the thirsty mountain pant,
To fertile vales and dewy meads
My weary, wandering steps he leads
Where peaceful rivers, soft and slow,
Amid the verdant landscape flow.

3 Though in the paths of death I tread,
With gloomy horrors overspread,
My steadfast heart shall fear no ill,
For thou, O Lord! art with me still;
Thy friendly staff shall give me aid,
And guide me through the dreadful shade.

1 THOU hidden Source of calm repose,
Thou all-sufficient love divine,
My help and refuge from my foes,
Secure I am if thou art mine!
And, lo! from sin and grief and shame
I hide me, Jesus, in thy name.

2 Jesus, my all in all thou art,
My rest in toil, my ease in pain,
The healing of my broken heart;
In strife my peace, in loss my gain,
My smile beneath the tyrant's frown,
In shame my glory and my crown.

3 In want my plentiful supply,
In weakness my almighty power,
In bonds my perfect liberty,
My light in Satan's darkest hour;
No trouble can my soul appall:
Thou art my life, my heaven, my all.

1 FORTH from the dark and stormy sky,
Lord, to thine altar's shade we fly;
Forth from the world, its hope and fear,
Saviour, we seek thy shelter here:
Weary and weak, thy grace we pray;
Turn not, O Lord! thy guests away.

2 Long have we roamed in want and pain,
Long have we sought thy rest in vain;
Burdened with doubt, in darkness lost,
Long have our souls been tempest-tossed.
Low at thy feet our sins we lay;
Turn not, O Lord! thy guests away.

O Son of man, I fly;
Be thou my refuge and my rest,
For oh! the storm is high.
- 3 Protect me from the furious blast;
My shield and shelter be;
Hide me, my Saviour, till o'erpast
The storm of sin I see.
- 3 As welcome as the water-spring
Is to a barren place,
Jesus, descend on me, and bring
Thy sweet, refreshing grace.
- 4 As o'er a parched and weary land
A rock extends its shade,
So hide me, Saviour, with thy hand,

O still protect me with thy love,

What ill, though asked, deny.

1. There is a safe and secret place Beneath the wings divine,

Re-served for all the heirs of grace; O, be that refuge mine!

- 1 JESUS, great Shepherd of the sheep,
To thee for help we fly;
Thy little flock in safety keep,
For O, the wolf is nigh!
- 2 He comes, of hellish malice full,
To scatter, tear, and slay;
He seizes every straying soul
As his own lawful prey.
- 3 Us into thy protection take,
And gather with thine arm;
Unless the fold we first forsake,
The wolf can never harm.
- 4 We laugh to scorn his cruel power
While by our Shepherd's side;
The sheep he never can devour,
Unless he first divide.

- 5 O do not suffer him to part
The souls that here agree;
But make us of one mind and heart,
And keep us one in thee.
- 6 Together let us sweetly live,
Together let us die;
And each a starry crown receive,
And reign above the sky.

- 1 IN grief and fear, to thee, O Lord,
We now for succor fly;
Thine awful judgments are abroad,
O shield us, lest we die.
- 2 The fell disease on every side
Walks forth with tainted breath;
And pestilence, with rapid stride,
Bestrews the land with death.
- 3 O look with pity on the scene
Of sadness and of dread;
And let thine angel stand between
The living and the dead.
- 4 With contrite hearts, to thee, our King,
We turn who oft have strayed;
Accept the sacrifice we bring,
And let the plague be stayed.
- 5 We offer thee the incense sweet
That from the heart doth rise:
Good works, with true repentance meet,
Shall be our sacrifice.

1. The Lord my Shep-herd is, I shall be well sup-plied;

Since he is mine and I am his, What can I want be-side?

558, 732, 810.

- 2 He leads me to the place
Where heavenly pasture grows,
Where living waters gently pass,
And full salvation flows.
- 3 If e'er I go astray,
He doth my soul reclaim,
And guides me in his own right way,
For his most holy name.
- 4 While he affords his aid,
I cannot yield to fear;
Though I should walk through death's dark shade,
My Shepherd still is near.

Isaac Watts.

- 1 To praise our Shepherd's care,
His wisdom, love, and might,
Your loudest, loftiest songs prepare,
And bid the world unite.
- 2 Supremely good and great,
He tends his blood-bought fold;
He stoops, though throned in highest state,
The feeblest to uphold.
- 3 He hears the least complaint;
He sees them when they roam;
And if his weakest lamb should faint,
His bosom bears it home.
- 4 Kind Shepherd of the sheep,
A weakly flock are we,
And snares and foes are nigh; but keep
The lambs who look to thee.

- 1 WHEN, overwhelmed with grief,
My heart within me dies;
Helpless, and far from all relief,
To heaven I lift mine eyes.
- 2 O, lead me to the Rock,
That's high above my head;
And make the covert of thy wings
My shelter and my shade.
- 3 Within thy presence, Lord,
Forever I'll abide;
Thou art the tower of my defense,
The refuge where I hide.
- 4 Thou givest me the lot
Of those that fear thy name;
If endless life be their reward,
I shall possess the same.

Isaac Watts.

- 1 MAKE duty plain, O Lord,
Thy will we seek to know;
O grant thy Spirit with thy word,
To guide our steps below.
- 2 May feeling hearts be ours,
And tender conscience, too;
Awaken all our slumbering powers
Thy righteous will to do.
- 3 Help us thy truth to love,
And while we love, obey;
Be thou our counsel from above,
Show us thy will and way.

1. Saviour! I follow on, Guided by thee, Seeing not yet the hand That leadeth me;

Hushed be my heart and still, Fear I no further ill; On-ly to meet thy will My will shall be.

655, 485.

- 2 Riven the rock for me
Thirst to relieve,
Manna from heaven falls
Fresh every eve;
Never a want severe
Causeth my eye a tear,
But thou dost whisper near,
"Only believe!"
- 3 Often to Marah's brink
Have I been brought;
Shrinking the cup to drink,
Help I have sought;

And with the prayer's ascent,
Jesus the branch hath rent—
Quickly relief hath sent,
Sweetening the draught.

- 4 Saviour! I long to walk
Closer with thee;
Led by thy guiding hand,
Ever to be;
Constantly near thy side,
Quickened and purified,
Living for him who died
Freely for me.

720, 821, 631.

- 2 Save us in the prosperous hour,
From the flattering tempter's power,
From his unsuspected wiles,
From the world's pernicious smiles.
- 3 Cut off our dependence vain
On the help of feeble man;
Every arm of flesh remove;
Stay us only on thy love!

- 4 Men of worldly, low design,
Let not these thy people join;
Save us from the great and wise,
Till they sink in their own eyes.
- 5 Never let the world break in;
Fix a mighty gulf between:
Keep us little and unknown,
Prized and loved by God alone.

Ho-ly Je-sus, day by day Lead us in the nar-row way.

244, 299.

- 2 There are sandy wastes that lie
 Cold and sunless, vast and drear,
 Where the feeble faint and die;—
 Grant us grace to persevere:
 Holy Jesus, day by day
 Lead us in the narrow way.
- 3 There are soft and flowery glades
 Decked with golden-fruited trees,
 Sunny slopes and scented shades;

- Keep us, Lord, from slothful ease;
 Holy Jesus, day by day
 Lead us in the narrow way.
- 4 Upward still to purer heights,
 Onward yet to scenes more blest,
 Calmer regions, clearer lights,
 Till we reach the promised rest:
 Holy Jesus, day by day
 Lead us in the narrow way.

 Be our wisdom and our guide;
 May we walk in love and meekness,
 Nearer to our Saviour's side:
 Naught can harm us

 We may turn our tearless eye
 To the dwelling of our Father,
 To our home beyond the sky,
 Looking forward
 To the happy land on high.

Lead thou me on!
I loved the garish day, and, spite of fears,
Pride ruled my will. Remember not past

And with the morn those angel faces smile
Which I have loved long since, and lost

2 Ever present, truest friend,
Ever near thine aid to lend,
Leave us not to doubt and fear,
Groping on in darkness drear;
When the storms are raging sore,
Hearts grow faint, and hopes give o'er,
Whisper softly, "Wanderer come!

3 When our days of toil shall cease,
Waiting still for sweet release,
Nothing left but heaven and prayer,
Wondering if our names are there;
Wading deep the dismal flood,
Pleading nought but Jesus' blood,
Whisper softly, "Wanderer come!
Follow me, I'll guide thee home!"

2 O, tell me the place where the flock are

Where the noontide will find them re-

The tempest now rages, my soul is dis-

And the pathway of peace I am losing.

3 And why should I stray with the flocks of thy foes,
In the desert where now they are rov-

Where hunger and thirst, where conten-

Where fierce conflicts their ruin are proving?

4 Ah, when shall my woes and my wander-

And the follies that fill me with weep-

O Shepherd of Israel, restore me that peace

Thou dost give to the flock thou art

- 1 THOUGH faint, yet pursuing, we go on our way;
The Lord is our Leader, his word is our stay;
Though suffering, and sorrow, and trials be near,
The Lord is our Refuge, and whom can we fear?
- 2 He raiseth the fallen, he cheereth the faint;
The weak, and oppressed, he will hear their complaint;
The way may be weary, and thorny the road,
But how can we falter?—our help is in God!
- 3 And to his green pastures our footsteps he leads,
His flock in the desert how kindly he feeds!
The lambs in his bosom he tenderly bears,
And brings back the wanderers all safe from the snares.

Though storms rage around us, our God is our might;
So, faint yet pursuing, still onward we come:
The Lord is our Leader, and heaven is our home!

1. The Lord is my Shepherd, no want shall I know; I feed in green pastures, safe-fold-ed I rest; He lead-eth my soul where the still waters flow, Re-stores me when wandering, redeems when oppressed, Restores me when wandering, redeems when oppressed.

781, 255.

- 2 Through the valley and shadow of death though I stray,
Since thou art my Guardian, no evil I fear;
Thy rod shall defend me, thy staff be my stay;
No harm can befall, with my Comforter near.
- 3 In the midst of affliction my table is spread,
With blessings unmeasured my cup runneth o'er;
With perfume and oil thou anointest my head;
O, what shall I ask of thy providence more?
- 4 Let goodness and mercy, my bountiful God,
Still follow my steps till I meet thee above;
I seek—by the path which my forefathers trod,
Through the land of their sojourn—thy kingdom of love.

James Montgomery.

781, 511.

- 1 THE Lord is our Shepherd, our Guardian and Guide;
Whatever we want he will kindly provide:
To the sheep of his pasture his mercies abound;
His care and protection his flock will surround.
- 2 The Lord is our Shepherd; what then shall we fear?
What evil can trouble us while he is near?
Not if we are summoned to walk through the vale
Of the shadow of death, shall our hearts ever fail.
- 3 The Lord is become our salvation and song;
His blessings have followed us all our life long!
His name will we praise while we have any breath,
Be cheerful in life, or be happy in death.

Anon.

1. Je- sus at thy command I launch in-to the deep; And leave my native land, Where sin lulls all a-sleep; For thee I would the world resign, And sail to heaven with thee and thine.

252, 167.

- 2 Thou art my Pilot, wise,
My compass is thy word;
My soul each storm defies,
While I have such a Lord;
I'll trust thy faithfulness and power,
To save me in the trying hour.
- 3 Though rocks and quicksands deep
Through all my passage lie,
Yet Christ will safely keep,
And guard me with his eye;
My anchor, hope, will firm abide,
And every boisterous storm outride.
- 4 By faith I see the land,
The port of endless rest;
Through grace I hope to stand
And sing among the blest.
O may I reach the heavenly shore,
Where winds and waves distress no more.
- 5 When'er becalmed I lie,
When wind and storm subside,
Then to my succor fly,
And keep me near thy side;
For more the treacherous calm I dread
Than tempests bursting o'er my head.
- 6 Come, heavenly wind, and blow
A prosperous gale of grace;
Waft me from all below,

To heaven, my destined place;
There, in full sail, my port I'll find,
And leave the world and sin behind.

- 1 O LAMB of God! still keep me
Near to thy wounded side;
'Tis only there in safety
And peace I can abide!
What foes and snares surround me,
What doubts and fears within!
The grace that sought and found me,
Alone can keep me clean.
- 2 'Tis only in thee hiding
I know my life secure—
Only in thee abiding,
The conflict can endure:
Thine arm the victory gaineth
O'er every hateful foe;
Thy love my heart sustaineth
In all its care and woe.
- 3 Soon shall my eyes behold thee,
With rapture, face to face;
One half hath not been told me
Of all thy power and grace:
Thy beauty, Lord, and glory,
The wonders of thy love,
Shall be the endless story
Of all the saints above.

Gold tried by fire, and raiment clean;
Anoint thine eyes, that thou mayest see,
And put away thy stains from thee.

3 O, hear the faithful Witness' voice,
He offers now a final choice;
Thou art offensive, O lukewarm!
Therefore be zealous and reform.

4 His mission now is almost o'er,
Before the throne he'll plead no more;
The filthy must his filth retain,
He that is holy, so remain.

5 His locks with dews of night are wet,
But at thy heart he lingereth yet.
O wake, and open wide the door;

O let us in his footsteps haste,

1 As drowsy earth is dreaming still
Of coming good and golden days,
An angel voice the heavens thrill:
Fear God, ye people, give him praise;

2 The long-appointed Judgment hour
Is come at last; worship ye him
Who by his own almighty power
Made heaven, earth, sea, and gushing stream.

3 Another cry the earth doth greet,
The second angel's voice divine:
Great Babel's fall is now complete;
Nations are drunken with her wine.

4 Now the third angel's voice resounds,
A final, fearful, warning voice
Against false worship; and propounds
God's word and worship formen's choice.

5 Here saints in patience waiting stand,
Through faith obedient to God's will,
Fulfilling each divine command
Till called to stand on Zion's hill.

No sorrow with thy joy shall blend;
No clouds shall e'er obscure thy light;
Thy scenes of glory ne'er shall end.

- 4 Ye wheels of nature, speed your course!
Ye mortal powers, decay!
Haste! till the last glad morning rise
That brings eternal day.

Philip Doddridge.

- 1 My soul is happy when I hear
The Saviour is so nigh,
And longs to see his sign appear
Upon the opening sky.
- 2 I love to wait, and watch, and pray,
And trust his living word,
And feel the coming of that day
No longer is deferred.
- 3 Then, waiting brethren, let us sing,—
He will not tarry long,—
And fill with joy the hours that bring
The glory of our song.
- 4 Yes, he will come; no longer fear,
Though earth and hell assail;
His word attests the moment near,
And that can never fail.

- 1 HAIL, glorious day! ere long to dawn,
And set death's captives free;
Triumphant then will they come forth
With shouts of victory.
- 2 And when my Saviour shall appear,
If in the grave I lie,
The last loud trumpet I shall hear,
And live, no more to die.
- 3 It is enough, although I close
In death my weary eyes,
In that bright morn, my Lord to see,
And meet him in the skies.
- 4 And in that resurrection morn
I shall his face behold;
'Tis then my Lord to me will give
The starry crown of gold.

- 1 BEHOLD I come! the Saviour cries,
On wings of love I fly;
So come, dear Lord, my soul replies,
And bring salvation nigh.
- 2 Come, plead thy truth's much-injured cause,
And make thy glory shine;
Come, vindicate thy righteous laws
With majesty divine.
- 3 With wingéd speed, Redeemer, dear,
Bring on the illustrious day;
Let not our hopes give way to fear
Beneath thy long delay.

1. The glo-ries of that heavenly land I've oft-times felt be-fore; But what I feel is just a taste, And makes me long for more, And makes me long for more.

399, 724, 147.

- 2 Had I the pinions of a dove,
I'd fly and be at rest;
Then would I go to Christ, my love,
And dwell among the blest.
- 3 O! could I reach my heavenly home,
And ne'er return again;
I would not think the seasons long
That I should suffer pain.
- 4 But Patience bids us wait awhile!
The crown 's for them that fight;
The prize for those that win the race
By faith, and not by sight.
- 5 Through faith we look to yonder prize,
Laid up in heaven above;
Says Hope, "It shortly shall be mine,"
"I'll wear it soon," says Love.

- 1 ARISE, ye mourning saints, arise!
The Lord our Leader is;
The foe before his banner flies,
And victory is his.
- 2 We follow thee, our Guard and Guide,
Our Saviour, and our King;
We follow thee, through grace supplied
From heaven's eternal spring.
- 3 We soon shall see the promised day
When all our toils shall cease;
When we shall cast our arms away,
And dwell in endless peace.

- 4 This blessed hope supports us here;
It makes our burdens light;
'T will serve our drooping hearts to cheer,
Till faith shall end in sight:
- 5 Till, of the glorious prize possessed,
We hear of war no more;
And ever with our Leader rest,
On yonder peaceful shore.

- 1 JESUS, our Hope, our Life, our Heaven,
The lingering times have flown;
To thee the kingdom now is given;
Return and claim thine own.
- 2 And, as we wait, along the skies
Unearthly glory steals;
And our glad spirits seem to rise,
To haste thy chariot wheels.
- 3 Although they seem to linger, still
Thy retinue on high
Is marshalled, and awaits the will
That bids their myriads fly.
- 4 Then we will wait, nor deem too long
The closing hours of grace;
But trim our lamps with cheerful song,
Till we shall see thy face.
- 5 Safe with the ransomed we shall stand,
And raise the victor's song;
A golden harp in every hand,
And praise on every tongue.

- 2 The Saviour bids us watch and pray,
Maintain a warrior's strife;
Help, Lord, to hear thy voice to-day;
Obedience is our life.
- 3 The Saviour bids us watch and pray;
For quickly he will come,
To call us from our toils away
To our eternal home.

For lo! the Judge is near;
O may we joyfully obey,

- 1 DEAR Saviour, here we fainting lie,
And long to see thy face;
Descend, O Jesus, from on high,
In mercy to our race.
- 2 How long shall that bright hour delay?
When will our Lord appear?
We long to see the glorious day
When Jesus will draw near.
- 3 We wait to see our Lord descend,
Arrayed in robes of light;
To Satan's kingdom put an end,
And claim his proper right.
- 4 We long to hear the trumpet sound,
And see the just arise;
We long to see our Saviour crowned,
And meet him in the skies.

- 1 DEAR Saviour, we would know thy love
Which yet no measure knows;
For us it led thee once to die;
From thence salvation flows.
- 2 Fain would we strike the golden harp,
And wear the promised crown,
And at thy feet, while bending low,
Would sing what grace hath done.
- 3 Then leave us not in this dark world,
As strangers long to roam;
Come, Lord, and take us to thyself,
Come, Jesus, quickly come!

And in his presence rest!
He draws my soul most wondrously;
I to his bosom haste.
- 2 Me for thy coming, Lord, prepare;
Grant I may ready be
Whene'er thou comest, without fear
To meet and welcome thee.
- 3 Meanwhile may I in spirit view
Thy sufferings, cross, and death;
These to my heart be daily new,
While thou shalt give me breath.
- 4 Thus will my wants be well supplied,
Thus will my soul with grace
Abundantly be satisfied,
And kept in heavenly peace.

 I see before me lie;
 Had I the pinions of a dove,

 With joy outstrip the wind;
 I'd cross bold Jordan's stormy main,
 And leave the world behind.
- 3 A few more days, or years at most,
 My troubles will be o'er;
 I hope to join the heavenly host
 On Canaan's happy shore.

 In love's unbounded sea:
 The glorious hope of endless rest
 Is ravishing to me.

- 1 O LAND of rest, for thee I sigh;
 When will the moment come
 When I shall lay my armor by,
 And dwell with Christ at home?
- 2 No tranquil joys on earth I know,
 No peaceful, sheltering dome;
 This world's a wilderness of woe,
 This world is not my home.
- 3 To Jesus Christ I sought for rest;
 He bade me cease to roam,
 And fly for succor to his breast,
 And he'd conduct me home.
- 4 When by affliction sharply tried,
 Faith tells of scenes to come,—
 Those endless joys prepared above,—
 And then I sigh for home.
- 5 Weary of wandering round and round
 This vale of sin and gloom,
 I long to leave the unhallowed ground,
 And dwell with Christ at home.

- 2 Long was to be her voyage—the time,
Six thousand years almost,
Ere she would make the highland hights,
Along the heavenly coast;
Yet with her sails expanded wide,
On, on, she swiftly flew,
Bearing with ardent hope and love
Her passengers and crew.
- 3 Oft tempests have assailed her round,
And stormy winds rose high;
And dark have been the mountain waves
That bore her to the sky;
But o'er them all, with steady helm,
She onward pressed her way;
Her compass, true unto the pole,
Guides her to endless day.
- 4 Long, long, she has been out, and now
She nears her haven home;
A beacon light hangs o'er her bow,
And bids her thither come;
And voices joyful oft are heard,
And music swelling high:
“The land! the land! the land ahead!”
With rapture now they cry.
- 5 Now soon will she be safely moored
And anchored in the bay;
And all her passengers on shore
Will keep a festal day;
And long their songs of joy will rise
Beneath high heaven's dome;—
They've passed the stormy sea of time,
They've reached their haven home.

- 1 WHAT though the angry waves roll high,
And darkness reigns around?
Let hope be bright in every eye;
Our ship is homeward bound.
What though no moon nor stars appear
Amid the gloom profound?
We will not yield a place to fear;
Our ship is homeward bound.
- 2 What though the lightnings glare above,
And deafening thunders roar?
Yet with the eye of faith and love
We view the distant shore.
We know that friends will meet us there,
We loved in life before;
And angel forms, all bright and fair,
Line the immortal shore.
- 3 Then let the fearful thunders roar,
And let the lightnings glare;
We're nearing the eternal shore,
And we are almost there.
Then heave, ye waves, on every side,
And onward, homeward bear
Our fragile bark, 'gainst wind and tide;
For we are almost there.
- 4 The coward peers, with trembling form,
Into the gloom profound;
But we can smile to view the storm;
Our ship is homeward bound:
And though for us, on time's dark wave
No place of rest be found,
O let our hearts be true and brave;
Our ship is homeward bound.

1 FAR down the ages now,
Much of her journey done,
The pilgrim church pursues her way,
Until her crown be won.

2 No slacker grows the fight,
No feebler is the foe,
Nor less the need of armor tried,
Of shield and spear and bow.

3 Thus onward still we press
Through evil and through good,
Through pain and poverty and want,
Through peril and through blood.

O why these years of wait-ing here? O why this long de-lay?

810, 89, 732.

- 2 Come, for creation groans,
Impatient of thy stay;
Worn out by these long years of ill,
These ages of delay.
- 3 Come, for the corn is ripe!
Put in thy sickle now;
Reap the great harvest of the earth;
Sower and reaper thou.
- 4 Come, spoil the strong man's house,
Bind him and cast him hence;
Show thyself stronger than the strong,
Thyself Omnipotence.
- 5 Come, and begin thy reign
Of everlasting peace;
Come, take the kingdom to thyself,
Great King of righteousness.

Horattus Bonar.

But not in hope forlorn;
We left them but to slumber ther,
Till the last glorious morn.
- 5 We long to hear thy voice,
To see thee face to face,
To share thy crown and glory then,
As now we share thy grace.

Her absent Lord to see;
And still in loneliness she waits,
A friendless stranger she.
- 2 How long, O Lord our God,
Holy and true and good,
Wilt thou not judge thy suffering Church,
Her sighs and tears and blood?
- 3 Saint after saint on earth,
Has lived and loved and died;
And as they left us, one by one,
We laid them side by side.

- 1 IN expectation sweet,
We'll wait, and sing, and pray,
Till Christ's triumphal car we meet,
And see an endless day.
- 2 He comes! The conqueror comes!
Death falls beneath his sword;
The joyful prisoners burst the tombs,
And rise to meet their Lord.
- 3 The trumpet sounds, Awake!
The saints the call obey;
Their joyful upward flight they take
To realms of endless day.

Who love the ways of peace;
No night of sorrow e'er shall close
Or shade their perfect bliss.

On this wild, rocky shore,
And we shall be where tempests cease,
And surges swell no more:
Then, O my Lord, prepare
My soul for that calm day;
O, wash me in thy precious blood,
And take my sins away!
- 3 A few more struggles here,
A few more partings sore,
A few more toils, a few more tears,
And we shall weep no more:
Then, O my Lord, prepare
My soul for that blest day;
O, wash me in thy precious blood,
And take my sins away!
- 4 'Tis but a little while,
And He shall come again,
Who died that we might live, who lives
That we may with him reign:

Our cautioned souls prepare
For that tremendous day,
And fill us now with watchful care,
And stir us up to pray:
- 2 To pray, and wait the hour,
That awful hour unknown,
When, robed in majesty and power,
Thou shalt from heaven come down,
The immortal Son of man,
To judge the human race,
With all thy Father's dazzling train,
With all thy glorious grace.
- 3 O may we all be found
Obedient to thy word,
Attentive to the trumpet's sound,
And looking for our Lord:
O may we thus insure
A lot among the blest,
And watch a moment to secure
An everlasting rest.

- 1 BROTHER pilgrim, be not weary;
 Tune your harp for heaven and home,
 Where the heart is never dreary,
 And where tears shall never come:
 Don your armor, be not sleeping;
 One short hour, and 't will be past;
 One brief hour of toil and weeping,
 Then comes heaven and home at last.
- 2 Let your eyes to heaven be turning,— Darkened sun and falling stars,—
 See the crimson heavens burning,
 Earth prepared for final wars;
 Hear the scoffer ask with jeering,
 "Where's the sign that he is nigh?"—
 Turn your eyes with joy and fearing
 To the omens in the sky.
- 3 Signs in nature oft have told us
 Of the saints' glad jubilee;
 Soon shall azure skies unfold us,
 And upon the jasper sea
 We shall stand in robes of whiteness,
 Praising him upon the throne,
 And in heaven's eternal brightness
 We shall know as we are known.

Jesus our Lord will appear.
Yes, yes, O yes,
Jesus our Lord will appear.
- 4 Now, now, through a glass darkly,
Shine, shine, visions to come;
Soon, soon, we shall behold them,
Cloudless and bright in our home.
Yes, yes, O yes,
Cloudless and bright in our home.
- 5 Long, long, we have been waiting,
Who, who, love his blest name;
Now, now, we are delighting,
Jesus is near to proclaim.
Yes, yes, O yes,
Jesus is near to proclaim.
- 6 Still, still, rest on the promise,
Cling, cling, fast to his word;
Wait, wait, if he should tarry,
Patiently wait for the Lord.
Yes, yes, O yes,
Patiently wait for the Lord.

- 1 HOME, home, beameth before us!
When, when, shall we be there?
Long, long, here we have wandered,
Burdened with sorrow and care:
Home, home, home, home,—
Sorrow breathes not in its air.
- 2 Home, home, there in thy bowers,
Sweet, sweet music shall swell;
Sin, sin, never can enter;
Peace in each bosom shall dwell:
Home, home, home, home,—
Peace in each bosom shall dwell.
- 3 Home, home, rest to the weary,
Peace, peace, to the torn breast;
Hope, hope, hope of the erring;
There in thy bosom we'll rest!
Home, home, home, home,—
There will the wanderers rest.
- 4 Home, home, bliss to the parted;
Friends, friends, meet on its shore;
Here, here, lonely they've left us;
Soon we'll be parted no more:
Home, home, home, home,—
Friends will be parted no more.
- 5 Home, home, let us now hasten,
See, see, angels above!
Hark! hark! now do they call us,
Home to their dwelling of love:
Home, home, home, home,—
Home of our Father's kind love.

Anon.

2 How long, O gracious Master,
Wilt thou thy household leave?
So long hast thou now tarried,
Few thy return believe.
Immersed in sloth and folly,
Thy servants, Lord, we see;
And few of us stand ready
With joy to welcome thee.

3 O, wake thy slumbering people;
Send forth the solemn cry;
Let all the saints repeat it,—
"The Saviour draweth nigh!"
May all our lamps be burning,
Our loins well girded be,
Each longing heart preparing
With joy thy face to see.

834

367, 246.

1 THE world is very evil,
The times are waxing late;
Be sober and keep vigil;
The Judge is at the gate,—
The Judge who comes in mercy,
The Judge who comes with might,—
Who comes to end the evil,
Who comes to crown the right.

2 Arise, arise, good Christian,
Let right to wrong succeed;
Let penitential sorrow
To heavenly gladness lead,—
To light that has no evening,
That knows no moon nor sun,—
The light so new and golden,
The light that is but one.

Anon.

3 Behold the morn shall waken,
And shadows shall decay,
And each true-hearted servant
Shall shine as does the day;
And God, our King and Portion,
In fullness of his grace,
Shall we behold forever,
And worship face to face.

John M. Neale.

367, 415.

1 O FOR the robes of whiteness!
O for the tearless eyes!
O for the glorious brightness
Of the unclouded skies!
O for the no more weeping,
Within that land of love,
The endless joy of keeping
The bridal feast above!

2 O for the bliss of flying,
My risen Lord to meet!
O for the rest of lying
Forever at his feet!
O for the hour of seeing
My Saviour face to face!
The hope of ever being
In that sweet meeting-place!

3 Jesus, thou King of Glory,
I soon shall dwell with thee;
I soon shall sing the story
Of thy great love to me:
Meanwhile, my thoughts shall enter
E'en now before thy throne,
That all my love may center
In thee, and thee alone.

C. L. Smith.

1. { O when shall I see Je - sus, And in his kingdom dwell? Par - take its rest - er - nal, Its songs triumphant swell? }
 { When shall I be de - liv - ered From this vain world of sin, And with my blessed Je - sus Drink endless pleasures in? }

Refrain.

There is sweet rest in heaven, There is sweet rest in heaven, There is sweet rest, there is sweet rest, There is sweet rest in heaven.

833, 367.

2 And when the last loud trumpet
 Shall rend the vaulted skies,
 And the entombed millions
 From their cold beds arise,
 Our ransomed dust revived,
 Bright beauties shall put on,
 And soar to the blest mansions
 Where our Redeemer's gone.

3 Our eyes shall then with rapture
 The Saviour's face behold;
 Our feet, no more diverted,
 Shall walk the streets of gold;
 Our ears shall hear with transport
 The hosts celestial sing;
 Our tongues shall chant the glory
 Of our immortal King.

 837 "Rise My Soul"

AMSTERDAM. P. M.

1715-1743
 JAMES NARES.

1. { Rise, my soul, and stretch thy wings, Thy bet - ter por - tion trace; }
 { Rise from tran - si - to - ry things Toward heaven, thy na - tive place. } Sun, and moon, and stars de - cay;

Time shall soon this earth re - mere; Rise, my soul, and haste a - way To seats pre - pared a - bore.

2 Rivers to the ocean run,
 Nor stay in all their course;
 Fire ascending seeks the sun;
 Both speed them to their source:
 So a soul that's born of God,
 Pants to view his glorious face;
 Upward tends to his abode,
 To rest in his embrace.

3 Cease, my soul, O cease to mourn!
 Press onward to the prize;
 Soon thy Saviour will return:
 To take thee to the skies:
 There is everlasting peace,
 Rest, enduring rest in heaven;
 There will sorrow ever cease,
 And crowns of joy be given.

Robert Seagrave.

"Nares filled many important²⁷⁵ positions, at St. George's Chapel, Windsor, and became organist at Yorkminster in 1734."

1. Ye who rose to meet the Lord, Ventured on his faithful word, Faint not now, for your reward Will be quickly given.

Faint not, always watch and pray; Jesus will no more delay; Even now 'tis dawn of day; Day-star beams from heaven.

- 2 Would ye to the end endure?
Keep the wedding garment pure,
Claim ye still the promise sure,
Faithful is the Lord!
Let your lamps be burning bright;
In God's word is beaming light;
Live by faith, and not by sight—
Crowns are your reward.
- 3 Mid the darts of angry foe,
Onward, fearless, onward go,
The good soldier's courage show,
On to victory!
Let thine eyes be turned to me,
Jesus says, "I'll rescue thee;
Overcome, and faithful be,
Thou shalt glory see!"
- 4 Tones of thunder through the sky,
Angel voices sounding high,
Echo still the mighty cry,
"Jesus, quickly come!"
Quickly he'll return again,
With his saints he'll come to reign,
While all heaven will shout, "Amen!
Welcome to thy throne!"
- 5 Marriage supper now prepared,
By the guests will then be shared,
In fair, righteous robes arrayed,
Like the Bridegroom King.
Glory to Jehovah's name!
Sound aloud the glad acclaim,
To the Lamb that once was slain,
Alleluias bring!

839

[Tune, To-day, No. 414.]

6s & 4s.

- 1 WHEN shall I see the day
That ends my woes?
When shall I victory gain
O'er all my foes?
- 2 When will the trumpet sound,
That calls me home?
The grand, sabbatic year,—
When will it come?
- 3 In yonder realms of light,
By faith I see
A crown of glory bright,
Prepared for me.
- 4 O may I soon behold
That happy day,
When sorrow, sin, and pain
Shall flee away!
- 5 O may I ever keep
The prize in view,
And through the storms of life
My way pursue!
- 6 Jesus, be thou my guide,
My steps attend;
O keep me near thy side;
Be thou my friend.
- 7 Be thou my shield and sun,
Be thou my guard;
And, when my work is done,
My great reward.

WAITING FOR CHRIST—CLOSING WORK.

CONTRAST. 8s. D.

LEWIS EDSON.

1. I long to be-hold him arrayed With glo - ry and light from a - bove;

The King in his beau-ty displayed, His beau-ty of ho - li - est love:
D. S.—O, when shall we meet in the air, And fly to the mount-ain of God?

I languish, and sigh to be there, Where Je - sus hath fixed his a - bode;

2 With him, I on Zion shall stand,
For Jesus has spoken the word;
The breadth of Immanuel's land,
Survey, by the side of my Lord.
But when, on thy bosom reclined,
Thy face I am strengthened to see,
My fullness of rapture I find,
My heaven of heavens, in thee.

3 How happy the people whose home
Is found in the city of God!
As pilgrims no more they shall roam,
Nor travel a dangerous road.
Physician divine, unto me
Thy soul-healing blessing now give,
And keep me while waiting for thee,
And then to that city receive.

Charles Wesley.

841

1 AWAY with our sorrow and fear!
We soon shall recover our home;
The city of saints shall appear,
The day of eternity come.
From earth we shall quickly remove,
And mount to our promised abode,—
The house of our Father above,
The palace of angels and God.

2 By faith we already behold
That lovely Jerusalem here;
Her walls are of jasper and gold,
As crystal her buildings are clear.
Immovably founded in grace,
She stands as she ever has stood;
And soon, at the end of our race,
We'll rest in that city of God.

Charles Wesley.

DAWNING. 8s & 7s. D.

WILLIAM B. BRADBURY.

1. Watchman, tell me, does the morn - ing Of fair Zi - on's glo - ry dawn? }
 Have the signs that mark its com - ing Yet up - on thy pathway shone? }
D. C.—Gird thy bri - dal robes a - round thee, Morn - ing dawns, a - rise! a - rise!

D. C.
 Pil - grim, yes! a - rise, look round thee; Light is break - ing in the skies;

132, 844, 608.

- 2 Watchman, see, the light is beaming
 Brighter still upon thy way;
 Signs through all the earth are gleaming,
 Omens of the coming day
 When the Jubal trumpet, sounding,
 Shall awake from earth and sea
 All the saints of God, now sleeping,
 Clad in immortality.
- 3 Watchman, hail the light ascending
 Of the grand, Sabbatic year;
 All with voices loud proclaiming
 That the kingdom now is near:
 Pilgrim, yes, I see just yonder,
 Canaan's glorious highs arise;
 Salem, too, appears in grandeur,
 Towering 'neath its sunlit skies.
- 4 Watchman, in the golden city,
 Seated on his jasper throne,
 Zion's King, arrayed in beauty,
 Reigns in peace from zone to zone:
 There on sunlit hills and mountains,
 Golden beams serenely glow;
 Purling streams and crystal fountains,
 On whose banks sweet flow'rets blow.
- 5 Watchman, see, the land is nearing,
 With its vernal fruits and flowers;
 On, just yonder,—O how cheering!
 Bloom forever Eden's bowers.

Hark! the choral strains are ringing,
 Wafted on the balmy air,
 See the millions, hear them singing,
 Soon the pilgrim will be there.

Sidney S. Brewer.

843

844, 601, 412.

- 1 GRACIOUS Father, guard thy children
 From the foe's destructive power;
 Save, O save them, Lord, from falling
 In this dark and trying hour.
 Thou wilt surely prove thy people,
 All our graces must be tried;
 But thy word illumines our pathway,
 And in God we still confide.
- 2 We are in the time of waiting;
 Soon we shall behold our Lord,
 Wafted far away from sorrow,
 To receive our rich reward.
 Keep us, Lord, till thine appearing,
 Pure, unspotted from the world;
 Let thy Holy Spirit cheer us
 Till thy banner is unfurled.
- 3 With what joyful exultation
 Shall the saints thy banner see,
 When the Lord for whom we've waited
 Shall proclaim the Jubilee!
 Freedom from this world's pollutions;
 Freedom from all sin and pain;
 Freedom from the wiles of Satan,
 And from death's destructive reign.

2 Now the light of truth they're seeking,
 In its onward track pursue;
 All the ten commandments keeping,
 They are holy, just, and true.
 On the words of life they're feeding,
 Precious to their taste, so sweet;
 All their Master's precepts heeding,
 Bowing humbly at his feet.

3 In that world of light and beauty,
 In that golden city fair,
 Soon its pearly gates they'll enter,
 And of all its glories share.
 There, divine the soul's expansions;
 Free from sin, and death, and pain;
 Tears will never dim those mansions
 Where the saints immortal reign.

4 Soon He comes! with clouds descending;
 All his saints, entombed, arise;
 The redeemed, in anthems blending,
 Shout their victory through the skies.
 O, we long for thine appearing;
 Come, O Saviour, quickly come!
 Blessed hope! our spirits cheering,
 Take thy ransomed children home.

Annie R. Smith.

Israel's strength and consolation,
 Hope of all the saints thou art;
 Dear Desire of every nation,
 Joy of every longing heart.

2 Born, thy people to deliver;
 Born a child and yet a king;
 Born to reign o'er us forever;
 Now thy precious kingdom bring:
 By thine own eternal Spirit
 Rule in all our hearts alone;
 By thine all-sufficient merit
 Raise us to thy glorious throne.

Charles Wesley.

1 THIS is not my place of resting;
 Mine's a city yet to come;
 Onward, to it, I am hastening,—
 On to my eternal home.
 In it, all is light and glory;
 O'er it shines a nightless day;
 Every trace of sin's sad story,
 All the curse has passed away.

2 There the Lamb, our Shepherd, leads us
 By the streams of life along;
 On the freshest pastures feeds us,
 Turns our sighing into song.
 Soon we pass this desert dreary,
 Soon we bid farewell to pain;
 Nevermore are sad and weary,
 Never, never sigh again.

Horatius Bonar.

ONWARD, 8s & 7s. D.

UNKNOWN.

1. Pilgrims, on! the day is dawning; Strike your tents, and homeward haste: Sleep not while the blush of morn-ing Calls you on the des-ert waste. Though the way be dark and drear-y,

Life's sharp an-guish must be borne; Courage, then ye faint and wear-y, Lin-ger not to weep and mourn.

844, 466.

- 2 Pilgrims, on! the storm is beating,
 Beating wildly on your way:
 Tarry not, the time is fleeting;
 Shall the storm your footsteps stay?
 Hasten on, through joy and sorrow,
 Or whatever may betide,
 Wait not for the calm to-morrow,
 Faithful at your work abide.

- 3 Pilgrims, on! what though in dangers,
 Life's eventful course pursue;
 Labor on, ye friendless strangers,
 Grace will guide you safely through.
 What if trials must befall you!
 What if fierce temptations rise!
 Shall earth's bitter strife appall you
 While contending for the prize?

- 4 Pilgrims, on! there's rest in heaven,
 Rest from every anxious care,
 Rest in Jesus' smiles, forgiven,
 Peaceful and eternal there.

- O, 't were sweet to toil in sadness,
 O, 't were well the cross to bear,
 If, at last in joy and gladness,
 We may rest forever there!

Anon.

849

501, 503.

- 1 TIME, thou speedest on but slowly;
 Hours, how tardy is your pace!
 Ere with him, the high and holy,
 I hold converse face to face.
 Here is naught but care and mourning
 Comes a joy, it will not stay;
 Fairly shines the sun at dawning,
 Night will soon o'ercloud the day.
- 2 Onward then! not long I wander
 Ere my Saviour comes for me,
 And with him abiding yonder,
 All his glory I shall see.
 O, the music and the singing
 Of the hosts redeemed by love!
 O, the hallelujahs ringing
 Through the halls of light above!

LOVE DIVINE. 8s & 7s. D.

JOHN ZUNDEL.

1. Light of these whose dreary dwell-ing Bor-ders on the shades of death, Come, and by thy-self re-veal-ing,
D. S.—Scattering all the night of nature,

Fine. D. S.

Dis-si-pate the clouds be-neath. Thou, new heaven and earth's Cre-a-tor, In our deep-est dark-ness ris; Pouring day up-on our eyes.

344, 501, 503.

2 Still we wait for thy appearing;
Life and joy thy beams impart,
Chasing all our fears, and cheering
Every poor benighted heart.
Come, extend thy wonted favor
To our ruined, guilty race;
Come, thou blest, exalted Saviour!
Come, apply thy saving grace.

3 By thine all-atoning merit
Every burdened soul release;
By the teachings of thy Spirit
Guide us into perfect peace;
So shall we, at thine appearing,
Wait thy smiling face to see;
So, the joyful summons hearing,
Enter into rest with thee.

GOOD CHEER. 8s & 7s. D.

UNKNOWN.

1. { Lift your heads with faith, the mor-row Dawneth bright-er than to-day, } Chase the gathering gloom a-way.
{ An-gel hands will lift the shadows, (omit.) }

Chorus.

{ Lift your heads, the day is break-ing, Soon the morn-ing will ap-pear; } Lift your heads; the day draws near.
{ Sig-nus pre-claim the Lord is com-ing; (omit.) }

2 Art thou lonely, sad, and weary,
Watching through the silent night?
Dry thy tears, the orient glistens
Like a thread of silver light.

3 What though wars and earth's commotions
Cause men's hearts to fail with fear?
God, your Father, rules the nations,
Christ will for his saints appear.

DILIGENCE. 8s & 7s. P.

F. E. BELDEN.

1. Let every lamp be burning bright, The dark-est hour is nearing; The darkest hour of earth's long night, Be - fore the Lord's appearing. Then trim your lamps, my brethren dear,

They trim your lamps with godly fear; The Master's coming draweth near, Let every lamp be burning.

- 2 Though thousands calmly slumber on,
The last great message spurning,
We'll rest our living faith upon
His promise of returning.
- 3 His word our lamp, his truth our guide,
We cannot be mistaken;

- Though dangers rise on every side,
We shall not be forsaken.
- 4 Then let good works with faith appear,
To shame the world around us;
Obedience brings the blessing near
When faith has firmly bound us.

LAST LOVELY MORNING. 6s & 5s. P.

UNKNOWN.
D. C.

1. { The last lovely morn-ing, All blooming and fair, } While the mighty, mighty, mighty tramp Sounds, "Come, come away!"
{ is fast onward fleet-ing, And soon will appear; }
D. C.—O, let us be read-y To hail that glad day!

- 2 And when that bright morning
In splendor shall dawn,
Our tears will be ended,
Our sorrows all gone.
- 3 The Bridegroom from glory
To earth shall descend,
Ten thousand bright angels
Around him attend.

- 4 The graves will be opened,
The saints will arise,
And with the Redeemer
Mount up to the skies.
- 5 The saints, then immortal,
In glory shall reign;
The Bride with the Bridegroom
Forever remain.

844, 132.

- 2 Tell, O tell us, are the landmarks
 On our voyage all passed by?
 Are we nearing now the haven?
 Can we e'en the land descri?y?
 Do we truly
 See the heavenly kingdom nigh?
- 3 Light is beaming, day is coming!
 Let us sound aloud the cry;
 We behold the day-star rising
 Pure and bright in yonder sky!
 Saints, be joyful;
 Your redemption draweth nigh.
- 4 We have found the chart and compass,
 And are sure the land is near;
 Onward, onward we are hasting,
 Soon the haven will appear;
 Let your voices
 Sound aloud your holy cheer.

867, 132.

- 1 LIFT your heads, ye friends of Jesus,
 Partners in his patience here;
 Christ, to all believers precious,
 Lord of lords shall soon appear.
 Mark the tokens
 Of his heavenly kingdom near.
- 2 Yes, the prize shall soon be given;
 We his open face shall see;
 Love, the earnest of our heaven,
 Love our full reward shall be;
 Love shall crown us
 Kings through all eternity.

Charles Wesley.

- 1 O'ER the distant mountain breaking,
 Comes the reddening dawn of day;
 Rise, my soul, from sleep awaking,
 Rise, and sing, and watch, and pray;
 'Tis the Saviour
 On his bright returning way.
- 2 O thou long-expected, weary
 Waits my anxious soul for thee;
 Life is dark, and earth is dreary
 Where thy light I do not see:
 O my Saviour,
 When wilt thou return to me?
- 3 Long, too long, in sin and sadness,
 Far away from thee I pine;
 When, O when, shall I the gladness
 Of thy Spirit feel in mine?
 O my Saviour,
 When shall I be wholly thine?
- 4 Nearer is my soul's salvation,
 Spent the night, the day at hand;
 Keep me in my lowly station,
 Watching for thee, till I stand,
 O my Saviour,
 In thy bright and promised land.
- 5 With my lamp well-trimmed and burning,
 Swift to hear, and slow to roam,
 Watching for thy glad returning
 To restore me to my home;
 Come, my Saviour,
 O my Saviour, quickly come!

2 Has thy night been long and mournful?
Have thy friends unfaithful proved?
Have thy foes been proud and scornful?
By thy sighs and tears unmoved?
Cease thy mourning;
Zion still is well beloved.

3 God, thy God, will now restore thee;
He himself appears thy Friend;
All thy foes shall flee before thee;
Here their boasts and triumphs end:
Great deliverance
Zion's King will surely send.

Thomas Kelly.

772, 466.

1 CHRIST is coming! let creation
Bid her groans and travails cease;
Let the glorious proclamation
Hope restore and faith increase;
Christ is coming!
Come, thou blessed Prince of peace!

2 Earth can now but tell the story
Of thy bitter cross and pain;
She shall yet behold thy glory
When thou comest back to reign;
Christ is coming!
Let each heart repeat the strain.

3 Long thy exiles have been pining,
Far from rest, and home, and thee;
But, in heavenly vesture shining,
Soon they shall thy glory see;
Christ is coming!
Haste the joyous jubilee.

4 With that "blessed hope" before us,
Let no harp remain unstrung;
Let the mighty advent chorus
Onward roll, from tongue to tongue;
Christ is coming!
Come, Lord Jesus, quickly come!

859 "3 messages" John R. Macduff. See 1338

1 Lo! an angel loud proclaiming,
Brings the gospel of good cheer;
Every kindred, tongue, and people,
Fear the Lord, soon to appear!
Proclamation
Of the hour of Judgment near.

2 Lo! another angel follows,
With another solemn cry;
"Babylon the great is fallen!"
Peals like thunder through the sky:
"Let my people
Now from all her errors fly."

3 Yet, a third and solemn message
Now a final doom proclaims;
All who worship beast or image
Soon shall feel the avenging flames:
Grace no longer
Shelters their unworthy names.

4 Here are they who now are waiting,
And have patience to endure;
While the dragon's hosts are raging,
These confide in God, secure:
Faith of Jesus
And commandments keep them pure.

- 2 Let us hail the joyful season,
Let us hail the rising ray;
When the Lord appears, there's reason
To expect a glorious day;
At the brightness of his coming
Gloom and darkness flee away.
- 3 While the foe becomes more daring,
While he enters like a flood,
God the Saviour is preparing
Means to spread his light abroad;
Every tongue and every language
Soon shall hear the truth of God.

- 4 O how pleasant, how reviving
To our hearts, to hear each day
Joyful news from far arriving,
That the message wins its way;
Those enlightening and enlivening
Who in death and darkness lay!
- 5 God of Israel, high and glorious,
Let thy people see thy hand;
Let the message be victorious
Through the world, in every land:
Come, Lord Jesus, O come quickly,
And thy blessing now command.

COMING EVENTS, 11s & 9s.

UNKNOWN.

1. { The com-ing events of the king-dom of God Cast in glo-ry their shadows be-fore; }
And my being would leap from its prisoned abode, (omit.)

And the King in his beau-ty a-dore, And the King in his beau-ty a-dore.

- 2 He comes, and the Spirit that lingers below,
In the hearts of the chosen and tried,
Is quickened, and tells in its mystical flow,
The approach of the Bridgroom and Bride.
- 3 The love and the joy and the peace of the blest,
Like the day-star, arise in the soul,
And we taste the first-fruits of the Eden of rest,
And we hasten to enter the goal.

Anon.

1. Christian, the morn breaks sweet-ly o'er thee, And all the mid-night shad-ows flee; Tinged are the dis-tant skies with glo-ry, A bea-con-light hangs out for thee. A-rise, a-rise, the light breaks o'er thee, Thy name is grav-en on the throne; Thy home is in that world of glo-ry Where thy Re-deem-er reigns a-lone.

2 Tossed on time's rude, relentless surges,
Calmly composed and dauntless, stand;
For lo, beyond those scenes emerges
The hights that bound the promised land.
Christian, behold, the land is nearing,
Where the wild sea-storm's rage is o'er;
Hark, how the heavenly hosts are cheer-
ing!
See in what throngs they range the shore.

3 Cheer up, cheer up, the day breaks o'er thee,
Bright as the summer's noon-tide ray;
The star-gemmed crowns and realms of glory
Invite thy happy soul away.
Away, away, leave all for glory,
Thy name is graven on the throne,
Thy home is in that world of beauty
Where thy Redeemer reigns alone.

[Tune, Triumph, No. 620.]

10s. P.

1 DAY of redemption! when shall we behold
Earth overwhelmed with thy splendor untold?

Dark is this desert, and weary our road;
O for the day-spring that cometh from God!
Deep are earth's shadows, its sorrows and gloom;

Oft is its gladness laid low in the tomb:
Joy and rejoicing like shadows depart,
Grief and affliction abide in the heart.

2 Many the sorrows this sad earth has known;
Hopes have been withered, and hearts have been torn;

Tears have been gushing from fountains
of grief;

O for that morning which brings us relief!
Ah, we have tasted of blessings to come;
On we have hastened to gain them at home;
There, in the light of eternity's morn,
Glad shall the saints sing the conquerors'
song.

D. S.—Where tears and temp-

land of the good and the blest, Where sin can no long-er her blandishmentsspread, ta - tions for - ev - er are fled? Fine. D. S.

511, 512.

- 2 I'm weary of sighing o'er sorrows of earth,
O'er joy's glowing visions that fade at their birth,
O'er pangs for the loved which we cannot assuage,
O'er blightings of youth and the weakness
of age.
- 3 I'm weary of hoping, where hope is un-
true,
As fair but as fleeting as bright morning
dew;
I long for that land whose blest promise
alone
Is changeless, and sure as eternity's throne.
- 4 I'm weary of loving what passes away;
The sweetest and dearest, alas! may not stay:
I long for that land where these partings are o'er,
And death and the tomb can divide us no
more!
- 5 O Jesus, my Saviour, when shall I behold
That morning long promised by prophets of old,
When sin's night of sorrow forever is past,
And death's silent captives are ransomed at last?

Anon.

511, 512.

- 1 O LIFT up your heads! your redemption draws near!
Let nothing discourage, or cause you to fear;
Our Saviour is faithful, his promise is sure
To all who bear trials, hold fast, and endure.
- 2 Well may you have courage, your cause is the Lord's,
Attested by signs, and with Scripture
accords;
And though all the powers of the dragon
assail,
The truth, being mighty, will surely prevail.
- 3 Hold fast that rich treasure, nor e'er lay
it down;
Endure to the end and let none take thy crown;
The spirits of darkness will seek to devour,
But Jesus and angels excel them in power.
- 4 Rich promise to all who shall now over-
come!—
To be a firm pillar in God's sacred dome, Inscribed with his name, and the Son of his love,
And that of the city which comes from above.

RODMAN. 11s & 10s.

LOWELL MASON.

1. Heir of the kingdom, O why dost thou slumber? Why art thou sleeping so near thy blest home?

Wake thee, arouse thee, and gird on thine armor, Speed, for the moments are hur-ry-ing on.

1004, 714.

2 Heir of the kingdom, say, why dost thou linger?

How canst thou tarry in sight of the prize?
Up, and adorn thee, the Saviour is coming;
Haste to receive him descending the skies.

3 Earth's mighty nations, in strife and commotion,

Tremble with terror, and sink in dismay;
Listen, 'tis naught but the chariot's loud rumbling;

Heir of the kingdom, no longer delay.

4 Stay not, O stay not for earth's vain allurements!

See how its glory is passing away;
Break the strong fetters the foe hath bound o'er thee;

Heir of the kingdom, turn, turn thee away.

5 Keep the eye single, the head upward lifted;
Watch for the glory of earth's coming King;
Lo! o'er the mountain-tops light is now breaking;

Heirs of the kingdom, rejoice ye and sing.

LITTLE FLOCK. 12s & 11s.

F. E. BELDEN.

1. Fear not, little flock, 'tis your Father's good pleasure To give you the glorious kingdom above;

To grant you the precious and e-ter-nal treasure Of life ev-er-lasting,—a gift of his love.

971, 426.

2 No more shall ye suffer for Christ, tribulation,
No more shall ye rudely be scattered and torn;

Your trials and sorrows, your fears and temptations,
Will shortly be over; no more shall ye mourn.

3 Earth has not the bliss which in heaven is offered,

And knows not the joys that await all the blest;

The saints are the heirs to the kingdom that's proffered,—

The kingdom of righteousness, kingdom of rest.

4 Then fear not, ye flock, for your Shepherd, returning,

Shall gather his sheep in his heavenly fold;
Shall lead you in pastures for which ye are yearning,

And shelter you safe in the city of gold.

CANAAN, C. M. D.

THEODORE E. PERKINS.

Hope of our hearts, O Lord, appear, Thou glorious Star of day! Shine forth, and chase the drear-night, With all our tears, a-way. No resting-place we seek on earth, No love-ll-ness we see; Our eye is on the royal crown, Pre-pared for us and thee.

803, 889.

- 2 Light of the lonely pilgrim's heart!
Star of the coming day!
Arise, and with thy morning beams
Chase all our griefs away.
Come, blessed Lord! let every shore
And answering island sing
The praises of thy royal name,
And own thee as their King.
- 3 Jesus, thy fair creation groans—
The air, the earth, the sea—
In unison with all our hearts,
And calls aloud for thee.
Thine was the cross, with all its fruits
Of grace and peace divine;
Be thine the crown of glory now,
The palm of victory thine.
- 4 But, dearest Lord, however bright
That crown of joy above,
What is it to the brighter hope
Of dwelling in thy love?
What to the joy, the deeper joy,
Unmingled, pure, and free,
Of union with our living Head,
Of fellowship with thee?

Edward Denny.

486, 686.

- 1 Soon will the heavenly Bridegroom come;
Ye wedding-guests draw near,
And slumber not in sin, when he,
The Son of God, is here!
Come, let us haste to meet our Lord,
And hail him with delight;
Who saves us by his precious blood,
From sorrows infinite!
- 2 Beside him will the patriarchs old,
And holy prophets stand;
The glorious apostolic choir,
And noble martyr band.
As brethren dear they'll welcome us,
And lead us to the throne,
Where angels bow their veiled heads,
Before the Eternal One.
- 3 There we, with all the saints of God,
A white-robed multitude,
Shall praise our glorious Lord, who deigned
To bear our flesh and blood.
Our happy lot shall be to share
His reign of peace above,
And drink, with unexhausted joy,
The river of his love.

Anon.

1. There is a King of glo-ry, Ere long on earth to rise, Sung in prophetic sto-ry, Descending from the skies;

The Babe of Bethlehem, 't is he; It is the man of Calvary,—Not crowned with thorns, and gory, But crowned with glory now! Not crowned with thorns to-day, Not mocked and led a-way, But crowned with everlasting glo-ry now!

2 He cometh, cometh speedy,
 To save his suffering saints,—
 Saints groaning, waiting, ready,—
 And endeth their complaints:
 With joy they meet him in the air,
 And shout the swelling triumph there;
 No longer poor and needy,
 But crowned with glory now!
 Not one's reviled to-day!
 None stumble in the way—
 All crowned with everlasting glory now.

3 O tears, and sin, and sighing,
 Now let your prisoner go,
 Discharged from pain and dying
 And from a world of woe;
 I go to Christ, he comes to me,
 We meet in bright eternity,
 On clouds he cometh flying,—
 On clouds of glory now!
 Victorious in his wars,
 Full many a palm he bears,
 And crowns of everlasting glory now!

4 O, what is tribulation,
 And all the ills I bear,
 Compared with this salvation,
 And all the glory there?
 Behold a city fair and high,
 Bright capital of earth and sky,
 The joy of all creation,
 And filled with glory now!
 The armies of his grace,
 Triumphant reach the place:
 'T is glory, everlasting glory, now!

5 There every sight that pleases,
 There every sound that cheers,
 There sweet, immortal breezes,
 Inspire the balmy years;
 There all the just join in a band,
 From every age, from every land,
 While o'er them reigns King Jesus,
 With crowns of glory now!
 The people of his grace,
 Have reached the heavenly place:
 'T is glory, everlasting glory, now!

2 The plague, and dearth, and din of war,
 Our Saviour's swift approach declare,
 And bid our hearts arise;
 The signs confirm our trembling hope,
 While scoffers still in darkness grope,
 And view them with surprise.

3 Thy tokens we with joy confess;
 The war proclaims the Prince of peace;
 The earthquake speaks thy power;

The famine all thy fullness brings;
 The plague presents thy healing wings,
 And nature's final hour.

4 Whatever ill the world befall,
 A pledge of endless good we call,
 A sign of Jesus near.
 His chariot will not long delay;
 We hear the rumbling wheels, and pray,
 "Triumphant Lord, appear!"

Charles Wesley.

1. He reigns! the Lord, the Saviour reigns! Sing to his name in loft-y strains,

Let all the saints in songs rejoice, And in his praise ex-alt their voice.

212, 64, 301.

- 2 Deep are his counsels, and unknown,
But grace and truth support his throne;
Though gloomy clouds his way surround,
Justice is their eternal ground.
- 3 In robes of judgment, lo, he comes!
Shakes the wide earth, and cleaves the tombs;
Before him burns devouring fire,
The mountains melt, the seas retire.
- 4 His enemies with wild dismay
Fly from the sight, and shun the day;
Then lift your heads, ye saints, on high,
And sing, for your redemption's nigh.

1864 - Isaac Watts.
357

929, 932, 914.

- 1 DARK brood the heavens over thee,
Black clouds of gloom are gathering fast,
In awful power thy God has come,
Thy days of sin and mirth are past.
- 2 Dark brood the heavens over thee,
Red flames of death are bursting round;
Bright lightnings flash, loud thunders
roar,
Howshakes the heaving, broken ground!
- 3 Dark brood the heavens over thee,
Behold, the Judge of all appears;
Unnumbered millions throng around,
Raised from the buried dust of years.
- 4 Dark brood the heavens over thee;
Sinner, behold thy dreadful doom!
Destruction opens wide for thee
Thy blindly chosen, final home.

- 5 Yet stay,—the vision lingers yet;
Why, sinner, O, why wilt thou die?
Dark brood the heavens, but mercy waits;
This hour to Christ, thy Saviour, fly.

- 1 THE day of wrath, that dreadful day,
When heaven and earth shall pass away!
What power shall be the sinner's stay?
How shall he meet that dreadful day?
- 2 When, shriveling like a parched scroll,
The flaming heavens together roll,
And louder yet, and yet more dread,
Resounds the trumpet that wakes the dead,—
- 3 O, on that day, that wrathful day,
When man to Judgment wakes from clay,
Be thou, O Christ, thy people's stay,
Though heaven and earth shall pass away.

Walter Scott.

- 1 WHEN thou shalt come with trumpet sound,
With countless angels hovering round,
O Saviour! grant me, in the air,
With all thy saints, to meet thee there!
- 2 Weep, O my soul! ere that great day
When God shall shine in stern array;
O weep thy sin, that thou mayest be
In that severest Judgment free!
- 3 O Christ! forgive, remit, protect,
And set thy servant with the elect,
That I may hear the voice that calls
The righteous to thy heavenly halls!

From East to West, from South to North;
Speed on! speed on the tidings glad,
That none who love him may be sad.
- 3 The Lord is coming! saints, rejoice!
We soon shall hear his glorious voice,
Majestic, uttered from afar,
As on he hastes his conquering car.

- 1 OUR Saviour comes to raise the just,
Who long have slumbered in the dust;
His voice will break their long repose,
And snatch them from the last of foes.
- 2 He comes to change the waiting ones
Who now endure the world's cold frowns;
Their feet are planted on the Rock;
They fear not, though a little flock.
- 3 Sinner, dost thou not dread thy doom?
The retribution hastens on;
Stern justice lifts the avenging sword
To slay the mocker of God's word.
- 4 O then repent, ere the decree,
"Let him that's filthy, filthy be,"
From the stern Judge's lips shall fall,
And thou for rocks and mountains call!

638, 136, 336,

- 1 THE Saviour comes, his advent's nigh;
He soon will rend the azure sky,
Descending swift to earth again,
When God shall dwell indeed with men.
- 2 Saints lift your heads; that day is near
When your Redeemer shall appear,
To take the kingdom and the crown,
And make his ransomed church his own.
- 3 Day promised long, now soon to dawn,
When sin's dark night of death is gone!
Come quickly, Lord, we long to see
That morning of eternity.
- 4 And while we wait, we'll toil and pray,
Still watching for that glorious day
When with the voice of trumpet loud
The Judge appears on yonder cloud.

Ye mountains, melt to liquid fire!
Ye oceans, cease to ebb and flow!
His stately steppings ye should know.
- 2 The Lord is coming! Who shall stand?
Who shall be found at his right hand?—
He with the righteous garment on Which Christ our glorious King hath won.
- 3 The Lord is coming! watch and pray!
So shalt thou hasten that glad day;
So shalt thou then escape the snare,
And Christ's eternal glory share.

ALL SAINTS. L. M.

WILLIAM KNAPP.

1. Star of our hope! he'll soon ap-pear, The last loud trump-et speaks him near;

Hall him, all saints, from pole to pole—How wel-come to the faith-ful soul!

301, 19, 624.

- 2 From heaven angelic voices sound :
Behold the Lord of glory crowned,
Arrayed in majesty divine,
And in his highest glories shine.
- 3 The grave yields up its precious trust,
Which long has slumbered in the dust,
Resplendent forms ascending, fair,
Now meet the Saviour in the air.
- 4 Descending with his azure throne,
He claims the kingdom for his own ;
The saints rejoice, they shout, they sing,
And hail him their triumphant King.
- 5 O joyful day, when he appears
With all his saints, to end their fears !
Our Lord will then his right obtain,
And in his kingdom ever reign.

Anon.

884

223, 375, 301.

- 1 THE Lord will come! but not the same
As once in lowly form he came—
A silent Lamb to slaughter led,
The bruised, the suffering, and the dead.
- 2 The Lord will come!—a dreadful form,
With wreath of flame and robe of storm,
On cherub wings and wings of wind,
Anointed Judge of human-kind.
- 3 Can this be He who wont to stray
A pilgrim on the world's highway ;
By power oppressed, and mocked by pride?
O God! is this the Crucified?

- 4 Ye men of earth, to mountains call ;
Bid ragged rocks upon you fall ;
Seek, in the cavern's gloomy maze,
A refuge from his piercing gaze.
- 5 But saints who here have waited long,
Now raise with joy the choral song,
Lo! this is he, our coming Lord,
He saves according to his word.

Reginald Heber.

885

212, 316, 914.

- 1 THE Lord is coming! glad and free
Proclaim the note of jubilee.
Arouse, ye nations, countless throng,
Ring out the tidings loud and long.
- 2 This earth, with her ten thousand wrongs,
Will soon be tuned to nobler songs ;
Our praise shall then, in realms of light,
With all his universe unite.
- 3 The Lord is coming! herald, cry ;
For our redemption draweth nigh :
The great glad day of sin's eclipse
Is trembling on heaven's finger-tips.
- 4 The trumpet sounds o'er land and sea,
And heaven rolls back the melody ;
The sleeping nations of the dead
Awake, and leave their earth-dark bed.
- 5 The Lord, our Saviour, Prince of heaven,
Descends 'mid clouds all thunder riven ;
Look up, ye saints, behold your King,
He comes deliverance to bring.

The terrors of that day,
When earth and heaven, before the Judge,
Astonished, shrink away!
- 3 But ere that trumpet shakes
The mansions of the dead,
Hark! from the gospel's cheering sound
What joyful tidings spread!

- 2 Jesus, thou source of all my joys,
Thou ruler of my heart,
How could I bear to hear thy voice
Pronounce the word, Depart!
- 3 What! to be banished from my Lord,
To rocks and mountains cry!
And yet to them must call in vain;
For who his wrath can fly?
- 4 O, wretched state of deep despair,
To see my God remove,
And fix my doleful station where
I cannot taste his love!

Isaac Watts.

- 1 THE angel comes,—he comes to reap
The harvest of the Lord;
O'er all the earth, with fatal sweep,
Wide waves his flaming sword.
- 2 And who are they in sheaves to bide
The fire of vengeance, bound?—
The tares, whose rank, luxuriant pride
Choked the fair crop around.
- 3 And who are they reserved in store,
God's treasure-house to fill?—
The wheat, a hundredfold that bore,
Amid surrounding ill.
- 4 O King of mercy! grant us power
Thy fiery wrath to flee;
In thy destroying angel's hour
O, gather us to thee!

Anon.

- 1 AND must I be to Judgment brought,
And answer in that day,
For every vain and idle thought,
And every word I say?
- 2 Yes; every secret of my heart
Shall shortly be made known,
And I receive my just desert
For all that I have done.
- 3 How careful, then, ought I to live,
With what religious fear;
Who such a strict account must give
For my behaviour here!
- 4 Thou awful Judge of quick and dead,
The watchful power bestow;
So shall I to my ways take heed,
In all I speak or do.

No more abuse his long delay
By carelessness and sin.
- 3 Then shall the Lord a refuge prove
For all his poor oppressed,
To save the people of his love,
And give the weary rest.

One precious hour—remain;
Rouse, then, my soul, with all thy power,
Nor let it pass in vain.

- 1 HARK the glad sound! the Saviour comes,
The Saviour promised long;
He comes to reign on David's throne;
Lift up your joyful song.
- 2 He comes, the prisoner to release,
In Satan's bondage held;
The gates of brass before him burst,
The iron fetters yield.
- 3 He comes to usher in the morn
With his celestial ray,
And on the eyes oppressed with night
To pour eternal day.
- 4 He comes, the broken heart to bind,
The wounded soul to cure,
And, with the treasures of his grace,
To bless the humble poor.
- 5 Our glad hosannas, Prince of peace,
Thy welcome shall proclaim,
And heaven's eternal arches ring
With thy beloved name.

Philip Doddridge.

- 1 As Jesus died, and rose again
Victorious from the dead;
So his disciples rise and reign
With their triumphant Head.
- 2 The time draws nigh, when from the clouds
Christ shall with shouts descend;
And the last trumpet's awful voice
The heavens and earth shall rend.
- 3 The saints of God, from death set free,
With joy shall mount on high;
The heavenly hosts, with praises loud,
Shall meet them in the sky.
- 4 Together to their Father's house
With joyful hearts they go;
And dwell forever with the Lord,
Beyond the reach of woe.

Isaac Watts.

- 1 EACH setting sun draws near the day
When, at Jehovah's word,
The heavens like smoke shall pass away,
Revealing Christ our Lord.
- 2 To speak our doom he will descend,
Beheld by every eye;
Life or destruction shall attend
Those Judgments from on high.
- 3 Then weigh thyself with anxious care,
And seek a throne of grace;
Thy soul his Spirit can prepare
To stand before his face.

S. Isadore Miner.

1. When thou, my right-eous Judge, shalt come, To call thy ransomed peo-ple home,

Shall I among them stand? Shall such a worthless worm as I, Who sometimes am afraid to die, Be found at thy right hand? Be found at thy right hand?

235, 658.

- 2 I love to meet among them now,
Before thy gracious throne to bow,
Though weakest of them all;
Nor can I bear the piercing thought,
To have my worthless name left out,
When thou for them shalt call?
- 3 Prevent, prevent it by thy grace!
Be thou, dear Lord, my hiding-place
In that expected day.
Thy pardoning voice, O let me hear,
To still each unbelieving fear,
Nor let me fall, I pray.
- 4 Let me among thy saints be found,
Whene'er the Archangel's trump shall sound,
To see thy smiling face;
Then joyfully thy praise I'll sing,
While heaven's resounding mansions ring
With shouts of endless grace.

Selina, Countess of Huntingdon.

- 1 THE night is spent; the morning ray
Comes ushering in the glorious day,
The promised time of rest.

Hark! 'tis the trumpet sounding clear,
Its joyful notes burst on the ear,
Proclaiming tidings blest.

- 2 Ah! see, the graves are opening now,
The saints come forth, and every brow
 Beams with a radiant joy;
To life immortal they arise,
Inheritors of Paradise,
 Where death cannot destroy.
- 3 Stupendous scene! those men of old,—
Prophets, who have the story told
 Of this transcendent day,
The patriarchs, apostles too,
Who lived and died with it in view,
 Come forth in bright array.

- 4 Now satisfied; for like their Lord,
Whose promise shines within the word,
His likeness they should wear;
A glittering host, like stars on high,
In glory and in majesty,
 Upon the earth appear!

2 The earth shall quake with fear,
The heavens shall flee away;
And where shall guilty man appear
In that tremendous day?
No refuge then is nigh,
No shelter from the blast;
The night of vengeance veils the sky
When mercy's day is past.

3 His eyes of living flame,
The wicked shall devour;
No tongue will lightly speak the name
Of Jesus in that hour.
No scorn, no words of hate
For his meek followers then;
But prayers and tears that come too late
Will mark earth's mighty men.

2 Christ shall come, ye saints, rejoice!
He'll come with thunders loud,
With the Archangel's mighty voice,
And with the trump of God.

3 First the dead in Christ shall rise;
Then we that yet remain
Shall be caught up into the skies,
And see our Lord again.

4 We shall meet him in the air;
And all his glory see;
We'll know, and love, and praise him there,
From death forever free.

5 Who can tell the happiness
This glorious hope affords?
Unuttered pleasure we possess
In these reviving words.

 Rises joyful to the skies;
 From above, beneath, around,
 Wake creation's harmonies:
 See Jehovah's banner furled,

 Now the kingdoms of this world
 Are the kingdoms of his Son.
- 3 He shall reign from pole to pole
 With supreme, unbounded sway;
 He shall reign, when, like a scroll,

 Righteous vengeance to fulfill,
 Recompense for good and ill,
 Adam's race from dust to call,
 Lo, He cometh, Judge of all!
 Adam's race from dust to call,
 Lo, He cometh, Judge of all.

 Rending rocks shall quake with fear,
 And the waking dead shall come
 From the silence of the tomb.

Shaken heavens and shattered earth
 Then shall rise to second birth.
 Shaken heavens and shattered earth

CHARIOT, 12s.

ARR. FROM J. WILLIAMS.

1. The char-iot! the char-iot! its wheels roll in fire, As the Lord com-eth down in the pomp of his ire;

Lo, self-mov-ing it drives on its path-way of cloud, And the heavens with the bur-den of God-head are bowed.

2 The glory! the glory! around him are poured
 Mighty hosts of the angels that wait on the Lord;
 And the glorified saints and the martyrs
 are there,
 Who in triumph their palm-wreaths of victory wear.

3 The Judgment! the Judgment! the thrones are all set,
 Where the Lamb and the angels and elders
 are met;
 There all flesh is at once in the sight of the Lord,
 And the doom of eternity hangs on his word.

4 O mercy! O mercy! look down from above,
 Great Creator, on us thy sad children, with love;
 When beneath to their darkness the wicked
 are driven,
 May we find a reward and a mansion in heaven.

2 The trumpet long sounding, with notes loud and shrill,
 The dead will awaken in valley and hill.
 The touch of the Master we all soon shall feel;
 He'll make us immortal, while glad anthems peal.

3 Away toward the city,—the city of gold,—
 We'll mount with the Master, in numbers untold.
 He'll deck every forehead with coronet
 bright,
 He'll robe each believer in garments of white.

4 Through heaven's high portals we'll enter
 at last,
 With shouts of rejoicing, our sorrows all past.
 Along the bright river,—the river of life,— We'll wander together, our souls free from strife.

5 With harps and with voices we'll join in the song
 Of Moses, the faithful, and Jesus, the strong,
 Then shout, O ye children, ye children of
 light,
 The Saviour is coming: he's almost in sight!

Henry H. Milman.

[Tune, Rest in Heaven, No. 512.] 11s.

1 THE Saviour is coming, O children of light!

JUDGMENT, P. M.

JOSEPH KLUG.

 { The Judge of man I see ap - pear On clouds of glory seat - ed: } graves re - store The dead which they contained before; Prepare, my soul, to meet him.

- 2 The dead in Christ shall first arise,
 At the last trumpet's sounding,—
 Caught up to meet him in the skies,
 With joy their Lord surrounding;
 No gloomy fears their souls dismay,
 His presence sheds eternal day
 On those prepared to meet him.
- 3 But sinners filled with guilty fears,
 Behold his wrath prevailing;
 For they shall rise, and find their tears
 And sighs are unavailing:
 The day of grace is past and gone;
 Trembling they stand before the throne,
 All unprepared to meet him.
- 4 Great God! what do I see and hear!
 The end of things created!
 The Judge of man I see appear
 On clouds of glory seated:
 Beneath his cross I view the day
 When heaven and earth shall pass away,
 And thus prepare to meet him.

William B. Collyer.

911

[Tune, Harwell, No. 132.] 8s & 7s. D.

- 1 Lo, he cometh! countless trumpets
 Christ's appearance usher in:
 'Midst ten thousand saints and angels
 See our Judge and Saviour shine:
 Hallelujah! hallelujah!
 Welcome, welcome, Lamb once slain.

- 2 Now the song of all the ransomed,
 "Worthy is the Lamb," resounds;
 Now resplendent shine his nail-prints
 Every eye shall see his wounds:
 Great his glory, great his glory!
 Every knee to him shall bow,
- 3 Every island, sea, and mountain,—
 Earth and heaven—flee away;
 All his enemies confounded
 Hear the trump proclaim his day:
 Come to judgment! come to judgment!
 Stand before the Son of man.
- 4 All who love him view his glory,
 In his bright, once-marrèd face:
 Jesus cometh; all his people
 Now their heads with gladness raise:
 Happy mourners! happy mourners!
 Lo, on clouds he comes, he comes!
- 5 See redemption, long expected,
 On that awful day appear;
 All his people, once despised,
 Joyful meet him in the air:
 Hallelujah! hallelujah!
 Saviour, now thy kingdom comes.

- 1 BLESSED are they henceforth that die
Reclining on the Saviour's breast;
They cease from every care and sigh,
From all their labors they have rest.

No more with anxious care oppressed:
They warred the conflict till life's close;
Their toil is o'er, they sweetly rest.
- 3 The living saints have yet to meet
And brave the tempter's utmost ire;
The grave will be a blest retreat
While earth is whelmed in troubles dire.
- 4 Thy righteous will be done, O God!
To meet the foe and overcome,
Or lay me down beneath the sod
To rest till thou shalt call me home.

Passed through the grave, and blessed
the bed:
Rest here, blest saint, till from his throne

1. Be - hold how sweet, how calm, how fair, The bro - ken bud that slum - bers there !
E'er it had bloomed on earth, to die, It died on earth to bloom on high.

923, 924.

2 Weep not as those who weep in vain,
Nor like the hopeless ones complain ;
Our frosted buds, our withered flowers,
Shall spring again in fairer bowers.

3 O blessed hope to mourners given—
The hope of union sweet in heaven !—
No more to part, no more to weep,
No more to sleep death's silent sleep.

4 Then let this hope our spirits cheer :
The promised morn will soon appear,—
The morn that sets the prisoners free,
The morning of eternity.

F. E. Belden.

919

914, 923.

1 THE morning flowers display their sweets,
And gay their silken leaves unfold,
As careless of the noontide heats,
As fearless of the evening cold.

2 Nipped by the wind's unkindly blast,
Parched by the sun's directer ray,
The momentary glories waste,
The short-lived beauties die away.

3 So blooms the human face divine
When youth its pride of beauty shows ;
Fairer than spring the colors shine,
And sweeter than the virgin rose.

4 Or worn by slowly rolling years,
Or broke by sickness in a day,
The fading glory disappears,
The short-lived beauties die away.

5 Yet these, new rising from the tomb,
With luster brighter far shall shine,
Revive with ever-during bloom,
Safe from diseases and decline.

6 Let sickness blast, let death devour,
If heaven but recompense our pains ;
Perish the grass, and fade the flower,
If firm the word of God remains.

Samuel Wesley, Jr.

1 HE sleeps in Jesus,—peaceful rest,—
No mortal strife invades his breast ;
No pain, nor sin, nor woe, nor care,
Can reach the silent slumberer there.

2 He lived, his Saviour to adore,
And meekly all his sufferings bore :
He loved, and all resigned to God ;
Nor murmured at his chastening rod.

3 Does earth attract thee here ? they cried ;
The dying Christian thus replied,
While pointing upward to the sky,
" My treasure is laid up on high."

4 He sleeps in Jesus—soon to rise,
When the last trump shall rend the skies ;
Then burst the fetters of the tomb,
To wake in full, immortal bloom.

5 He sleeps in Jesus—cease thy grief ;
Let this afford thee sweet relief—
That, freed from death's triumphant reign,
In heaven he will live again.

- 3 Cease, cease, ye vain, desponding fears!
When Christ, our Lord, from darkness
sprang,
Death, the last foe, was captive led,
And heaven with praise and wonder rang.
- 4 Faith sees the bright eternal doors
Unfold to make his children way;
They shall be clothed with endless life,
And shine in everlasting day.

DANIEL READ.

1. The liv - ing know that they must die, But all the dead un - con - scious lie;

Their powers of thought and sense are gone, A - like un - know - ing and un - known.

927, 932.

- 2 Their hatred and their love are lost,
Their envy buried in the dust;
They have no share in all that's done
Beneath the circuit of the sun.

928

924, 918.

- 1 As the sweet flower that scents the morn,
But withers in the rising day,
Thus lovely was this infant's dawn,
Thus swiftly fled its life away.
- 2 It died ere its expanding soul
Had ever burned with wrong desires,
Had ever spurned high Heaven's control,
Or ever quenched its sacred fires.
- 3 It died to sin, it died to cares,
But for a moment felt the rod:
O mourner, such the Lord declares,
Such are the children of our God.

- 3 Then what my thoughts design to do,
My hands must hasten to pursue;
Since no device, nor work is found,
Nor faith, nor hope, beneath the ground.

Anon.

1. Gent-ly, dear Sav-iour, now we bring The loved one death has called his own;
With all our griefs to thee we cling, For un-to thee our griefs are known.

924, 927.

- 2 Thy way is best; and though we weep,
We would not break this calm repose:
Thou givest thy beloved sleep,
And thou hast willed these eyes should close.
- 3 Blest be the grief that closer binds
Our mourning hearts, O Lord, to thee!
Blest be the faith,—in death that finds
A hope of immortality!
- 4 Thus dust to dust, and earth to earth,
And ashes cold we lay away
To wait that glad, immortal birth,—
The promised resurrection day.

F. E. Belden.

926, 932.

- 1 THOUGH love may weep with breaking heart,
There comes, O Christ, a day of thine!
There is a morning star must shine,
And all those shadows shall depart.
- 2 Though faith may droop and tremble here,
That day of light shall surely come;
His path will lead him safely home;
When twilight breaks, the dawn is near.
- 3 Though hope seem now to hope in vain,
And Death, seem king of all below,
There yet shall come the morning glow,
And wake our slumbers once again.

1. Like shad-ows glid-ing o'er the plain, Or clouds that roll suc-ces-sive on,
Man's bus-y gen-er-a-tions pass, And while we gaze, their forms are gone.

914, 926.

- 2 We live, we die: behold the sum
Of good or ill on life's fair page;
Alike in God's all-seeing eye,
The infant's day, the patriarch's age.

- 3 O Father, in whose mighty hand
The boundless years and ages lie,
Teach us thy boon of life to prize,
And use the moments as they fly.

1. How long shall Death, the ty-rant, reign, And tri-umph o'er the just?

How long the blood of mar-tyrs slain, Lie ming-led with the dust?

724, 937.

- 2 When shall the tedious night be gone?
When will our Lord appear?
Our fond desires would pray him down,
Our love embrace him here.
- 3 Let faith arise, and climb the hills,
And from afar descry
How distant are his chariot wheels,
And tell how fast they fly.
- 4 We hear the voice, "Ye dead, arise!"
And lo! the graves obey;
And waking saints, with joyful eyes,
Salute the expected day.

Isaac Watts.

- 2 The graves of all his saints he blest,
And softened every bed;
Where should the dying members rest,
But with their dying Head?
- 3 Thence he arose, ascending high,
And showed our feet the way:
Up to the Lord we all shall fly
At the great rising day.
- 4 Then let the last loud trumpet sound,
And bid our kindred rise:
Awake, ye nations under ground;
Ye saints, ascend the skies.

Isaac Watts.

934

647, 937.

- 1 JESUS made known the path of light,
Which righteous men shall tread;
He showed the way, the truth, the life,
In rising from the dead.
- 2 Then let these fleshly yearnings cease,
Let joy our hearts expand;
Death is to them a peaceful sleep
Who keep their Lord's command.
- 3 This sleeping dust ere long shall rise,
And these dead bones awake,
When Christ in glory rends the skies,
And all the kingdoms shake.

Anon.

935

943, 147.

- 1 WHY should we tremble to convey
The Christian to the tomb?
There once the flesh of Jesus lay,
And left a long perfume.

936

943, 179.

- 1 A LOVELY infant sleeps in death;—
How beautiful and fair!
Yes, even now, though void of breath,
God's impress still is there.
- 2 And if thus fair and lovely here,
Beneath death's icy hand,
O will it not be beautiful there,
'Mid the immortal band?
- 3 When Jesus bids it rise and live
With all the saints in light,
A glorious body then he'll give,
Resplendent to the sight!
- 4 Though nature weeps when lovely ties
So strongly bound are riven,
Yet faith the Saviour's words applies,
"Of such the realms of heaven!"

2 Yet faith may triumph o'er the grave,
And trample on the tombs;
My great Redeemer ever lives,
My God, my Saviour, comes.

3 The mighty conqueror shall appear,
High on a royal seat;
And death, the last of all our foes,
Lie vanquished at his feet.

4 Then shall I see thy lovely face
With strong, immortal eyes,
And feast upon thy wondrous grace
With pleasure and surprise.

Isaac Watts.

941, 944.

- 1 BEHOLD the western evening light!
It melts in deepening gloom;
So calmly Christians sink away,
Descending to the tomb.
- 2 The winds breathe low, the yellow leaf
Scarce whispers from the tree;
So gently flows the parting breath
When good men cease to be.
- 3 How mildly on the wandering cloud
The sunset beam is cast!
So sweet the memory left behind
When loved ones breathe their last.
- 4 And lo! above the dews of night
The vesper star appears;
So faith lights up the mourner's heart,
Whose eyes are dim with tears.

5 Night falls, but soon the morning light
Its glories shall restore;
And thus the eyes that sleep in death,
Shall wake to close no more.

William B. O. Peabody.

- 1 WHEN the last trumpet's awful voice
This rending earth shall shake,
When opening graves shall yield their charge,
And dust to life awake,—
- 2 Those bodies that corrupted fell,
Shall incorrupt arise,
And mortal forms shall spring to life
Immortal in the skies.
- 3 Behold, what heavenly prophets sung
Is now at last fulfilled;
And Death yields up his ancient reign,
And, vanquished, quits the field.
- 4 Let Faith exalt her joyful voice,
And now in triumph sing:—
O Grave, where is thy victory?
And where, O Death, thy sting?

For in bright hope she died.

SHAWMUT. S. M.

ARR. BY LOWELL MASON.

1. Rest for the toil - ing hand, Rest for the anx - ious brow,

Rest for the wea - ry, way-worn feet, Rest from all la - bor now.

236, 453.

- 2 Rest for the fevered brain,
Rest for the throbbing eye;
Thro' these parched lips of thine no more
Shall pass the moan or sigh.
- 3 Soon shall the trump of God
Give out the welcome sound
That shakes thy silent chamber walls,
And breaks the turf-sealed ground.
- 4 Ye dwellers in the dust.
Awake! come forth and sing;
Sharp has your frost of winter been,
But bright shall be your spring.
- 5 'T was sown in weakness here,
'T will then be raised in power;
That which was sown an earthly seed,
Shall rise a heavenly flower!

Horatius Bonar.

947

89, 949.

- 1 We know, by faith we know,
If this vile house of clay,
This tabernacle, sink below,
In ruinous decay—
- 2 We have a house above,
Not made with mortal hands;
And firm as our Redeemer's love
That heavenly fabric stands.
- 3 Full of immortal hope,
We urge the restless strife,
And hasten to be swallowed up
Of everlasting life.

- 4 Lord, let us put on thee
In perfect holiness,
And rise prepared thy face to see—
Thy bright, unclouded face.
- 5 Thy grace with glory crown,
Who hast the earnest given;
And then triumphantly come down,
And take us up to heaven.

Charles Wesley.

948

89, 732.

- 1 O, FOR the death of those
Who slumber in the Lord!
O, be like theirs my last repose,
Like theirs my last reward!
- 2 Their bodies in the ground
In silent hope may lie,
Till the last trumpet's joyful sound
Shall call them to the sky.
- 3 Then ransomed they will soar
On wings of faith and love.
To meet the Saviour they adore,
And reign with him above.
- 4 With us their names shall live
Through the remaining years,
Embalmed with all our hearts can give,
Our praises and our tears.
- 5 O, for the death of those
Who slumber in the Lord!
O, be like theirs my last repose,
Like theirs my last reward!

I weep with those that weep;
For I have felt death's chilling wave,

Comes to me o'er and o'er;

Nearer the throne where Jesus reigns,
Nearer the crystal sea.

Laying my burden down,
Leaving my cross of heavy grief,
Wearing my starry crown.

From earth-ly cares in sweet release, Thine eye-lids gently close, gent-ly close.

Clothes with green the smiling plain;
Onward as the seasons move,

Leaves and blossoms deck the grove;
And shall we forgotten lie,
Lost forever when we die?

Thou wilt all thy people save;
Ransomed by thy blood they rise,
Mounting victors to the skies.

There surely is some blessed clime

A whole eternity of love
Formed for the good alone:
O Saviour, hasten to appear!
Translate us to that happy sphere.

RESURRECTION. 8s & 7s. D.

S. C. HANCOCK.

1. We may sleep, but not forever, There will be a glorious dawn; We shall meet to part, no, never,

On the res-urrection morn. From the deepest caves of o - cean, From the desert and the plain,

Refrain.

From the valley and the mountain, Countless throngs shall rise again. We may sleep, but not forever,

There will be a glorious dawn; We shall meet to part, no, nev-er, On the res-urrection morn.

2 When we see a precious blossom
That we tended with such care
Rudely taken from our bosom,
How our aching hearts despair.
Round the silent grave we linger
Till the setting sun is low,
Feeling all our hopes have perished
With the flower we cherished so.

3 We may sleep, but not forever,
In the lone and silent grave;
Blessed be the Lord that taketh,
Blessed be the Lord that gave.
In the bright, eternal city,
Death can never, never come;
In his own good time he'll call us
From our rest to home, sweet home.

Mrs. M. A. Kædler.

For the turf is now her pillow,
And she sleeps among the dead;
While the cypress and the willow
Wave above her lowly bed.

2 With what grief and anguish riven
Should we see the loved depart,
If there were no promise given
Which could soothe the wounded heart!
If the chains with which death binds them
Ne'er again should broken be,
And his prison which confines them
Ne'er be burst to set them free!

3 But a glorious day is nearing,
Earth's long-wished-for jubilee,
When creation's King appearing,
Shall proclaim his people free;
When upborne on Love's bright pinion,
They shall shout from land and sea,
"Death, where is thy dark dominion!
Grave, where is thy victory!"

REPOSE, 6s & 5s; D.

1. Dust, receive thy kindred ! Earth take now thine own ! To thee this trust is ren - dered ; In thee this seed is sown.

Guard the pre - cious treasure. Ev - er - faith - ful tomb ! Keep it all un - rilled, Till the Mas - ter come.

2 Time's dark tide of sorrow
Breaks above thy head ;
And feet of restless millions
Shall o'er thy chambers tread ;
Earthquakes, whirlwinds, tempests,
Tear the quivering ground ;
Voices, trumpets, thunders,
Fill the air around !

3 But these sounds of terror
Pierce not thy low tomb,
Nor break the happy slumbers
Of death's dark, silent home.
Couch of tranquil slumber
For the weary brow ;
Rest of faint and toiling,
Take this loved one now.

1. { O what is life? 'tis like a flower That blos - soms and is gone ; }
{ It flour - ish - es its lit - tle hour, With all its beau - ty on ; }

Death comes, and, like a win - try day, It cuts the love - ly flower a - way.

2 O, what is life? 'Tis like the bow
That glistens in the sky :
We love to see its colors glow,
But while we look, they die :
Life fails as soon : to-day 'tis here ;
To-morrow it may disappear.

3 Lord, what is life? If spent with thee,
In humble praise and prayer,
How long or short our life may be
We feel no anxious care ;
Though life depart, our joys shall last
When life and all its joys are past.

Jane Taylor.

1. Dark is the hour when death prevails, And tri-umphs o'er the just,—A pain-ful void with-in the breast,

When dust goes back to dust; And sol-own is the pall, the bier, That bears them from our pres-ence here.

- 2 But there's a bright, a glorious hope,
That scatters death's dark gloom;
It cheers the saddened spirits up,
It gilds the Christian's tomb;
It brings the resurrection near,
When those we love shall re-appear.
- 3 Then mourn we not as those whose hopes
With fleeting life depart;
For we have heard a voice from heaven
To every stricken heart:
"Blest are the dead, forever blest,
Who from henceforth in Jesus rest."
- 4 With kind regard the Lord beholds
His saints when called to die,
And precious in his holy sight
Their sacred dust shall lie
Till all these storms of life are o'er,
And they shall rise to die no more.
- 5 A few more days, and we shall meet
The loved whose toil is o'er,
And plant with joy our bounding feet
On Canaan's radiant shore,
Where, free from all earth's cares and fears,
We'll part no more through endless years.

[Tune, Beloved, No. 134.] 11s & 8s.

- 1 If I in thy likeness, O Lord, may awake,
And shine, a pure image of thee,
Then I shall be satisfied, when I can break
The fetters of death, and be free.
- 2 I know this stained tablet must first be washed white,
To let thy bright features be drawn;
I know I must suffer the darkness of night,
To welcome the coming of dawn.
- 3 O, I shall be satisfied when I can cast
The shadow of nature all by,
When this dreary world from my vision is passed,
To live in an unclouded day.
- 4 I feel the blest morning begins to draw near,
When time's dreary fancy shall fade;
O, then in thy likeness may I but appear,
In glory and beauty arrayed!
- 5 When on thine own image in me thou hast smiled,
Within thy blest mansion, and when
The arms of my Father encircle his child,
O I shall be satisfied then!

DEATH AND RESURRECTION.

GONE TO THE GRAVE. 9s.

D. S. HAKES.

1. Friend and companion, dear to each heart; Tears naught a-vail us, now we must part.

Death's hand has plucked thee, pil-lowed thy head, Low-ly and life-less, fad-ed and dead.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 2 Now bending o'er thee, sadly we weep ;
While o'er our gladness lone shadows creep.
Dark, chilling shadows, bringing a gloom,
Telling of dear ones gone to the tomb. 3 Guarding thy slumbers, cypress shall wave,
Mournful and silent, over thy grave.
Angels their vigils watchful shall keep,
Waiting thy blissful waking from sleep. | 4 Ah, we must leave thee, silent in death ;
Fond hopes have vanished—flown with thy breath.
Joy turns to sadness, life seems but pain ;
O, shall we ever meet thee again ? 5 Yes, we shall meet thee on heaven's shore,
Where death and partings come nevermore :
There, will our Saviour dry every tear ;
Sorrowful mourner, be of good cheer. |

SWEET BE THY REST. P. M.

F. E. Belden.

D. S. HAKES.

1. Sweet be thy rest, And peace-ful thy sleeping; God's way is best, Thou art in his keep-ing. Blessed sleep Where ill's ne'er molest thee! Why should we weep? For heav-en hath blessed thee: Sweet be thy rest.

- | | |
|--|--|
| 2 Thy work is done,
Thy sowing and reaping;
Thy crown is won,
And hushed is thy weeping.
From tears and woes,
From earth's midnight dreary,
There is repose
Where none ever weary:
Sweet be thy rest. | 3 Sweet be thy rest ;
No more we may greet thee
'Till with the blest
In heaven we meet thee.
O union sweet
That death cannot sever !
There we shall meet,
Where sad tears fall never :
Sweet be thy rest. |

DEATH AND RESURRECTION.

971

SCOTLAND. 12s & 11s.

JOHN CLARKE.

1. Thou art gone to the grave, but we will not de-plore thee, Though sor-row and dark-ness en-com- pass the tomb: The Sav- iour has passed through its por- tals be- fore thee, The lamp of his love is thy guide through the gloom, The lamp of his love is thy guide through the gloom.

2 Thou art gone to the grave; we no longer behold thee,
Nor tread the rough path of the world by thy side;
The wide arms of mercy were spread to infold thee,
And sinners may hope, since the Sinless hath died.

3 Thou art gone to the grave, but 'twere wrong to deplore thee,
When God was thy ransom, thy guardian, and guide;
He gave thee, he took thee, and soon he'll restore thee,
Where death hath no sting, since the Saviour hath died.

Reginald Heber.

2 Softly within that peaceful resting-place
We lay their wearied limbs, and bid the clay
Press lightly on them till the night be past,
And the far east give note of coming day.
3 The day of re-appearing! how it speeds!
He who is true and faithful speaks the word:
Then shall we ever be with those we love;
Then shall we be forever with the Lord.
4 The shout is heard, the Archangel's voice goes forth;
The trumpet sounds, the dead awake and sing;
The living put on glory; one glad band,
They hasten up to meet their coming King.

972

[Tune, Eventide, No. 1121.] 10s.

1 THUS in the quiet joy of kindly trust,
We bid each parting saint a brief farewell;
Weeping, yet smiling, we commit their dust
To the safe keeping of the silent cell.

5 Short death and darkness! Endless life and light:
Short climbing; endless shining in yon sphere,
Where all is incorruptible and pure;—
The joy without the pain, the smile without the tear.

Horatius Bonar

1. The time is near when Zi-on's sons, With rapturous joy shall sing the song Fore-told by seers—anoointed ones: We have a cit - y great and strong, We have a cit - y great and strong.

223, 624, 136.

- 2 Open, ye gates! The glorious King Approaches with a holy throng; Open, ye gates! Saints, angels, sing On golden harps the victor's song!
- 3 O righteous nation! enter in, That kept the law of truth below, Enter the place, all free from sin, Where life's pure waters gently flow.
- 4 Within these walls shall they remain, Who trusted, mighty Lord! in thee: Death, their last enemy, is slain; They have a right to life's fair tree.

R. F. Cottrell.

974

79, 54, 336.

- 1 Lo! round the throne, a glorious band, The saints in countless myriads stand; Of every tongue redeemed to God, Arrayed in garments washed in blood.
- 2 Through tribulation great they came; They bore the cross, despised the shame; But now from all their labors rest In God's eternal glory blest.
- 3 They see the Saviour face to face; They sing the triumph of his grace; And day and night, with ceaseless praise, To him their loud hosannas raise.
- 4 O may we tread the sacred road That holy saints and martyrs trod, Wage to the end the glorious strife, And win, like them, a crown of life!

Mary L. Duncan.

975

1879 374, 424, 263
875, 307, 928.

- 1 THY kingdom come. Thus day by day We lift our hands to God and pray; But who has ever duly weighed The meaning of the words he said?
- 2 Thy kingdom come. O day of joy, When praise shall every tongue employ; When hate and strife and war shall cease, And man with man shall be at peace.
- 3 Jesus shall reign on Zion's hill, And all the earth with glory fill; His word shall Paradise restore, And sin and death afflict no more.
- 4 God's holy will shall then be done By all who live beneath the sun; For saints shall then as angels be, All changed to immortality.

Anon.

976

538, 932, 104.

- 1 GREAT God, whose universal sway All heaven reveres, all worlds obey, Now make the Saviour's glory known; Extend his power, exalt his throne.
- 2 Thy scepter well becomes his hands; Angels submit to his commands; His justice shall protect the poor, And pride and rage prevail no more.
- 3 With power he vindicates the just, And treats the oppressor in the dust; His righteous government shall last Till days, and years, and time be past.

ANDRE, L. M.

UNKNOWN.

212, 301, 347.

- 2 We've no abiding city here,
We seek a city out of sight;
Zion its name,—the Lord is there,—
It shines with everlasting light.
- 3 O sweet abode of peace and love,
Where pilgrims, freed from toil, are blest!
Had I the pinions of a dove,
I'd fly to thee, and be at rest.
- 4 But hush, my soul! nor dare repine;
The time my God appoints is best:
While here, to do his will be mine,
And his to fix my time of rest.

Thomas Kelly.

978

316, 301, 336.

- 1 THERE is a land mine eye hath seen
In visions of enraptured thought,
So bright, that all which spreads between
Is with its radiant glories fraught,—
- 2 A land upon whose blissful shore
There rests no shadow, falls no stain;
There those who meet shall part no more,
And those long parted meet again.
- 3 Its skies are not like earthly skies,
With varying hues of shade and light;
It hath no need of suns to rise
To dissipate the gloom of night;
- 4 There sweeps no desolating wind
Across that calm, serene abode;
The wanderer there a home may find
Within the paradise of God.

Gurdon Robins.

979

876, 624, 932.

- 1 WHEN God descends with men to dwell,
And all creation wakes anew,
What tongue can half the wonders tell?
What eye the dazzling glory view?
- 2 Zion, the desolate, again
Shall see her lands with roses bloom,
And Carmel's mount and Sharon's plain
Shall yield their spices and perfume;
- 3 Celestial streams shall gently flow,
The wilderness shall joyful be,
Lilies on parched grounds shall grow,
And gladness spring on every tree;
- 4 The weak be strong, the fearful bold,
The deaf shall hear, the dumb shall sing,
The lame shall walk, the blind behold,
And joy through all the earth shall ring;
- 5 The high and low shall meet in love,
All pride shall die, and meekness reign,—
When Christ descends from worlds above
To dwell with men on earth again.

Ballou.

980

301, 136, 914.

- 1 THERE is a fold whence none can stray,
And pastures clothed in living green,
Where sultry sun, or stormy day,
Or gloomy night is never seen.
- 2 Far up the everlasting hills
In God's own glorious light it lies;
His smile its vast dimension fills
With joy divine that never dies.

East.

1. Je - ru - salem, my happy home, O, how I long for thee! When will my sorrows have an end? Thy joys when shall I see?

794, 724, 114.

- 2 Thy walls are all of precious stone,
Most glorious to behold;
Thy gates are richly set with pearl,
Thy streets are paved with gold.
- 3 Thy garden and thy pleasant walks
My study long have been;
Such dazzling views, by human sight
Have never yet been seen.
- 4 Lord, help us by thy mighty grace
To keep in view the prize
Till thou dost come to take us home
To that blest paradise.

Anon.

982

1162, 201, 147.

- 1 Lo, what a glorious sight appears
To our believing eyes!
The earth and seas are passed away,
And the old rolling skies.
- 2 From the third heaven, where God resides,
That holy, happy place,
The New Jerusalem comes down,
Adorned with shining grace.
- 3 Attending angels shout for joy,
And the bright armies sing;
Ye saints, behold the sacred seat
Of your descending King!
- 4 The God of glory down to men
Removes his blest abode;
Men are the objects of his love,
And he their gracious God.
- 5 His own soft hand shall wipe the tears
From every weeping eye;
And pains, and groans, and griefs, and
fears,
And death itself, shall die.
- 6 How bright the vision! O, how long
Shall this glad hour delay?
Fly swifter round, ye wheels of time,
And bring the welcome day!

Isaac Watts.

983

399, 111, 1047.

- 1 ZION, the city of our God,
How glorious is the place!
The Saviour there has his abode,
And saints will see his face.
- 2 There all the fruits of glory grow,
And joys that never die;
And streams of grace and knowledge flow,
The soul to satisfy.
- 3 Come, set your faces Zionward,
The sacred road inquire,
And let the city of the Lord
Be henceforth your desire.
- 4 The gospel shines to give you light;
No longer, then, delay;
The Spirit waits to guide you right,
And Jesus is the way.
- 5 O Lord, regard thy people's prayer,
Thy promise now fulfill,
And young and old by grace prepare
To dwell on Zion's hill.

Anon.

984

114, 354, 179.

- 1 O WHAT hath Jesus bought for me!
Before my ravished eyes
Life's river all divine I see,
And trees of paradise.
- 2 I see immortal saints in light,
Who taste the pleasure there;
They all are robed in spotless white,
And conquering palms they bear.
- 3 O what are all my sufferings here,
If, Lord, thou count me meet
With that enraptured host to appear,
And worship at thy feet?
- 4 Give joy or grief, give ease or pain,
Take life or friends away;
But let me find them all again
In that eventful day!

Charles Wesley.

NO SORROW THERE, S. M.

E. W. DUNBAR.

1. There'll be no night in heaven,—In that blest world above; No anx-ious toil, no weary hours; For la-bor there is love.

Refr.—There'll be no sor-row there, There'll be no sorrow there, In heaven above, where all is love, There'll be no sor-row there.

- 89, 638, 736.
- 2 There'll be no grief in heaven;
For life is one glad day,
And tears are of those former things
Which all have passed away.
 - 3 There'll be no sin in heaven;
Behold that blessed throng,
All holy in their spotless robes,
All holy in their song.
 - 4 There'll be no death in heaven;
For they who gain that shore
Have won their immortality,
And they can die no more.

Fredrick D. Huntington.

986

732, 236, 762.

- 1 AND is there, Lord, a rest
For weary souls designed,
Where not a care shall stir the breast,
Or sorrow entrance find?
- 2 Is there a blissful home,
Where kindred minds shall meet,
And live, and love, nor ever roam
From that serene retreat?
- 3 My soul would thither tend,
While toilsome years are given;
Then let me, gracious God, ascend
To sweet repose in heaven!

SILVER STREET, S. M.

ISAAC SMITH.

1. O what a mighty change Shall Jesus' fol-lowers know, When e'er the happy plains they range, In-ca-pa-ble of woe!

- 310, 89, 762.
- 2 There all our griefs are passed;
There all our sorrows end;
We gain a peaceful rest at last,
With Jesus Christ, our Friend.
 - 3 No slightest touch of pain,
Nor sorrow's least alloy,
Can violate our rest, or stain
Our purity of joy.
 - 4 In that eternal day,
No clouds nor tempests rise;
There gushing tears are wiped away
Forever from our eyes.

Charles Wesley.

988

986, 380, 403.

- 1 BEYOND this gloomy night
Eternal beauties rise,
A land of love, a land of light,
Unseen by mortal eyes.
- 2 No cloud those regions know,
Realms ever bright and fair;
For sin, the source of mortal woe,
Can never enter there.
- 3 O may the prospect fire
Our hearts with ardent love,
Till wings of faith, and strong desire,
Bear every thought above.

1. There is a land of pure delight, Where saints immortal reign, In - fi - nite day ex - cludes the night, And pleas - ures ban - ish pain. There ev - er - last - ing spring a - bides And nev - er - wither - ing flowers, And but a lit - tle space divides This heavenly land from ours.

486, 686.

- 2 O could we make our doubts remove,
Those gloomy doubts that rise,
And see the Canaan that we love,
With unbeckoned eyes;
Could we but climb where Moses stood,
And view the landscape o'er,—
Not all this world's pretended good
Could ever charm us more.

Isaac Watts.

990

486, 450.

- 1 EYE hath not seen, ear hath not heard,
Nor sense nor reason known
What joys the Father hath prepared
For those that love his Son:
But the good Spirit of the Lord
Reveals a heaven to come;
The beams of glory in his word
Allure and guide us home.
- 2 Pure is the land the saints espy,
And all the region peace;
No wanton lips nor envious eye
Can see or taste the bliss.
Those holy gates forever bar
Pollution, sin, and shame;
None shall obtain admittance there
But followers of the Lamb.

Anon.

808, 460.

- 1 ON Jordan's stormy banks I stand,
And cast a wishful eye
To Canaan's fair and happy land,
Where my possessions lie.
O, the transporting, rapturous scene
That rises to my sight!
Sweet fields arrayed in living green,
And rivers of delight.
- 2 There, generous fruits that never fail,
On trees immortal, grow;
There rocks and hills and brooks and vale,
With milk and honey flow.
O'er all those wide, extended plains,
Shines one eternal day;
There Christ, the sun, forever reigns,
And scatters night away.
- 3 When shall I reach that happy place,
And be forever blest?
When shall I see my Father's face,
And in his kingdom rest?
Filled with delight, my raptured soul
Would here no longer stay;
Though Jordan's waves around me roll,
Fearless, I'd launch away.

Samuel Stennett.

1. There is a place of sacred rest, Far, far beyond the skies, Where beauty smiles e-ter-nal-ly, And pleas-ure nev-er dies;—My Fa-ther's house, my heavenly home,

Where many mansions stand, Prepared, by hands divine, for all Who seek the bet-ter land.

989, 486,

- 2 When tossed upon the waves of life,
With fear on every side,
When fiercely howls the gathering storm,
And foams the angry tide,
Beyond the storm, beyond the gloom,
Breaks forth the light of morn,
Bright beaming from my Father's house,
To cheer the soul forlorn.
- 3 In that pure home of tearless joy
Earth's parted friends shall meet,
With smiles of love that never fade,
And blessedness complete.
There, there adieus are sounds unknown;
Death frowns not on that scene,
But life and glorious beauty shine,
Untroubled and serene.

Anon.

High walls of precious gems and gold
Secure from every ill;
Unheard-of bliss and joys untold
Within its borders dwell.

- 2 There living waters ceaseless flow
From out the heavenly throne;
There fairest fruits perennial grow,
And want is never known.
Nor sun by day nor moon by night
This heavenly city needs,
But glory sheds a crystal light
That never wanes nor fades.

- 3 Nor sin nor sorrow cometh there,
Nor ever death nor pain,
In love abiding, free from care,
The saints forever reign.
Among the many mansions there,
O, is there one for me?
Dear Lord, an humble place prepare,
That I may dwell with thee.

- 1 THERE is a city, fair and bright,
That eye hath never seen,
Where ever dwelleth pure delight,
And heavenly praise serene.

 { The prom-ised good-ly land appears, Ar-rayed in nev-er-fad-ing green. } happy clime, Transporting bursts of song arise, And, rolling through the mists of time, Tell us of joy that nev-er dies.

518, 749.

- 2 As voyagers on the stormy deep
 Look for some bright and sunny bay
 Where winds and waves are hushed in sleep,
 And joy lights up the happy day,
 So o'er the tossing sea of years
 We glance the eye and stretch the hand
 Where, robed in fadeless light, appears
 The border of the shining land.
- 3 There angel hosts of glorious ones,
 With sinless hearts and stainless hands,
 Call us in glad and loving tones,
 And bid us welcome to their hands.

- Hark! how their harps and voices tell
 The glories of that radiant strand,
 And bid us breast the waves that swell
 Between us and the shining land.
- 4 Ear hath not heard, eye hath not seen,
 The glories of that home of song;
 Though stormy billows roll between,
 I go to join the angel throng.
 But of the joys beyond the tide,
 The welcomes on that golden strand,
 The best shall be from Him who died
 To bring me to the shining land.

H. L. Hastings

1. Whence came the armies of the sky, John saw in vision bright? Whence came their crowns, their robes, their palms, Too pure for mortal sight?

- Chor.—They looked like men in uniform, They looked like men of war; They all were clad in armor bright, And conquering palms they bore.
- 2 Were these tried soldiers of the cross
 Victorious in the fight?
 Were these the trophies they had won,
 Reserved in worlds of light?
 - 3 Once they were mourners here below,
 And poured out cries and tears;
 They wrestled hard, as we do now,
 With sins, and doubts, and fears.
 - 4 They saw the star of Bethlehem
 Arise in splendor bright;
 They followed long its guiding ray,
 Till beamed a clearer light.
 - 5 From desert waste, and cities full,
 From dungeons dark, they've come,
 And now they claim their mansion fair,
 They've found their long-sought home

What holy joys are there; What ra - di - ancy of glo - ry, What bliss beyond compare.

333, 357.

2 They stand, those halls of Zion,
All jubilant with song,
And bright with many an angel,
And all the martyr throng:
The Prince is ever in them,
The daylight is serene;
The pastures of the blessed
Are decked in glorious sheen.

3 There is the throne of David,
And there, from care released,
The song of them that triumph,
The shout of them that feast;
And they who, with their Leader,
Have conquered in the fight,
Forever and forever
Are clad in robes of white.

4 O sweet and blessed country,
The home of God's elect!
O sweet and blessed country,
That eager hearts expect!
Jesus, in mercy bring us

1 JERUSALEM the glorious,
The glory of the elect,
O dear and future vision
That eager hearts expect!
E'en now by faith I see thee,
E'en here thy walls discern;
To thee my thoughts are kindled,
And strive and pant and yearn.

2 Jerusalem the golden,
Thou hope of saints below,
In thee is all my glory,
In me is all my woe;
Jerusalem! exulting
On that securest shore,
I hope thee, wish thee, sing thee,
And love thee evermore.

3 O sweet and blessed country!
Shall I e'er see thy face?
O sweet and blessed country!
Shall I e'er win thy grace?
Exult, O dust and ashes!
The Lord shall be thy part;
His only, his forever,
Thou shalt be and thou art.

1. { There is a hap - py land, Far, far a - way, } O! how they sweetly sing,
 { Where saints in glo - rystand, Bright, bright as day. }

"Wor - thy is our Saviour King;" Loud let his prais - es ring, Praise, praise for aye.

2 Come to that happy land,
 Come, come away;
 Why will ye doubting stand?
 Why still delay?
 O! we shall happy be,
 From all sin and sorrow free;
 Lord, we shall live with thee,
 Blest, blest for aye.

3 Bright in that happy land
 Beams every eye;
 Kept by a Father's hand,
 Love cannot die;
 Then shall thy kingdom come,
 Saints shall have a glorious home;
 And, brighter than the sun,
 Reign, reign for aye.

1 THERE is a world to come,
 Blessed and pure;
 It is the Christian's home,
 Long to endure.
 O 'tis a world most bright,
 No more death, nor woe, nor night,
 Faith views it with delight,
 Knowing 'tis sure.

2 There Jesus Christ shall reign,
 All glorious King!
 There music's rapturous strain
 Ever will ring:

Saints, who in ages by,
 Suffered, and were called to die,
 There in sweet harmony,
 Anthems will sing.

3 O, 'twill be paradise,
 Eden restored;
 All beauteous in their eyes
 Who love the word:
 Wastes, that are now so drear,
 Like the rose shall blossom there,
 And be a garden fair,
 As saith the Lord.

4 There life's unfading tree
 Will bloom most fair,
 And immortality
 Its leaves shall bear;
 While a pure stream will flow,
 And a joy no mortals know
 Will to each soul bestow
 Who enters there.

5 O, that bright world to come!
 Tongue cannot tell
 How blessed is the home
 Where saints will dwell;
 Turn then from sin away,
 And the word of God obey,
 Then at the last great day,
 All will be well.

2 Far, far I am from my own happy shore,—
 I would go, I would go;—
 But yet my days of exile are not o'er:
 I would go, I would go.
 I would not stay though earth were mine;
 Though all its treasures for me shine,
 A captive here I still would pine:
 I would go, I would go.

3 Bright visions of that blissful land ap - pear,—
 There's my home, there's my home,—
 How long a pilgrim must I wander here?
 There's my home, there's my home.

O tell me that I soon shall be,
 With all the ransomed exiles, free,—
 In that blest land I long to see:
 There's my home, there's my home.

4 There is a land, a brighter land than this,— Joys are there, joys are there;—
 No pain or sorrow, sickness or distress,
 Reaches there, reaches there.
 Bright fields of pleasure greet the eye,
 And crystal streams that never dry;
 O give me wings! I now would fly,
 And be there, and be there.

HAIL TO THE BRIGHTNESS. 11s & 10s.

LOWELL MASON.

1. Hail to the brightness of Zion's glad morning! Joy to the lands that in darkness have lain!

Hushed be the accents of sorrow and mourning: Zi-on, in triumph, be-gins her mild reign.

866, 298.

2 Lo, in the desert, rich flowers are springing;
Streams ever copious are gliding along;
Loud, from the mountain-tops echoes are ringing;
Wastes rise in verdure, and mingle in song.

3 See, the dead risen from land and from ocean;
Praise to Jehovah, ascending on high;
Fallen are the engines of war and commotion,
Shouts of salvation are rending the sky.

Thomas Hastings.

DAUGHTER OF ZION. 11s. P.

UNKNOWN.
Fine.

1. Daughter of Zi-on, awake from thy sadness; Awake, for thy foes shall oppress thee no more.
D. C.—Daughter of Zi-on, awake from thy sadness; A-wake for thy foes shall oppress thee no more.

D. C. for Chorus.

Bright, o'er thy hills, dawns the day-star of gladness, A-rise, for the night of thy sorrow is o'er.

2 Strong were thy foes; but the arm that subdued them,
And scattered their legions, was mightier far;
They fled like the chaff from the scourge
that pursued them;
In vain were their steeds and their char-iots of war.

3 Daughter of Zion, the power that hath saved thee,
Extolled with the harp and the timbrel shall be:
Shout; for the foe is destroyed that enslaved thee,
The oppressor is vanquished, and Zion is free.

Fitzgerald's Col.

1. On the high cliffs of Jor-dan with pleas-ure I stand, And view in per-

spec-tive the fair prom-ised land,—The land where the ransomed with sing-ing shall come, And en-ter the king-dom pre-pared as their home.

512, 511.

2 'T is there all the nations redeemed by the Lamb,
In circles most lovely, his praises proclaim;
Through tempests, and sorrows, and perils,
they come,
To enter those mansions prepared as their home.

3 All over those peaceful and beautiful plains,
The Lord, our Redeemer, in righteousness reigns;
His scepter of empire he now doth assume,
And kindly doth welcome his followers
home.

4 How blest are those regions, the realms of repose,
Through which the fair river of life gently flows!—
The regions ambrosial, forever in bloom;—
God's own habitation, the saints' happy
home!

He whose word cannot be broken,
Formed thee for his own abode:
On the Rock of Ages founded,
What can shake thy sure repose?
With salvation's walls surrounded,
Thou mayest smile at all thy foes.

2 See! the streams of living waters,
Springing from eternal love,
Well supply thy sons and daughters,
And all fear of want remove:
Who can faint while such a river
Ever flows their thirst to assuage?—
Grace, which, like the Lord, the Giver,
Never fails from age to age.

3 Round each habitation hovering,
See the cloud and fire appear
For a glory and a covering,
Showing that the Lord is near!
Thus deriving from their banner
Light by night and shade by day,
Safe they feed upon the manna
Which he gives them when they pray.

1. GLORIOUS things of thee are spoken,
Zion, city of our God!

John Newton

1. O tell me of heaven, sweet heaven, The home of the pure and the blest, Where sor-row and sin can-not enter,

Where the wea-ry for-er shall rest. Let me hear of that heavenly cit-y, Where all is immortal and fair;

And I'll flee from all earthly enchantments, And earnestly long to be there, And earnest-ly long to be there.

2 Let others seek earthly possessions,
And lay up their treasures below ;
I have heard of a land that is better,
And to seek it with ardor I'll go.
I have heard of a world robed in glory,
And freed from temptation and care,
Where sickness and death may not enter,
And I long, O, I long to be there.

3 Ambition may spread her bright phantoms,
And whisper of honor and fame,
She may lure on her thousands to labor,
To win an illustrious name ;
Be this my ambition, to follow
The path my Redeemer has trod,
Be an heir of his heavenly kingdom,
And dwell in the city of God.

4 Though the way of the wicked may prosper,
And be sprinkled with flowers so gay,
Though wide be the path that they travel,
And pleasant and easy the way,

Though no troubles their pathway encompass,
Triumphant through life though they go,
I'll envy them not, for their journey
Ends only in sorrow and woe.

5 Let me enter the gate that is narrow,
The way that with danger is spread,
And though rugged and dark be my pathway,
One bright ray is over it shed ;
For I hear the sweet voice of my Saviour,
Saying, " Fear not, for I am thy God ;
I know thy temptations and trials,
For I the rough pathway have trod. "

6 Dear Saviour, thy promise is precious,
Thy guidance I evermore crave :
O help me to walk in thy footsteps,
And trust in thy power to save :
O give me a place in thy kingdom,
When life with its turmoil is o'er ;
Let me dwell with the King in his beauty,
And I ask, O, I ask for no more.

1. { We are going home: we've had visions bright Of that ho - ly land, that world of light, }
 { Where the long, dark night of time is past, And the morn of e - terni - ty come at last. }

There the wea - ry saints no more shall roam, But dwell in a sun - ny, peace - ful home,

Where the brow with ce - les - tial gems is crowned, And mansions fair with praise resound.

Refrain.

O that beau - ti - ful home! O that beau - ti - ful home!

- 2 We are going home: we soon shall be
 Where the skies are clear, and the soil is free;
 Where the victor's song floats o'er the plains,
 And the seraph's anthem blends with its strains;
 Where the sun rolls down a brilliant flood
 Of beams on a world that's fair and good,
 And the stars that dimmed at nature's doom
 Will sparkle and shine o'er the new earth's bloom;
- 3 Where the tears and sighs which here are given,
 Are exchanged for the gladsome songs of heaven;
 And the beauteous forms that sing and shine
 Are guarded well by a hand divine.

Love's banner pure and friendship's wand
 Are waving above that princely band;
 And the glory of God, like a molten sea,
 Bathes the immortal company.

- 4 'Mid the ransomed throng, 'mid the sea of
 bliss,
 'Mid the holy city's gorgeousness,
 'Mid the verdant plains, 'mid the angel's cheer,
 'Mid the flowers that never of winter hear,—
 Where the conqueror's song, that sounds afar,
 Is wafted on the balmy air,—
 'Mid the endless years, we then shall prove
 The matchless depths of a Saviour's love.

1. We have heard from the bright, the ho - ly land, We have heard and our hearts are glad;

For we were a lone - ly pil - grim band, And weary, and worn, and sad.

They tell us the saints have a dwell - ing there; - No longer are home - less ones;

And we know that the good - ly land is fair, Where life's pure riv - er runs.

- 2 They say green fields are waving there,
That never a blight shall know;
And the deserts wild are blooming fair,
And the roses of Sharon grow.
There are lovely birds in the bowers green,
Their songs are blithe and sweet;
And their warblings, gushing ever new,
The angels' harpings greet.
- 3 We have heard of the palms, the robes,
the crowns,
And the silvery band in white;
Of the city fair, with pearly gates,
All radiant with light.

- We have heard of the angels there, and saints,
With their harps of gold, how theysing:
Of the mount, with the fruitful tree of life,
Of the leaves that healing bring.
- 4 The King of that country, he is fair,
He's the joy and light of the place;
In his beauty we shall behold him there,
And bask in his smiling face.
We'll be there, we'll be there in a little while,
We'll join the pure and the blest;
We'll have the palm, the robe, the crown,
And forever be at rest.

1. How blest the sa - cred tie that binds In sweet commun - ion kin - dred minds!

How swift the heavenly course they run, Whose hearts, whose faith, whose hopes, are one!

- 2 To each the soul of each how dear!
What tender love! what holy fear!
How does the generous flame within
Refine from earth and cleanse from sin!
- 3 Their streaming eyes together flow
For human guilt and human woe;

- Their ardent prayers together rise,
Like mingling flames in sacrifice.

Where God reveals his shining face;
How high, how strong, their raptures swell
There's none but kindred souls can tell.

Each can his brother's failings hide,
And show a brother's love.
- 4 When love, in one delightful stream,

Who joins us by his grace ;
And bids us, each to each restored,
Together seek his face.

And gathered into one,
To our high calling's glorious hope
We hand in hand go on.
- 3 The gift which he on one bestows

In Jesus be so sweet,
What hight of rapture shall we know
When round his throne we meet!

- 1 CHURCH of the ever-living God,
The Father's gracious choice,
Amid the voices of this earth
How feeble is thy voice !
- 2 A little flock !—so called by Him
Who bought thee with his blood ;
A little flock, disowned of men,
But owned and loved of God.
- 3 Not many rich or noble ones,
Not many great or wise ;
They whom God makes his kings and priests
Are poor in human eyes.
- 4 But the chief Shepherd comes at length,
Their feeble days are o'er,
No more a handful in the earth,
A little flock no more.

- 5 No more a lily among thorns,
Weary and faint and few ;
But countless as the stars of heaven,
Or as the early dew.
- 6 Then entering the eternal halls
In robes of victory,
That mighty multitude shall keep
The joyous jubilee.

Horatius Bonar.

- 1 O, it is joy for those to meet
Whom one communion blends,
Council to hold in converse sweet,
And talk as Christian friends.
- 2 'Tis joy to think the angel train,
Who in heaven's temple shine,
To seek our earthly temples deign,
And in our anthems join.
- 3 But chief 'tis joy to think that He
To whom his church is dear,
Delights her gathered flock to see,
Her joint devotions hear.
- 4 Then who would choose to walk abroad,
While here such joys are given ?
"This is indeed the house of God,
And this the gate of heaven !"
- 5 And if on earth a scene like this
Our mortal love inspires,
'T will be more sweet to taste the bliss
Of heaven's pure desires.

- 2 I love thy church, O God!
Her walls before thee stand,
Dear as the apple of thine eye,
And graven on thy hand.
- 3 For her my tears shall fall,
For her my prayers ascend,
To her my cares and toils be given
Till toils and cares shall end.
- 4 Beyond my highest joy
I prize her heavenly ways,—
Her sweet communion, solemn vows,

To Zion shall be given
The brightest glories earth can yield,

Timothy Dwight.

- 1 BLEST be the tie that binds
Our hearts in Christian love!
The fellowship of kindred minds
Is like to that above.
- 2 Before our Father's throne
We pour our ardent prayers;
Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one,—
Our comforts, and our cares.
- 3 We share our mutual woes,
Our mutual burdens bear,
And often for each other flows
The sympathizing tear.

- 4 When we asunder part,
It gives us inward pain;
But we shall still be joined in heart,
And hope to meet again.
- 5 This glorious hope revives
Our courage by the way;
While each in expectation lives,
And longs to see the day.
- 6 From sorrow, toil, and pain,
And sin, we shall be free;
And perfect love and friendship reign
Through all eternity.

The Christian world o'erspread;
Gentile and Jew, and bond and free,

- 2 Among the saints on earth
Let mutual love be found,
Heirs of the same inheritance,
With mutual blessings crowned.
- 3 Thus will the church below

Our daily prayer shall be
That we may dwell before thee, Lord,
In love and unity.

Free from wrath and strife to live,
Far removing

2 Every human tie may perish,
Friend to friend unfaithful prove,
Mothers cease their own to cherish,
Heaven and earth at last remove;
But no changes
Can attend Jehovah's love.

1 COME, and let us sweetly join,
Christ to praise in hymns divine;
Give we all with one accord
Glory to our common Lord;
Hands, and hearts, and voices raise,
Sing as in the ancient days,
Antedate the joys above,
Celebrate the feast of love.

2 Strive we, in affection strive,
Let the purer flame revive,
Such as in the martyrs glowed,
Dying champions for their God:
We like them may live and love;
Called we are their joys to prove,
Saved with them from future wrath,
Partners of like precious faith.

3 Sing we, then, in Jesus' name,
Now as yesterday the same;
One in every time and place,
Full of love, and truth, and grace:
We for Christ, our Master, stand,
Lights in a benighted land;
We our dying Lord confess;
We are Jesus' witnesses.

Lowly, meek, in thought and word
Altogether like our Lord.

4 Let us for each other care,
Each the other's burden bear;
To thy Church the pattern give,
Show how true believers live.

5 Free from anger and from pride,

1 WHILE we walk with God in light,
God our hearts doth still unite;
Dearest fellowship we prove,
Fellowship in Jesus' love:

2 Sweetly each, with each combined,
In the bonds of duty joined,
Feels the cleansing blood applied,
Daily feels that Christ hath died.

3 Still, O Lord, our faith increase;
Cleansed from all unrighteousness;
Thee the unholy cannot see,
Make, O make us meet for thee;

4 Every vile affection kill,
Root out every seed of ill,
Utterly abolish sin,
Write thy law of love within.

5 Hence may all our actions flow,
Love the proof that Christ we know;
Mutual love the token be,

Earth can fill my soul no more,
Every idol I resign.
- 3 Tell me not of gain or loss,
Ease, enjoyment, pomp, and power ;
Welcome poverty and cross,
Shame, reproach, affliction's hour.
" Follow me ! " I know thy voice !
Jesus, Lord ! thy steps I see ;
Now I take thy yoke by choice,
Light thy burden now to me.

Doth aught on earth my wishes raise,
Or the world's pleasures, or its praise?
- 2 The love of Christ doth me constrain
To seek the wandering souls of men;
With cries, entreaties, tears, to save,—
To snatch them from the open grave.
- 3 For this let men revile my name;
No cross I shun, I fear no shame:
All hail, reproach, and welcome pain:
Only thy terrors, Lord, restrain.

Bid raging winds their fury cease,

Meet with the blood-bought throng, to fall,
And crown our Jesus—Lord of all!

1. Go, la-bor on, while yet 'tis day; The world's dark night is hastening on;

Speed, speed thy work,—cast sloth a-way! It is not thus that souls are won.

212, 301, 536.

- 2 Men die in darkness at your side
Without a hope to cheer the tomb:
Take up the torch and wave it wide—
The torch that lights time's thickest
gloom.
- 3 Toil on, faint not, keep watch, and pray!
Be wise the erring soul to win,
Go forth into the world's highway,
Compel the wanderer to come in.
- 4 Go, labor on: your hands are weak,
Your knees are faint, your soul cast down;
Yet falter not; the prize you seek
Is near,—a kingdom and a crown!
Horatius Bonar.

- 1 HOLD up thy light, O child of grace!
Be not afraid to let it shine
On all around, but rather fear
To hide this precious light divine.
- 2 Hold up thy light! Thou canst not tell,
However feeble be its ray,
But some poor soul may catch its beam,
And by it find the narrow way.
- 3 Hold up thy light with steady hand,
Though it be faint! Who does not know,
Where darkness reigns, how far and clear
Even a little light will show?
- 4 Hold up thy light! 'Tis God's command,
And till with thee time cease to roll,
His voice thou canst not disobey
But at the peril of thy soul.

- 1 Go, messenger of peace and love,
To people plunged in shades of night;
Like angels sent from fields above
Be thine to shed celestial light.
- 2 Go to the hungry, food impart;
To paths of peace the wanderer guide;
And lead the thirsty, panting heart
Where streams of living water glide.
- 3 O, faint not in the day of toil;
When harvest waits the reaper's hand,
Go gather in the glorious spoil,
And joyous in his presence stand.
- 4 Thy love a rich reward shall find
From Him who sits enthroned on high;
For they who turn the erring mind
Shall shine like stars above the sky.
Balfour.

- 1 O LORD, how full of sweet content
Our years of pilgrimage are spent!
Where'er we dwell, we dwell with thee,
At home, abroad, on land or sea.
- 2 To us remains nor place nor time:
Our country is in every clime:
We can be calm and free from care
On any shore, since God is there.
- 3 While place we seek, or place we shun,
The soul finds happiness in none;
But with our God to guide our way,
'Tis equal joy to go or stay.

Who bring sal - va - tion on their tongues, And words of peace re - veal!

810, 558, 236.

- 2 How charming is their voice,
So sweet the tidings are:
"Zion, behold thy Saviour King;
He reigns and triumphs here!"
- 3 How happy are our ears,
That hear the joyful sound
Which kings and prophets waited for,
And sought, but never found!
- 4 How blessed are our eyes,
That see this heavenly light;
Prophets and kings desired it long,
But died without the sight!
- 5 The watchmen join their voice,
And tuneful notes employ;
Jerusalem breaks forth in songs,
And deserts learn the joy.

- 1 AND though our bodies part,
To different climes afar,
Still ever joined as one in heart
The friends of Jesus are.
- 2 O let us still proceed
In Jesus' work below;
And, following our triumphant Head,
To further conquests go.
- 3 The vineyard of the Lord
Before his laborers lies,
And lo! we see the vast reward
Which waits us in the skies.

- 4 O that our heart and mind
May evermore ascend,
That haven of repose to find,
Where all our labors end;
- 5 Where all our toils are o'er,
Our suffering and our pain!
Who meet on that eternal shore
Shall never part again.

Where saints and angels meet!
There we shall see each other's face,
And all our brethren greet.

- 1 LORD of the harvest, hear
Thy needy servants' cry;
Answer our faith's effectual prayer,
And all our wants supply.
- 2 On thee we humbly wait;
Our wants are in thy view;
The harvest, truly, Lord, is great,
The laborers are few.
- 3 Convert and send forth more,

Their mission fully prove;
Thy universal grace proclaim,
Thine all redeeming love.

The counsels that we hear,
Till righteousness and holy joy
In all our hearts appear.

- 1 LABORERS of Christ, arise,
And gird you for the toil!
The dew of promise from the skies
Already cheers the soil.

Where mourning hearts deplore;
And where the sons of sorrow pine,
Dispense your hallowed store.

With prayer, your constant guest;
And wrap the Saviour's changeless love
A mantle round your breast.

And the blest gospel's saving health
Repay your arduous toil.

At eve hold not thy hand;
To doubt and fear give thou no heed,
Broadcast it o'er the land.

In verdure, beauty, strength,
The tender blade, the stalk, the ear,
And the full corn at length.
- 3 Thou canst not toil in vain:
Cold, heat, and moist, and dry,
Shall foster and mature the grain
For garner in the sky.

The day of God, shall come,
The angel reapers shall descend,
And heaven shout, "Harvest home!"

LIFE'S HARVEST. 7s & 6s. D.

ISAAC B. WOODBURY.

1. Ho! reap-ers of life's harvest, Why stand with rusty blade, Un - til the night draws round thee;
D. S.—The gold - en morn is passing,

Fine. And day begins to fade! Why stand ye i - dle, waiting For reap-ers more to come?
Why sit ye i - dle, dumb?

D. S.

833, 246.

- 2 Thrust in your sharpened sickle,
And gather in the grain;
The night is fast approaching,
And soon will come again.
The Master calls for reapers,
And shall he call in vain?
Shall sheaves lie there ungathered,
And waste upon the plain?
- 3 Come down from hill and mountain,
In morning's ruddy glow,
Nor wait until the dial
Points to the noon below;
And come with the strong sinew,
Nor faint in heat or cold;
And pause not till the evening
Draws round its wealth of gold.
- 4 Mount up the heights of wisdom,
And crush each error low;
Keep back no words of knowledge
That human hearts should know.
Be faithful to thy mission,
In service of thy Lord,
And soon a golden chaplet
Will be thy rich reward.

Isaac B. Woodbury.

1054

833, 367.

- 1 Ho! idlers in the vineyard,
Why wasting all the day?
The Master soon is coming
To bear the fruit away;

Then closed will be thy mission,
The harvest will be past
The summer quickly ended,
And lost thy soul at last.

- 2 Then rouse thee, idle gleaner;
Perform the work at hand;
Be earnest in thy duty,
And ready at command.
Fill well the place assigned thee,
Though hard may seem thy lot;
With Heaven's approbation,
Be every ill forgot.
- 3 Soon, on a cloud of glory,
Thy Saviour will appear,
All faces gather paleness,
And nations quake with fear.
O then thy name he'll honor,
And for thy service now,
A crown of fadeless glory
He'll place upon thy brow.

- 4 A mansion in the city
Whose glories far outshine
The sun in noon-day splendor,
Shall evermore be thine.
The jasper walls of heaven
Shall echo thy refrain,—
The anthem of redemption,
To Jesus that was slain.

When man's work is done.

By per. O. Dittson & Co.

2 Work, for the night is coming,
Work through the sunny noon;
Fill brightest hours with labor;
Rest comes sure and soon.
Give every flying minute
Something to keep in store;
Work, for the night is coming,
When man works no more.

3 Work, for the night is coming
Under the sunset skies;
While their bright tints are glowing,
Work, for daylight flies.
Work till the last beam fadeth,—
Fadeth to shine no more;
Work while the night is darkening,
When man's work is o'er.

3 Onward speed thy conquering flight,

1 FATHER, hear the prayer we offer!
Not for ease that prayer shall be,
But for strength that we may ever
Live our lives courageously.

2 Not forever by still waters
Would we idly, quiet stay,
But would smite the living fountains
From the rocks along our way.

3 Be our strength in hours of weakness,
In our wanderings, be our guide;
Through endeavor, hardship, danger,
Father, be thou at our side!

4 Ours to sow the seed in sorrow,
Thine to bid it spring and grow;
And the golden days of autumn
Will a precious harvest show.

1062 [Tune, Greenville, No. 844.] 8s & 7s. D.

1 LORD of glory! thou hast bought us,
With thy life-blood as the price,
Never grudging, for the lost ones,
That tremendous sacrifice;—
And, with that, hast freely given
Blessings, countless as the sand,
To the thoughtless and the evil,
With thine own unsparing hand.

2 Grant us hearts, dear Lord, to yield thee
Gladly, freely, of thine own;
With the sunshine of thy goodness,
Melt our thankless hearts of stone,
Till our cold and selfish natures,
Warmed by thee, at length believe
That more happy and more blessed
'T is to give than to receive.

3 Wondrous honor hast thou given
To our humblest charity,
In thine own mysterious sentence,—
"Ye have done it unto me!"
Give us faith to trust thee boldly,
Hope, to stay our souls on thee;
But, O,—best of all thy graces—
Give us thine own charity.

Bid them fight! on God relying;
Jesus comes to conquer all!
Lift the voice in notes of gladness,
Ring the shout along the sky,
Cease your tears, ye sons of sadness,
Sing! rejoice! your God is nigh.

3 Lift the voice like music blended
With heart-healing minstrelsy;

In the village, in the city,
Or wherever you may roam;
Pray that he will send the Spirit

And that in his soul's salvation
You may bear some humble part.

3 Brother, you may sing for Jesus;
O how precious is his love!
Praise him for his boundless blessings,
Ever coming from above;
Sing how Jesus died to save you,
How your sin and guilt he bore,
How his blood hath sealed your pardon,—
Sing for Jesus evermore.

1 BROTHER, you may work for Jesus;
God has given you a place
In some portion of his vineyard,

He has bidden you to labor,
And has promised a reward—
Even joy and life eternal
In the kingdom of your Lord.

4 Brother, you may live for Jesus,
Him who died that you might live;
O, then all your ransomed powers
To his service freely give;
Thus for Jesus you may labor,
And for Jesus sing and pray;
Consecrate your life to Jesus—
Love and serve him every day.

- 2 If you are too weak to journey
Up the mountain steep and high,
You can stand within the valley,
While the multitude go by;
You can chant in happy measure,
As they slowly pass along;
Though they may forget the singer,
They will not forget the song.

- 3 If you have not gold and silver
Ever ready to command,
If you cannot to'ard the needy
Reach an ever-open hand,
You can visit the afflicted,
O'er the erring you can weep,
You can be a true disciple
Sitting at the Saviour's feet.

- 4 If you cannot in the harvest
Garner up the richest sheaves,
Many a grain both ripe and golden
Oft some careless reaper leaves;
Go and glean among the briers,
Growing rank against the wall,
For it may be that the shadow
Hides the heaviest wheat of all.

1. Bu-ried be-neath the yielding wave The great Re-deem-er lies;

Faith views him in the watery grave, And thence beholds him rise.

- 2 Thus do these willing souls to-day
Their ardent zeal express,
And in the Lord's appointed way
Fulfill all righteousness.
- 3 With joy we in his footsteps tread,
And would his cause maintain;
Like him be numbered with the dead,
And with him rise and reign.
- 4 His presence oft revives our hearts,
And drives our fears away;
When he commands, and strength imparts,
We cheerfully obey.

- 1 WHILE in this sacred rite of thine
Ourselves we offer now,
Shine o'er the waters, Dove divine,
And seal the cheerful vow.
- 2 All glory be to Him whose life
For ours was freely given,
Who aids us in the spirit's strife,
And makes us meet for heaven.
- 3 To thee we gladly now resign
Our life and all our powers;
Accept us in this rite divine,
And bless these hallowed hours.
- 4 O may we die to earth and sin,
Beneath the mystic flood;
And when we rise, may we begin
To live anew for God.

- 1 LET plenteous grace descend on those
Who, hoping in thy word,
This day have solemnly declared
That Jesus is their Lord.
- 2 With cheerful feet may they advance,
And run the Christian race,
And, through the troubles of the way,
Find all-sufficient grace.
- 3 Lord, plant us all into thy death,
That we thy life may prove:
Partakers of thy cross beneath,
And of thy crown above.
- 4 Come, Holy Spirit, love divine,
Thy grace to us be given;
To a new life our souls incline,
A life for God and heaven.

We now devote to thee:
Let them thy covenant mercies share,
And thy salvation see.
- 2 In early days their hearts secure
From worldly snares, we pray;
And let them to the end endure
In every righteous way.
- 3 Grant us before them, Lord, to live
In holy faith and fear;
And then to heaven do thou receive,
And bring our children there.

- 1 PLANTED in Christ, the living Vine,
This day, with one accord,
Ourselves, with humble faith and joy,
We yield to thee, O Lord.

One inward life partake,
One be our heart, one heavenly hope
In every bosom wake.
- 3 In prayer, in effort, tears, and toils,
One wisdom be our guide;
Taught by one Spirit from above,
In thee may we abide.
- 4 Around this feeble, trusting band
Thy sheltering pinions spread,

1 CHRIST, who came my soul to save,
Entered Jordan's yielding wave,
Rose from out the crystal flood,
Owned and sealed the Son of God
By the Father's voice of love,
By the heaven-descending dove;
Saviour, Pattern, guide for me,
I, like him, baptized would be.

2 In the garden, o'er his soul
Sorrow's whelming waves did roll;
And on Calvary's cruel tree,
Jesus bowed in death for me.
I with him am crucified;
All my hope is—he hath died;
At his feet my place I take,
Bear the cross for his dear sake.

3 In the new-made tomb he lay,
Taking all its dread away;
Burst he through its rock-bound door,
Glorious now and evermore.
I with Christ would buried be
In this rite required of me,—
Rising from the mystic flood,
Living hence anew to God.

1 SALEM's bright King, Jesus by name,
In ancient time to Jordan came,
All righteousness to fill;
'Twas there the ancient Baptist stood,
Whose name was John, a man of God,
To do his Master's will.

2 Down in old Jordan's rolling stream
The Baptist led the holy Lamb,
And there did him baptize;
Jehovah saw his holy Son,
And was well pleased in what he'd done,
And owned him from the skies.

3 This is my Son, Jehovah cries;
On him, to rest, the Spirit flies;
O children, hear ye him!
Hark! 'tis his voice, behold he cries:
"Repent, believe, and be baptized,
And Christ will save from sin."

CHORUS.

I'll follow then my glorious Lord,
Whate'er the ties I sever;
He saves my soul, he's left his word
To guide me now and ever.

2 For me the cross and shame to bear,
Dear Saviour, thou wast willing;
Nor would I shrink thy yoke to wear,
All righteousness fulfilling.

3 Jesus, to thee I yield my all;
In thy kind arms infold me;
My heart is fixed,—no fears appall,
Thy gracious power shall hold me.

Now to walk the narrow road:
Saviour, guide us—
Guide us to the throne of God.

From the semblance of the grave:
We would follow

1 'Tis down into the water
Where we believers go,
To serve our Lord and Master
In righteous acts below;
We lay our mortal bodies
Beneath the yielding wave,
An emblem of the Saviour
When he lay in the grave.

2 The light of truth is spreading,
And shining now for thee;
And sweet its notes are sounding
To set the captive free;
And while this glorious message
Is spreading far around,
Some souls exposed to ruin,
Redeeming grace have found.

And trusts for life in One that died;
We hope for heavenly crowns above
From a Redeemer crucified.

- 3 Let the vain world pronounce it shame,

- 2 As still drew nigh that hour of dread,
 Wait his disciples pale and sad,
 When he, with love's compassion sweet,
 Knelt lowly down and washed their feet.
- 3 Draw near to us, O Lord, we pray;

 Here with thy saints 't is joy to meet,

- 1 WITH Jesus in our midst
We gather round the board ;
Though many, we are one in Christ,
One body in the Lord.
- 2 Our sins were laid on him
When bruised on Calvary ;
For us he died, and rose again,
A pledge of victory.

- 1 A PARTING hymn we sing,
Around thy table, Lord ;
Again our grateful tribute bring,
Our solemn vows record.

- 2 Here have we seen thy face,
And felt thy presence here ;
So may the savor of thy grace
In word and life appear.
- 3 The purchase of thy blood,
By sin no longer led,
The path our dear Redeemer trod
May we rejoicing tread.
- 4 In self-forgetting love
Be our communion shown,
Until we join the church above,
And know as we are known.

- 1 THERE is no work too humble
For Christian hands to do ;
There is no path too lowly
For our feet to pursue ;
Our blessed Lord and Master
Was servant unto all ;
None were too poor and needy
For him to heed their call.
- 2 If we are his disciples,
Called by his holy name,
A portion of his Spirit
We surely ought to claim.
And though the task be menial
Which he for us hath set,
His own divine example
We never should forget.
- 3 That he, the High and Holy,
Whose life-work was complete,
Should gird himself for labor,
And wash those humble feet !
And yet we shrink from duties
Which seem so far above
This deed of Christ-like meekness,
This tender proof of love !

 Hearken to our ardent prayer,

1. { Once in Je-ru-sa-lem of old Our Saviour washed their feet } With lowly attitude and mien To them he bowed the knee;
 { Who climbed with him Judea's hills, And roved its valleys sweet. }

D. C.— Thus showing how love's service blends With meek humility.

- 2 But far from that low path of grace
 His people since have trod,
 And erring feet have trampled down
 The ordinance of God.
 Come brothers, sisters, let us raise
 This long-forgotten rite;
 Bow each to each with humble minds,
 And walk in duty's light.

- 3 With holy kiss, with words of love,
 With hearts all kind and true,
 We'll banish thoughts of envious pride,
 As Jesus' friends should do.
 Dear Saviour help us keep more near
 The good old Bible ways;
 Head, hands, and feet we pray thee wash,
 That we may speak thy praise.

2 I am not worthy to be thought thy child,
Nor sit the last and lowest at thy board ;
Too long a wanderer, and too oft beguiled,
I only ask one reconciling word.

3 One word from thee, my Lord ! one smile,
one look,
And I could face the cold, rough world
again,
And with that treasure in my heart could brook
The wrath of Satan and the scorn of men.

4 I hear thy voice ; thou bidst me come and rest ;
I come, I kneel, I clasp thy pierc'd feet ;
Thou bidst me take my place, a welcome
guest,
Among thy saints, and of thy banquet eat.

1 HERE, O my Lord, I see thee face to face ;
Here would I touch and handle things unseen ;

Here grasp with firmer hand eternal grace,
And all my weariness upon thee lean.

2 Here would I feed upon the bread of God ;
Here drink with thee the royal wine of
heaven ;
Here would I lay aside each earthly load,
Here taste afresh the calm of sin forgiven.

3 Too soon we rise ; the symbols disappear ;
The feast, though not the love, is passed and gone ;

The bread and wine remove, but thou art here—
Nearer than ever—still my Shield and Sun.

4 Feast after feast thus comes and passes by ;
Yet, passing, points to the glad feast above,
Giving sweet foretastes of the festal joy,
The Lamb's great bridal feast of bliss and love.

2 "This is my blood, for sin's remission shed,"
He spake, and passed the cup of blessing

So let us drink, and, on life's fullness fed,
With heavenly joy each quickening pulse shall bound.

3 "The hour has come !" with us in peace sit down ;

Thine own we are, O love us to the end !
Serve us our banquet, ere the nights dark
frown
Vail from our sight the presence of our Friend.

4 Some will betray thee,— "Master, is it I ?"
Leaning upon thy love, we ask in fear,—
Ourselves mistrusting, earnestly we cry
To thee, the strong, for strength, when sin is near.

Which filled the bright courts where thy chosen ones bowed;
But come in that Spirit of glory and grace
Which beams on the soul and illumines the race.

Till faith bring the peace to the penitent

And love fill the air with the fragrance of heaven.

The bounds of the eternal hills,
And yet vouchsafes, in Christian lands,
To dwell in temples made with hands;

That shall adorn thy dwelling-place;
The beauty of the oak and pine,
The gold and silver, make them thine.

On earth establish thine abode?
Then look propitious from thy throne,
And take this temple for thy own.

Long may they echo with thy praise;
And thou, descending, fill the place
With choicest tokens of thy grace.
- 3 Here let the great Redeemer reign,
With all the graces of his train;
While power divine his word attends,
To conquer foes, and cheer his friends.

When God the nations shall survey,
May it before the world appear
That souls were born to glory here.

1. O bow thine ear, E - ter - nal One! On thee each heart a - dor - ing calls ;

To thee the fol - lowers of thy Son Have raised, and now devote, these walls.

223, 256, 932.

- 2 Here let thy holy days be kept ;
And be this place to worship given,
Like that bright spot where Jacob slept,
The house of God, the gate of heaven.
- 3 Here may thine honor dwell ; and here
As incense, let thy children's prayer,
From contrite hearts and lips sincere,
Rise on the still and holy air.
- 4 Here be thy praise devoutly sung,
Here let thy truth beam forth to save
As when of old thy Spirit hung
On wings of light o'er Jordan's wave.

- 1 THE perfect world by Adam trod
Was the first temple built by God ;
His fiat laid the corner-stone,
And raised its pillars one by one.
- 2 He hung its starry roof on high—
The broad expanse of azure sky ;
He spread its pavement, green and bright,
And curtained it with morning light.
- 3 The mountains in their places stood,
The sea, the sky, and all—"was good."
And when its first pure praises rang,
The "morning stars together sang."
- 4 Lord, 't is not ours to make the sea
And earth and sky a house for thee ;
But in thy sight our offering stands,—
An humbler temple, "made with hands."
Benjamin Beddome.

- 1 THIS stone to thee, in faith, we lay ;
This temple, Lord, to thee we raise ;
Thine eye be open night and day,
To guard this house of prayer and praise.
- 2 Within these walls let heavenly peace
And holy love and concord dwell ;
Here give the burdened conscience ease,
And here the wounded spirit heal.
- 3 But will, indeed, Jehovah deign
Here to abide, no transient guest ?
Here will our great Redeemer reign,
And here the Holy Spirit rest ?
- 4 Ne'er let thy glory hence depart ;
Yet choose not, Lord, this shrine alone ;
Come thou and dwell in every heart,—
In every bosom fix thy throne.
James Montgomery.

We build this earthly house for thee ;
O choose it for thy fixed abode,
And guard it long from error free.
- 2 When here, O Lord, we seek thy face,
And dying sinners pray to live,
Hear thou in heaven, thy dwelling-place ;
And when thou hearest, Lord, forgive.
- 3 When here thy messengers proclaim
The blessed gospel of thy Son,
Still, by the power of his great name,
Be mighty signs and wonders done.

From his lips in mournful strain; Glowing with sincere con-tri-tion, And with childlike, blest sub-mis-sion,
"Jesus, come,—O come to reign."

- 2 List again;—the low earth sigheth,
 And the blood of martyrs crieth
 From its bosom, where there lieth
 Millions upon millions slain :—
 "Lord, how long ere, thy word given,
 All the wicked shall be driven
 From the earth by bolts of heaven ?
 Jesus, come,—O come to reign."
- 3 Kingdoms now are reeling, falling ;
 Nations lie in woe appalling,
 On their sages vainly calling
 All these wonders to explain ;
 While the slain around are lying,
 God's own little flock are sighing,
 And in secret places crying,
 "Jesus, come,—O come to reign."

- 4 Here the wicked live securely,
 Of to-morrow boasting surely,
 While from those who're walking purely,
 They extort dishonest gain :
 Yea, the meek are burdened, driven ;
 Want and care to them are given ;
 But they lift the cry to heaven,
 "Jesus, come,—O come to reign."
- 5 Christian, cheer thee; land is nearing ;
 Still be hopeful, nothing fearing ;
 Soon, in majesty appearing,
 You'll behold the Lamb once slain :
 O how joyful then to hear him,
 While all nations shall revere him,
 Saying to his flock who fear him,
 "I have come—on earth to reign!"

2 The summer sun was shining,
The sweat was on his brow,
His garments worn and dusty,
His step seemed very slow;
But he kept pressing onward,
For he was wending home;
Still shouting as he journeyed,
Deliverance will come.

3 The songsters in the arbor
That stood beside the way
Attracted his attention,
Inviting his delay;
His watchword being "Onward!"
He stopped his ears, and ran,
Still shouting as he journeyed,
Deliverance will come.

4 I saw him in the evening,
The sun was bending low;
He'd overtopped the mountain,
And reached the vale below;
His eyes were dim and heavy,
His journey, it was done;
He shouted, as it ended,
Deliverance will come!

5 They closed the blinds around him,
And locked him up alone,
That nothing might disturb him
Till his best Friend should come.
Hope made for him a pillow,
And faith, a garment rare,
To keep him in his slumbers
Till Jesus should appear.

6 At length the trumpet sounded,
The shadows fled away,
The gilded rays of glory
Proclaimed the coming day;
Then when the light of morning
Broke in his little room,
He rose, and cried, Hosanna!
Deliverance has come!

7 I heard the song of triumph
He sang upon that shore,
Saying, Jesus has redeemed me,
I'll suffer now no more;
And casting his eyes backward
On the race that he had run,
He raised the loud hosanna,
Deliverance has come!

- 2 I asked the warrior on the field :
 This was his soul-inspiring song :
 "With courage, bold, the sword I'll wield,
 The battle is not long.
 Then weep no more, but well endure
 The conflict, till thy work is done ;
 For this we know, the prize is sure,
 When victory is won."
- 3 I asked again : earth, sea, and sun
 Seemed, with one voice, to make reply :
 "Time's wasting sands are nearly run,
 Eternity is nigh.
 Then weep no more—with warning tones,
 Portentous signs are thickening round,
 The whole creation, waiting, groans,
 To hear the trumpet sound."
- 4 Not far from home ! O blessed thought !
 The traveler's lonely heart to cheer ;
 Which oft a healing balm has brought,
 And dried the mourner's tear.
 Then weep no more, since we shall meet
 Where weary footsteps never roam—
 Our trials past, our joys complete,
 Safe in our Father's home.

- 1 A THRILLING cry—we hear the sound ;
 The faithful watchmen lift their voice ;
 From land to land the world around—
 It bids the saints rejoice :
 Ye pilgrims, rise, break forth and sing
 The glorious coming of your King ;
 The thrilling cry—we hear it sound,
 "Prepare to meet your Lord."
- 2 Blow, watchmen, blow the certain sound,
 For dark and dangerous is the night ;
 And daring scoffers gather round—
 The evil servants smite.
 Ye faithful ones the strict watch keep,
 With lamps well trimmed, and do not sleep—
 The thrilling cry, we hear it sound,
 "Prepare to meet your Lord."
- 3 In earth's dark hour God's word gives light,
 Its rays dispel the thickening gloom ;
 The path to glory now is bright—
 The Bridegroom soon will come.
 Then lift your voices, saints, and sing
 Your sweetest strains, to Zion's King—
 The thrilling cry—we hear it sound,
 "Prepare to meet your Lord."

SAVIOUR COME.

ARRANGED.

1. { 'Twas a dole-ful night on Cal-vary's hight, When the Lamb of God was slain; } rose from the tomb a-gain.
 { But hope's cheering rays shone bright o'er the day When he (omit.) . . . }

O Je-sus, my Saviour! dear Saviour, come! Our hearts weary grow of thy long delay; O hast-en to gather us home.

- 2 I go, he said, to prepare a place,
 Blest mansions in glory's domain;
 And the promise sure, sweetly fell from his lips,
 "For you I'll return again."
- 3 How long, O Lord, shall we watch and weep
 For the rightful heir to reign?
 And the myriad saints in silence sleep,
 Who wait thy return again?
- 4 See the signs fulfilled of his advent near!
 Soon he comes in his kingdom to reign!
 Not long will the wheels of his chariot stay,
 That brings his return again.
- 5 The soul once bowed 'neath its burden of woe
 Shall rejoice o'er the flowery plain,
 And a dazzling crown deck the careworn brow,
 When the King in his beauty shall reign!

Annie R. Smith.

1153

- 1 Lo! the time hastens on, soon the morning
 will dawn,
 When the King shall in glory descend:
 We expect soon to join the bright, holy throng,
 In the kingdom that never shall end.
- CHORUS.
 O Saviour! dear Saviour! O Saviour, come!
 Here we mourn and we sigh,
 And we daily cry,
 "Come and gather the faithful home."
- 2 All the prophets of old saw a beautiful world,
 And they looked for the same with delight;
 And apostles have told of a city of gold,
 Where the Lamb is its glorious light.
 - 3 O we long to be there, where no sorrow or care
 Can disturb that sweet, heavenly rest;
 And we hope soon to share in those beauties
 so rare
 In reserve for the good and the blest.

 And earnestly longing I stretch forth my hand;
 Send a convoy of angels, dear Jesus, I pray!
 Let me join that sweet music; come, take me
 away.
- 3 Though dark are the waters and rough is the wave,
 If Jesus permit, the wild surges I'll brave;
 For that heavenly music hath ravished me so,
 I must join in the chorus! I'll go! let me go.

- 3 The first bold apostate will tempt you to stay
 And tell you that lions are found in the way;
 He means to deceive you, escape for thy life!
 And not look behind thee; remember Lot's gulled!

 With specious temptations how many defiled!

- O be not deluded, escape for thy life!
 And look not behind thee; remember Lot's
 wife.
- 5 The ways of religion true pleasure afford,
 No pleasures can equal the joys of the Lord;
 Forsake then the world and escape for thy life,
 And look not behind thee; remember Lot's
 wife.

DROOPING SOULS.

ARRANGED.

1. Drooping souls, no long-er griere; Heaven is pro-pi-tious. If on Christ you do believe, You will find him precious.

Je-sus now is pass-ing by, Calls the wanderers to him; Drooping souls, you need not die, Now look up and view him.

- 2 From his hands, his feet, his side,
 Runs a healing fountain;
 See the consolation tide,
 Boundless as the ocean.
 See the living waters move
 For the sick and dying;
 Now resolve to gain his love,
 Or to perish trying.

- 3 Grace he offers full and free,
 Drooping souls to gladden;
 Hear him say, "Come unto me,
 Weary, heavy laden:"
 Though your sins like mountains high,
 Rise and reach to heaven,
 Soon as you on him rely,
 All shall be forgiven.

- 2 O for thy fragrant flowers
That bloom through all the year!
O for thy rosy bowers,
The wilderness to cheer!
To thee we shall return,
And to Mount Zion come;
With songs sing joyfully,
And shout the "harvest home,"—
Awake the harp and lute,
In praises to the King
Who reigns on David's throne,—
To him hosannas bring.

- 3 Jesus shall ever reign,
When his bright kingdom comes;
The sun shall be ashamed
Before his dazzling thrones.
The moon, confounded, then
Shall hide her silver ray,
And saints of every age
Rejoice in glorious day.
O exiled Paradise,
O how I long for thee!
Robe thou anew the earth,
Bring back life's healing tree.

HAIL, HAPPY DAY!

ARRANGED.

1. O hail, hap-py day, that speaks our trials end - ed ; Our Lord has come to take us home, — O hail, hap - py day ! No more by doubts or fears distressed, We now shall gain our promised rest, And be for - ev - er blest ; O hail, hap - py day !

2 Swell loud the glad note, our bondage now is over,
The jubilee proclaims us free, —
O hail, happy day !
The day that brings a sweet release,
That crowns our Jesus Prince of peace,
And bids our sorrows cease ; —
O hail, happy day !

2 Awake ye ! awake ! no time now for reposing ;
The Lord is near ! breaks on the ear, —
O come, come away !
Come, come where Jesus' love will be,
Who says, I meet with two or three ;
Sweet promise made to thee !
O come, come away !

3 O hail, happy day, that ends our tears and sorrows,
That brings us joy without alloy, —
O hail, happy day !
There peace shall wave her scepter high,
And love's fair banner greet the eye,
Proclaiming victory ; —
O hail, happy day !

3 With joy I accept the gracious invitation,
My heart exults with rapturous hope, —
O come, come away !
When Jesus comes, O may we meet
A happy throng at his dear feet ;
Our joy will be complete,
O come, come away !

4 We hail thy bright beams, O morn of Zion's glory,
Thy blessed light breaks on our sight, —
O hail, happy day !
Fair Beulah's fields before us rise,
And sweetly burst upon our eyes
The joys of Paradise ; —
O hail, happy day !

4 Come where sacred song the pilgrim's heart is cheering,
Come, and learn there the power of prayer,
O come, come away !
In sweetest notes of sympathy
We praise and pray in harmony ; —
Love makes our unity ; —
O come, come away !

5 Thrice hail, happy day, when earth shall smile in gladness,
And Eden bloom o'er nature's tomb, —
O hail, happy day !
Where life's pure waters gently glide,
Safe by the dear Redeemer's side,
Forever we'll abide ; —
O hail, happy day !

5 Night soon will be o'er, and endless day appearing ;
Away from home no more we roam, —
O come, come away !
And when the trump of God shall sound,
The saints no more by death are bound :
He owns our Jesus crowned ;
O come, come away !

Anon.

1 O, COME, come away ! for time's career is closing ;
Let worldly care henceforth forbear ; —
O, come, come away !
Come, come ! our holy joys renew,
Where love and heavenly friendship grew ;
The Spirit welcomes you ! —
O, come, come away.

6 O come, come away, my Saviour, in thy glory !
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, —
O come, come away !
O come, my Lord, thy right maintain,
And take thy throne, and on it reign :
Then earth shall bloom again !
O come, come away !

We shall have a joy - ful day, When the King of kings comes! Great Bab - y - lon is brok - en down,

And kingdoms once of great ro - nown, And saints now suf - f'ring wear the crown, When the King of kings comes.

2 When the trump of God calls,
When the last of foes falls,
We shall have a joyful day,
When the King of kings comes:
O, then the saints, raised from the dead,
Are with the living gatherèd,
And all made like their glorious Head,
When the King of kings comes.

3 When the foe's distress comes,
Then the church's "rest" comes:
We shall have a joyful day,
When the King of kings comes:
And then the new Jerusalem,
Surpassing all reports of fame,
Shines, worthy of its Maker's name,
When the King of kings comes.

4 When the world its course has run,
When the Judgment is begun;
We shall have a joyful day,—
When the King of kings comes;
To see the sons of God well known,
All spotless to their Father shown,
And Jesus all his brethren own,
When the King of kings comes.

5 When the conqueror's hour comes,
When he with great power comes,
We shall have a joyful day,—
When the King of kings comes;
To see all things by him restored,
And God himself alone adored
By all the saints, with one accord,
When the King of kings comes.

THE CROSS AND CROWN.

ARRANGED.

1. { Must Si-mon bear his cross a-lone, And all the world go free? } there's a cross for me.
 No! there's a cross for ev-ery one, And (omit.)

Yes, there's a cross on Calvary, Through which by faith the crown I see; To me 'tis par-don bringing: O, that's the cross for me, O, that's the cross for me, O, that's the cross for me.

2 How faithful does the Saviour prove
 To those who serve him here!
 They now may taste his perfect love,
 And joy to hail him near.
 Yes, perfect love will dry the tear,
 And cast out all tormenting fear
 Which round my heart is clinging:
 O, that's the love for me, etc.

3 We'll bear the consecrated cross
 Till from the cross we're free,
 And then go home to wear the crown;
 For there's a crown for me.
 Yes, there's a crown in heaven above,
 The purchase of my Saviour's love,
 For me at his appearing:
 O, that's the crown for me, etc.

TIME NOW IS CLOSING.

ARRANGED.

1. Time now is clos-ing; Je-sus will come: Signs are ful-fill-ing earth's pil-lars groan:

Hark! hear the trump-et calls "come home;"—See earth reel-ing to her fi-nal doom.

2 See slumbering millions rise from the earth;
 Christ calls his people from south, from north:
 "Come home, my people, time is no more;
 You've washed your robes white, your con-flicts now are o'er."

With all the faithful who've lived before,
 There I shall hail thee on that peaceful shore.

3 Hastening to see thee, my soul would rise
 To meet my Saviour in yonder skies;

4 O, there'll be glory, joy, peace, and love;
 Nothing to harm us in heaven above:
 O, let us be faithful, and we'll be blest,
 When Jesus calls us to eternal rest.

Am'm.

RESURRECTION MORNING.

ARRANGED.

1. In the resurrection morning we shall see the Saviour coming, And the sons of God a-shouting in the Kingdom of the Lord.

Chorus.

We shall rise, we shall rise, When the might-y trum-pet rends the a-x-ure skies;
hal-le-lu-jah! hal-le-lu-jah! we shall rise,

We shall rise, we shall rise, In the res-ur-rec-tion morn-ing we shall rise.
Yes the dead in Christ shall rise, all the dead in Christ shall rise,

- 2 We feel the advent glory; while the vision seems to tarry
We will comfort one another with the words of Holy Writ.
- 3 By faith we can discover that our warfare 'll soon be over,

- And we'll shortly hail each other, on fair Canaan's happy shore.
- 4 We will tell the pleasing story, when we meet our friends in glory,
And we'll keep ourselves all ready for to hail the Heavenly King.

COME AND REIGN.

Chorus ^{First} ARRANGED. ^{Anon.} Fine.

Chorus.

Come and reign; come and reign, Je-sus, quick-ly come; For now it fills my heart with joy To know I'm almost home.

1. Here I see the fall-ing tear, As pil-grim now I roam, An exile from my Father's house; But soon he'll call me home.

- CHO.—Come, and reign, &c.
- 2 Here I grieve the friends I love,
And they in turn grieve me;
But, O my Saviour! grant me grace,
That I may not grieve thee.
- CHO.—Come, and reign, &c.
- CHO.—Come, and reign, &c.
- 3 Here disease invades our frame,
We sicken, droop, and die;

- But there eternal youth shall bloom,
And bright shall beam each eye.
- CHO.—Come, and reign, &c.
- CHO.—Come, and reign, &c.
- 4 Here we meet and part again,
As far and near we roam;
But there we'll meet to part no more,
And sweetly rest at home.
- CHO.—Come, and reign, &c.

mer - cy there's room, And feel in the pres - ence of Je - sus at home. Home, home, sweet, sweet home;
 D. S.—Prepare me, dear Saviour, for heaven, my home.

1st. 2d. Fine. D. S.

2 Sweet bonds that unite all the children of peace!
 And thrice precious Jesus whose love cannot cease;
 Though oft from thy presence in sadness I long to behold thee in glory, at home.

3 I sigh from this body of sin to be free,
 Which hinders my joy and communion with thee;
 Though now my temptations like billows may foam,

All, all, will be peace, when I'm with thee at home.

4 While here in this valley of conflict I stay,
 O give me submission and strength as my day!
 In all my afflictions to thee would I come,
 Rejoicing in hope of my glorious home.

5 The days of my exile are passing away;
 The time is approaching when Jesus will say,
 "Well done, faithful servant, sit down on my throne,
 And dwell in my presence, forever at home."

Flow Gently Sweet
 AFTON. 11s. D.

ARRANGED.
2d.

1. { I would not live al - way, I ask not to stay Where storm after storm rises dark o'er the way; } dawn on us here
 The few la - rid morn ings that (omit.)

Are enough for life's woes, full enough for its cheer. I would not live alway; no; welcome the tomb, Since Je - sus has lain there, I dread not its gloom; There sweet be my rest till he bid me a - rise To hail him in triumph descending the skies.

2 Who, who would live always, away from his God,
 Away from yon heaven, that blissful abode,
 Where the rivers of pleasure flow o'er the bright plains,
 And the noontide of glory eternally reigns?

There saints of all ages in harmony meet;
 Their Saviour and brethren transported to greet;
 There anthems of rapture unceasingly roll,
 And the smile of the Lord is the feast of the soul!

WELCOME HOME.

ARRANGED.

1. See, brethren, see how the day rolls on, Quick-ly will the Sav-our come; Hark! hear the sound, "he will ap-pear,"

Chorus.

Sweet-ly fall up - on the ear. Then haste, let us work till the day - light is o'er, Our hearts fill'd with love as we row to the shore; Our earth-ly la - bor be - ing done, How sweet the Christian's welcome home! Home, home, home, the Christians' welcome home; Sweet, O sweet the Christian's welcome home, Welcome home, welcome home, Welcome home.

- 2 Lift up your heads, and rejoice in God; Shout his praises all abroad; Soon shall we hear the voice, "'T is done; Child, your Father calls; come home."
- 3 Come, sinners, come, let us all awake! And the Spirit's truths partake;

- Soon will appear, and O how bright! Prayer to praise and faith to sight.
- 4 Hail, brethren, hail! it's the new-born year; Michael's trump we soon shall hear, Then will the saints and angels sing, "Glory be to heaven's King." Anon.

WILL YOU MEET US?

SLAVE MELODY.

1. { Say, broth-ers, will you meet us? Say, broth-ers, will you meet us? } On Canaan's hap-py shore!

- 2 Say, sisters, will you meet us? Say, sisters, will you meet us? Say, sisters, will you meet us On Canaan's happy shore?
- 3 By the grace of God we'll meet you, By the grace of God we'll meet you, By the grace of God we'll meet you, On Canaan's happy shore.

- 4 That will be a happy meeting, That will be a happy meeting, That will be a happy meeting On Canaan's happy shore.
- 5 Jesus lives and reigns forever, Jesus lives and reigns forever, Jesus lives and reigns forever On Canaan's happy shore.

2 Then hail, blessed state (hail, ye songsters of glory!
 Ye harpers of bliss, soon I'll meet you above,
 And join your full choir in rehearsing the story,
 Salvation from sorrow, through Jesus' love.
 Though prisoned in earth, yet by anticipation,
 Already my soul feels a sweet prelibation
 Of joys that await me when freed from probation;
 My heart's now in heaven, the Eden of love.

Anon.

Upward to God be the heart's adoration,
 Where ever are flowing pure streams of salvation:
 Redemption is nearing! O seek preparation!
 Soon the King in his beauty for us will appear.

3 Be patient, be patient, a pilgrim and stranger,
 Though foes may assail, and the scoffing deride;
 Through toil and affliction, temptation and dan-ger,
 The saints must be purified, made white, and tried.
 Be humble, the spirit of meekness adorning,
 Be faithful, proclaiming the last notes of warning;
 Be watchful, to hail the glad dawn of that morning
 When the King in his beauty for us shall appear.

4 Be patient, be patient, a little while longer,
 And Jesus the kingdom to us will restore.
 Be cheerful, enduring, thy faith growing stronger,
 Till trials are passed, and thy conflicts are o'er.
 Be patient, the Lord all his saints will deliver,
 With love, peace, and joy, will surround them forever,
 Where naught shall e'er cloud, or their sweet union sever,
 With the King in his beauty they 'll reign ever-
 more.

Annie R. Smith.

ARRANGED.

1182

1 Be patient, be patient, no longer despairing,
 Though bright hope deferred fills with sorrow
 thy heart;
 Though bitter the cup thy soul has been sharing,
 Let not fond affections from Heaven depart.
 Not long will He tarry, in doubt here us leaving;
 He 'll come for his children who for him are griev-
 ing.
 Oh, wait for the promise of glory receiving,
 When the King in his beauty for us shall appear.

2 Be patient, be patient, the light shining o'er thee,
 Will guide through the shades that encompass
 the way:
 The Saviour has trod the rough pathway before thee;
 Let not sore afflictions and trials dismay.

Prayer for Healing DO BELIEVE. C. M.

1. Father, I stretch my hands to thee; No oth-er help I know; If thou withdraw thyself from me, Ah, whither shall I go?
 Cho.—I do believe, I now believe That Jesus died for me, And that he shed his precious blood From sin to set me free.

2 On thy dear Son I now believe,
 O let me feel thy power;
 And all my varied wants relieve,
 In this accepted hour.

3 Author of faith! to thee I lift
 My weary, longing eyes:
 O let me now receive that gift;
 My soul without it dies.

4 Surely thou canst not let me die;
 O speak, and I shall live;
 And here I will unwearied lie,
 Till thou thy Spirit give.

5 How would my fainting soul rejoice
 Could I but see thy face!
 Now let me bear thy quickening voice,
 And taste thy pardoning grace.

That flows through the paradise of God;
And he longs to wake from life's troubled dream,
To walk those golden streets abroad. 3 He is weary and sick of this world's rude strife,
And pants for a holy, peaceful clime;
To glow with the vigor of endless life,
And be compassed no more by the bounds of

He walks by faith through this vale of care,
And oft inquires, as he draws near home,
With anxious heart, "Are we almost there?" | 5 They bid him look at the charms of earth,
At the boasted trophies man doth rear;
To enter the giddy halls of mirth;—
But ah! how vain do they all appear! 6 For he's had an earnest of those joys
Which the righteous alone can ever share;
He turns with contempt from these earthly toys,
And fervently asks, "Are we almost there?" 7 He is waiting to hear the trumpet sound,

"Come over and help us;" will we refuse
To go o'er and help them, and Christ's welcome lose?
When he comes again to claim his own,
And gather them round his eternal throne.

"Here am I, dear Lord, send me, send me;

I ask for this only—grant that thy power
May abide with me ever, each day and each hour;
That some seeds of truth which my hand may sow,
An abundant harvest for thee may grow."

1. I would be, dear Sav-our, whol-ly thine; Teach me how, teach me how;
2. What is world-ly pleas-ure, wealth, or fame, With-out thee, with-out thee?
3. As I cast earth's transient joys be-hind, Come thou near, come thou near;

I would do thy will, O Lord, not mine; Help me, help me now.
I will leave them all for thy dear name, This my wealth shall be.
In thy pres-ence all in all I find, 'Tis my com-fort here.

REFRAIN.

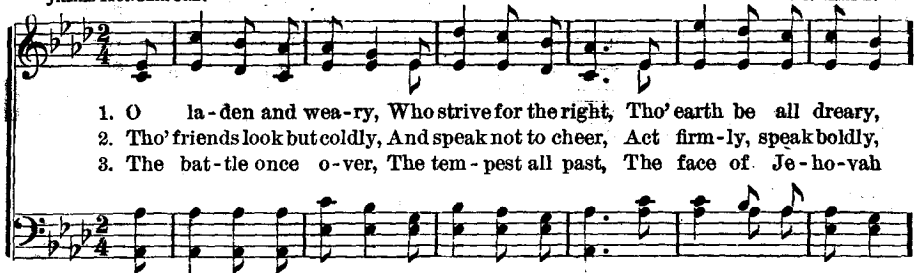

Whol-ly thine, O Lord, whol-ly thine, O Lord, Whol-ly thine, this is my vow;

Whol-ly thine, O Lord, whol-ly thine, O Lord, Whol-ly thine, O Lord, just now.

- 2 Other refuge have I none,
Hangs my helpless soul on thee ;
Leave, O leave me not alone !
Still support and comfort me ;
All my trust on thee is stayed,
All my help from thee I bring ;
Cover my defenseless head
With the shadow of thy wing.
- 3 Thou, O Christ, art all I want,
More than all in thee I find ;
Raise the fallen, cheer the faint,
Heal the sick, and lead the blind.

Just and holy is thy name,
I am all unrighteousness ;
Vile and full of sin I am,
Thou art full of truth and grace.

- 4 Plenteous grace with thee is found—
Grace to pardon all my sin ;
Let the healing streams abound,
Make and keep me pure within ;
Thou of life the Fountain art,
Freely let me take of thee ;
Spring thou up within my heart,
Rise to all eternity.

By frequent transgression their hearts had grown cold; They laughed his entreaties to scorn:
 The proph-et passed in from the on - com - ing flood, And left them to hope-less de-spair:
 The Ark of sal - va - tion is moored to your shore, O en - ter while yet there is room!
 Say not like those sin - ners of old, with a sneer, "All things shall continue the same."

Yet dai - ly he called them, "O come, sinners, come, Be - lieve, and pre-pare to em-bark!
 The flood-gates were opened, the del - uge came on, The heav - ens as midnight grew dark,
 The storm-cloud of Jus-tice rolls dark o - ver head, And when by its fu - ry you're tossed,
 The prophets have spoken; their words are unsealed; The judgment will short-ly be o'er;

Re - ceive the glad message, and know there is room For all who will come to the Ark."
 Too late, then they turned—ev'ry foothold was gone, They perished in sight of the Ark,

STAND BY THE LAW.

"The law of the Lord is perfect, converting the soul: the testimony of the Lord is sure, making wise the simple."—Ps. 19: 7.

"Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfill. For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled. Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven."—Matt. 5: 17-19.

"Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law."—1 John 3: 4.

"Wherefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good."—Rom. 7: 12.

"Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: yea, we establish the law."—Rom. 3: 31.

"It is time for thee, Lord, to work: for they have made void thy law."—Ps. 119: 126.

"Teaching for doctrines the commandments of men. For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men."—Mark 7: 7, 8.

"O Israel, thy prophets are like the foxes in the deserts. * * * They have seen vanity and lying divination, saying, The Lord saith: and the Lord hath not sent them: and they have made others to hope that they would confirm the word; * * * whereas ye say, The Lord saith it; albeit I have not spoken."—Eze. 13: 4-8.

"To the law and to the testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them."—Isa. 8: 20.

MUSIC—"HOLD TO THE HELM."

1 STAND by the law once proclaimed from Sinai;
 Some its teachings and its force deny:
 What says the Saviour? now hearken and obey,—
 "Not one jot or tittle shall pass away."

CHORUS:
 Stand by the law, stand by the law:
 Jesus the law did magnify;
 Stand by the law if you hope to enter heaven;
 The law proves us sinners; through Christ
 we're forgiven.

2 Ten are its precepts,—consider them again,—
 Love to God, and love to fellow-men:
 Your point to God and the duty that we owe,
 And etc., our relation to mortals show.

3 Since by the law we are sinners proved to be,
 Christ has died that we may all be free:
 Free from the death which the broken law
 demands,
 But not from obedience to its commands.

4 Now if the law was unknown till Sinai,
 All were righteous who before did die!
 And, if its precepts by Christ were done away,
 There lives not a sinner on earth to-day!

5 All yearly sabbaths, and offerings the same,
 Lost their meaning when the Saviour came;
 But kill the law, and the devil goes to heaven!
 No need of a Saviour, or sins forgiven!

F. E. Beiden.

These words (which appear by special request) were written during the speech of an Antinomian minister, when the subject of the law was being discussed publicly, and sung with good effect at the close of the meeting. Although the last stanza is a conclusion truthfully drawn from the arguments of those who endeavor to show that God's law is no longer binding, yet it is designed to be sung only on occasions when it will be most effectual to present the absurdity of the no-law theory, and it is hoped that no offense will be taken at the expressions of truth which these lines contain.

"For not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified."—Rom. 2:13.

1. O the beau-ti-ful hills where the saints will rest, When the Lord has made all things new;
 2. The cit-ties of yore that were reared in crime, And re-nowned by the praise of seers,
 3. We dream of rest on the beau-ti-ful hills, Where the trav'ler shall thirst no more;
 4. Our arms are weak, yet we would not fling To our feet this load of ours;

Where we shall for-get, in the smiles of God, The toils we have journeyed through.
 Went down in the tramp of old King Time, To sleep with his grey-haired years;
 And we hear the hum of a thousand rills That wan-der the green glens o'er.
 The winds of spring to the val-leys sing, And the turf re-plies with flowers,—

We have seen those hills in their brightness rise By the eye of faith be-low,
 But the beau-ti-ful hills rise bright and strong Thro' the smoke of old Time's red wars,
 We'll grasp the hands of the martyred ones, Who have braved the world's rude strife,
 And thus we learn on our win-try way That our Father rules as he wills;

And we've felt the thrill of im-mor-tal eyes In the night of our dark-est woe.
 As on that day when the first deep song Rolled up from the morn-ing stars.
 And shout with them o'er the vic'try gained, And the crown of im-mor-tal life.

O COME, LET US SING!

DR. BOYCE.

1. O come, let us sing un - to the Lord; Let us heartily rejoice in the Strength of our Sal - vation.
2. For the Lord is a great - God; And a great King a - bove all gods.
3. The sea is his, and he made it; And his hands pre - par-ed the dry - land.

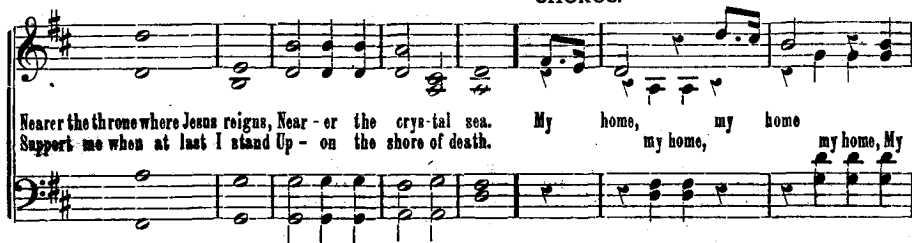

Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving, And show ourselves glad in him with psalms.
In his hand are all the corners of the earth; And the strength of the hills is his - also.
O come, let us worship and fall down, And kneel be - fore the Lord our Maker.

1. One sweetly solemn thought
Comes to me o'er and o'er; I'm nearer to my parting hour Than e'er I've been be- fore. Nearer my Father's house, Where many mansions be;

2. Nearer my going home,
Lay- ing my bur- den down, Leaving my cross of heavy grief, Wearing my star- ry crown. Father, perfect my trust, Strengthen my fee- ble faith;

CHORUS.

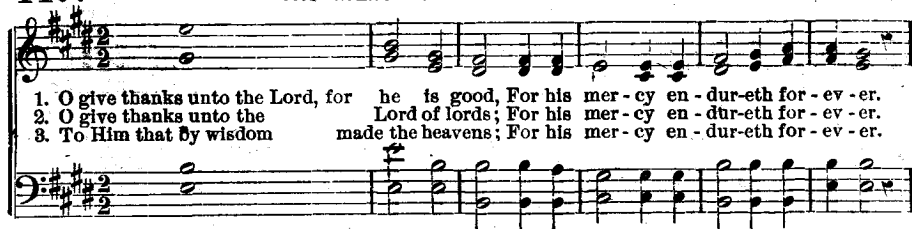

Nearer the throne where Jesus reigns, Near- er the crys- tal sea. My home, my home, my home Support me when at last I stand Up- on the shore of death. my home, my home, My bean- ti- ful heav- en- ly home, I am near- er my home to- day, Than ev- er I've been be- fore.

From "Anthem Treasures," by permission.

1. O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is good, For his mer- cy en- dur- eth for- ev- er.
2. O give thanks unto the Lord of lords; For his mer- cy en- dur- eth for- ev- er.
3. To Him that By wisdom made the heavens; For his mer- cy en- dur- eth for- ev- er.

O give thanks unto the God of gods; For his mer- cy en- dureth for- ev- er.
To him who alone doeth great wonders; For his mer- cy en- dureth for- ev- er. A- men.
To him that stretched out the earth above the waters; For his mercy en- dureth for- ev- er.

By permission.

Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the king - dom of heaven.
 Blessed are the meek: for they shall in - her - it the earth.
 Blessed are the merciful: for they shall oh - tain mer - cy.
 Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall he called God's children.
 Blessed are ye when men shall revile you and speak
 all manner of evil against you, false - ly for my sake.

Final.

Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.
 Blessed are they that do hunger and thirst for righteousness: for they shall be filled.
 Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God. A - men, A - men.
 Blessed are they which are persecuted for right - eous-ness' sake.
 Rejoice and be exceeding glad, your re-ward is in heaven.

BEYOND THE SMILING AND THE WEEPING.

W. A. TARBUTTON, by per.

1. Beyond the smiling and the weeping, I shall be soon; Beyond the waking and the sleeping, Beyond the sowing and the reaping, I shall be soon.

Refrain.

Love, rest and home! sweet home! Lord, tar - ry not, but come.

2 Beyond the blooming and the fading,
 I shall be soon;
 Beyond the shining and the shading,
 Beyond the hoping and the dreading,

| 2 The stranger's eye wept, that in life's brightest bloom,
 One gifted so highly should sink to the tomb:
 For in ardor he led in the van of the host,
 And he fell like a soldier, he died at his post. 3 He wept not, himself, that his warfare was done:
 The battle was fought, and the victory won;
 But he whispered of those whom his heart loved the most,
 "Tell my brethren for me, that I died at my post." | 4 He asked not a stone to be sculptured with verse;
 He asked not that fame should his merits rehearse;
 But he asked as a boon,—this he coveted most—
 That his brethren might know that he died at his post. 5 How can we the words of our brother forget?
 Oh, no! they are fresh in our memory yet:
 And example so sacred shall never be lost,
 We will fall in the work—we will die at our post.

| 2 Mournfully, tenderly, solemn and slow,
 Tears are bedewing the path as we go;
 Kindred and strangers are mourners to-day,
 Gently, so gently, O! bear her away. | 3 Mournfully, tenderly, gaze on that brow,
 Beautiful is it in quietude now:
 One look! and then settle the loved to her rest,
 The ocean beneath her, the turf on her breast. 4 So have ye buried her—up! and depart,
 To life and to duty with undismayed heart:
 Fear not—for the love of the stranger will keep,
 The casket that lies in the Rock of the deep. 5 Peace to thy bosom, thou servant of God!
 The vale thou art treading, before, thou hast trod:
 Precious dust thou hast laid by the Hopia tree,
 And treasure as precious in the Rock of the sea! |

Shall we gather at the river.	1362
Shall we meet beyond the.	1368
Shall we meet beyond.	1369, 1370
Shall we stand at His coming.	1343
She hath passed death's chilling.	953
Shepherd divine, thou leader.	746
Shout the glad tidings,	300
Show pity, Lord; O Lord,	484
Since all the varying scenes.	780
Sing of Jesus, sing forever.	181
Sing to the Lord, ye his.	1400
Sing to the Lord, our Might.	33
Sinner, art thou still secure.	411
Sinner, haste to mercy's gate.	407
Sinner, the call obey,	406
Sister, thou wast mild.	960
Sister, thou art sweetly.	931
Six days of toil and care,	367
Sleep not, soldier of the cross.	605
So fades the lovely, blooming.	932
Softly and tenderly Jesus is.	1232
Softly fades the twilight ray.	564
Softly now the light of day.	568
Soldiers in the holy strife,	606
Soldiers of Christ, arise,	602
Soldiers of the cross, arise.	1051
Soldiers of the cross, arise.	614
So let our lips and lives.	698
Sometimes a light surprises.	742
Son of God, thy people's shield,	329
Soon the evening shadows,	1297
Soon will the heavenly.	369
Sorrow and care may meet.	1375
Sorrowful mourner, silently.	1376
Sound an alarm, all ye.	1400
Sound, sound the truth abroad!	128
Sound the battle cry,	1379
Sowing in sadness through.	1259
Sowing in the morning,	1249
Sowing the seed by the daylight	1250
Sowing to death or life,	1267
Sow in the morn thy seed,	1045
Speak gently; it is better.	687
Speak often to each other,	492
Speed thy servants, Saviour,	1059
Spirit divine, attend our.	146
Spirit of life, and light, and.	148
Spirit of truth and love,	156
Stand by the law.	1302
Standing by a purpose true,	1385
Stand up, and bless the Lord,	31
Stand up, my soul! shake.	593
Stand up! stand up for Jesus.	611
Star of our hope! he'll soon.	883
Stall with thee, O my God!	369
Strait is the way, the door.	372
Submissive to thy will,	725
Sun of my soul, O Saviour.	542
